"All the News That's Fit to Print."

The New York Times.

THE WEATHER.
Fair to-day and probably Thursday; light northeasterly winds.

VOL. LVIII...NO. 18,855. * * * NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 8, 1909.—TWENTY PAGES. ONE CENT In Greater New York, Jersey City, and Newark / Elsewhere, TWO CENTS.

HARRIMAN RELAPSE DENIED BY DOCTOR

Report of a Second Within 48 Hours, with Patient at Danger Point, Contradicted.

NO NEW CHANGE FOR WORSE

All Sorts of Startling Rumors in Circulation, However, at Arden—One Had Him Dead—Stocks Weak.

Special to The New York Times.

ARDEN, N. Y., Wednesday, Sept. 8.—After a night of uncertainty a party of newspaper men early this morning succeeded in reaching the house of E. H. Harriman, and in talking with Dr. Lyle, his physician. Dr. Lyle said emphatically that there was no cause for alarm and that Mr. Harriman had had no new change for the worse.

Only a few hours before this it had been learned, on what seemed to be the best authority, that Mr. Harriman had suffered another relapse—the second in forty-eight hours—and that his life hung in the balance.

Two physicians and as many nurses, it was then said, were constantly at Mr. Harriman's bedside, and Dr. Lyle, who has so devotedly attended on Mr. Harriman since he was stricken, had not had his clothes off for twenty-four hours. There was a hope, however, that Mr. Harriman's great vitality and will power might pull him through.

There is a report that three additional physicians reached Arden this afternoon from New York. It originated in the fact that three professional-looking men arrived at Tuxedo station this afternoon on the New York train and were rushed in a waiting auto to the Harriman house. They refused to make known their identity or whether they were physicians or not.

The most definite news obtainable early in the day was a statement made by former Gov. Odell, who on his way through to New York this morning from Newburg, admitted that Mr. Harriman was "dangerously ill." Mr. Odell denied emphatically that he was at the Harriman home to-day. Another friend of Mr. Harriman here said later:

"Mr. Harriman is dangerously ill; Dr. Lyle admits it. He had one of his relapses on Sunday night, and at that time the family was very much alarmed. I believe, however, that the man's pluck and strong will power will result in his ultimate recovery. Acute indigestion often proves fatal to a person even in a strong physical condition. In the case of a man as weak as Mr. Harriman it is very difficult to avoid grave consequences.

Mr. Harriman Stricken Suddenly.

"Before Mr. Harriman made his trip to the Southwest last March he developed a difficulty at the point where the stomach enters the intestines. The physicians who have examined him have diagnosed this ailment as a peculiar form of indigestion which at times becomes very acute. The patient is often stricken suddenly and when he least expects it. Take Mr. Harriman's case. Just before he was stricken he was feeling better than at any time in his life. Such was the case on Sunday night, and the attack left Mr. Harriman in a much weaker condition. Since Monday he has shown signs of improvement, but he is in such a state as to require constant nursing and absolute rest. Just so soon as he can gather sufficient strength he will remove to Texas, where he is to be under the care of Dr. Amos Graves of San Antonio."

All efforts to get news from Tower Hill early to-day proved unsuccessful. In the morning Dr. William Gordon Lyle, the Harriman family physician, half promised over the telephone to issue a statement, but later in the day declined to do so. It is, however, believed that the statement given out in New York to-day was not without the knowledge of Dr. Lyle and Judge Robert Lovett, the latter of whom returned to Arden this afternoon after a brief visit to New York.

Tower Hill Well Picketed.

In the afternoon Roland Harriman, the younger son of Mr. Harriman, came down to the Arden Post Office for the mail. He was asked concerning his father's condition to-day and replied saying he did not know, as he had not been allowed to see him. Further than that the boy would not commit himself.

It is impossible to get near Tower Hill, as with the advent of the army of reporters the pickets have made their appearance again. All approaches to the Harriman home on the mountain top are well guarded. It is of interest to note that besides reporters Wall Street interests have men here watching the tide of events.

THE TIMES reporter called this afternoon on Mrs. Simons, Mr. Harriman's sister, who lives at the foot of the hill on which the Harriman home is. She refused to say anything.

It was learned to-day that Dr. Frank Billings, the Chicago specialist, who attended Marshall Field in his last illness, was called in consultation on Sunday evening. Whether he is still at Arden House or not could not be ascertained.

False Rumors of His Death.

Shortly before 10 o'clock to-night a report was circulated here that Mr. Harriman had died a little before 9 o'clock. The rumor caused great excitement in Turner. Arden house was communicated with on the telephone, but the operator refused to say whether Mr. Harriman was dead or alive. A few moments later he rang up the press room used by the reporters and said: "Dr. Lyle authorizes me to say that there is no truth in the report of Mr. Harriman's death."

Further questions he refused to answer, and all attempts to get into touch with Arden house resulted in nothing.

At Arden House late to-night, when Dr. Lyle's denial of the second relapse was issued, the view obtained by the reporters of the inside of the house seemed to bear it out. There was no

Continued on Page 5.

$27, CHICAGO & RETURN, Sept. 10 to 12. Lehigh Valley R. R., 1460, 355, 140 Broadway. —Adv.

"SEE THE NEW YORK TIMES."

Peary's Message to Two Friends Announcing His Discovery.

BURLINGTON, Vt., Sept. 7.—Charles H. Darling, Collector of Customs at this port, former Assistant Secretary of the Navy, and one who was much interested in the fitting out of one of Commander Peary's former expeditions, to-night received the following telegram from Commander Peary:

Indian Harbor, Sept. 6.
Judge C. H. Darling, Burlington, Vt.:
We own top of the earth. See NEW YORK TIMES. Regards to Mrs. Darling.
PEARY.

DALTON, Mass., Sept. 7.—Zenas Crane, one of the financial supporters of the present Peary expedition, to-day received the following telegram from the explorer:

Indian Harbor, via Cape Ray, Sept. 6.
Zenas Crane, Dalton, Mass.:
Thanks. Your assistance we have won the century's race of the nations for the pole. The pole is ours. See NEW YORK TIMES. Regards Mrs. Crane.
(Signed) PEARY.

Mr. Crane to-day had a talk over the telephone with Herbert L. Bridgman, Secretary of the Peary Arctic Club, in New York, during which Mr. Bridgman stated that he was going to Sydney, N. S., to greet Peary. Mr. Crane requested Mr. Bridgman to carry his personal congratulations to the explorer.

KILLED IN AEROPLANE.

Machine of M. Lefebvre Crashes to Earth at Juvisy-sur-Orge.

JUVISY-SUR-ORGE, France, Sept. 7.—E. Lefebvre, the French aviator, was killed when his aeroplane in which he was practicing over the aviation field here this afternoon fell to the ground.

M. Lefebvre sustained mortal injuries when the machine crashed to earth. Prompt medical aid was rendered, but he died soon after the accident.

The cause of the accident, which was the first fatal one in the history of French aviation, remains a mystery. Lefebvre was engaged in testing the machine prior to the delivery to purchasers of several Wright machines built by the company of which Michel Clemenceau, son of the ex-Premier, is a Director. One of these had already been successfully tested, and just before nightfall Lefebvre took out another.

The machine left the ground easily and flew around the aerodrome at a height of about 20 feet, making the turn gracefully. Suddenly, without any apparent reason, it tilted sharply downward, and, propelled by the force of the motor, struck the ground with great violence.

The aviator was pitched out on his head and lay unconscious amid the wreckage of the machine. Willing hands raised him and carried him to a shed, and a doctor was hastily summoned, but nothing came of his ministrations. The aviator died within a few minutes.

Lefebvre was a young man of great promise. He appeared in the contests at Rheims recently after a few days' training, and astonished everybody by the skill with which he handled the aeroplane.

M. Lefebvre belonged to the new school of French aviators, and came into prominence only a few months ago. He was an engineer of considerable note, and became interested in aviation through studying it as a science. He has been known for his daring performances and recklessness. During one of the Rheims races he was fined $4 for reckless flying.

Several months ago M. Lefebvre purchased a Wright aeroplane and startetd at once to make a series of successful flights near The Hague.

After his demonstrations in Holland M. Lefebvre dropped out of sight for a time, but came back into the arena at Rheims, where he piloted a Wright machine.

TOO MUCH ABOUT WILLIE.

Mother's Praise of Her Boy Makes Her Nephew Try Suicide.

John Lindenmeyer, 27 years, of 733 Grand Street, Maspeth, L. I., tried to end his life yesterday because, according to a note he left, his life was made miserable by reason of his having to listen to tales of the wonders of a child named Willie. An ambulance surgeon took him to a hospital, and later he was arraigned before Magistrate Joseph Fitch in the Flushing Police Court. The Magistrate sent him to the Queens County Jail, as he was out of danger.

This is the note left by Lindenmeyer explaining his act:

"The family is too much for me. I can't speak to any one without Aunt Kate butting in about her Willie."

FIX WAGES IN McKEES ROCKS.

Last Point of Difference Removed—To Pay Old Scale Soon.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 7.—McKees Rocks is glad to-night that the strike of the Pressed Steel Car Company is practically settled. While formal action declaring the trouble at an end will not be taken until a vote is cast by the men some time to-morrow, C. A. Wise, Chairman of the strikers' Executive Committee, stated to-night that the employes of the big plant will unanimously decide to return to work Thursday. Practically all the demands made by the men, he said, have been granted by the company.

The one point, that of an increase in wages, which postponed the settlement yesterday and to-day, has been compromised. The men asked that a notice be posted fixing a date when the 1907 wage scale, an advance of 15 per cent. over this year's scale, would be paid. The company would not consent to this, but, it is said, has promised to pay the 1907 rate of wages as soon as present contracts are filled. This will be in six days. Beginning Thursday, the 5,000 strikers will in all probability return to work 1,000 a day.

Among the changes agreed to by the company are the following: No Sunday work hereafter, a half holiday on Saturday, the promise of an increase in wages, the indefinite suspension of T. A. Farrell, Chief of the company police; a printed list of prices to be paid, to be exhibited in all departments so the men will know exactly what they are to receive for piecework, and a guarantee that better conditions are to prevail throughout the big mill.

Owing to the reticence of Commissioner of Labor Charles P. Neill, nothing definite is obtainable concerning the investigation he is making here in connection with the strike. It is said Mr. Neill will report to Washington before announcing whether the Government intends to prosecute. Except to say that action probably will be taken against several Eastern employment agencies, United States District Attorney Jordan is also silent.

SANDY HOOK ROUTE schedule will be changed Thursday, September 9. Time table in hands of Agents.—Adv.

COL. R. L. FOX KILLED BY FALL FROM AUTO

Former Secretary of Republican State Committee Stood Up and Car Struck Obstacle.

IN POLITICS FOR YEARS

Friend of Both Platt and Odell—Gave Hospital and Library to His Home Town.

Special to The New York Times.

NEWBURG, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Col. Reuben L. Fox, a former Secretary of the Republican State Committee, was killed by being thrown from his automobile at Vails Gate, Orange County, late this evening. Mr. Fox was returning from his Summer home at Oneonta, where he passed the holiday with his family, and was on his way back to New York with his chauffeur.

Near the point where the accident occurred, Mr. Fox stood up in his machine. The car was passing another going in the same direction. The car struck a sawed off telegraph pole concealed in the bushes at the side of the road, and Mr. Fox was thrown to the ground, striking on his head.

He was picked up by the chauffeur and hurried to the Highland Hotel at Vails Gate. There word was sent to this city to Bryant Odell, son of ex-Gov. Odell, who hurried with Dr. Thomas J. Burke in his machine to the Highland Hotel. Seeing that Mr. Fox's condition was serious he was brought to St. Luke's Hospital in this city, where he died shortly after his arrival.

Soon after he had been placed in the automobile of Mr. Odell, Col. Fox lapsed into a state of unconsciousness, from which he never rallied. At the hospital they worked over him for half an hour in an effort to restore consciousness. Upon examination Dr. Burke ascertained that Col. Fox had sustained a severe concussion at the base of the brain and a bad abrasion on the left side of the skull. There was, however, no fracture.

The machine was not damaged. The car was not running at a very rapid pace, as the roadway at this point is narrow and necessitates care in passing other machines. The road on which the accident happened was the one recently purchased from the town of Woodbury by E. H. Harriman, and is a direct road from Newburg to New York by way of Tuxedo Park. It is considered one of the best roads in the State, and is used by hundreds of New York autoists daily.

Ex-Gov. Odell was much affected, as he and Col. Fox had been intimate friends for years.

Reuben L. Fox was born 60 years ago in Oneonta, Otsego County. About twenty-five years ago he made his first appearance in Albany, where he began the publication of a legislative index, and maintained a bureau of information for corporations in reference to pending legislation. This enterprise, which he published up to the time of his death, brought Col. Fox a fortune.

Col. Fox had not been at the State Capitol many years when former United States Senator Thomas C. Platt, who then was the Republican State leader, took a liking to him and made him clerk of the Republican State Committee. He retained this position until former Gov. Odell succeeded Senator Platt as leader. Odell made Col. Fox secretary of the committee, a position which carried with it a great deal of power and prestige in State politics. He remained in this position until Odell was out of power when he was succeded by Col. Lafayette B. Gleason, who holds the position at present. During all those years Col. Fox was the recognized Republican leader of Otsego County, and made his residence at Oneonta, the county seat.

For the last few years Col. Fox had been living in this city. His was a familiar figure at political gatherings, though he was succeeded as leader of his home county by Congressman Fairchild. His advice on matters of importance to the Republican State organization was welcomed and often followed.

Col. Fox was a member of Battery A, First New York Artillery, and of the Twenty-second New York Cavalry. He was a member of many clubs, among them the Union League Club, the Republican Club, and the Lotos Club of this city, the Fort Orange Club of Albany, and the Oneonta Club of his home city. To his home city he gave a hospital in memory of his wife, who died several years ago, and a public library. He was an enthusiastic horseman and automobilist.

H. L. MEDLAR KILLED.

Philadelphia Biscuit Manufacturer Hurled from Auto Against a Tree.

Special to The New York Times.

EGG HARBOR CITY, N. J., Sept. 7.—Harry L. Medlar, a member of the A. J. Medlar Biscuit Company of Philadelphia, was instantly killed about 7 o'clock this evening when the automobile in which he was riding skidded and dashed into a large pine tree, breaking his neck.

The accident occurred at the village of Germania, about two miles below this city, and in the same place where recently a similar accident occurred. The party, consisting of W. J. Spangel of 242 North Broad Street, Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Medlar, and the chauffeur, Harry Greenwood, left Atlantic City this evening to go to Philadelphia in Mr. Spangel's car.

They were traveling at a fair rate of speed, when a sudden puff of wind took off Mr. Medlar's hat, and he raised up to grab it. The chauffeur quickly applied the brakes and the car skidded. Greenwood lost control of the steering gear, and in an instant the machine leaped from the roadway and struck a tree. The auto was overturned.

Thinking Mr. Medlar still alive the chauffeur returned to the roadway and stopped an approaching auto in which Mr. Medlar and his friends were taken to the Bob White Hotel. The second auto then brought Dr. Boysen and Dr. Frank of this city, but they could do nothing but pronounce Mr. Medlar dead. The injured women were brought here by Henry Darnell of Atlantic City.

Mrs. Medlar does not know that her husband is dead, and she was taken to Philadelphia late to-night. The other members of the party were all more or less bruised, and their injuries were dressed by the physicians. The body of young Medlar was brought to an undertaker's in this city.

The machine—a 90 horse power touring car—was wrecked. It was but the second trip made in it by the owner.

New, stylish eyeglasses called "Ilkit," with Blighton Toric Pebbles. Spencer's, 51 Maiden Lane. —Adv.

PEARY'S REPORT DELAYED

Commander Peary, having been delayed yesterday at Indian Harbor, Labrador, did not reach Chateau Bay, whence he had intended to telegraph to The New York Times his account of the discovery of the North Pole. In a brief message to The Times last night the explorer said that he expected to reach Battle Harbor, Labrador, to-day, and that he would send from there "a great story."

COOK'S BEWILDERED STORY OF RETREAT

Miracles of Killing Bears and Birds and of a Hitherto Unmentioned Boat.

ZIGZAGGING FOR MONTHS

Sounded Like a Fairy Dream—Lectures Before Geographical Society and Gets a Gold Medal.

By PHILIP GIBBS.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.
Dispatch to The London Chronicle.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 7.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook's lecture to-night before the King of Denmark and a great audience at the Geographical Society proves conclusively that his claim to have reached the north pole belongs to the realm of fairy tales.

It was all so very quick. In his own phrase, he "climbed the ladder of latitude with lightning rapidity," although on the downward journey he beat about ice floes in a bewildered way, and put up for months in Winter quarters, in spite of the daily risk of starvation, for his provisions would have been exhausted months before but for the convenient miracles of magic bears and birds. They appeared on the ice, and he was able to kill them with slings. In the same way a magic boat appeared. We had never heard of that boat before.

His way back was like a delirious dream of an arctic explorer, zigzagging and returning constantly upon his own path. The great audience, which was anxious to hear about the north pole, remained at that spot exactly two minutes on this personally conducted tour, and knew little more than what the map and geography primers had taught them as children. But they were solaced with Dr. Cook's last words that if they desired further knowledge they would be able to buy his book, which would be published shortly.

There were many awkward pauses, and Dr. Cook stumbled badly over his figures. His face was flushed, his forehead beaded with perspiration. He had the grim look of a man determined to be believed as he drove that "big nail" home with unconvincing, flashy phrases.

I am in position to state that the Danish Geographical Society, in limiting the lecture to an hour, asked Dr. Cook to dilate especially on his travels near the pole and what Eskimos said and did on that April day. He did not do so to-night.

DR. COOK GETS GOLD MEDAL.

Decorated by Danish Geographical Society Through the Crown Prince.

COPENHAGEN, Sept. 7.—The King and Queen, Prince and Princess George of Greece, and many of the members of the royal family, together with a large gathering of the most prominent people in Copenhagen, witnessed this evening the presentation to Dr. Frederick A. Cook of a gold medal by the Crown Prince, and listened to the explorer's lecture afterward before the Geographical Society.

In introducing the explorer the Crown Prince said that his reception in Greenland and at Copenhagen showed the way the Danes appreciated his wonderful exploit. The Prince then begged the honor of presenting to him the medal of the Geographical Society.

Dr. Cook's lecture added little to the information he had already given out with reference to his expedition, and he repeated the declaration of his intention to withhold details until the publication of his book.

Traces Route on Map.

Standing in front of an immense map of the arctic regions, which was surmounted by the Stars and Stripes, Dr. Cook outlined his progress to the north. He told his story coolly and without hesitation.

"It is too early," said the explorer, "to give the general results of the expedition. Time is required to digest the work of polar effort. You have not allowed time in Copenhagen. This northward dash has occupied the minds of men for more than 300 years. Slowly and surely the ladder of latitudes has been climbed with various degrees of success. Experience was gained and each expedition profited by the misfortunes of its predecessors. The failure of one expedition led to the success of subsequent efforts.

"The art of polar travel had been created, and this art was the nucleus of

Continued on Page 3.

White and Green Mts. Excursions. Very low fares Sept. 11th to Oct. 2d. City Ticket Office, 171 Broadway. Booklet free. —Adv.

PEARY FOUND NO TRACE OF COOK AT POLE

Members of Crew Surprised When Informed of the Former's Claim.

HIS STEAMER IS DELAYED

Bad Weather Prevents Peary from Reaching Telegraph Lines Till To-day.

RECOGNITION IN LONDON

President of Royal Geographical Society Promptly Cables Congratulations.

BRIDGMAN STARTS NORTH

Will Meet Peary at Sydney, N. S.—Resigns from Committee to Arrange Dinner to Dr. Cook.

SHACKLETON'S TRIBUTE TO PEARY.

By Lieut. E. H. Shackleton,
Holder of the record of having reached nearest to the South Pole.
Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.
LONDON, Sept. 7.

I am glad to be able, through THE NEW YORK TIMES, to offer my warmest congratulations to Commander Peary on his discovery of the north pole, which is the well-deserved reward of indomitable pluck and perseverance.

With all explorers I rejoice in Peary's achievement. I met him in Edinburgh years ago, and then formed the opinion that if any man could reach the pole that man was Peary. With my best wishes I hope he is bringing back with him from his latest triumphant expedition the two toes out of ten which were all his previous explorations had left him.

ERNEST H. SHACKLETON.

Nares Congratulates Peary.

Admiral Sir George Nares, one of the oldest living arctic explorers, sends the following message through THE NEW YORK TIMES to Commander Peary:

"Owing to your well-known arctic veracity, all will accept your statement that you have reached the north pole. I congratulate you.
"NARES."

INDIAN HARBOR, Labrador, via Cape Ray, N, F., Sept. 7.—Despite his many hardships in the arctic regions, Commander Robert E. Peary appears to be in the best of health and spirits. He is enthusiastic over his success in reaching the goal for which he has so long striven.

When told that Dr. Frederick A. Cook had reported finding the pole, those on board the steamer Roosevelt expressed surprise, but declined to make any statement other than that no traces of any previous expedition had been found.

When Commander Peary returned to the Roosevelt from the far north and announced that he had been successful in finding the pole, there was great rejoicing on board the ship, the whole crew assembling on the deck to welcome the daring explorer and cheering him to the echo.

The scene was a memorable one, and Commander Peary appeared to be visibly affected by the warmth of the reception.

PEARY'S STORY DELAYED.

Steamer Roosevelt Unable to Reach Chateau Bay When Expected.

Owing to the delay of the steamer Roosevelt in making the trip from Indian Harbor, Labrador, to Chateau Bay, as a result of bad weather, the story which Commander Robert E. Peary had arranged to telegraph to THE NEW YORK TIMES, telling of his dash to the north pole, could not be sent yesterday.

Chateau Bay is about 200 miles distant from Indian Harbor. Commander Peary had considered his vessel capable of making the journey so that he could file his dispatch not later than last night. In this he was mistaken.

It was reported from Halifax last night that the progress of the steamer Roosevelt would probably be slow and the return of the expedition delayed by the presence of immense bodies of ice in the Straits of Belle Isle.

The French cruiser Isly, which arrived at Halifax last night, left Porteau, on the Labrador coast, on Aug. 26. Capt. Durand reported immense fields of ice moving down from the north, and his ship had to await a favorable opportunity to get clear of the straits.

Wireless stations in the North report that up to last evening Peary had not reached Battle Harbor, which is thirty-five miles north of Chateau Bay.

Few particulars of the expedition can be sent until the Roosevelt reaches Red Bay, twenty-five miles southwest of Chateau Bay. Since Peary went north the telegraph station at Chateau has been discontinued, and the first point where there is a telegraph station is Red Bay. From Red Bay there is a telegraph line through Quebec.

It was calculated last night that it would take the explorer at least thirty hours to reach Chateau Bay from Indian Harbor, in which event he could not get in touch with the telegraph lines until this morning. There is no telegraph service at any point from Indian Harbor to Red Bay, except a wireless service of very limited capacity. The early messages sent by Commander Peary conveying the scant news of his discovery of the pole were filed at Indian Harbor and flashed from there by wireless to Cape Ray, Newfoundland.

More Messages Received.

While the entire city waited anxiously yesterday for more detailed news from Commander Robert E. Peary regarding his achievement in discovering the north pole, the only word received during the day consisted of cablegrams to half a dozen or more of his friends. They were brief and did not go into details. All of them were sent from Indian Harbor, Labrador, by way of Cape Ray, Newfoundland, and were dated on Monday.

An indication that the explorer would return fortified with all the necessary proofs to establish his claim to the discovery of the pole was furnished by a cablegram received by Herbert L. Bridgman, Secretary and Treasurer of the Peary Arctic Club, yesterday afternoon. This dispatch read as follows:

Kindly rush following: Wire all principal home and foreign geographical societies of all nations, including Japan, Brazil, &c., that the north pole was reached April 6 by Peary Arctic Club's expedition, under Commander Peary.
(Signed) PEARY.

Mr. Bridgman set to work at once to carry out Commander Peary's instructions. He sent telegrams to the Presidents of the important geographical societies in this country and abroad, and also to a number of individuals who have shown keen interest in Commander Peary's arctic exploits. Among the cablegrams he sent was this to former President Roosevelt, which he addressed to him at Nairobi, Africa:

Theodore Roosevelt: North pole discovered April 6 by the Peary Arctic Club's expedition in command of Peary.

Communications were sent to the Royal Geographical Societies at London, Brussels, and Rome, the Imperial Geographical Societies at Berlin and St. Petersburg, and the Paris Geographical Society.

Shows Peary Has Proofs.

Mr. Bridgman took the position that Commander Peary's anxiety that the geographical societies be notified showed beyond doubt that he would have no trouble in convincing the most captious critics that he had found the pole. This was particularly gratifying to the Secretary of the Peary Arctic Club in view of the doubt that has been raised in various quarters as to the proof brought back by Dr. Frederick A. Cook.

"Every one will believe Mr. Peary," declared Mr. Bridgman rapturously. "There was no need of his indicating that he had proof to back up his claim, but I am glad, just the same, that he has made it known that he will bring it. No one doubts Peary's word, but at this time, with so much talk as to the possibility that Dr. Cook may not have proofs, it is just as well to have something from Mr. Peary to show that there will be no shade of doubt in the public mind concerning his own discovery."

Commander Peary, in his pursuit of the pole, did not forget to look for relics for museum purposes, as is evidenced in this cablegram, which was received yesterday by Henry Fairfield Osborn of the American Museum of Natural History, in this city:

The pole is ours. Am bringing large amount of material for museum.
PEARY.

Before the explorer left on his trip a year ago he assured Mr. Osborn that if he reached the pole he would come back with a sack full of curios that would probably make some interesting exhibits. Mr. Osborn cabled his thanks to Peary upon receiving the message yesterday, telling him that the museum would eagerly await his return.

Other Messages from Peary.

Another message received yesterday in this city from Peary was sent to Gen. Thomas Hubbard, President of the Peary Arctic Club, saying:

Thanks your assistance, the 300 years' search of north pole is ended. Pole occupied by club's expedition April 6. Roosevelt returns uninjured.
PEARY.

To this Mr. Hubbard sent a reply as follows:

Commander Robert E. Peary, Indian Harbor via Cape Ray:
Your cable gives me the best news I have had this century. Congratulations and best wishes.

George Crocker, another member of the Peary Arctic Club, and one of the backers of the expedition, received this cablegram from the explorer:

The pole is ours. Thank you.
PEARY.

A message similarly worded was sent by the explorer to John H. Flagler, a member of the Peary Arctic Club, who aided Peary in his previous trips to the pole.

To Frederick A. Stokes of the Frederick A. Stokes Company, which published Peary's volume "Northward Over the Great Ice" and other books, Peary cabled:

I have the pole. Best regards.

Doubleday, Page & Co., who have published other books of Peary's, received a message of the same kind.

This cablegram was received by George A. Carmack, Secretary of the New York Athletic Club:

Steam yacht Roosevelt, flying club burgee, has enabled me to add north pole to club's other trophies.
PEARY.

"This shows that we are not merely a sporting organization, but that we go in for scientific research," said Mr. Carmack. "Henry M. Stanley carried the club's burgee on his boat when he went along the Congo in search of Livingstone, Admiral Dewey had it displayed on some of the warships at Manila, and it saw service at Santiago. We are tickled that Peary has done the trick. No one will doubt that he got there."

To the Secretary of Kane Lodge, No. 454, F. and A. M., Commander Peary cabled:

Kane Lodge and Freemasonry may now inscribe the pole upon its records.

From early in the morning Mr. Bridgman, in his office in Brooklyn, was occupied in sending messages telling of Peary's accomplishment and in reading telegrams and cablegrams which reached him from all parts of the globe expressing elation over the outcome of the dash north. Between times Mr. Bridgman made hurried arrangements for a trip to Sydney, Nova Scotia, to meet Mr. Peary. He left last night on the Bar Harbor express and expects to shake the explorer's hand some time to-morrow at Sydney.

Royal Society Heard From.

Mr. Bridgman, during the course of the day, received a score of messages over the wires. One that gave him especial gratification was from Major Leonard Darwin, President of the Royal Geographical Society of London. This organization is regarded as ultra-conservative, and in the message that came to Mr. Bridgman there was clear evidence that the society entertains no doubt of the explorer's success. The message read:

London, Sept. 7.
Bridgman: Delighted to hear of Peary's safe return. Warmest congratulations. Have wired Peary at St. John's.
DARWIN.

In commenting on this, Mr. Bridgman said he understood that already the Geographical Society had arranged to invite Commander Peary to appear before it and deliver an address. This courtesy had not as yet been extended to Dr. Cook, Mr. Bridgman said, and he considered it a hint of how the society regards the exploits of the two men. While the society offers its congratulations to Peary and asks him to address its members, Mr. Bridgman pointed out, there had been a marked silence on the part of the organization concerning Dr. Cook. Mr. Bridgman did not hesitate to say that the Geographical Society appeared to be still in doubt as to Cook's claim.

Among the other messages received by Mr. Bridgman yesterday were these:

H. L. Bridgman:
I am delighted beyond measure to hear of the success of Peary. A great triumph for the United States. Accept my warmest personal congratulations to yourself as the devoted secretary of the Peary Arctic Club.
HENRY FAIRFIELD OSBORN,
President of the American Museum of Natural History, New York.

Herbert L. Bridgman:
Hurrah for Peary, the Arctic Club, and the Civil Engineer Corps.
WALTER S. ALLEN,
C. E., U. S. N., Boston.

H. L. Bridgman:
Splendid news. Congratulations to Peary and the club that has stood by him.
J. A. BENJAMIN,
First Lieutenant, Third Cavalry, West Point, Garrison, N. Y.

Herbert L. Bridgman:
We believe all the splendid reports of Peary's great achievement. Are we not justified in doing so?
We rejoice with all the world over Peary's great triumph and warmly congratulate you both.
HENRY H. BRIDGMAN,
Norfolk, Conn., member of Explorers' Club of New York.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 7.
To Herbert L. Bridgman:
Congratulations.
T. W. THORNDYKE,
Secretary Harvard Travelers' Club.

Peary to be Back Soon.

Before leaving the city last night Mr. Bridgman said he believed that Mr. Peary would be in New York within ten days at the latest.

"I expect that Commander Peary will leave with me by the end of this week," said Mr. Bridgman. "We shall take a train at once to Mr. Peary's home in Maine, where his wife is waiting for him. I have received a telegram from her, and she has urged me to have her husband return to her as soon as possible. It has been a long, trying wait for her, and she is very anxious to see Mr. Peary.

"There will doubtless be many calls upon the time of the explorer, and many attempts to keep him abroad for an indefinite period, but I do not think I will have a very hard time coaxing him home. It is quite possible that he will be at his old home in Maine by the early part of next week. He will probably stay there for a few days, and then will come on through to Washington.

"I do not think he will tarry in New York on his way through, as he has an official message to communicate to the Washington authorities. After he has finished that he will probably come back, and then will be ready for whatever reception there happens to be awaiting him.

"As to what this reception will be I have no idea at this time. That will have to be arranged in my absence. The Peary Arctic Club gave him a dinner on his former return from the arctic regions, and it may be that one will be given this time. If it is, it will be given probably upon a much more elaborate scale."

Mr. Bridgman resigned yesterday the Chairmanship of a committee of the Explorers' Club, of which Mr. Peary is President, which has been arranging for a dinner to Dr. Cook as a part of the Hudson-Fulton Celebration. The Hudson-Fulton committee wanted an "explorers' dinner" as a feature of the celebration, inasmuch as Fulton was somewhat of an explorer, and it was put up to the Explorers' Club to fix a date and attend to the other details.

$25 TO THE PACIFIC COAST. Lehigh Valley, 1460, 355 and 140 Broadway. —Adv.

Special trips for HUDSON-FULTON Water Pageants by HUDSON RIVER DAY LINE steamers. Send for schedule.—Adv.

Cook Chosen as Guest.

The club undertook it and plans were under way when word came that Dr. Cook had discovered the north pole. The club had picked Sept. 30 as the date for the dinner, and, on getting word of Dr. Cook's discovery, it was decided to make him the guest of honor.

This was not particularly agreeable to Mr. Bridgman, who had been one of Peary's particular backers, and he sought a means of gracefully withdrawing. The opportunity came when he received the flash "Sun" from Peary on Monday, signifying that the explorer had reached the pole. Mr. Bridgman on Monday night wrote out his resignation as Chairman of the committtee for the club dinner and mailed it to the Secretary of the club.

"I do not think it would be consistent for me to act as Chairman of that committee when I am not in sympathy with Dr. Cook," explained Mr. Bridgman to a reporter of THE TIMES. "If there were no doubt in my mind as to Dr. Cook's discovery it would be different, but I cannot bring myself to believe that he actually found the north pole. So as to avoid an awkward position I concluded to resign. The Explorers' Club will have to go ahead with the arrangements without me."

The Explorers' Club is placed in a peculiar position. Commander Peary is President of the club, having succeeded Dr. Cook, and it is no secret among the club members that the Commander and the doctor have not been on the most cordial terms. Dr. Cook was the club's President when he left for his last trip to the pole, and after he was gone the club, not having any idea when he would return, decided to elect a successor to the Presidency.

Criticised Cook's Conduct.

When the office was offered to Commander Peary the latter expressed a desire not to serve. There was much correspondence on the matter, and Mr. Peary intimated, on his side, that Dr. Cook had gone away on an exploring expedition without having given notice to the club, this being, as he expressed it, a breach of etiquette.

He did not care to serve unless the club would give him the assurance that, in the event of Dr. Cook returning and claiming to have found the north pole, proper proofs would be demanded of him. As a basis for his criticism of Dr. Cook, Commander Peary stated that the Brooklyn man had undertaken to make a trip over the ground traversed by Peary, and which the latter had informed the club and the world at large that he proposed traveling again in the near future.

In other words, Mr. Peary felt that Dr. Cook had gone away surreptitiously, intending to avail himself of information imparted by Peary, and while the latter was completing his own preparations, to try to discover the pole.

Mr. Peary was prevailed upon to accept the Presidency, the club acquiescing in the demands he made concerning proofs from Dr. Cook. There was a suggestion yesterday that the club dinner be given to both explorers at the same time, but upon this Mr. Bridgman frowned.

"I don't know that I am authorized to speak for Mr. Peary," said Mr. Bridgman, "but I feel free to say that I do not believe such an arrangement would be to his liking. I am led to believe that Mr. Peary considers himself the first at the pole, and, in view of Dr. Cook's contention, I am inclined to think there will arise something of a disagreement between them, if it does not already exist. A joint dinner, therefore, would seem to be entirely out of the question."

Hurry Call Sent Out.

This complication in the situation set the members of the Explorers' Club to thinking, and early yesterday afternoon the club's Secretary, Henry C. Walsh, sent out hurried calls for a meeting of the Executive Committee, to be held at 5 o'clock, at the clubrooms, at 29 West Thirty-ninth Street. It was given out unofficially that the club would meet to frame a congratulatory message to Mr. Peary.

When 5 o'clock came there was only one member at the clubrooms. Mr. Walsh worked the telephone for an hour and finally brought a quorum of the Executive Committee together. Before they met Mr. Walsh was asked what was to be done about the dinner to Dr. Cook.

"I don't know yet," he replied. "That will have to be considered later. We have already started our plans and have notified Dr. Cook that we want him as the guest of honor. He has replied that he will be here and has thanked us for having invited him."

"What do you think of the suggestion of a joint dinner?" was asked.

Mr. Walsh smiled faintly.

"We haven't come to that," was his reply.

"Mr. Bridgman does not think well of it," was suggested.

"Well, we'll have to wait and see what is to be done," replied Mr. Walsh.

While the Executive Committee was in conference a cablegram reached the club from Dr. Cook. It was dated Copenhagen, and read:

> Explorers' Club: Accept. Prefer number limited to members of the club and the American Ministers at Copenhagen. Will arrange date later.

Change of Date Awkward.

Mr. Walsh told the reporters later that the message indicated that there would have to be a change in the date, and that this would be rather awkward, inasmuch as the Hudson-Fulton Committee had been given to understand that the dinner would occur on Sept. 30.

"We understand now that Dr. Cook is to be here on Sept. 21," said Mr. Walsh. "That information reached Brooklyn to-day. Whatever date will suit him we shall have to fix upon."

"Did you decide to invite Mr. Peary?" was asked.

"We didn't take that up," was the reply. "That is a matter for subsequent discussion."

The Executive Committee had this letter written out by the Secretary, and it was given to Mr. Bridgman to deliver to Mr. Peary:

> To Commander Robert E. Peary, U. S. N., President the Explorers' Club:
> The Executive Committee sends you its heartiest congratulations upon the attainment of the long-sought goal—the conquest of the north pole.
> THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS.

Signed to the letter were the names of the members attending the meeting, Stansbury Hagen, Carpenter Whitney, F. S. Dellenbaugh, Anthony Fiala, W. G. Clark, and Henry C. Walsh.

Gen. Thomas H. Hubbard, President of the Peary Arctic Club, was one of the most elated men in town yesterday over the news of the discovery of the pole by the man whose expedition had been, in a large measure, financed by the club.

All Credit to Peary.

"Peary is deserving of every bit of credit that can be accorded him," said Gen. Hubbard. "He has fought hard and long to reach the pole, and it was only by the most extreme display of pluck that he did it. Peary is an alumnus of Bowdoin College, my own Alma Mater, anod a friend of long standing. He was for years a resident of Maine, from which State I am proud to say I hail, and this also adds to the satisfaction I feel at his exploit."

Capt. B. S. Osborn, Secretary of the Arctic Club, to which Dr. Cook belongs, said that he fully believed that Peary had reached the pole and that he could not understand why there was any tendency to discredit Dr. Cook.

"There is glory enough for both of them," he said. "If this sort of talk goes on for a day or so more I think Dr. Cook will have something to say about it."

PARIS SHOWS MUCH INTEREST.

Peary Accepted Without Question and Much Information Expected.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—The French Geographical Society was notified officially to-day by the Peary Arctic Club of New York of the achievement of Commander Peary. An official of the society said:

"We have full confidence in Commander Peary, whose experience, together with his equipment of modern instruments and appliances, insures to the scientific world a rich feast. We do not doubt Dr. Cook, but we merely say that Commander Peary's superior outfit from every standpoint makes it impossible that he should be mistaken."

Commander Peary probably will be invited to lecture in France.

No Incredulity, Says Levasseur.

M. Levasseur, the distinguished French geographer, said to-day that no doubt longer existed that the north pole had been reached.

"But there is this difference between Commander Peary and Dr. Cook," he continued. "Scientists will accept at once the statement of Peary as that of a man who has proofs. His equipment was thorough and extensive, and nothing was left to chance. Although no details of his trip yet are available, we can rest assured that this new success will not be welcomed with the same incredulity as greeted the announcement of Dr. Cook.

"So far as Dr. Cook is concerned we await a complete recital of his expedition before making up our minds."

In conclusion the scientist declared that the entire world would rejoice that Commander Peary's long struggles had been crowned with victory.

J. J. A. Bouquet de La Grye, the distinguished geographer and member of the Academy of Sciences, following up his statement of last night, came out to-day with a vigorous defense of Dr. Cook, saying he had been aroused by the persistent attacks on him.

"Why suspect Dr. Cook more than the others and assume that he is wrong?," the savant asked. "It's a small business; let us await his documents. His observations can be controlled easily by those of Commander Peary and either confirmed or refuted."

Evening Press Expects Trouble.

The evening newspapers of Paris published long accounts of Commander Peary, his previous endeavors, and his announcement that he had reached the north pole. At the same time they republished the objections to the Cook story emanating from England.

The general opinion was that Peary's laconic telegram was a veritable coup de théâtre, and there was a strong tendency to see the humorous aspect of the situation in the contention of two Americans for the honors of discovery. The Temps, under most circumstances a most dignified journal, foresaw a beautiful "battle" between the "Cookists" and the "Pearyists," and advised the two explorers, when they reached New York, to reply to the questions of the curious by saying: "Yes, we come from the north pole and we found an awful mob there."

In more serious vein the Temps asked to whom would be awarded the palm of victory. It was noted that England, skeptical and suspicious of Cook, demanded proofs, while America and Denmark accepted him. Continuing, the paper said:

"But what proofs can you ask of an unhappy man who has wintered two years with the Eskimos? Here are his notebooks and his astronomical observations; will that satisfy you? As a matter of fact, it is agreed that the north pole is covered with moving ice, and one might say that it is a problem resting in the domain of metaphysics. When some one says he has been there let us believe him, because if criticism on this metaphysical question ever commences it will never end."

Public Eagerly Discuss Arctic.

Some of the more sensational papers, bewildered by the rapidity of events, were inclined to deduce "that there is something wrong."

"Peary's telegrams," says L'Intransigeant, "will bring a new element to the livey debate, and people who yesterday scarcely knew what an Eskimo was today will prate wisely of latitude and longitude, Cape Hubbard, and the varying wonders of the arctic nights. Each person expresses an opinion based upon knowledge ridiculously inaccurate."

Other papers dwell upon the dramatic nature of the situation as exceeding the wildest romance and as a thrilling chapter of history which is destined to hold the attention of the world for a considerable period.

Belgian Praises Both.

BRUSSELS, Sept. 7.—Prof. Lecointe, Director of the Royal Observatory, said to-day:

"The announcement of Commander Peary is quite admissible, and it is not astonishing that he found the pole in a shorter time than Dr. Cook. Peary knows the polar regions better than any other man in the world. Nor is it surprising that Cook and Peary did not meet, as the icebergs at the pole are in constant motion; furthermore, Cook came out to the west and Peary to the east of Greenland.

"Peary's discovery does not alter the position of Dr. Cook, and both men are wonderful explorers."

GERMAN OPINION DIVIDED.

Peary's Report Accepted—Dr. Cook's Claims Have Many Champions.

BERLIN, Sept. 7.—Scientists in Germany hold many shades of opinion about the discovery of the north pole. While there is practically no doubt of Commander Peary's exploit, some scientists are undecided about Dr. Cook's claims.

Prof. Wilhelm Sieglin, Director of the Berlin University Geographical Institute, said to-day:

"It is too early to form a judgment regarding Peary's success from the brief telegrams published, but assuming that he really reached the pole, it will tend to put an end to the doubts about Dr. Cook's success. I cannot deny, however, that I am still skeptical. Dr. Cook's personality and past life speak in his favor. He has a reputation free from all empty boasting, and certainly possesses tenacity and energy enough to reach the pole. Nevertheless, his descriptions contain so many singular passages calculated to raise doubts that I am not yet fully convinced. It awakens misgivings that he repeatedly has to characterize reports in the newspapers as emanating from him as incorrect."

Dr. Hellman, Director of the Meteorological Institute of Berlin, said:

"Several fortunate circumstances, but especially the favorable condition of the polar ice, having been encountered at the same time has made possible the discovery of the north pole by two daring and tried polar explorers, each operating during the same year, but quite independent of each other. To both Dr. Cook and to Commander Peary one can say, 'Well done.' I hope the success of both these travelers will cause polar research to live anew, and it is to be wished that the polar cap now be besieged by all the civilized nations in the world."

Believe Cook Was There.

Prof. Ernst Friedrich, who holds the Chair of Geography of the University of Leipsic, and who is one of the greatest authorities in Germany on geography and cartography, said:

"From the reports reaching me from various sources I assume that Dr. Cook was equipped with good instruments and scientific appliances, and I am therefore compelled to believe that he has reached the north pole."

Privy Councillor Joseph Partsch, professor in the University of Leipsic and a well-known cartographer and geographical scientist, said:

"I have absolute faith in the trustworthiness of Dr. Cook, and I am expecting complete proofs of his wonderful achievement."

Dr. Henry Gravelius of Dresden, the well-known Saxon astronomer, geographer, and recognized authority on exploration, was highly interested to-day in the statement that Commander Peary had reached the north pole. He said both claims probably were true, as each explorer had covered practically the same route.

Prof. Bernard Pattenhausen, head of the department of astronomy and meteorology of the Technische Hochschule of Dresden, is personally convinced of the genuineness of both reports. "Hail to the double discovery as a brilliant American achievement," he said to-night. Prof. Pattenhausen has requested Dr. Cook to lecture before the Dresden Geographical Society.

Predicted Success of Peary.

Dr. Friederichsen, General Secretary of the Hamburg Georgraphical Society, said to-day that the report from Commander Peary deserved absolute credence, and that it was evident that he and Dr. Cook were in close proximity in the polar regions. When Cook's discovery was reported Dr. Friederichsen expressed the opinion that Peary shortly would be heard from as having reached the pole. Both Peary and Cook should be credited with having achieved the purpose of their expeditions.

Dr. Brennecke of the German observatory has accepted Commander Peary's announcement. He said the reason why Peary had found no trace of Cook at the pole probably was that the masses of ice, constantly in motion, had carried away the flag and metal box which Cook left there. Dr. Brennecke believes Peary's success to be due to the fact that he also started early in the season, and that the weather conditions happened to be favorable.

Prof. William Suering, Director of the Meteorological and Magnetic Institute in Potsdam, said: "I consider Commander Peary to be a thoroughly reliable man; he has had large experience, and his equipment on this expedition was excellent. If this telegram from him is authentic, I am confident that his statement is entirely trustworthy."

Commenting on the remarkable coincidence arising from the presence at the north pole of both Commander Peary and Dr. Cook, The Munich Zeitung today says: "Commander Peary and Dr. Cook are known to be strong rivals, and their discoveries doubtless will lead to a severe scientific quarrel, in which public opinion probably will support Commander Peary."

The Hamburg Fremdenblatt says: "The duplication of the discovery of the pole is so singular that new doubts necessarily arise."

The Nachrichten says: "Those who considered Dr. Cook's success due to unusually favorable weather conditions were right. Doubt can no longer exist that two Americans almost simultaneously discovered the pole."

The Dresden newspapers are divided in their opinions. The Neueste Nachrichten predicts a fierce personal contest over the question of priority in reaching the pole. It says that undoubtedly Dr. Cook speaks the truth and found the pole before Peary. There never would have been any doubt, adds the paper, if the high-strung first announcement had not made the people skeptical.

DO YOU not owe it to your children to have a home in the country where they can romp and play without restriction? Where there's freedom from the disease-laden air of the city? Where the fresh air makes red blood and builds robust strength?

PARK HILL
On-the-Hudson
"THE SUBURB BEAUTIFUL"

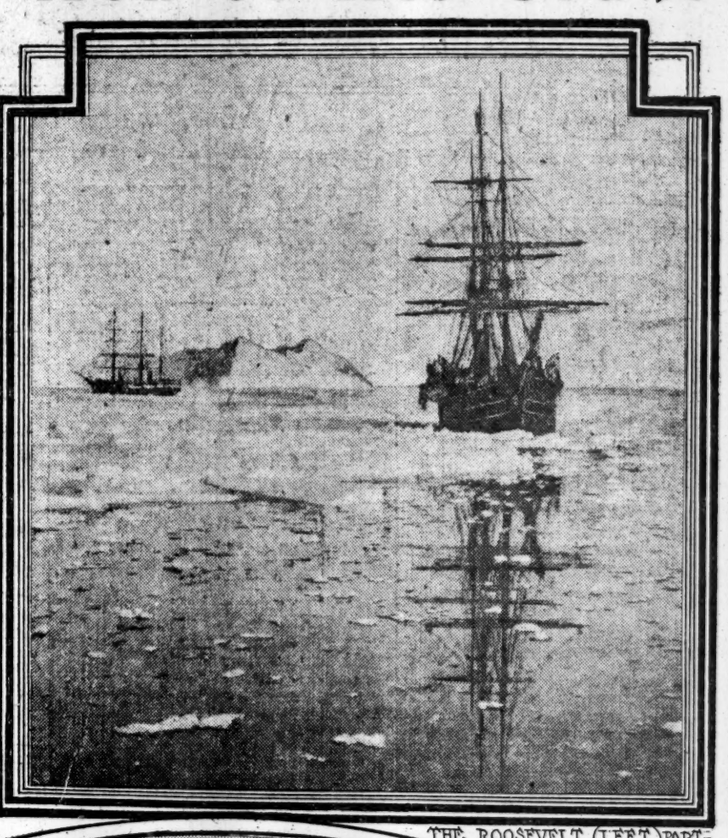
offers you a BEAUTIFUL HOME in the RIGHT PLACE. And you can acquire its ownership with merely the rent you now spend on that $100 a month apartment. Inform yourself fully.

Send for the Park Hill booklet

American Real Estate Co.
552 Night and Day Bank Building, New York
Assets over Eleven Million Dollars

Peary, His Ship and the Men of His Crew.

PEARY ON BOARD THE ROOSEVELT IN THE ARCTIC



THE ROOSEVELT (LEFT) PARTING FROM THE PEARY RELIEF SHIP ERICK AT ETAH AND SAILING FOR THE NORTH

PEARY'S COMPANY AND CREW ABOARD THE ROOSEVELT

BELONGS TO AMERICA.

Swiss Professor Says Any Territory at the Pole Is Ours.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

GENEVA, Sept. 7.—Prof. Bersot of Geneva University, one of the greatest authorities in Europe on certain phases of international law, said to-day that if a claim of the United States to north pole territory had rested on its reported discovery by Dr. Cook, that country would have had great difficulty in establishing its rights in the eyes of the world, for Cook's expedition was a private one, and any land he discovered would belong to him. Of course, he might have waived his claim and presented the newly discovered territory to the Nation. In regard to the Peary case, he said it was different, as Peary is an officer of the United States Navy, and Prof. Bersot believed his expedition to have been subsidized in part by the American authorities.

ROME WILL AWAIT PROOF.

Strong Body of Opinion That Cook Did Not Attempt Deception.

ROME, Sept. 7.—The news that the north pole had been attained by Commander Robert E. Peary became known in Rome late last night. It aroused the greatest degree of astonishment, and was at first considered as a gigantic hoax.

It is regarded as satisfactory in so far as it will enable Dr. Cook's statements to be checked, and settle definitely whether he has the right to claim the discovery of the top of the world.

The Italian Navy authorities, while following with the keenest interest every development in the matter of the discoveries of Commander Peary and Dr. Cook, are of the opinion; now that definite proof is in sight, that the only wise course is to hold their judgment in suspense until the giving out of the documents, which must settle the matter one way or the other.

At the same time competent opinion here still believes strongly that Dr. Cook could not possibly have purposely misled the world. Dr. Cook's record of courage and enterprise is regarded as such that he should not be condemned as a falsifier without the fullest proof.

LAST OF THE SEASON
$2.50
Atlantic City and return
Sunday, Sept. 12,
PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD
Special Train
Leaves New York - - - - 6:45 A. M.
Returning leaves Atlantic City - 7:00 P. M.

GREELY LOOKS TO ANTARCTIC.

Declares That the Discoveries of Wilkes Should Not Be Neglected.

CENTER CONWAY, N. H., Sept. 7.—Major Gen. A. W. Greely, U. S. A., (retired,) who has participated in polar explorations, said to-day of the discovery of the north pole:

"Peary's magnificent polar work has earned the admiration of the world, and although the honors of the farthest north were wrested from him, it was by another American whose record Peary now equals. Priority properly gives distinctive honor to Dr. Cook, but of greater importance and higher value is the spirit of heroic endeavor and unwearied devotion to the accomplishment of a feat that confers credit on the Nation by which both men were animated.

"Confidently may be anticipated a renewal of interest in antarctic problems. It is the duty of the country to verify Wilkes's discovery of the coast line of the antarctic continent, which has been questioned. It was the greatest geographical discovery of the nineteenth century, and the efforts of the National Geographical Society to verify the accuracy of this great discovery should command support. Some millionaire should back the plan. In giving great and deserved honors to Cook and Peary, let us not forget Wilkes and his work."

"CAPTAIN BOB" SENDS WORD.

Commander of Roosevelt Now Wires "It Is Accomplished."

A telegram was received yesterday by Thomas Foley of 560 Eleventh Street, Brooklyn, a close friend of Capt. Robert Bartlett, who is commanding Peary's ship, the Roosevelt. The message read as follows:

"Indian Harbor,
"via Cape Ray, N. F., Sept. 7.
"It is accomplished. Kind regards to Mrs. Foley and yourself.
"R. A. BARTLETT."

Capt. Bartlett comes of a long line of arctic navigators. More than sixty years ago his great uncle, Isaac Bartlett, commanded a polar expedition, and since then three of his uncles, John, Samuel, and Henry, have at different times commanded polar ships.

Capt. Bartlett, or "Bob" Bartlett as he is known to his friends, was born at Brigus, N. F., and is 34 years old. He received his education in the public schools, and later was graduated from the Methodist College at St. John's.

His first experience in arctic work was when he served as mate for his uncle, Capt. John Bartlett, when the latter commanded a polar ship more than ten years ago. Later he made two other trips into the arctic circle with another uncle, Capt. Samuel Bartlett.

In 1905, when Commander Peary was planning another dash for the pole, he went to Capt. Samuel Bartlett and offered him the command of his ship. The Captain was getting on in years. He turned to Peary and said:

"I'm getting too old for such work. Take Bob along; he'll make good."

On this recommendation Commander Peary engaged the younger man to command the Roosevelt. Before accepting the post Capt. Robert Bartlett stipulated that when he had brought the Roosevelt to the point farthest north ever reached by a ship he should be allowed to put his mate in charge while he joined the ice party in the dash for the pole.

"When thepole is found I want a Bartlett to be on the spot," he said to Peary, and the explorer granted his request.

Previous to Peary's departure on his last dash for the pole, Capt. Bartlett took the Roosevelt to Oyster Bay to be inspected by President Roosevelt. Following the inspection Mr. Roosevelt shook hands with all the crew. Coming to "Capt. Bob," he shook hands with him, saying:

"Go ahead, young fellow; you look like a winner."

The Captain is not much of a talker. He held Mr. Roosevelt's hand for a full minute, and then looking him straight in the eyes, said:

"Mr. President, it's the pole or bust."

Exactly Right.
Eyeglass security must mean eyesight security. You want eyeglasses that are absolutely correct. We are careful—exact. In our system of having the Oculist make the examination and the Optician fit and adjust the frames, you are assured absolute correctness. Glasses fitted with the Harris Suction Clip $1 and more.

M. H. Harris
Oculists and Opticians
54 East 23d Street, near Fourth Ave.
27 West 34th St., bet. 5th & 6th Aves.
54 West 125th Street, near Lenox Ave.
442 Columbus Ave., 81st and 82d Sts.
76 Nassau Street, near John Street.
489 Fulton St., (Op. A. & S.) B'KLYN.

HONOR IS AMERICA'S, SAYS SHACKLETON

Between Peary and Cook, There Is No Doubt North Pole Has Been Found.

PEARY'S SPEED IMPORTANT

If It Coincides with Cook's It Will Clear Up One Point—Much Left to Do In Arctic.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—"The honor of planting the National flag at the north pole undoubtedly belongs to America," said Lieut. E. H. Shackleton, the English explorer who recently led an expedition into the antarctic regions, to-day.

"The news within a week," he continued, "that two men have reached the pole is an extraordinary coincidence. We all expected to hear of Commander Peary's return some time during the month, and we sincerely hoped that his years of effort and struggle would be crowned with success.

"Peary undoubtedly got to the pole; between him and Dr. Cook the pole certainly has been reached. Peary reports that he reached the goal on April 6, 1909. It will be interesting to know the date he left his base to go to the Polar Sea and his rate of travel northward. If Peary's speed coincides with Cook's this fact will go far in the eyes of the world to clear up the question whether such distances as claimed by Cook can be covered. The ice conditions around Peary's camp in 1908 should approximate somewhat the conditions observed by Cook, and that will clear up another point.

"It is extremely unlikely that the metal cylinder left at the pole by Dr. Cook was found by Peary, because of the drift of the ice. If Peary took a more easterly line there is a possibility of his coming across the cylinder, but such a find would be extraordinary, for a fall of snow would be sufficient to hide all trace of this tube.

"It seems fairly obvious that Peary does not know of Cook's success. It will be interesting to know where the explorers were in touch with Eskimos; news travels among the natives very fast. It is extremely important to know whether Peary made a detour toward the land Cook says he discovered, and also what is its actual lattitude and longitude, and its nature.

"The whole question, however, will be set at rest in a few days, for Cook now doubtless sees the advisability of publishing the details of his trip.

"Peary, from what I know of him, would be the first to give credit to any one who preceded him. Peary deserved his success; he has devoted his entire life to arctic exploration, and nobody has a wider knowledge of arctic travel.

"While Peary's success will stop attempts to reach the north pole, there is a lot of scientific work to be done in the arctic regions which it would be impossible to carry out on marches to the pole, on account of the speed of travel."

SEE NO GAIN FOR SCIENCE.

Cornell Men Believe Achievement of Explorers Will Be of Little Value.

Special to The New York Times.

ITHACA, N. Y., Sept. 7.—The discovery of the north pole will be of little value to science, in the opinion of Cornell scientists, though they are inclined to believe that both Peary and Cook reached there. L. C. Bement of this city, a member of the Peary expedition, said that the word of both Cook and Peary should be credited. He knows them both, as well as Ross Marvin, the Cornell meterologist, who is with Peary now.

Prof. John S. Shearer, a well-known physicist, declares that the expeditions are of value only to "vaudeville science." Prof. Shearer said: "I do not consider the reaching of the north pole by either Dr. Cook or Commander Peary of any value to science. I use the term to apply to real science. Their trips may be of value to what might be called 'vaudeville science.'

"No doubt very important data in regard to determining the shape of the earth might be obtained at the north pole. To obtain this data it would be necessary, however, to carry a pendulum and observe its vibrations. But I do not think arctic expeditions have been provided with such an instrument.

"The fact that Dr. Cook did not measure the depth of the sea at the north pole is not surprising, because to do this many feet of wire doubtless would have been needed, and the operation might have been difficult."

Prof. Shaler Williams, head of the Cornell geological department, said: "In regard to Dr. Cook's claim, I think we shall have to rely entirely upon his account and determine as far as possible from his observations, judging their value accordingly. If Dr. Cook had measured the depth of the sea at the pole he would doubtless be able to answer one question of interest to science."

Weather Director Wilson, who trained Peary's meterologist, says: "The fact that both Cook and Peary have returned from the pole at about the same time is of itself an astonishing coincidence, but it would not surprise me if Peary should have found no trace of Cook's flag and metal tube, as Peary might not have located his flag within half a mile of Cook's.

"I think that Peary's account will be read with the greatest interest; and as regards Dr. Cook's claim, I think scientists will be able to check up his account of the trip and determine whether or not it is worthy of credence. If Peary had several white men with him at the pole he naturally will have a strong claim to present, while Dr. Cook admits that he had only two Eskimos. He should be given a fair hearing, though it must be admitted many doubts will have to be removed before Cook will be accorded the title of the first man at the north pole."

Mr. Bement said: "I wouldn't doubt the word of either Dr. Cook or Commander Peary for an instant. I wouldn't doubt an explorer's word. If Cook says he reached the pole I believe he did, and if Peary says he reached it you can bank on it that he did.

"I knew Cook pretty well, for I was three months with him on that Peary relief expedition, sent in 1901. Dr. Cook is a splendid man. He was very popular. No one who knows him would doubt his word."

Employers seeking high-class Help see Page 19.

THE FIFTH AVENUE BRANCH of The Farmers' Loan and Trust Company

475 FIFTH AVENUE, near 41st Street.
Interest allowed on Deposit Accounts.
Acts as custodian of personal property and manager of real property.
Letters of Credit. Foreign Money and Travelers' Checks. Vault Boxes for Customers' use.

BROOKLYN TAKES COMFORT.

Peary Was Once on Duty at the Navy Yard There.

While patting itself on the back over the discovery of the north pole by Dr. Cook, one of its citizens, Brooklyn was thrown into a state of peevishness when Commander Peary suddenly drew the spotlight away from it. Yesterday, however, it was found that Peary was once on duty in the Brooklyn Navy Yard. This, together with the fact that Herbert L. Bridgman, Peary's bosom friend, is of Brooklyn, caused the borough to cheer up again.

VALUE OF THE DISCOVERY.

H. G. Bryant Thinks It Lies in the Observations Made by Peary.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—Henry G. Bryant, President of the Philadelphia Geographical Society, returned to Philadelphia to-day from Atlantic City, where he had been since Friday, when he returned from a trip to Labrador. He expressed great satisfaction over the announcement that Peary had finally reached the north pole, but he was very chary about discussing Dr. Cook. He received at Atlantic City a message dated from Indian Harbor, Labrador, Sept. 7, which said:

The pole is ours. Thank you. PEARY.

The "thank you" of the message referred, Mr. Bryant said, to the financial aid which the Philadelphia Geographical Society had given to the Peary enterprise. When Mr. Bryant returned to Philadelphia he sent the following message to Herbert L. Bridgman, Secretary of the Peary Arctic Club of New York:

Your message received, also one from Peary of like tenor. The Geographical Society of Philadelphia rejoices to learn of well-earned success, and awaits with eagerness details of supreme victory which has crowned his career.

Mr. Bryant expected Peary to return during the past Summer and went to Labrador, half expecting, he said, to meet the explorer.

"I was at Indian Harbor, Labrador, where Peary's message was sent from, two weeks ago to-day," he said, "and I confess that I left the Labrador coast reluctantly, because I felt that the Roosevelt, Peary's ship, would soon be coming along that way."

He said that he expected Peary would leave the Roosevelt, which makes slow progress, either at St. John's or at Halifax and return to the United States, if from the later point by rail, if from St. John's by a faster steamer.

"Now that the north pole is discovered, what benefits will accrue from the achievement?" the reporter asked.

"The material gain from the discovery will amount to very little," he replied, "but if I am not very much mistaken Peary will have made observations which will be of immense value to science.

"For instance, he took with him an apparatus for sounding the Polar Sea, an arrangement composed of piano wire, such as Dr. Nansen had for the same purpose. A record of soundings in the vicinity of the pole will be of great value to determine the effect of the formation of the ocean bed on the surface drift.

"The soundings which Dr. Nansen made practically determined the fact that there is no land mass at the pole, and explorers since then have been basing their plans upon this assumption. While the Polar Sea contains no great deeps, so called, it is by no means a shallow ocean. Dr. Nansen found a depth of from 800 to 1,000 fathoms, and the instrument which he used also was equipped to bring to the surface specimens of the deposits of the ocean bed. And I take it that Peary's equipment will do the same thing."

Mr. Bryant was asked what was the significance of the early dates in the Spring given both by Dr. Cook and Peary.

"It means," he said, "that both of them have introduced innovations in arctic travel, which may account for their success. On Peary's last dash, in 1906, he did not reach his furthest north until April 21, and that was some hundreds of miles from the pole. This year, he either started at a much earlier date than he ever started before, or he found the ice in much better condition to travel over."

Mr. Bryant said that the Philadelphia Geographical Society entertained no doubt whatsoever that Commander Peary had reached the pole, and he based this conclusion, or the society did, on the character of the man, which he characterized as strong and honest, and upon the commander's past record as an arctic explorer.

"I consider Peary to be the foremost arctic explorer in America," he said.

SYDNEY EAGER FOR PEARY.

Will Give Him a Banquet If He Lands There.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 7.—Public men are looking forward with interest to the probability that Commander Peary will first land in Canadian territory on his return from the conquest of the pole. The Century Club of Sydney, where Peary is well known, as he has made that city his point of departure and arrival in previous expeditions, will tender the explorer a banquet if he goes ashore there.

Sydney will be buried in bunting in honor of Commander Peary, without regard to international distinctions. An honorary guard of soldiers has been proposed, but nothing definite will be decided until more news of the Commander's intentions are received.

Peary may land at Sydney, as in former years, and proceed to the United States by rail, and let his ship, the Roosevelt, follow slowly, or he may decide, for sentimental and patriotic reasons, to maintain the expedition complete—commander, ship, and crew—until they reach New York.

Dr. A. Mackay, Superintendent of Education for Nova Scotia, and a member of the local Institute of Science, and of the National Geographical Society of the United States, said to-night that he thought the scientific organizations of Canada should tender Peary a reception if he landed in this country.

Hon. G. H. Murray, Premier of Nova Scotia, who would initiate any prospective official action, is absent, and could not be reached to-day in order to learn whether the Government of the Province would take any action.

PEARY'S PEACE FLAG.

To the Editor of The New York Times:

Permit me in your columns to join the paeans of congratulations to Robert E. Peary upon his discovery of the north pole. I write thus for thousands of patriotic women throughout the Nation, because as the President General of the Daughters of the American Revolution I presented to Mr. Peary a peace flag—Star-Spangled Banner, surrounded by a broad white border—as he sailed in the Roosevelt last year, with the request that he should fling it forth from the pole when discovered.

I have his letter of appreciative acceptance of the flag and the request. To-day, therefore, we rejoice that through man's adventurous and heroic deed and woman's love of patriotism and prayers that wars may be no more, "Peace to all Nations" is flying from the world's apex, soaring there from the hand of an American.

EMILY N. RETCHIE McLEAN,
(Mrs. Donald McLean.)
Monmouth Beach Club Hotel, Sept. 7, 1909.

PEARY RECOGNIZED BY ROYAL SOCIETY

British Geographers, Who Have Ignored Cook, Ask Commander for a Lecture.

EUROPE IS DEEPLY MOVED

Peary's Report Everywhere Accepted and Partisans of Dr. Cook Proclaim Their Faith in Him.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The Royal Geographical Society cabled to-day a message of congratulation to Commander Peary, followed by an invitation to him to lecture before the society, which is, of course, the oldest and most representative body of its kind in the world.

Though I am not in a position to make any official announcement of the Royal Geographical Society's intentions, I understand that the society will Present Commander Peary with a special gold medal.

In striking contrast with this prompt action by the Royal Geographical Society in recognition of Peary's feat, taken even before the publication of the detailed report which he is to publish in THE NEW YORK TIMES, is the total silence which the society has maintained regarding the claims put forward by Dr. Cook.

The dispatch sent to Commander Peary in the name of the society was signed by its President, Major Leonard Darwin, and said:

"Delighted to hear of your safe return. Warmest congratulations."

Cablegrams were also sent to Willis L. Moore, President of the American Geographical Society, and Herbert L. Bridgman, Secretary of the Peary Arctic Club.

The message inviting Peary to lecture before the society was signed by John Scott Keltie, its Secretary. He is a well-known author on geographical and scientific subjects. The society awarded to Peary the Royal Medal some years ago, so the nature of the new special award is yet to be determined.

Await Peary's Full Account.

Peary's full account of his historic voyage is awaited in Europe with the utmost eagerness. Meanwhile such scraps of additional information as came through to London to-day were made the most of by all the papers, for Peary's achievement has seized a hold upon the popular imagination as no other event in recent years has done. All rival claims to the glory of having discovered the pole are lost sight of or made the subject of banter.

One paper observed that "the nail which Peary has driven into Cook's coffin is much bigger than the one which the latter claimed to have danced around with two attendant Eskimos."

Press Continues with Peary.

Most of the newspapers to-day editorially treat the Peary exploit along the lines indicated in these dispatches yesterday, and it is unnecessary to return to the points then made. To-morrow's Daily Mail will draw attention to the action of the Royal Geographical Society, which, it will say, is "equivalent to the Blue Ribbon of the geographical world and proof that Peary's claim to have reached the pole is fully accepted by the highest tribunal. It is to be noticed that no steps have been taken to offer a similar honor to Dr. Cook, though six days have elapsed since that explorer's telegram to his wife was published."

AMUNDSEN WOULD COMPARE.

Geographical Conditions at the Pole Are Most Important.

CHRISTIANIA, Sept. 7.—Capt. Roald Amundsen, the discoverer of the Northwest Passage, in an interview, to-day said:

"It is quite evident that Peary discovered no trace of Cook in the continually drifting ice. Peary probably, as he planned, made his dash from a more eastern point than Dr. Cook, but many circumstances may have arisen to cause a change."

"Do you think that Peary obtained more valuable scientific results than Cook?" Capt. Amundsen was asked.

"Probably not," he replied. "They were equally equipped with only absolutely necessary instruments. Geographically, their achievements are of great importance, and it is very important also that the two reports be compared.

"It would be superfluous to discuss Commander Peary's route on his return trip, and also useless to make speculations as to the points arrived at by the two explorers. It may be that they differed several geographical minutes. It is not important if the exact mathematical pole was reached or not, but it is important that the geographical conditions of the spot were observed. Probably something will be left to be done. What is left will be sufficient for all of us."

MRS. COOK BREAKS SILENCE.

Congratulates Peary, "If He Has Discovered the Pole."

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 7.—Breaking her long silence, Mrs. Frederick A. Cook, whose husband's claims of having discovered the north pole antedate those of Commander Robert E. Peary, commented to-day on the news of Commander Peary having reached the goal of his ambition.

Mrs. Cook's comment was brief and singularly like the expression of Mrs. Peary on the news of Dr. Cook's achievement. She said:

"If Commander Peary has discovered the pole, as I am sure my husband has, I heartily congratulate him."

The New York dispatch stating that Rudolph Francke had brought to her a diary from her husband at Etah, which Mrs. Cook had translated, and which would go far toward proving her husband's claims to the discovery of the pole, was denied by the wife of the explorer. Mrs. Cook stated that Francke had merely brought Dr. Cook's trunk from Etah, and that she knew nothing of its contents.

Mrs. Cook said she was feeling much better, but as yet had made no arrangements about meeting her husband, and was undecided as to when she would leave Portland.

Commander Peary and a Scene on the Roosevelt.

Peary's Little Son on the Deck of the Roosevelt Before Sailing
The Roosevelt, Showing The Masts Without Yards
The Roosevelt, Receiving Peary's Supplies For His Expedition

Commander Peary. A Photograph Taken A Few Days Before His Last Departure For The Pole. (PHOTOS BY BROWN BROS. N. Y.)

Peary Standing on the Deck of the Roosevelt the Day Before Departure From New York.

COOK'S BEWILDERED STORY OF RETREAT

Continued from Page 1.

our equipment. We changed tactics to suit our purpose, but I am bound to acknowledge at the outset that success would not have been possible without the less fortunate forerunners. All honor to the pioneers, the pathfinders to the pole, the earlier explorers.

"We are particularly indebted to Nansen and Peary and many Danish explorers for the last stages of polar progress. In my case I am especially indebted to Capt. Sverdrup, who is here to-night. His work gave us a new road which afforded us a chance to try the ice a little further west.

Route Planned Years Ago.

"Although profiting by other ventures, our expeditions differed in some important respects. The route we selected I had planned out years ago as a result of reading the splendid narrative of Sverdrup. About the middle of 1907, when we started, the pole was no part of the programme, which aimed altogether at study and recreation, with the pole, possibly, as a future problem."

Then the explorer went over the preparations for his departure, and the journey, his recital being similar to that already published. He cleared up the doubts about the lowest temperature recorded, which, he reiterated, was 83 degrees below zero Fahrenheit. He said he had no doubt that the observations made would prove that he had been on and around the ninetieth degree.

"I I have been within a circle a kilometer in diamter where the pole is situated," exclaimed the explorer, "I am satisfied that that is quite sufficient for practical purposes. I will say no more until my book is published."

Dr. Cook said to-day that according to his present plans he would reach New York on Sept. 20 or 21 on board the Scandinavian-American Line steamer Oscar II.

One result of Commander Peary's discovery of the pole is that Dr. Cook's profits from his enterprise are likely to be largely increased. He received to-day offers for his books and lectures at twice the figures previously tendered. One American, of the highest standing, cabled terms almost startling, and, it is believed, far beyond any sum hitherto paid for such work. Dr. Cook is likely to accept this offer.

No Controversy With Peary.

When a dispatch from London saying that Commander Peary claimed to be the first man to reach the north pole was shown to Dr. Cook, he said:

"Commander Peary, of course, can say whatever he wishes. I am not accustomed to indulge in controversies. All I have to say about Commander Peary is that if he says he reached the north pole I believe he reached the north pole."

When told earlier in the day of the receipt of dispatches confirming the previous reports of Commander Peary's success in reaching the pole, Dr. Cook said:

"I am the first to shout 'Hurrah for Peary!' If he has telegraphed an announcement that he has reached the pole then it is true, and I congratulate him.

"By going much further to the east than I did Commander Peary has cut out of the unknown an enormous space which, of course, will be vastly useful and scientifically interesting."

Asked whether Commander Peary was likely to have found traces of his progress over the polar seas Dr. Cook replied:

"No, he scarcely would have come across my tracks.

"I understand," Dr. Cook went on, "that a rumor is current about my having taken some of Peary's provisions at Etah; this is founded on Eskimo gossip and misunderstanding. I desire no controversy. I simply say in reply to any such assertion: 'No, Commander Peary is a friend of mine.'"

Peary's Success Undoubted.

The name of Peary was heard more frequently in Copenhagen to-day than that of Cook. Experts, the general public, and the newspapers accept Commander Peary's triumph as an unquestioned fact. While loyal to their belief in Dr. Cook, the people await the revelations to be made by the publication of the details of his observations.

The opinions of scientists on Dr. Cook's achievement are of particular interest at the present time, for the reason that the University of Copenhagen to-morrow will make Dr. Cook Honorary Professor of Science, a greater distinction than the honorary degree which it was first proposed to confer upon him.

Maurice Egan, the American Minister to Denmark; Miss Egan, and the German Minister, Count Henckel, had luncheon with Dr. Cook at the Hotel Angleterre to-day. This afternoon Mr. Egan gave a reception to the Diplomatic Corps to meet Dr. Cook.

A steamer with 400 English tourists on board arrived here this morning from England. The programme was to take the travelers on an excursion into the country, but the entire party remained in Copenhagen for the purpose of seeing Dr. Cook. They filled the corridors of the hotel in their eagerness to catch sight of the famous American.

Hovgaard Stands by Cook.

No one was more interested in Commander Peary's announcement than Commodore Hovgaard, who is an authority on arctic exploration.

"I said to Dr. Cook when I heard the news," the Commodore declared, "'you, at all events, were the first to reach the pole,' and there you have my opinion briefly. I think that in justice to Dr. Cook we should remember he got there first. He selected what seems to have been the best route."

"Could Peary have learned at the pole that Cook had been there before him?" Commodore Hovgaard was asked.

"That seems impossible. Even if Peary had been there two weeks, or two days, after Dr. Cook he might not have found any track of the first party because of the movement of the drift ice. It is probable also that the moving ice took away the metal box Cook left at the pole."

Commodore Hovgaard thought it probable that the north pole was a place which could not be permanently marked, and in conclusion he said that it had been a real race between Cook and Peary to get to the pole first and to be the first to return.

WELCOME FOR DR. COOK.

Coler Names a Committee Including H. L. Bridgman, Peary's Friend.

Word that Dr. Cook would be in Brooklyn on Sept. 21 was received by Borough President Bird S. Coler yesterday, in response to a cable message he sent to Copenhagen. The Borough President immediately appointed a committee of fifty to make arrangements for the Brooklyn reception. Among those he named are:

C. A. Havilland, Chairman; Supreme Court Justice William J. Gaynor, Judge Adolph Goettling, Timothy L. Woodruff, the Rev. J. M. Farrar, the Rev. Edward M. McCarthy, Hiram R. Steele, Robert G. MacFarland, William H. Nichols, Col. Andrew D. Baird, Col. Robert B. Woodward, Richard Young, Frank Squier, Coroner George V. Brewer, ex-Mayor Charles A. Schieren, Judson G. Wall, George Foster Peabody, Dr. Charles H. Levermore, Dr. Julian W. Abernathy, Franklin W. Hooper of the Brooklyn Institute, Col. George A. Price, J. Rogers Maxwell, Dr. George M. Brush, Joseph J. O'Connell, Charles M. Pratt, Justice Luke D. Stapleton, William H. Childs, George W. Kenyon, and Herbert L. Bridgman.

When Mr. Bridgman was informed that he had been appointed a member of the committee he exclaimed:

"Is that so? Well, I haven't heard it officially from Mr. Coler, and until I do I won't say anything about accepting or not."

BRIDGMAN CRITICISES COOK

In an Article Written Before Peary Was Heard From.

Herbert L. Bridgman, Secretary of the Peary Arctic Club and a recognized authority on arctic exploration, contributes an article to The Independent, which appears to-day, on "The Dash to the Pole." It was written before Commander Peary's announcement was made, and deals chiefly with Dr. Frederick A. Cook's claim to having reached the pole on April 21, 1908. It says in part:

"The announcement that the north pole, that lure of the century, has actually been reached comes so suddenly and from a quarter so unexpected that intelligent judgment on the fact is difficult. Naturally, writing for the public and forwarding this account by cable, only the personal and popular phases would be presented, and any statement of scientific results or data would be deferred.

"But Dr. Cook would probably not demand that scientific rank and weight should be given to his expedition. It was simply a duel with nature; man, stripped for the fight, incumbered only with the barest necessities, determined to make a life-and-death struggle for one thing only—the goal. But the world will ask that science, though not directly interested and served, shall verify the claim and shall attest the result.

"And therefore Dr. Cook will doubtless be only too willing to offer the data upon which the confirmation of his narrative will rest. Records, diaries, notebooks, locations, courses, and all indicia so well known to explorers will be produced and placed with the archives, either in original or in duplicate, of the principal geographic societies of the world.

"Had he by any possibility opened any of Peary's cairns at Cape Thomas Hubbard or Cape Columbia, or any of Sverdrup's in his Farthest Land and archipelago, the evidence would be conclusive and all the doubts forever silenced. Reading between the lines and dismissing at once for what they may be worth all the views, opinions, and comments with which the papers are just now so heavily burdened, the tale stands or falls by itself, and without witnesses or testimony."

After discussing past polar research and the outlook for further exploration, the article continues:

"Maybe this is not the time nor place to intrude ethics or etiquette, yet those who have followed arctic matters do not forget that Peary made all this possible, and they reserve until the facts are known their judgment. Eskimos had been trained by him, land explored, and seas charted, and only an unlucky delay of contractors, for which he was in no way responsible, kept him at home in the Summer of 1907. Everybody knew the facts; that his work was unfinished, postponed, and the fitting out of the Bradley by stealth, [the Bradley was Dr. Cook's ship,] equipped for field work, and stores and supplies for inland and sea ice marches, while, of course, within the prescriptive rights of her owner, invited remark among men who respect honor and observe fair play.

"Peary's plans were all as open as the day, and all of his countrymen knew that fifteen years of dauntless and undaunted work, in which he had accomplished many times more than all who had preceded him, were to be crowned by one final attempt to reach the coveted goal of centuries. That his men, methods, and reasonings should all be appropriated and the long struggle finished before he had had his fair and final opportunity is a transaction upon which the American people will render just judgment when they know all the facts. And in the meantime the past is already secure. Patience and more light."

HAS FAITH IN COOK'S WORD.

His Integrity Is Beyond Question, Says New Yorker Who Knows Him.

David T. Abercrombie of 311 Broadway, who equipped Dr. Cook for his trips to Mount McKinley and supplied the tent which he carried to the Far North, declared yesterday that no man who knows the Brooklyn explorer intimately will question that he was the first to reach the north pole.

"I never in my life met a more hard-headed, persistent man than Dr. Cook," said Mr. Abercrombie. "He has firm opinions and sticks to them. Some people have called him erratic, but he is not. He is a man of perfectly sound judgment, and is capable of carrying out his ideas, as is evidenced by his having made the trip to the pole.

"I introduced Dr. Cook to John H. Bradley, who later became his backer. Mr. Bradley knows that Dr. Cook is a man whose word can be depended on.

"If Dr. Cook did not go to the pole and has returned saying he did, there is only one way to account for it, that he must have become insane up north, and from the way he has talked and acted since he came back I rather think he is quite sane. Dr. Cook would not say he had discovered the pole just for the sake of getting a reputation.

"When I first met Dr. Cook he came to my place and told me the kind of tent he wanted to take to Mount McKinley. He wanted it made in the shape of an octagonal pyramid, unlike any tent I had ever made. Then he picked out some exceptionally light silk for it. I told him I thought it would not be strong enough, but he firmly declared that he knew better than I. It made me smile, because I had been in the business for years, and thought I knew pretty well the sort of material needed to withstand severe weather conditions. But there was no use in arguing with Dr. Cook. He would have his way, and he did. I made the tent, and it served all right at Mount McKinley, although Cook did tell me that the wind made it sag down quite a little. He took the same tent to the north pole. It doesn't weigh more than 3½ pounds, and can be folded so it can be put into a good-sized pocket.

"He had his own ideas about every feature of the equipment, and I could not tell him a thing. In his talk Dr. Cook is slow, but he always chooses his words carefully, and speaks methodically. He is not in the habit of using mere words.

"Mr. Bradley has told me that when he left Dr. Cook at Etah, just before Cook's trip to the pole, the explorer had $500 with him. He told Mr. Bradley he would not need any more, but was prevailed upon to take it. He did not carry as much food as is generally supposed, but depended upon killing game. He did not want to be burdened with a heavy load."

WHITNEY NOT WITH PEARY.

Message Received from Man Who Was with Both Explorers.

NEW HAVEN, Sept. 7.—Any doubt as to the safety of Harry Whitney of this city, who went north with the Peary expedition and stayed at Etah, Greenland, to hunt, was dispelled to-day by the receipt of the following message by Burdette F. Hughes of this city.

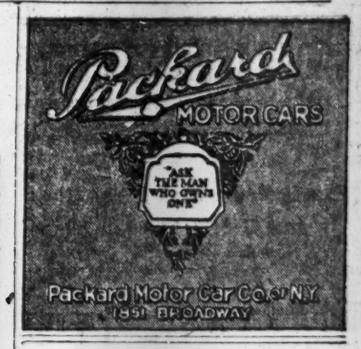
Hard Winter, leaving Roosevelt North Greenland; going after bear. Meet Roosevelt and return to New York. Have all things sent to New Haven. Captain understands. See you in October.
(Signed) HARRY WHITNEY.

The message as received here is taken to mean that Mr. Whitney is not returning with Commander Peary, but has left on a side trip to hunt game, planning his time so as to rejoin the Roosevelt when that vessel leaves for New York. The message was sent from Indian Harbor, Labrador, and came via Cape Ray.

Mr. Whitney, who has had previous experience in the cold regions of the north, went with the Peary expedition simply to hunt musk ox, polar bear, and other big game in Grant Land. It is over a year since any word came from him, his last letter coming down with the boat from Etah before navigation closed last Summer.

Some weeks ago a report gained currency that Mr. Whitney had been found frozen to death. His friends did not believe this, and yet could not account for such a report. Consequently there had been much anxiety over his safety, whereas during the long absence prior to the report no fear had been entertained as to his welfare, although he was supposed to be the only white man in the hunting trip, his companions being Eskimos.

When the news came that Dr. Cook had found the north pole, and the supplementary statement that records had been left by that explorer with Harry Whitney, a keen interest was awakened here in the arctic expeditions of both Dr. Cook and Commander Peary. Now that Mr. Whitney has been heard from his friends are particularly anxious for news of his meetings with both the explorers.



GIVES CREDIT TO COOK.

Rear Admiral Webster, Friend of Peary, Praises Both Explorers.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 7.—Rear Admiral H. E. Webster, U. S. N., retired, a personal friend of Commander Peary, highly commends the naval officer for his trip to the north pole. He gives credit, however, to Dr. Cook for having first discovered the pole, and says:

"Here we have two distinct types of men. Cook is an explorer, a quiet man, and one who seemed determined to carry out his plans without the advice of others. Perhaps others would have refused or did refuse to accept his idea of discovery. Peary, on the other hand, was known as a naval engineer, and naturally his exploits were more apt to attract the attention of the world at large.

"With the pride of an American I sincerely hope that both men will prove that they have found the pole, for it counts for much for what our country can accomplish. It is another proof of the fact that we are always in the front.

"It was said by some that Peary was too old a man to accomplish his task. This again proves that men of spirit and determination are never too old to carry out a purpose. It is the undaunted and undying American spirit."

SOUTH POLE DASHES NOW.

Dr. Wetherill of Philadelphia Is Planning to Make One.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—Now that the north pole has been discovered, explorers are asking what of the south pole? There will probably be a rush for that region.

Among those planning to go South are Dr. Henry E. Wetherill of 3734 Walnut Street, a surgeon and inspector of rifle practice in the Pennsylvania Naval Reserves, once a companion of Commander Peary in arctic travel and an inventor of scientific instruments. Dr. Wetherill is preparing to explore the region surrounding the south pole known as Wilkes Land, which, he said to-day, was the most fascinating field for the explorer to-day.

"It is a vast territory," he explained, "lying wholly within the antarctic circle, and in vastness can be said to be twice the size of the United States. Commander Wilkes of the United States Navy discovered it, approaching it from the south of Australia in 1840. Lieut. Shackleton crossed a section of this land on his recent dash toward the south pole, entering on it as well as I can understand from a point somewhat to the southward of South America.

"This great waste affords a fertile field for the explorer because it is land, and there is a chance of discovering interesting conditions. There is a comparatively small amount of land in the north polar regions, which makes that territory of less importance to my way of thinking, than this region surrounding the south pole."

Edwin Swift Balch, a member of the Philadelphia Philosophical Society and a leading authority on south polar conditions," said Dr. Wetherill, "has applied to the Philadelphia Geographical Society, and I think to two other societies, as well for support in Congress during the coming term. I understand that Congress will be asked to appropriate money for the expedition, which I should think would require about half a million dollars."

Dr. Wetherill has made formal application for the command of the expedition, should one be formed.

Best & Co.

The Only Store For Children Only

Every floor—every section of every floor—every shelf—every drawer—every counter filled with Things for Children Only.

Every one of our buyers, either in this country or abroad, especially selected for his or her knowledge of what Children want—specifically commissioned to supply Children's needs.

Every designer in our employ an expert in creating and fashioning the various articles of Children's wear.

All our efforts—all our resources—all our business energies devoted to the Outfitting of Children Only

In the most satisfactory manner,

At Prices as Low as Quality will permit.

60-62 West 23d Street

GEOGRAPHIC SOCIETY PLANS BIG BANQUET

Expectation Is That Peary, Cook, and Shackleton Will All Be Present.

MESSAGE SENT TO PEARY

Officers of the Organization Wire Congratulations from Washington—Navy Is Proud of His Achievement.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The National Geographic Society received to-day a message from Commander Robert E. Peary saying: "Have won out at last. The pole is ours."

To this the following reply was sent, through President Willis L. Moore and Secretary O. P. Austin:

Commander Robert E. Peary, Chateau Bay, Labrador:

In answer to your telegraphic report to this society that you have reached the north pole, the National Geographic Society, through the action of its Board of Managers to-day, extends to you its heartiest congratulations on your great achievement.

The geographical and other scientific experts in Washington who are interested in the report of Commander Peary's success in reaching the north pole are waiting patiently for detailed information of his exploit, confident that when it comes it will include convincing facts and data of scientific value.

No definite action in the way of preparing for honors or rewards for either Commander Peary or Dr. Cook will be taken until the full reports of each are available. There was an attempt made this afternoon to hold a special meeting of the Board of Managers of the National Geographic Society, but it was not possible to obtain a quorum, so no authoritative action was taken. Six members of the board did get together at the headquarters of the society in the Gardner Hubbard Memorial. They were Prof. Willis L. Moore, Prof. Henry Gannett, and O. P. Austin, President, Vice President, and Secretary, respectively, of the society, with Charles J. Bell, C. H. Merriam, and Col. Blount.

Will Wait for Reports.

There was considerable discussion of the question of the issuance of medals by the society to both Cook and Peary, but it was finally concluded not to undertake any such thing until the full reports of the two explorers were available for consideration.

Dr. Moore said that this was only the usual course, and was not to be taken in any way as indicating any doubt of the authenticity of Dr. Cook's reports. As the constitution of the Geographic Society makes seven members of the board a quorum it was not possible for the six members present at the meeting this afternoon to take authoritative action any way.

There is much interest in Washington as to the possible and probable honors which the Government may bestow upon Commander Peary. Not much is possible without the action of Congress. He is an officer of the navy, being a civil engineer with the relative rank of Commander. He is number 3 on the list of civil engineers, having been in the service since 1881. Section 1,506 of the Revised Statutes provides that "Any officer of the navy may, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, be advanced not exceeding thirty numbers in rank for eminent and conspicuous conduct in battle or extraordinary heroism."

Only Two Above Him.

As there are only two civil engineers higher in the list than Peary it is impossible to advance him more than two numbers. The "eminent and conspicuous conduct in battle" qualification, of course, would not cover the case, but it is held that he certainly does come under the "extraordinary heroism" qualification.

The President can also, of course, give Commander Peary a letter expressing his commendation, which would be supplemented by one from the Navy Department to the same effect.

Although no official action could be taken to-day it is understood that Commander Peary will be honored by a decoration from the Geographic Society. The presentation probably will be made at the society's annual banquet next December. The society will probably present medals to Dr. Cook and Lieut. Shackleton on that occasion.

If Peary accepts the invitation that will be extended to him the banquet will be the most brilliant in the annals of the society, with two north pole explorers—Cook and Peary—and the British explorer who penetrated farthest south in seeking the south pole—Lieut. Shackleton—as the star figures.

Dr. O. H. Tittman, the head of the United States Coast and Goedetic Society, is already on his way to England bearing the informal invitation of the society to Cook and Shackelton. Peary's exploit had not become known when Supt. Tittman sailed last Sunday, but he will be advise tod include Peary on the banquet programme. Lieut. Shackelton is now in England, and the other two explorers will soon be back in America.

Navy Department Notified.

Through Herbert L. Bridgman, Secretary of the Peary Arctic Club, formal official notification of Commander Peary's achievement in reaching the north pole was made known to the Government to-day. Mr. Bridgman sent a dispatch to the Secretary of the Navy, in which he says that Commander Peary telegraphs from Indian Harbor, Labrador, as follows:

North pole reached April 6 by Peary Arctic Club expedition under my command.

Commander Peary has not yet communicated directly with the Navy Department regarding the results of his expedition. He is on leave of absence from the navy, and in the monthly published list giving the addresses and duties of officers of the navy and Marine Corps is put down as being on duty under the Coast and Geodetic Survey, making tidal observations on the coast of Grantland and Greenland. Although official etiquette does not require that Commander Peary make a report to the Secretary of the Navy, it is probable that he will do so.

The Coast and Geodetic Survey is very proud of Commander Peary's achievement in reaching the pole. The Commander was under detail to the Coast Survey during his expedition, and the entire service feels that it will receive some reflected glory from the result. It is also believed that the world at large will be benefited in many ways by Mr. Peary's observations.

The survey is especially interested in tidal currents of the polar region, and it is believed that the Peary report, when made, will afford much information regarding them. Said Acting Supt. Perkins to-day, in discussing the subject:

Interest in Polar Tides.

"The first service which the survey will expect of Mr. Peary after his arrival will be the preparation of a detailed report of his expedition. We are especially interested in such tidal observations as he was able to make, and these will be of great importance in the study of the circulation within the polar basin, as well as in the general study of the laws governing the tidal currents of the world."

Mr. Perkins also expressed confidence that Mr. Peary would be able to report the location of land nearer to the pole than hitherto has been found. The nearest known earth to the pole is Crocker Land, but Peary Land is almost as near. Both are about 390 miles distant from the apex of the world, but the officials of the survey are convinced from the direction of the currents that there is a comparatively large body of land somewhat further to the west and nearer to the pole than Crocker Land, and they believe that Peary will be able to supply information concerning it. The incomplete report of Dr. Cook's observations sustains them in this theory as far as they go.

Commander Peary's arrival and complete report will be awaited with great interest, but it is not expected that he will come to Washington until after a more or less prolonged stay in New York.

Dual Discovery Supports Both.

Acting Supt. Perkins, who is also a member of the Geographic Society, declared to-day that to his mind the dual discovery of the north pole strengthens the claims of each explorer.

"Commander Peary went equipped with all modern instruments with which to record his observations and demonstrate the truth of his discovery," said Mr. Perkins. "The question now resolves itself into one of priority, and Commander Peary and Dr. Cook doubtless will fight that out between themselves.

"According to Dr. Cook, he discovered the pole before Peary started. That detracts nothing from Peary's honor and glory. Each explorer has fought his battles without the aid of the observations of the other. There is honor enough for both."

Peary in Arctic Costume and Scenes in the Far North.

Eskimos near the Erick, the Peary Relief Ship. The ship is in the ice in the exact location where the crew of Sir John Franklin's expedition perished.
PHOTO UNDERWOOD UNDERWOOD

Two Polar Bears slain by the Eskimos with harpoons and brought to the Erick.
PHOTO. UNDERWOOD & UNDERWOOD.

Peary, Photographed with three of his dogs on his last expedition.
PHOTO. BROWN BROS.

MRS. PEARY READY TO START.

Makes Preparations to Go to Sydney, N. S., to Meet Her Husband.

SOUTH HARPSWELL, Me., Sept. 7.—Mrs. Robert E. Peary, who has been spending the Summer at Eagle Island, the Peary Summer estate, was the recipient all day long of a steady stream of telegrams and letters of congratulation because of her husband's achievements. Up to this evening Mrs. Peary had received no message from her husband other than that which came yesterday, in which he announced his success. She is anxiously expecting a second message telling her husband's wishes in regard to her meeting him. Mrs. Peary spent part of the day in making preparations to start for Sydney, N. S., immediately upon receipt of further direct advices from her husband.

The explorer's wife received a telegram this afternoon from Herbert L. Bridgeman, secretary of the Peary Arctic Club, saying that he would leave New York to-night on a train which arrives in Portland at 6:30 A. M. to-morrow, on his way to North Sydney, and asking Mrs. Peary to join him.

Mrs. Peary sent word to Mr. Bridgman that she could not meet him at Portland, but requested him to secure her rooms at Sydney with a view of the bay, so she can see the Roosevelt when it first puts in an appearance.

Mrs. Peary to-day sent a message to Mrs. Morris K. Jesup, widow of the late President of the Peary Arctic Club. It was Mr. Jesup who furnished the money to build the steamer Roosevelt and fit out her first expedition in 1905. The message read: "Peary has nailed the Stars and Stripes to the north pole."

Mrs. Jesup is at Hancock Point, Me., where the family has passed the Summers for a number of years. This was the last American port at which the Roosevelt called on her first trip north. Mr. Jesup's picture occupies a prominent place in the Roosevelt's cabin.

Miss Marie Peary was kept busy most of the day answering the salutes of passing vessels. Every craft possessing a whistle saluted as it passed Eagle Island, and to each salute Miss Peary responded by dipping the Stars and Stripes, which was unfurled from the tall flagstaff yesterday upon the receipt of the news, "Stars and Stripes nailed to north pole." There were no visitors except a few close friends who are passing the Summer here.

Commander Peary has no clothing except his furthest north costume of furs, and his wife will take suitable apparel to Sydney.

"Please don't call me 'the snow baby,'" said Miss Peary to-day. "I don't like it." Miss Peary, who is the only white child born north of the arctic circle, is now 16 years old and a student in Western High School, Washington, D. C. She said she hoped that "Dad may be home to celebrate my sixteenth birthday next Sunday." Robert E. Peary, Jr., the other child, was 6 years old a week ago Sunday.

Miss Marie to-day guided the correspondent through the paths about the pine-covered islet, which was purchased by Commander Peary when a Bowdoin student thirty-five years ago, and is occupied exclusively by his family and a keeper. These paths were laid out by her father. She showed his favorite walk, named "Fern Valley Path," extending the length of the island; and also "Black Forest," a thick clump of pines, sheltered from the winds but always cool and refreshing, where he has spent much time in reading and study. Eagle Island is one of the most exposed of the 365 in Casco Bay, and is fifteen miles from Portland.

The Peary cottage is a story and a half frame building, situated on a fifty-foot bluff and commanding a magnificent view of the inner bay and of the sea. An Eskimo dog, 3 years old, whose Eskimo name translated means "Our Friend," is a pet of the household.

THE BOY PEARY PLAYED "POLE."

His Chum Tells About It and the Book That Inspired Them.

Special to The New York Times.

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 7.—Judge Edward C. Reynolds of South Portland, a lifelong friend of Commander Peary, is happy over Peary's success.

"Personally, I haven't the least doubt that 'Bert' reached the pole," he said. "He was as determined the last day I was with him as could be. In fact, his determination and zeal may have led him into danger, but I believe that if Dr. Cook discovered the pole he did so following the route as mapped out by Commander Peary before he left for his last dash to the pole.

"Had Commander Peary wanted to have 'faked' he could have done so many times. Had Peary's report been the first given to the world no one would have doubted its authenticity. He told me frequently that he would not hurry once there was a chance of reaching the goal, but that he would obtain every fact possible to benefit the world of science, and I am confident that the world will be much benefited by Peary's discovery.

"Here," continued Judge Reynolds, "is the primal cause of Bert's polar quest." He exhibited a well-worn copy of "The Arctic," written by Dr. Elisha Kent Kane in 1868.

"We read this book together," he said, "and Bert was fascinated by the tale. As boys we used to make imaginary journeys to the far north. I recollect that once in Washington Bert said to me that I was the cause of his polar fever, and that the germ came from that book of Dr. Kane's."

PEARY'S SURGEON WIRES.

"All Is Well. Love," Is Message from Dr. Goodsell to Wife.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 7.—A message has been received at New Kensington, Penn., by Mrs. John Goodsell from her husband, who is surgeon of the Peary north pole expedition. It is as follows:

Indian Harbor, via Cape Ray, N. F., Sept. 6.
All is well. Love.
(Signed.) JOHN.

Mrs. Goodsell and her daughter, Mrs. L. F. Shaner, happily expressed their satisfaction that the expedition was successful and was homeward bound.

FIRST TO THE POLE.

Dispatch to London Says Peary Has Asserted Priority.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The Reuter Telegram Company publishes a dispatch from St. John's, N. F., in which it is said that Commander Peary claims that he was the first man to reach the north pole.

MRS. JESUP ELATED.

Widow of Former President of the Arctic Club Gets the News.

BAR HARBOR, Me., Sept. 7.—Mrs. Morris K. Jesup, widow of the late President of the Peary Arctic Club, to-day received a message from Mrs. R. E. Peary announcing Commander Peary's success.

Mrs. Jesup was elated at the news, because her husband had taken such a prominent part in arctic explorations. She said that she was anxious to hear full details of the trip. Mrs. Jesup announced to-day the purchase of a lot of land on Mount Desert Street, on which she will build a library in memory of Mr. Jesup.

DEFENDS COOK'S CLAIM.

Southern Educator Says Attitude of Those Who Doubt Is Unreasonable.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Sept. 7.—"I think it entirely probable that both Cook and Peary have reached the pole," said Prof. Paul M. Rea of the College of Charleston to-day. "Certainly the attitude of those who would repudiate Cook without giving him a hearing is entirely unreasonable. Some things in his story, especially as regards temperatures, seem unreasonable, but I have no doubt that he will be able to explain all these matters satisfactorily."

Peary's Success Known on Aug. 14.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The Copenhagen correspondent of The Daily Telegraph states that a letter was received there to-day from a Danish lady at Jakobshavn, Greenland, in which the writer says it was known there on Aug. 14 that Peary had reached the pole.

BROOKLYN TAKES IT CALMLY.

McCarren, Anyway, Not for Gaynor—To be Nominated by Petition.

Justice Gaynor's admission that he was willing to be an utterly independent candidate for Mayor on the Tammany, Republican, Independence, League, and lesser tickets was received with strange calmness in Brooklyn yesterday, busy with enthusiasm over the achievement of its other favorite son, Dr. Cook.

Professional politicians in Brooklyn viewed the Justice's letter in different lights. The obtaining opinion among them seemed to be that the jurist had blithely made himself a unanimous candidate, without regard to the feelings of the supposed unanimous ones. To begin with, the Brooklyn Democracy, as represented by the powerful organization of which the distinguished Williamsburg statesman, Patrick Henry McCarren, is the sole proprietor, has, in frankly unpleasant terms, "no use for Gaynor as a candidate." It may be said plainly and truthfully that McCarren views the prospect of Gaynor being elected by Tammany with the restrained enthusiasm of a feather boa finding itself in the midst of a three-alarm fire. McCarren is for Metz for Mayor, but he has come to look upon this as a forlorn hope.

The citizens who wrote the letter to Gaynor which drew from him his statement as to his attitude have made no move yet toward putting his independent candidacy into shape. Frank J. Price of Brooklyn, one of the signers of the letters to Gaynor, said yesterday:

"We of this so-called committee in no wise constitute a political body. We are simply a group of citizens of all shades of political opinion who are convinced that the voters of New York want the most able and sincere man for Mayor. So far as I know no plans have been perfected for completing the candidacy of Justice Gaynor. He will be nominated by petition. Soon we will have a meeting when we will decide upon some plan of action. The most likely course, I think, will be to secure the indorsement of Justice Gaynor by the regular organizations. It will not matter to us, however, whether or not they indorse him; we will proceed with his candidacy, and we are sure he will be elected."

Mayor Stoy Waives Examination.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 7.—Mayor F. P. Stoy, arrested on Saturday by reformers under the State law which makes it a misdemeanor to refuse to force obedience to Sunday closing laws, waived a hearing before Magistrate Hughes this afternoon and was held in $5,000 bail for his appearance before the Grand Jury. Bail was entered for the Mayor by President Carlton Godfrey of the Guarantee Trust Company.

TWO BANKS GIVE WAY.

Ten Miles of Santa Fe Tracks Washed Out—No Lives Lost.

ALBUUQERQUE, N. M., Sept. 7.—The Bluewater Development Company's dam one of the largest private irrigation projects in the Southwest, owned largely by Chicago capitalists, and the Zuni dam, a Government reclamation project, both near Gallup, N. M., broke loose to-day.

Ten miles of the Santa Fé track are reported washed out and thirty-five under water. No loss of life is reported.

JOHNSON IS RENOMINATED.

Mayor of Cleveland Now Seeking a Fourth Term.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 7.—Incomplete returns indicate that Tom L. Johnson, three times Mayor of Cleveland, was renominated for that position on the Democratic ticket at the primary election held here to-day. Herman C. Baehr is the probable Republican nominee for the same position. A heavy vote was cast by both sides.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 7.—Dr. Louis Schaab won the Republican nomination for Mayor of Cincinnati in the primary election to-day without opposition.

Early returns show that John W. Peck, a lawyer, is leading for the Mayoralty nomination on the Democratic ticket against former State Senator Alfred M. Copen.

GERMAN ARMY MANOEUVRES.

STUTTGART, Germany, Sept. 7.—The imperial Autumn manoeuvres of the German Army began to-day with the review by Emperor William and the Empress of the Würtemberg Army Corps. His Majesty has come down into Southern Germany for the purpose of directing the comprehensive field operations. All the troops of Bavaria, Würtemberg, and Baden, about 116,000 men of all arms, will take part in the exercises.

Manoeuvres on such a large scale have not taken place in Germany since 1890. What in time of war would correspond to the rapid mobilization of the South German forces is now in progress. One army, commanded by Field Marshal Prince Leopold of Bavaria and consisting of two Bavarian and one Würtemberg corps, is engaging another army composed of the Third Bavarian and the Baden Corps, commanded by Gen. Bock von Polach. The two armies will come in contact in the northeast corner of Würtemberg Sept. 12.

Speaking at a dinner last night in the City Hall of Stuttgart, Emperor William said, among other things, that through the unity of the German peoples the peace of the world was assured.

STRATHCONA IN RUNAWAY.

Thrown from His Carriage in Dash Down Steep Hill.

WINNIPEG, Manitoba, Sept. 7.—Lord Strathcona narrowly escaped serious injury in an accident near Vernon, B. C., Saturday evening. He drove out from Vernon to visit Lord Aberdeen's fruit farm. On a steep hill near Long Lake, about three miles from town the team became unmanageable and bolted down the road toward the lake.

At the foot of the hill there is a sharp turn of the road. The carriage was overturned and the occupants were thrown to the ground. Former Mayor Megaw of Vernon had his leg broken. Lord Strathcona's right arm was bruised and he carries it in a sling.

KEEPING WATCH ON CASTRO.

Venezuelan Authorities Send Agents to Porto Rico.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Sept. 7.—Two representatives sent here by President Gomez of Venezuela are watching for the possible landing of ex-President Castro.

They say that a large reward will be given to any one submitting information of an attempt by Gen. Castro to land at Porto Rico or the adjacent islands.

J. Whitcomb Cotton.

PETERBORO, N. H., Sept. 7.—J. Whitcomb Cotton, President of the American Tube Works, died of apoplexy at the Bleak House here to-day. Mr. Cotton's home was in Boston.

Two Great Books

by the most talked of men in the world to-day:

COOK

To the Top of the Continent

His record of the first triumphant scaling of Mount McKinley, Alaska, 20,390 feet high. Very fully illustrated.

Net, $2.50. (Postage 25 cents.)

PEARY

Nearest the Pole

A hair-raising recital of his discoveries and explorations in the Arctic regions in 1906. Elaborately illustrated.

Net, $4.80. (Postage 34 cents.)

DOUBLEDAY PAGE & CO

Frederick Loeser & Co.

In every detail the Leading Retail Establishment of Brooklyn.

"Wonderful Linens for the Money."

That Was Housekeepers' Verdict Yesterday.

WOMEN KNOW LINENS. Every housekeeper grows enthusiastic over beautiful Linens. And the Loeser Linen Store yesterday was a centre of enthusiasm that well repaid all the effort we made in preparing for this annual sale.

Everything in the Sale is of a quality that commends itself to good judgment. These are Linens that won't grow cottony after a few launderings. They come from makers on whom we have relied for years—and they come at such wonderfully low prices now largely because those makers have taken a strong interest in the success of this Sale.

Quantities are so very large that we can repeat these offerings for to-day at least:

$1 a yard, regularly $1.25 and $1.35. Extra heavy all linen satin damask. Table Linen, 2 yards wide.

Napkins—Bargains.

All linen, full bleached Napkins, broken lots, priced at a fourth to a third less than regular:

17 inch size.....95c. a dozen
20 inch size..$1.25, $1.50, $2 doz
22 inch size..$2 and $2.50 a dozen
24 inch size..$2.75, $3, $3.98 doz
26 inch size.....$4.98 a dozen

Table Cloths.

2x2 yards, regularly $2.50, at...$2
2x2½ yards, regularly $3, at..$2.50
2x3 yards, regularly $4.50, at..$3.50
2x4 yards, regularly $5, at.....$4
2¼x2¼ yds., regularly $4.50..$3.50

Napkins.

20 inch size.....$2.25 a dozen
22 inch size.....$2.75 a dozen
24 inch size.....$3.25 a dozen

Hemstitched Cloths and Napkins. A Record Offering.

There is a wide variety of pretty designs for choice. Table Cloths range in size from 2x2 yards up to 2¼x4 yards; the Napkins are in sizes 18x18, 20x20 and 24x24. Here are hints of the prices:

$3.50 Table Cloths at.....$2.49
$4 Table Cloths at.....$2.98
$4.50 Table Cloths at.....$3.49
$5 Table Cloths at.....$3.98
$5.50 Table Cloths at.....$4.25
$6 Table Cloths at.....$4.49
$6.50 Table Cloths at.....$4.98
$6.75 Table Cloths at.....$5.75
25c. Napkins at.....25c. each
40c. Napkins at.....29c. each
50c. Napkins at.....35c. each

Main Floor, Rear.

Surely the Time to Buy Blankets and Comfortables

ALL THE YEAR THROUGH we sell Blankets, Bedspreads and Comfortables for the smallest prices possible through very large purchasing.

But now we are doing even better than that. In some cases we are making prices that are a low record—just so that this annual sale shall repeat its history of unrivaled economies to housekeepers.

Here are some of the offerings that kept double the usual number of salespeople twice as busy as usual in the Blanket Store yesterday:

Full Size Silkoline Comfortables at 63c.
Full Size White Bedspreads at 50c.

$5 Blankets at $3.75.
$5 Blankets at $3.98.
$5.50 Blankets at $4.69.
$6.50 Blankets at $5.
$10 Blankets at $7.50.
$3 to $8 Blankets at $2 to $5.50.
$1.39 Bedspreads at 89c.
$1.75 Bedspreads at $1.25.
$3 Bedspreads at $1.85.
$1.75 Comfortables at $1.25.
$2.75 Comfortables at $1.69.
Heavy Winter Comfortables—
$1, regularly $1.50.
$1.25, regularly $1.75.
$1.89, regularly $2.50.
$3, regularly $4.50.

Basement.

The Loeser $2 Broadcloth.

102 Autumn Shades : : Spotproof.

THIS ARISTOCRAT AMONG DRESS FABRICS, as the Loeser $2 Broadcloth deserves to be called, has been one of the season's features for many years. To-day we will open the autumn showing of these beautiful Broadcloths in 102 of the rich autumn shades, a gorgeous array, chiefly in mellow tones, and the fabric itself more pliable and velvety to the touch than ever.

Many of these colors were dyed expressly for us and are exclusive. It is a pleasure to assure the women who will come to buy this Broadcloth that it is exactly the same quality as last year, with no increase in price or decrease of merit because of the new tariff. The Broadcloth has a high satin lustre, and is guaranteed spotproof. A feast of beauty and richness awaits to-day's inspection. The unusual width of the fabric—54 inches—makes it wonderfully inexpensive at the price.

The range of colors includes all the staple shades and the following new ones:

Mignonette	Raisin	Shrimp	Chicory
Walnut	Wild Rose	Orange	Seal
Artichoke	Prussian Blue	Drake	Olive
Chamois	Copper	Prune	Plum
Bottle Green	Cedar	Poussiere	Carob
Myrtle Green	Navy	Wood	Lichen
Burgundy	Nutmeg	Moss

Such Superb Dress Trimmings As Never Before Were Shown.

WE HAVE BEEN UNPACKING SOME of the new Dress Trimmings from Paris. We have put some in the windows and show more in the cases on the main floor. And it is a show of such richness, novelty and beauty as even Paris never sent us until now.

"It would give me pleasure if these color harmonies could be framed and hung where I could always see them," said a man this morning. "Surely, they are the work of artists."

And they are.

Ancient stained glass windows in some of the most famous churches of Europe have been the inspiration for some.

The riches of Egyptian and other Oriental art have been searched for others. There are such tunics of gold, iridescent and steel beads and jewels as Cleopatra might have worn.

Rich, dull colors, jet, pearls, fringes, wood silk embroideries—silver, gray, turquoise, iridescent green—the effects are superb and the simplicity of application makes it easy to "make" a dress with one of these ornaments, or garnitures, or tunics.

THE NEW SCARFS AND PALETOTS

make another distinctive feature of autumn dress for which Paris has sent us some wonderful and beautiful effects. Exquisite embroideries, long fringes, delicate colors and Egyptian effects; some combinations of painting and embroidery, some two-toned chiffons—all absolutely new and altogether charming.

More of the Syrian Metallic Scarfs are here now—our direct importation from Egypt, where they are slowly and carefully wrought by peasant fingers. There is no more extensive showing in America, and nothing more beautiful as an accessory for an evening gown.

Main Floor, Front.

Exhibition and Sale of College and High School Posters

In Full Colors, Framed and Unframed.

THE JOLLIEST EXHIBIT OF PICTURE POSTERS imaginable is ready here now, and shows glimpses behind the scenes that will fitly enliven the walls of any "den." One whole room in the Picture Department is devoted to this display, and such artists as Christy, Fisher, Underwood, Kimball, Blumenthal and others have devoted their art to such scenes as "A Hard Night's Study," "The Student as His Mother Sees Him," "The Student as His Father Sees Him," "Hey, Fellers! A Peach!" "The First Welsh Rarebit—the Wrong Kind of Cheese," and other strenuous bits, with dashing color effects and in a wide range.

The Student Series, 11x15, black oak frames.....59c
Professional Series, 14x24, black oak frames.....89c
Football Series, 23x29, black oak frames.....$1.50
Victory and Celebration Series, 16x42 black oak frames.....$1.50
Also a large assortment of unframed College Posters at 25c. and 50c. each Small Posters passepartouted.....10c. each

Pictures framed in correct manner and in exclusive styles. The Loeser Guarantee insures the lowest prices for best quality and workmanship.

Third Floor.

WESTERN UNION MAN HELD AS NEWS THIEF

District Superintendent Altberger Charged with Selling Stock Quotations Privately.

EXCHANGES COMPLAINED

Said Others Than Subscribers Were Getting the Service—Altberger Denies the Charges.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—John P. Altberger, Superintendent of the fourth district of the Eastern division of the Western Union Telegraph Company, which includes this city and Altoona and the territory between, was arrested to-day on the charge of larceny committed by the selling of information obtained from messages sent over the Western Union wires. He was held under $5,000 bail for a further hearing in two weeks. Bail was furnished by Claude Jarvis, President of the Quaker City Cab Company. It is said that the case involves a matter of $30,000. When seen to-night Altberger protested his innocence and intimated that the charges brought against him had been trumped up by persons below him desiring promotion.

Altberger had just returned from Europe when he was faced with the charges of the telegraph company, which, it is alleged, are being brought because of complaints of the New York Stock Exchange and the Chicago oBard of Trade. It is the quotations from the stock markets which Altberger is alleged to have sold to persons who were not subscribers.

Altberger had been shadowed all the way from New York to this city. As he stepped from the train at the Broad Street Station, Capt. Lanyon of the Western Union detective service showed him the warrant for his arrest. He took Altberger to Magistrate Gallagher's office, where Magistrate Carey, sitting in place of Magistrate Gallagher, who is ill, held him under bail.

The hearing was perfunctory, and little evidence was brought out by the prosecution. George S. Graham, the attorney for the company, declared that Altberger had obtained thousands of dollars from persons to whom he had sold stock quotations. It was alleged that bucket shops had been enabled in this way to receive information on the stock market at the same time as the regular subscribers.

Following the hearing Altberger left the Magistrate's court in a taxicab and obtained his bail. He then returned to his home, at 1013 South Forty-sixth Street.

For some time past there have been constant leaks in the stock quotations of the New York Stock Exchange and the Chicago Board of Trade, in the sending of which, together with the racing results, the Western Union has a monopoly. Inspectors have been making investigations in Philadelphia and vicinity for several weeks. It is said that they found that no wires had been tapped, but that the leak must have come through the sending of the contents of the duplicates, which are made from every dispatch that is transmitted over the wires.

The Superintendent has access to these duplicates. Altberger, as Superintendent of the division in which the majority of the leakages occurred, fell under suspicion.

Altberger was anxious to deny charges of extravagance. He said that his income was decidedly more than $4,000 a year. He said that he received a good deal in tips; that he had private sources of income, and he added:

"I buy stocks when they are low and sell them when they are high."

He denied also the talk that he was extravagant in the matter of his automobile, which, he declared, had cost him only $6,000.

"I do not own a single piece of real estate," he continued, "and I am paying exactly $52.50 a month rent. We only keep one servant. Altogether, I do not think I can be said to be living beyond my income."

"All the stock quotations are sent into the office at Third and Chestnut Streets," he continued. "I am stationed at Fifteenth and Chestnut Streets. My office is ten stories below that of the operating room where the messages which come into the main office are received. As to wire tapping, why I couldn't climb a telegraph pole if I wanted to. Besides, only a short time ago when the company had been aroused by wire-tapping which had been perpetrated in the West, they had a thorough investigation made of all the wires going from our office. Every wire was traced by hand over roofs and houses, and at the end of the investigation a report was made which was very flattering to me. I did not even know that there had been anything wrong. The only way I can explain the charges brought against me is that some man anxious for promotion has been persuaded to fix up proof against me."

Only a few months ago two of the chiefs in Pittsburg were arrested for tapping the wires and selling information obtained. Elgin B. Saylor, Assistant Superintendent, and John Barto, Wire Chief, the two men in question, have both been indicted on this score. Barto is still in jail, being unable to procure bail.

Saylor was an assistant to William B. Gill, whom Altberger succeeded as Superintendent in 1902, having held a similar position in Denver for eight years. He has been in the service twenty-seven years. He began work as a messenger boy at his home, in College Point, L. I.

The alleged diversion of quotations from the wires of the Western Union Telegraph Company has been under investigation by the company for some time. In a recent case in Pittsburg it was charged that a bucket shop in collusion with an official of the telegraph company had succeeded in tapping the company's wires and had received quotations from the Chicago Board of Trade from five to ten minutes ahead of the delivery of these quotations over the wires leased to regular brokers. The effort to prevent stock and produce quotations being illegitimately used by bucket shops has engaged the attention of the Exchanges of this and other cities for a long time.

ARRESTS IN DIVORCE PLOT.

Mrs. Reiners of Brooklyn Exposes Husband's Conspiracy and He Is Held.

ATLANTIC CITY, Sept. 7.—Mrs. Marion Reiners, wife of A. Fred Reiners, who is said to be the son of a liquor dealer of Brooklyn, testifying before Vice Chancellor Leaming here this afternoon, made statements which caused the Vice Chancellor to throw the husband's suit for divorce out of court, and to order arrests on charges of conspiracy.

Mrs. Reiners, testifying in her own behalf, charged that her husband had entered into a conspiracy with a man named George Montgomery of Brooklyn and Thomas Shrill of this city to obtain evidence of misconduct against her. Shrill is a Constable of this county, and lives here.

The woman testified that she was plied with drinks, taken to a resort in the Tenderloin in New York, and then Shrill attempted to take her to a private apartment by force. She escaped, she said, and became a nervous wreck.

Reiners and Montgomery were at once arraigned before Vice Chancellor Leaming, who held them under $2,000 bail each to answer the charge of conspiracy. The police are looking for Shrill.

Big Iceberg in Steamer Lane.

Capt. Smith of the White Star liner Adriatic, incoming from Southampton, sent a Marconi wireless message yesterday stating that in latitude 46 degrees 47 minutes and longitude 40 degrees 48 minutes he had sighted an iceberg about 600 feet long.

TRIED FOR KILLING SOLDIER.

Private Who Shot Fleeing Comrade Says Officer Commanded It.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 7.—The trial of Lieut. W. L. Hazlehurst and Private Grover B. Elama of the Seventeenth Infantry on charges of manslaughter growing out of the killing of Private Edward W. Coulter of Company D, Seventeenth Infantry, on the night of Aug. 7 opened before the general court-martial at Fort McPherson to-day.

The principal witness of the first day's proceedings was Private Elam, who fired the shot that killed Coulter. Lieut. Hazelhurst had taken a squad to investigate a disturbance in a "near-beer" saloon near the fort. On approaching the saloon two soldiers ran out and made for the reservation. One was captured, but Coulter failed to obey a command to halt, and was shot down by Private Elam, who claims to have acted under orders from the Lieutenant.

"Coulter was escaping from me," declared Elam. "I didn't know whether to shoot or not, so I asked my officer. I understood simply to reply, 'Yes, shoot.' On that command I fired and Coulter fell."

He said that he would not swear that Hazlehurst did not say more than merely "Yes, shoot," but he heard nothing more.

Private Elmer N. Smith of the squad testified that Private Pinkston, who ran out of the saloon with Coulter, obeyed the command to halt and was left in his charge while Hazlehurst and Elam continued in pursuit of Coulter. He did not hear the order to fire. He testified that Pinkston was intoxicated.

After Coulter fell, Lieut. Hazlehurst said, according to the witness: "Why, I told you to fire into the air."

HARRIMAN RELAPSE DENIED BY DOCTOR

Continued from Page 1.

unusual excitement. Dr. Lyle and Miss Carol Harriman were seen sitting on a sofa in the parlor laughing over photographs in an album. The bedrooms were not lighted.

Judge R. F. Lovett, Mr. Harriman's chief counsel, attended a meeting of the Union and Southern Pacific Directors in New York to-day, and after dinner to-night hurried to Arden, arriving at 9 o'clock.

HARRIMAN STOCKS WEAK.

Sick Man's Relapse Disturbs Wall Street—His Real Condition.

The concern caused in the financial district by the news of the relapse which E. H. Harriman suffered on Sunday was reflected in the stock market yesterday by declines of from 1 to over 5 points in the stocks with which Mr. Harriman's name is associated. The opening prices for the active stocks were very generally below last Friday's close, declines having meanwhile occurred in the London market. The first sale of Union Pacific was 5½ points under the last sale before the triple holiday, and the first sales recorded on the tape showed such further declines as 3¾ in Southern Pacific, 3⅛ in New York Central, and 2⅝ in Reading.

The opening declines were followed by a general recovery, but all the ground gained was lost in another selling movement which occurred shortly before the market closed. Reports of the gravest import were circulated regarding Mr. Harriman, and to these were added rumors that during the day a conference of Mr. Harriman's associates and other bankers was held to consider matters connected with the security markets. It was denied, however, that any such conference had been held, and before the close of the day improvement was reported to have taken place in Mr. Harriman's condition.

A close friend of Mr. Harriman said last evening he had heard that Mr. Harriman showed signs of improvement yesterday morning and that he made further progress during the day. Last evening, this friend of the financier said, the improvement in Mr. Harriman's condition was quite substantial.

Robert S. Lovett, Vice President and General Counsel of the Harriman lines, left the Union Pacific offices early in the afternoon and went to Arden. Later Mr. Harriman's secretary said that the reports regarding the relapse which Mr. Harriman had experienced had been greatly exaggerated.

The nature of the trouble from which Mr. Harriman is suffering was explained yesterday in an authorized statement made to The Associated Press by an intimate friend of Mr. Harriman. This statement said:

Nature of Mr. Harriman's Illness.

"I think the time has now come when the public should understand the nature of Mr. Harriman's illness. As you know he is not a strong man at best. He is very slender and very nervous, and of course has been loaded down with tremendous responsibilities. Last year there developed a difficulty at the point where the stomach enters the intestines. This is sometimes called a rheumatic knot, sometimes rheumatism, and sometimes indigestion. It is at the point which is known in anatomy as the secum. Mr. Harriman, under the advice of his physician, went to San Antonio and camped near the hot wells that are situated there. He was under the care of Dr. Graves, a well-known physician. These wells have a temperature of about 110 degrees Fahrenheit, and are strongly impregnated with sulphur. They are therefore alterative and laxative in their nature, and perhaps the best in this country for an ailment such as Mr. Harriman had.

"In dealing with the case it was important that Mr. Harriman should avoid nervous excitement, and the location at San Antonio seemed particularly favorable. He improved greatly while there, and felt well enough to go on to the Pacific Coast, but he could not avoid the strain attendant upon his enormous business interests.

"Then when he returned to New York his physicians concluded that it would be best for him to go abroad to Bad Gastein. This he did, accompanied by Dr. Lyle. At Bad Gastein things went very well, save that Mr. Harriman lost weight rapidly, and at the end of the treatment this man, who at best is very frail, weighed ten pounds less than he did at the beginning. He then went to Vienna, where he was examined by Dr. Kovak, the most eminent diagnostician in Europe. He was fed bismuth and rice and an examination was made by X ray, and skyagraphs were made.

The Raid on Harriman Stocks.

"About this time some people in Wall Street took advantage of Mr. Harriman's absence and made a raid on his property, and, assuming that his career was over, even announced the name of his successor. Drs. Lyle and Kovak, after considering the matter thoroughly, felt that the best thing for Mr. Harriman to do was to return to the United States. It was all very well to tell him to let his business alone, but four thousand miles away with his enemies struggling to unhorse him, this was impossible. His physicians found that there was no necessity for an immediate operation, and that if he came back to the United States and went to Arden he would be in intimate touch with his affairs, he would be given food which would be much more to his liking, and at his isolated home could be free from interruption. At the same time Dr. Kovak suggested that there were eminent surgeons and diagnosticians in this country who could be consulted.

"Acting upon this advice Mr. Harriman returned. The voyage was not a good one, and he suffered from seasickness. The nausea was not a good thing for him, and he arrived in New York very weak, but with tremendous courage. He went out to Arden and a little later Drs. Janeway of New York and Crile of Cleveland went there. After an investigation, they confirmed Dr. Kovak's view that it was unwise to operate at once, and that the best results could be obtained by preserving quiet and avoiding business anxieties as much as possible.

"Later Mr. Harriman concluded to go back to the San Antonio hot wells, and last week he made arrangements with Dr. Graves to do so as soon as he was able. Later he had Dr. Frank Billings of Chicago come on and diagnose the case. Dr. Billings confirmed all that the physicians said that had preceded him. The rumor that epithelioma (cancer) has developed is not warranted."

If you want a Situation see Page 12.

TURKEY TO ISSUE $30,800,000 BONDS

To Bear 4 Per Cent. Interest, with 1 Per Cent. for an Amortization Fund.

MONEY FOR MANY PURPOSES

Proceeds Will Pay the Debts of the Deposed Sultan, Among Other Obligations.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The Turkish Government has invited bids for $30,800,000 worth of bonds, bearing 4 per cent. interest, with 1 per cent. for an amortization fund. The Ottoman Embassy in Washington to-day announced officially that on the strength of Article 36 of the financial law for the current financial year, the Imperial Ottoman Ministry of Finance had decided to contract a loan of 5,000,000 Turkish pounds, (approximately $30,800,000, the rate of interest being 4 per cent. and the rate of amortization 1 per cent.

The product of this loan will be devoted to the payment of the debt due to the Oriental Railway, according to recent arrangements; to the payment of the debts of the deposed Sultan; to the establishment of an extraordinary relief fund, to be used for repairing the damage caused by the recent disturbances at Adana; to the meeting of the real deficit of the imperial budget for the current year; to the payment of indemnities to officials placed on the retired list as a result of the reorganization of the various departments of state, and, finally, to the meeting of the expenses to be incurred by the reorganization of the civil and military pensions service.

The sum of 350,000 Turkish pounds, required annually for the service of this loan, will be charged to the tithes and sheep taxes of divers provinces of the empire.

Any shortage in this source of revenue will be made good by contributions from the ordinary receipts of the state. The amounts thus assigned to the payment of the annuities of this loan will be collected directly by the Imperial Minister of Finance.

The Imperial Ottoman Government undertakes, however, says the embassy, from this moment to make over to the administration of the Ottoman public debt (an international concern) the collecting of the revenues mentioned above, in case it neglects to settle one single annuity. No discount or reduction will be allowed at the time of redeeming the bonds or paying the coupons; bonds and coupons are to be free of all stamp and other duties.

The Imperial Ottoman Government will not have recourse to any conversion of this loan before the 1st of January, 1920, the embassy's statement continues. Stamp dues, printing, and advertising expenses will be borne by the establishments undertaking to float the loan. The Imperial Minister of Finance will award the loan of the aforementioned establishments in whole and without the right of option.

The product of the loan will be placed at the disposal of the Ottoman Government at the dates fixed in the contract, says the statement, and without fail at the end of February, 1910. This amount, however, will be paid in monthly in a proportion to be established by mutual consent between the contracting parties.

All those desiring to participate in the flotation of this loan, in conformity to the conditions, the embassy says, are requested to name the price they are willing to pay for the bonds and to appear at the Ottoman Ministry of Finance in view of initiating negotiations.

CZAR OFF FOR THE CRIMEA.

Extensive Preparations Being Made to Welcome Him at Sevastopol.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 7.—Emperor Nicholas and the members of the imperial family left St. Petersburg to-night for the Crimea. It is hoped that the trip will have a beneficial effect on the health of the Empress. The celebrations at Moscow and other cities on the way have been abandoned on account of the Empress's weakness and nervousness.

The only important halt before reaching Sevastopol will be at Borki, in Southern Russia, where Emperor Nicholas, his father, and other members of the imperial family narrowly escaped death in a railroad accident in 1888. Religious services will be held in the Memorial Church at Borki.

Extensive preparations are being made at Sevastopol to welcome the Czar and his wife. There is to be an official reception and a review of the Black Sea fleet. After this the imperial family will go to the palace at Livadia, the Russian Riviera, and remain about one month.

No special anxiety is expressed here over the long railroad journey. Unusual precautions have been taken, such as the patrolling of the entire line by troops.

The Czar's departure will delay the presentation of W. W. Rockhill, the New American Ambassador, who is expected here about Sept. 15. John W. Riddle, the retiring Ambassador, will leave here tomorrow without seeing the Emperor in farewell audience. He will meet Mr. Rockhill in Berlin.

READY TO FLY IN BRESCIA.

Curtiss, Bleriot, and Other Aviators Arrive for Meet's Beginning To-day.

BRESCIA, Sept. 7.—Glenn H. Curtiss, the American who recently won the International Cup at Rheims, arrived today. He did not make a trial flight, as he said he wished first to be sure that his machine was in thorough order. The King has expressed a desire to meet Curtiss on the next visit of his Majesty here.

The official contests will begin to-morrow afternoon. The town is crowded with visitors, and prices have been largely increased. It had been expected that Curtiss would try his machine to-day, and those who went to the aviation field to welcome him were disappointed.

M. Bleriot also has reached Brescia, and Cortland F. Bishop, President of the Aero Club of America, is coming to-morrow.

Mr. Curtiss has accepted an invitation to fly at Chicago.

WRIGHT FLYS IN BERLIN.

Stays Up 52 Minutes and at Times Is 150 Feet from Ground.

BERLIN, Sept. 7.—Orville Wright today made a flight of 52 minutes. At times he reached an altitude of 150 feet.

The great crowds which watched the exhibition broke into cheers when he glided over their heads.

Notes of Foreign Affairs.

SIENA, Italy, Sept. 7.—An earth shock which occurred during the night threw the inhabitants of Buonconvento, Monticiano, and Murlo di Vescovado into a panic, and they are now camped in the streets. A large number of houses were damaged, but there were no casualties.

ANTWERP, Sept. 7.—Three cases of Asiatic cholera are officially reported here, one of which was fatal. The Sanitary Board is taking urgent precautions.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 7.—The court-martial which has investigated the Adana massacres has sentenced Djevad Bey, the ex-Vali, to six years' exclusion from the public service; Remzi Pasha, military commandant of Adana, to three years' imprisonment, and has acquitted the Governor of Adana.

WASHINGTON WANTS FLIERS.

Will Ask Aero Club to Hold Carnival There—Potomac Park Suggested.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The Aero Club of Washington is pushing its efforts to secure the aviation carnival of 1910 for Washington. A joint meeting of committees of the Aero Club and the Chamber of Commerce was held to-day, at which it was decided to send to the Aero Club of America at once a formal application for the honor of holding the carnival, and suggesting some time in May next as the most suitable date.

The meeting was held in the office of Charles J. Bell, and was attended also by Dr. Albert Zahm, Secretary of the local Aero Club; Prof. Willis Moore, John Barrett, Major Squier of the Army Signal Corps, A. Leftwich Sinclair, and Joseph Richardson.

Major Squier had been looking at possible sites for an aviation field suitable for such a carnival. He reported that, in his judgment, the western part of Potomac Park would serve the purpose admirably. He said that such progress is being made in aviation that in a very short time, if not by the opening of the next carnival, decidedly different courses from that at Rheims will be necessary, and that in all probability flights across country of considerable distances will soon be undertaken.

If the carnival of next year should be held in Washington it is not unlikely that flights to Baltimore and Norfolk would be undertaken. There are excellent landing places available in both Baltimore and Norfolk, and undoubtedly large prizes would be offered for such flights.

A committee was appointed to draft the formal application to the Aero Club of America, and it will be awaiting Cortlandt F. Bishop, President of that club, upon his arrival in New York early next month. It is expected that both St. Louis and Cincinnati will be in the field to secure the meeting, and that both will offer guarantee funds of at least $100,000.

No steps have been taken here as yet to secure the subscription of a guarantee fund, but there is no doubt in the minds of those who are working to secure the carnival that at least $100,000 could be raised easily and probably more if it were needed.

MILITIAMAN COURT-MARTIALED

Private Bruhnes Pulled Subway Bell Cord and Swore at His Captain.

Private William Bruhnes of the Twenty-second Regiment, Corps of Engineers, N. G. N. Y., was tried by court-martial last night in the armory at Sixty-seventh Street and Broadway before a special board detailed by Gov. Hughes. Bruhnes was charged with having pulled a bell cord in the Subway at Van Cortlandt Park station while on duty, on July 24, with Company E, of which he is a member.

It was further charged that when Capt. William A. Kenny, Adjutant of the battalion, ordered him to stop pulling the cord he answered that he had pulled it because he "didn't want to stay there all night, and that if the Captain did not start the train he'd pull it again." In addition, when Capt. Kenny called for the commanding officer of Company E, Bruhnes is charged with having cursed him.

Bruhnes pleaded guilty last night to the charges, but said that he did not wish any counsel. He said in explanation of his conduct that he had been working all day without eating, and had had one drink. Capt. Kenny was the only officer to testify before the board, which consisted of Major Edward B. Bruch, presiding officer; Capt. John D. Klemyer, Capt. Robert S. Cooke, Capt. Frederick C. Harriman, and Second Lieut. Jeremiah A. O'Leary. Major William L. Washburn of the Judge Advocate General's Department conducted the prosecution and acted as counsel for the defendant.

Following Capt. Kenny's testimony as to the truth of the charges, the court reserved sentence, and the testimony will be sent to Albany.

GIVES UP INCUBATOR BABY.

Woman Relinquishes Claim and Long Fight Over Infant Is Ended.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 7.—The fight for the possession of Marian Bleakley, the "incubator baby," is at an end. So declared John H. Atwood in the Circuit Court here to-day, when he, on behalf of Mrs. James G. Barclay, withdrew the habeas corpus suit brought to prevent the return of the child to Mrs. J. J. Blakeley, from whose home little Marian was kidnapped. Mr. Atwood said:

"Although we believe we are legally and morally entitled to this child, the heartaches of my client must cease. We shall forever relieve this good woman's soul of the weight of responsibility."

Mrs. Barclay was in tears. Mrs. Bleakley and the baby were not in court. Mrs. Barclay later said:

"I'm sorry, but I guess it was meant that I should not have Marian. In a Buffalo bank, deposited to her name, is $931, which I shall arrange to have given her at once."

GIVES $100,000 TO COLLEGE.

Dr. Pearsons of Chicago Requires Trustees of Berea to Raise $400,000.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Dr. D. K. Pearsons announced to-day a gift of $100,000 to the Berea College, Kentucky, providing the Trustees of that institution raise $400,000 more. The time for raising the additional $400,000 has not been set by Dr. Pearsons.

Dr. Pearsons also announced that this would be his last gift of this character.

Mrs. Mackay Offers School Prizes.

HEMPSTEAD, L. I., Sept. 7.—The first day of school opened here this morning. After reading a Scriptural selection, Mrs. Clarence Mackay offered prizes as an incentive for the coming year. One is offered for manual training, two in the outside branches, and one in the second and third grades. Twenty-five dollars will be given to the boy and girl having the best record for the year.

GERMANY TO FIGHT, NORTHCLIFFE SAYS

He Asserts That Kaiser Is Rushing Preparations for War with England Soon.

NAVY YARDS ARE BUSY

Krupp Gun Works Employing 100,000 Men Day and Night, British Editor Declares in Warning Canada.

WINNIPEG, Man., Sept. 7.—Lord Northcliffe, owner of The London Times, in an interview here to-day predicted war between Germany and Great Britain. He asserted that in the Krupp Gun Works alone 100,000 men were working night and day and on Sundays preparing for war. He said:

"I would make the suggestion, with all respect to the Canadians who are investing their money and labor in constructing railroads and building grain elevators, that they keep an eye on European affairs and begin to figure out why it is that all the ship building yards in Germany are busy constructing rapid cruisers and first-class battleships, and why it is Krupp's works have increased the number of their hands to more than 100,000 men, nearly the population of Winnipeg."

His conviction is that war can be averted only by most complete and thorough preparation on the side of Great Britain.

Lord Northcliffe says that some Canadians have Utopian views and think war is a crime.

"The Germans do not think so," he continued. "They have a magnificent army and the second navy in the world, and they ask what these things are for.

"They are a thrifty people. They do not throw money away. They made an immense sum of money out of their last great war. They will fight or threaten again when they think it will pay. Many people say now that they will fight Great Britain in the near future, and some have mentioned the year 1912."

SHOT A MARAUDER DEAD.

Nelson Says Flood Broke Into His House and Attacked Him.

Policemen O'Gorman and Slattery of the East 104th Street Station heard the report of a pistol shot, and an instant later saw a man run from the house at 129 East 105th Street, last night. One of them caught the man, and then both entered the house.

In the hall lay a man dead. Over him stood Henry Nelson, proprietor of the house, which is a furnished room house. Nelson held a revolver in his hand. He gave it to the policeman, declaring that he had shot in self-defense.

The dead man was Thomas Flood of 406 East Twentieth Street, and, according to Andrew Langert of 1,105 Third Avenue, the man caught on the sidewalk, he and Flood had called on Mrs. Minnie Harris, who has a room in Nelson's house. They drank and caroused until finally Nelson, who is 70 years old, remonstrated with them.

According to the old man, the pair threw him over the banisters. At last, however, he got them out of the house and locked the door. They came back and smashed the door down. Then Flood came at him and he shot, said Nelson.

The policemen arrested Nelson, charging him with homicide, and held Langert for assault and attempted robbery. Mrs. Harris was arrested as a material witness.

LIVES LOST IN FLOOD.

Dam Near Prescott, Ariz., Breaks—Santa Fe Tracks Washed Out.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 7.—A message from Prescott, Ariz., to-night says that the dam near that city has broken and that a number of lives have been lost.

There is a serious washout on the Santa Fé Road, near Prescott.

To Renominate Yonkers Mayor.

At a conference of prominent Republicans in Yonkers last night, Mayor Nathan N. Warren was indorsed for a renomination. Daniel J. Cashin, President of the Common Council, and Gideon Peck, City Treasurer, were also indorsed for another term. Frederick Breithack and Charles Warren were selected to make the run for Assessors.

M. J. O'Brien's Condition Worse.

The condition of M. J. O'Brien, President of the Southern Express Company, who has been ill of pneumonia in his apartments at Sherry's for a fortnight, took a turn for the worse yesterday. Last night Mr. O'Brien's condition was very serious.

CITY BREVITIES.

The nautical schoolship Newport arrived at New London, Conn., on Monday with all on board well and in good spirits. She proceeded to Martha's Vineyard, Mass.

The Public Service Commission announces that of the 177 gas meters tested by its inspectors during August on complaint sixty-five were found to be 2 per cent. or more fast, twenty-one 2 per cent. or more slow, and ninety-one between that. Of the forty electric meters tested four were 4 per cent. or more fast, two were 4 per cent. or more slow.

United States Commissioner Shields as custodian of the gas rebate funds, in a report made yesterday says that $9,915,241 has now been repaid to consumers.

James B. Hammond, founder and chief stockholder in the Hammond Typewriter Company, obtained an injunction pendente lite from Supreme Court Justice Giegerich yesterday restraining John M. Bancroft and other defendants who are Directors and officers of the company from recognition as owner or owners of 540 shares of the capital stock and from amending the by-laws of the company or from acting as officers or Directors in making long-term contracts with themselves.

BESIEGED BY UNDERTAKERS.

Mr. McCormick Asks Police to Find the Joker Who Is Sending Them to Him.

Joseph J. McCormick is looking for the man or woman—he suspects it is a woman—who has been sending undertakers to his home at 530 West 182d Street for the last three days. There is no one dead in the McCormick residence, in fact no one has been ill there for months, and Mr. McCormick is somewhat irate because of the practical joke being played on him.

He is a manufacturer of carriage trimmings in Chambers Street, and says he doesn't know that he has an enemy in the world. However, some one has sent nearly twenty different undertakers to his home, as well as a few extra embalmers, who have been ringing the bell at five-minute intervals ever since Saturday.

Edward M. Senior, an undertaker at 1,987 Broadway, was the last to reach the McCormick household, arriving there at 10 o'clock last night. He said a woman had called him up on the telephone and told him to make haste, as Mrs. McCormick was dead.

Then Mr. McCormick complained to the police. He says that half the undertakers who have called on him have said that a woman gave them the order.

FAKED STORY OF BURGLARY.

Physician's Butler Now Confesses That It Was He Who Robbed Employer.

Charles Lockett, the negro butler of Dr. H. S. Hammer of 30 West Forty-seventh Street, was locked up last night, charged with having stolen $1,400 worth of jewelry, cut glass, and clothing from his employer. According to Detectives Nelson and Higgins, the negro confessed and told them that he had sent the proceeds of his robbery to a cousin in Jersey City, where the detectives later recovered it.

Dr. Hammer reported the robbery to Police Headquarters on his return last Saturday from his vacation. Lockett told him that at 3 A. M. on Friday two men had broken into the house, held him up at the point of a revolver, and ransacked the premises. The detectives suspected that he was lying and put him through three hours of questioning, whereupon he confessed.

Registry Clerk Bitten by a Dog.

NEWTON, N. J., Sept. 7.—Joseph Kithcart, a clerk for Walter Stoy, a crockery dealer, on his rounds registering voters to-day, was bitten by Foster Pierson's dog. Mr. Kithcart was bitten on both legs, the flesh being badly lacerated and his trousers legs torn into strips. Dr. Harvey McCloshgher, who cauterized the wounds, said it was one of the worst cases of the kind he has had in some years.

MARK CROSS
LONDON
89 Regent St.

Hang Your Friends ON Cross Tie Hangers

Brass Holders on Colored Morocco Straps—Useful and Practical, $1.50 to $2.50

BOTTLE SETS—3 in Set—Nickel Screw Tops—Glass Stopper—In Velvet Lined, Colored Morocco Cases— $5.00
4 Bottles— $6.50

ASH RECEIVERS—Glass and Electric Plate—4 Nested Trays—Match Holder on Top— $5.50

COCKTAIL SETS—Crystal Tray—Mahogany Finish—Handles—Metal Rack Holding 6 Glasses— $12.00
OTHERS to $29.50

MARK CROSS
World's Greatest Leather Stores
210 Fifth Avenue 233 Broadway
Boston—145 Tremont Street.

Many people discover rare volumes of great value by consulting each week the Book Exchange in The New York Times Saturday Review of Books—supplement with The New York Times, Saturday.—Adv.

Simpson Crawford Co.
SIXTH AV. 19TH TO 20TH STREET. NEW YORK.

SPECIAL TO-DAY:

1,500 American Rugs
At Matchless Prices

HIGH-GRADE American machine made rugs, from the best mills of Pennsylvania and New York State, at the lowest prices ever quoted anywhere, consistent with quality, texture, colorings, etc. Included are Royal Axminster Rugs, Wiltons, French Wiltons, Best 5 and 10-Frame Brussels Rugs. Fourth Floor.

10-Wire Tapestry Brussels Rugs
The celebrated 10-wire rugs which are the finest made and the quality of the yarn is all worsted. In Oriental designs and allover effects. $22.00 and $23.00 are the usual prices; our price for to-day..... $13.75

Best 5-Frame Body Brussels Rugs
Extra finely woven, in rich colorings and artistic effects. Sizes 8.3 x 10.6. Rugs of this kind are usually sold at $28.00 and $30.00..... $22.50

American Cashmere Rugs
These rugs are the same on both sides and consequently almost 2 rugs in one. Prices are extremely low:
Size 9x12; $22 values $11.75 Size 7.6x10; $15.00 values $8.75 Size 6x9; $10.00 values $5.95

250 Royal Axminster Rugs
Almost ½ inch thick. These rugs look more nearly like Oriental rugs than any other American Rug made.
Size 8.3x10; $27.00 values $19.85 Size 6x9; $17.00 values $12.85 Size 3x6; $4.75 values $3.00

2 and 4 Yard Wide Linoleum
60 cases for to-day's selling. Made of cork and linseed oil in large assortment of hardwood, tile and floral effects. Extra heavy qualities that usually sell from 75c. to 85c.; square yard..... 55c

Durable Extra Quality Oilcloth
Kinds suitable for kitchen, pantry, laundry, etc.; very neat assortment of patterns to choose from. Regular 35c. grade; square yard..... 28c

SIMPSON CRAWFORD CO., 6TH AVE.'S FINEST STORE.

FLINT'S FINE FURNITURE

FALL PROBLEMS IN HOME FURNISHINGS

Often at this especial season of the year a single room needs to be refurnished, or various articles replaced here and there throughout the home.

Whether your problem is the furnishing of a single room or an entire house, our FALL EXHIBIT, as now displayed on our ten spacious floors, can not fail to be of deep interest.

Articles of Furniture, Rugs and Decorative Fabrics are all plainly marked as to price, and the freedom of inspection is cordially extended and involves no obligation to purchase.

GEO. C. FLINT CO.

43-47 WEST 23d ST. 24-28 WEST 24th ST.

While Summer is fading into memory Fall Suits are turning into fact—and they are ready for those who are ready for them—a splendid series of models at $25 in new weaves and colorings.

WM. VOGEL & SON,
Two Broadway Stores { at 44th Street. at Houston Street.

When you get Imperial you know you have the best beer brewed.

Imperial "Gold Label" Beer

Extra Fine, Bright, Clear, Sparkling.
It's Just the Beer for Your Home.

Bottled at the Brewery. READLESTON & WOERZ, BREWERS, NEW YORK

TRYING TO LOCATE SOURCE OF TYPHOID

Health Board Analyzing Water, Milk, and Food Used in Districts Affected.

SEVERAL MORE NEW CASES

Increase to be Expected at This Season, Dr. Darlington Says—Many Cases Contracted Outside City.

Twenty-five Inspectors from the Department of Health are at work trying to discover the source of the typhoid cases in that section of the upper east side between Sixtieth and Seventieth Streets, Third Avenue and the East River. Their method is to trace back the history of each case to its probable cause. They are testing the drinking water and milk, and are subjecting many foodstuffs to a chemical test in their search for typhoid germs.

Health Commissioner Darlington said yesterday that there is no cause for a typhoid fever scare; that typhoid fever is not epidemic in the district, and that the large number of typhoid cases reported in the last few weeks is only what might be expected at this season, as every Fall there are more typhoid cases in New York than at any other season. Many of these are contracted in sections outside of New York, the disease developing after the return of the infected persons from the country.

Just why the storm centre of typhoid should be in a comparatively small area in the upper east side at present is not quite clear, although one reason advanced by the Health Department officials is that this particular area is greatly overcrowded and is a tenement district, where in many instances several families occupy the same rooms.

In two other congested districts of the city there is also a greater prevalence of typhoid at present than at other times in the year. These districts are the lower east side and that part of the west side lying between Eighth and Eleventh Avenues, Thirty-third and Fifty-fourth Streets.

Commissioner Darlington said yesterday that the number of typhoid cases reported for the year prior to Sept. 1 were 100 less than in the same period last year. Since Sept. 1, however, there have been nearly a third more typhoid cases in Manhattan than in the corresponding period last Fall.

"There is no epidemic of typhoid," said Dr. Darlington yesterday. "There will occasionally be a greater prevalence of the disease in one section of the city than in another. This is often due to many causes combining in a certain section rather than to one particular cause.

"The greater number of cases at this time of year is always due to people bringing it home with them after their Summer vacations. It is acquired outside the city. This does not mean that people cannot acquire typhoid in New York City, for until we have filtration of our water supply we will always have typhoid fever. Nevertheless, we have fewer cases than in former years, and no one need be afraid to come to New York because of any danger from typhoid. The public need have no alarm."

Commissioner Darlington said that a filtration system would be the only sure means of stamping out typhoid forever in this city, and that the large expense of such a filtration system would have more than its reward in the number of lives saved each year. In his opinion, he added, it would probably take a very large typhoid scare to bring the City Fathers up to the point of establishing such a filtration system, but that it would be a good thing for the city if it resulted in establishing the filtration plant.

Dr. Walter Bensel, Sanitary Superintendent of the Health Department, said yesterday that the greater prevalence of cases in the upper east side had been noted by his department some time ago, and for several days his men had been looking into the conditions there. He said that nothing definite had been learned as yet, however, to enable the department to put its finger on the specific cause of the typhoid cases, but that his Inspectors hoped to locate the cause soon.

"At this season," said Dr. Bensel, "there is always likelihood of an unusual number of cases being reported. The water is low in the reservoirs and on the Croton watershed, giving rise to greater danger than in wet seasons.

"There are many towns along the Croton shed which dump their waste matter into the water which we drink unfiltered. We have found nothing harmful in the milk supply used in the upper east side. It is the same that is supplied by the large milk dealers all over the city."

Dr. Bensel said that many of the typhoid cases are doubtless the result of contagion. He said that the typhoid germ can be communicated from one member of a family to another through using the same dishes and drinking glasses.

The Health Department is sending out broadcast this placard instructing the public how to prevent the contraction and spreading of typhoid.

How to Keep from Getting Typhoid Fever.

No well or spring water should be used for drinking purposes without first being boiled. Water from the city mains is much less likely to be contaminated; but if all chance of infection is to be avoided, only distilled water, or water which has been boiled, should be used. All milk, the handling and care of which is not absolutely beyond suspicion, should also be boiled or pasteurized. All food supplies (meat, milk, vegetables, &c.) should be carefully protected against flies, and flies should not be permitted access to the kitchen nor to the room in which the meals are eaten. Bathing at all beaches which have sewers emptying in their immediate vicinity should be strictly avoided. In the majority of cases it is probable that the system must be slightly below par in order that the disease may be contracted; therefore, all indigestible food, green fruit, &c., which may set up indigestion and so render the system more susceptible to infection should be avoided. In addition, the elementary rules of cleanliness and hygiene, both as to the house and person, should be most strictly observed.

A large number of new cases of typhoid were reported yesterday. Seven new cases were handled by the Presbyterian Hospital, which, being already overcrowded, sent six of the cases to Bellevue. Other cases were reported there by physicians, who either sent their cases to hospitals or treated them at home.

The number of typhoid cases in hospitals last night was as follows:

Hospitals.	Cases.	Hospitals.	Cases.
Bellevue	38	Lebanon	12
Beth Israel	22	New York	39
Flower	18	Presbyterian	39
Fordham	19	Roosevelt	39
Gouverneur	4
Hahnemann	5	Total	228
Harlem	10

This list shows a total of twenty-six cases in excess of the number reported on Monday. There were two deaths at hospitals yesterday from typhoid.

STEVENS HEADS NEW ROAD.

Made President of Hill Line Which Will Invade Harriman Territory.

SEATTLE, Sept. 7.—John F. Stevens, the engineer, formerly in charge of the construction of the Panama Canal, has been elected President of the Oregon Trunk Line, the Hill railroad to be built from the Columbia River to Central Oregon and to San Francisco.

The Oregon Trunk Line with its extensions will be about 200 miles long. It will extend from Columbus, Washington, on the new Great Northern-Northern Pacific joint line from Spokane to Portland, into the interior of the State of Oregon. The new line will carry the Hill forces south of the Columbia River and well into territory which heretofore has been regarded by the Harriman lines as within their exclusive sphere of influence. The new line will tap a very large lumber area and a vast district capable of profitable agricultural development, including large tracts which are being developed by irrigation works.

This road is regarded in railroad circles as a valuable adjunct to the Hill line. The interest in the undertaking is increased greatly by the fact that by running into the territory south of the Union Pacific's line, which skirts the Columbia River, the Hill forces are setting a new pace in the development of the Northwest and are no longer confining themselves to the districts heretofore occupied by their lines. The Harriman lines surround the State of Oregon, but they have done little to develop large areas in the central portion of the State. The entrance of the Hill lines into this territory is said in the West to promise the development of this district on a large scale.

The Oregon Trunk Line, now a Hill road, has acquired right of way from the Deschutes Irrigation and Power Company, which is developing by irrigation a tract of 350,000 acres which will be tapped by the new line. The alliance established between the Hill line and this irrigation company, according to advices from the West, has aroused much speculation because of the fact that the men interested in this irrigation project were supposed to have established close relations with the Harriman lines. The fact that they have now become allies of the Hill forces is said to be due principally to the fact that the Hill interests are building a line into this territory, while the Harriman interests are not.

Mr. Stevens formerly was connected with the Hill lines in the Northwest. He recently resigned the Vice Presidency of the New York, New Haven & Hartford and rejoined the Hill forces.

KILLED IN AN AUTO.

Machine Left Road on Sharp Turn—One Dead and One Seriously Hurt.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 7.—Adelbert Wilson is dead and William Allen is seriously hurt as the result of an automobile accident on a sharp curve of the State Road between Henderson and Adams. Both men live in Brownville. Dr. F. Gates, the only other passenger in the machine, escaped without injury.

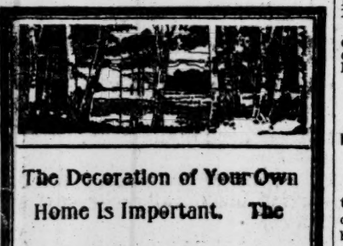
The automobile, going at high speed, left the road at the turn, dashed through a fence, and was completely wrecked. The injured men were taken to Adams, where Wilson died to-day without having recovered consciousness.

Wilson, the owner of the car, was Superintendent of a paper mill at Brownville. The men were on their way to Adams to attend a Labor Day celebration when the accident occurred.

Hawaiian Dry Dock Contract Signed.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Contracts with the San Francisco Bridge Company for the construction of the Pearl Harbor dry dock, Hawaii, at $1,760,000, and with the Maryland Steel Company of Sparrow's Point, for the construction of a fleet collier at $889,000, were signed late to-day by Acting Secretary of the Navy Winthrop.

If you want a Business Opportunity see Page 12.



The Decoration of Your Own Home Is Important. The Wall Paper

selected is the most important part of that decoration. Consult us before you decide. We can show you how to obtain the most satisfactory results no matter what you spend.

Ask your decorator to show you the Bosch sample books.

Henry Bosch Company
Broadway at 19th Street

ANNOUNCEMENT
The Long Island Railroad will continue
THE HAMPTONS EXPRESS TRAINS
On Fall Time Table, Effective Sept. 8th.

Train No. 20 leaves N. Y., E. 34th St., 4:00; B'klyn (Flatbush Ave.) 4:14 P.M., and train No. 3 will leave Amagansett 6:42 A. M. for N. Y. and B'klyn. These trains will connect at Manorville with trains to and from Greenport and run until Nov. 6th, inclusive.

Train No. 18 (All Parlor Cars) leaves N. Y., E. 34th St., 3:30; B'klyn 3:40 P.M. (Fridays only) and runs until Oct. 8th, incl.

Train No. 7 (All Parlor Cars) leaves Amagansett and Sag Harbor 7:20 A. M. (Mondays only) for N. Y. and B'klyn and runs until Oct. 11th, 1909, incl.

ELECTRICITY—
The Silent Servant
WE COVER the WHOLE electrical job—do the work and furnish the fixtures, the lamps—everything.
And then we give you our GUARANTEE
C. C. Bohn Electric Co.,
780 Sixth Ave., near 44th St.

The Buffalonian
$8—To Buffalo—$8
Lv. Desbrosses St.....7:45 P. M.
" West 42d St.....7:55 "
Ar. Buffalo.....7:15 A. M.
West Shore R. R.

USE ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE
The antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes. If you have tired, aching feet, try Allen's Foot-Ease. It rests the feet and makes new or tight shoes easy. Cures aching, swollen, hot, sweating feet. Relieves corns and bunions of all pain and gives rest and comfort. Always use it to Break in New shoes. Try it to-day. Sold by all Druggists, 25c. Don't accept any substitute. For FREE trial package, address Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y.

ADVERTISEMENT.

The Washburn-Crosby Company's famous Gold Medal Flour has all the bread, biscuit, cake, and pastry-making qualities of the finest wheat concentrated in it. It bakes more to the pound than other flour, saves money as well as the extra work and worry occasioned by the use of flour of less uniform quality. That is why knowing housewives always demand it.

MANY ARRESTS FOR COAL LANDS FRAUD

Wilberforce Sully, Chairman of American Malt Board, Among Those Under Indictment.

GOT DUMMY LAND CLAIMS

Five Dollars Paid to Each Person Making Out an Affidavit—6,072 Acres Taken Out.

Wilberforce Sully, Chairman of the Board of the American Malt Corporation and one of the organizers of the American Malting Company, its predecessor, was arrested here yesterday upon indictments found by the Federal Grand Jury in Wyoming, charged with a conspiracy to defraud the Government in connection with the acquisition of coal lands. With Mr. Sully were arrested George W. Dally, a stenographer in the office of Alfred Sully, his brother; Rufus T. Ireland, a large property owner of Amityville, L. I., and Frederick T. Wells, a lawyer, of Amityville. Four other men, Samuel Gebo, John Nelson, John B. Wight, and Thomas P. McDonals, have been indicted in Wyoming and are under arrest there.

The arrests are the result of discoveries made by the coal lands bureau of the Treasury Department at Washington several months ago, and of subsequent investigations here and in the West by the Federal authorities. It is charged by the Government that in 1906 Wilberforce Sully, along with Ireland, Dally, and Wells joined in a plan to take out valuable coal land and got various residents of Amityville and a number of men and women in Harlem to make out the necessary affidavits declaring that they desired to take up 160 acres each of coal lands which the Government proposed to distribute.

The alleged conspirators, it is charged, then organized the Northwestern Coal Company and the Owl Creek Coal Company, and gave certain shares in these corporations in exchange for the rights to the coal lands, paying, however, $5 for each affidavit made in violation of the Federal statute. Then, having acquired rights vastly in excess of the amount which any four individuals or any combination of individuals could take out under the Treasury Department regulations, Sully and his associates proceeded, according to the Government's contentions, to take the necessary steps in Wyoming to have the coal lands actually made over to the companies in question.

At this point the four men indicted in the West are declared to have handled the details there. The regulations covering the taking of coal land rights are somewhat less stringent than those laid down in the Homestead act and the Timberland act, the latter being matters of statutory requirement, while the former exist merely as regulations of the Treasury Department. Actual entry of the lands to be taken over is not required by the coal lands regulations, so that no colonization of the dummy entrants was necessary, and the Amityville and Harlem people who were brought into the case had merely to make out the affidavits which Sully and his associates sent out West to be filed back in turn in the bureau at Washington.

The indictments charge that the defendants, through the Northwestern Coal Company, got 1,760 acres of valuable coal land to which they were not entitled, and through the Owl Creek Coal Company got 4,312 acres more than they could lawfully have taken right to. Each individual was allowed to take out 160 acres at $15 an acre, and the Government was actually paid the $15 rate on all the land covered by the rights which Sully and his associates acquired. The charge, however, rests on the fact that the limitations upon individual entry are imposed with the purpose of preventing just such a combination as the Sully concern from being organized.

After the discovery had been made in Washington that the plan had been worked, the case was sent over here and put in charge of Assistant United States Attorney Smith, who obtained an indictment from the Federal Grand Jury on the plain charge of defrauding the Government. Certain legal contentions were advanced by Louis L. Delafield, counsel for the defendants and for the Owl Creek Coal Company, which make it advisable to have a conspiracy indictment found in Wyoming, and steps were taken to bring about that result.

On the arraignment yesterday before United States Commissioner Gilchrist, the defendants arrested here were held in $5,000 bail each, which was furnished, and next Tuesday was set down for examination on the question of extradition. It is expected that a vigorous fight will be made to prevent the four men being taken to Wyoming for trial.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The entries on account of which Dally, Sully, Ireland, and Wells were arrested involve about 60,000 acres of valuable coal land in the Lander (Wyo.) district.

The entries were made in 1906, and it is charged that all the entrymen, about 100 in number, were residents of New York City, most of them being barbers and bartenders. In the indictment it is asserted that these entrymen engaged in a conspiracy with Dally, Sully, Ireland, and Wells and others to defraud the Government, the entries being made in the interest of the Owl Creek Coal Company and the Northwestern Fuel Company. Others who were indicted were Samuel W. Gebo of Montana, Thomas McDonald of New York, and John Nelson and John B. Wright of Wyoming.

There are two indictments against each of them. There are also civil proceedings looking to the cancellation of the entries, and testimony was to have been taken to-day in the civil cases in New York City. The Land Office has received no information concerning the New York arrests.

FEDERAL LAND SUIT OFF.

Action Against Idaho Company Involving $1,000,000 Lands Dismissed.

BOISE, Idaho, Sept. 7.—The civil action brought by the Government against the Barber Lumber Company to cancel entry to 40,000 acres of timber land in Boise Basin, valued at $1,000,000, was dismissed to-day by United States District Judge Bean.

The suit was instituted in April, 1907, following the indictment of officers of the company and other prominent men on the charge of conspiracy to defraud the Government.

Civil action was brought on the ground that the lands were secured through fraudulent entries. All the cases of the Government in this connection have failed thus far, including the prosecution of Senator W. E. Borah.

The cases against Samuel T. Barber and Sumner G. Moon, officers of the Barber Company, are set for trial in October.

JAPANESE SEE POWER PLANT.

Visiting Commissioners Ply Their Hosts with Technical Questions.

TACOMA, Washington, Sept. 7.—After enjoying the wonders of Paradise Valley the Japanese trade Commissioners to-day rested at the National Park Inn at the Rainier National Reserve. Finding fun in riding on flat cars behind a switch engine up the tortuous road to Electron, the Japanese yesterday looked upon the largest electric power plant they had ever seen. The Commissioners plied their hosts and the officials of the power company with questions technical and otherwise.

On the return trip the train pulled out of Ashford to-day, leaving Baron Shibusawa, the party's most important member, behind with G. A. Mitchell, assistant general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific. He had made a trip to a near by coal mine and was not on hand when the special departed. The train was held at Elbe Junction, and a car went back for the Baron.

BLAZE IN JONES'S LANE.

Building Destroyed in One of the Oldest Parts of the City.

A dingy little five-story brick building at 5 Jones Lane, just off of South Street and one block west of Wall Street, was destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon, with a total damage to building and contents of about $40,000. The basement and first story of the building was occupied by the Carbolineum Company, while the other four floors were occupied by the Alpha Chemical Company.

The fire was discovered in the basement by Thomas Walsh of 229 Union Street, Brooklyn, a watchman, who in trying to put out the blaze was badly burned. His clothing was ablaze when he ran out into the street and found a policeman who turned in an alarm. Walsh was painfully burned about the head and hands and was attended by a surgeon from St. Gregory's Hospital.

The building in which the fire started is in an ancient alley that is very narrow even for the old part of the city. It caused the firemen a lot of trouble, and it was three hours before it was under control. Three alarms were turned in. Walsh was the only person injured and none of the adjoining buildings was damaged.

HEMMED BY WALL OF FIRE.

Workman Rescued by Ladder—Explosion Endangers Lives of Two Mes.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 7.—The explosion of an ammonia tank to-day caused $50,000 damage at the plant of the Cleveland Provision Company and endangered the lives of two men. A fire in the engine room, which communicated with the ammonia tank, caused the explosion.

Anton Roubal, a watchman, was overcome by the fumes of the ammonia and barely escaped. The flames leaped to the smoke room, and there imprisoned one of the employes for a time. He was rescued by means of a ladder.

RICH SOUTHERNER A SUICIDE IN HOTEL

T. L. Schmidt of New Orleans, Crazed by Drink, Cuts His Throat in Gilsey House.

USES SAFETY-RAZOR BLADE

He Had Been Guarded in His Room Till Early Yesterday Morning—Made a Big Land Deal on Monday.

Theodore L. Schmidt of New Orleans, about 30 years old, whose family is well known there, and whose father, W. J. Schmidt, a member of the wholesale grocery firm of Schmidt & Zigler, one of the largest in the South, left a large estate on his death some years ago, killed himself yesterday morning in a room in the Gilsey House, Broadway and Twenty-ninth Street. Coroner Schrady said that the act followed an attack of delirium tremens.

The young man had been in town since Aug. 25. Before that he had spent some weeks at Saratoga. On Monday he left the Hotel Marlborough, where he had been staying with a friend, J. T. Barrett, an agent of the Laurelton Land Company of 50 Church Street.

Barrett showed him some lots on Long Island and Schmidt bought a number of $3,500. The two separated early that $35,000. The two separated early that evening at the Gilsey House. About 10 o'clock Schmidt came up to the night clerk in apparent excitement.

"If you don't want me here," he said, "I will leave. There's a man after me all the time."

A little later Schmidt grew wildly delirious. He was forced to his room on the third floor, No. 119, by the night watchman and several bellboys. He kept fighting and shouting that some one was trying to kill him. He begged them to keep the door shut. Dr. Wainwright of the Hotel Breslin was summoned. By the use of an opiate and application of ice he quieted Schmidt to such an extent that he talked rationally at the end of half an hour.

He said he had been to Saratoga for several weeks, and that his father had left a large estate, much of which would one day come to him, though it is now in the hands of his mother. He said that he had run through $60,000 in five years, but would "make good for it." Then he told the doctor he had been "this way" before, and would be all right after a little sleep.

That was 12:30 o'clock. Dr. Wainwright said Schmidt was not safe alone, and a bellboy was set to watch him. At 2 o'clock Schmidt told the boy he was all right, and that if the door were left open he would go to sleep. The boy left. At 9 in the morning Dr. Wainwright returned. The door was locked. He hammered on it, and Schmidt inquired, "What do you want?" but would not open the door.

Dr. Wainwright told the hotel people they had better get into the room somehow and that he would return. He returned at 10 o'clock. Mr. Barrett was there and several bellboys and Policeman John Gargan of the traffic squad. They looked shocked. Dr. Wainwright began to call to Schmidt. "That's no use," said the policeman, "look through the transom."

Dr. Wainwright did look and saw that the floor was covered with blood. When the door was forced in they found Schmidt lying dead on the floor, his throat slashed deeply, as were also his wrists. Evidently in dying Schmidt had rolled and tumbled all about the room, for everywhere was blood, and at the far side of the room lay the blade of a safety razor.

Coroner Schrady notified the young man's family. Dr. Wainwright said he understood that Schmidt had a wife and child somewhere.

Special to The New York Times.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 7.—Theodore L. Schmidt was a son of the late W. B. Schmidt, founder of one of the oldest grocery houses in New Orleans. The family is prominent here. Until 1901 young Schmidt was a chemist for his father's firm, and in charge of the firm's Willswood sugar plantation. He later became a merchandise broker, handling principally coffee and sugar.

About two months ago he left New Orleans, presumably to take a position as chemist in a sugar refinery in New York. The news of his suicide was a shock to his friends here, as he was not known to be addicted to liquor. A man who saw him in New York last Saturday has apprised the family that Schmidt had $600 in cash in his possession on that day.

Schmidt's wife, who, with their little son, lives here, was Miss Blanche Bourgere, a member of a well-known Louisiana family.

The Schmidt family is very wealthy. The mother and a brother of the suicide survive him. The body has been sent for and the funeral will be held here.

SPANISH REPULSE MOORS.

Tribesmen Fought Off by Two Columns Attacked Separately.

MELILLA, Morocco, Sept. 7.—Two columns of Spanish troops leaving El Arba to concentrate at Haddara were attacked separately by the Moors yesterday.

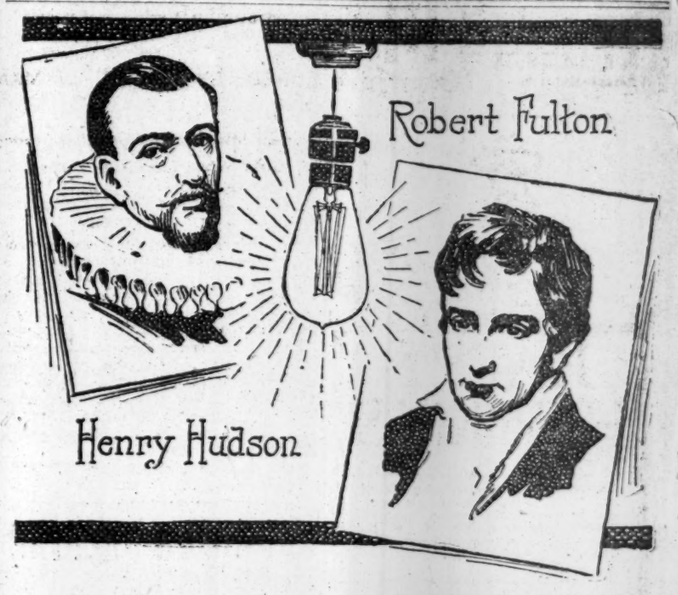
The enemy was routed with heavy loss. The Spaniards had two men killed and fifteen wounded.

Fair to Commemorate Canal Opening.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 7.—John D. Spreckels, Lyman J. Gage, and U. S. Grant, Jr., are at the head of a company capitalized at $1,000,000 which has been formed to promote a world's fair to celebrate the opening of the Panama Canal.

Senator Aldrich in Aix-les-Bains.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—Senator Nelson W. Aldrich and his family went from Paris to-day directly to Aix les Bains, where they will spend a fortnight.



Three Great Lights of Civilization

Hudson flashed his brilliant rays of discovery up and down the Hudson river illuminating the pathway of settlement.

Fulton flashed his inventive brilliancy over the same waters, and made navigation possible, independent of the winds.

Electric light will illuminate the whole scene of Hudson's discovery and Fulton's achievement during the Hudson-Fulton Celebration. Millions of candle power of electric light will turn New York nights into day.

The special rate of 5c. per kilowatt hour on electric light for decorative purposes warrants its most wide public use.

The New York Edison Company
Telephone Worth 3000 — 55 Duane Street

34th WEEKLY
PIANO SALE
TO-DAY

Our limited showroom and storage capacity (at this time) compels us to dispose of

Eight New Player Pianos
of Leading Make

TO-DAY AT ONLY $390

These Player Pianos are selling at $750 elsewhere. The guarantee of the House of Knabe accompanies each one.

A number of Slightly Used Pianos taken in exchange for Knabe pianos and placed in perfect condition by our experts will also go on sale at very special prices.

Terms to Suit Your Convenience.

WM. KNABE & CO.
Fifth Avenue and Thirty-Ninth Street

POST TOASTIES

Have their own distinctive flavour, that delights old and young. With sliced peaches, cream and sugar—there's a winning combination.

Post Toasties
REGISTERED IN UNITED STATES PATENT OFFICE
A Compound of Indian Corn, Sugar and Salt
Postum Cereal Co., Limited
Battle Creek, Michigan, U. S. A.

A delicious dainty—with a taste quite out of the old routine.

Easily prepared—Sure to please company and home folks.

Crisp, Golden-brown flakes made of White Corn.

At Grocers.—Popular pkg. 10c. Large Family size 15c.

"The Memory Lingers"

POSTUM CEREAL CO., LTD., BATTLE CREEK, MICH.

This Introduces
"POLLY PREMIUM" our FAVORITE DRUMMER
Presenting the Beer Ale and Porter Brewed and Bottled by LEMBECK & BETZ
Jersey City, N. J.
Write for Illustrated Premium Catalogue

Great Western Railway of England

THE NEW QUICKEST AND SHORTEST ROUTE TO ENGLAND VIA FISHGUARD
SPECIAL EXPRESS VESTIBULED RESTAURANT TRAINS
FIVE HOURS ONLY FISHGUARD TO LONDON

For full information and particulars apply to
MR. T. KATELEY, 355 BROADWAY, NEW YORK
Paddington Station, London, W. JAMES C. INGLIS, General Manager.

KOH-I-NOOR PENCILS

have no soft, greasy spots.

10c. each, $1 a doz. 17 different grades of hardness and softness. The Standard of Pencil Quality throughout the world.

L. & C. HARDTMUTH
Established 1790.
34 E. 23d St., N. Y. C.

L. & C. Hardtmuth KOH-I-NOOR Quality 6

HAPPY HAWKINS

A Gripping Story of the Whole Far West

The romance of the range, the interplay of hot passions, tenderness and fine pathos, the shrewd, quotable philosophy of the cowboy, a universal quality of spontaneous humor—all mark the author as a new American story-teller who is nothing less than great.

Profusely illustrated by Howard Giles $1.50
SMALL, MAYNARD & COMPANY, Publishers

ROBERT ALEXANDER WASON

TAKE LACTAB

Tablets of Pure Lactic Ferments

LIVE TO BE A 100!!!

Riker Drug Stores
NEW YORK

will furnish pamphlet about the Bulgarian Lactic Ferments. How to make the right kind of Buttermilk at home to correct Dyspepsia, Wind and Intestinal Indigestion.

PAQUIN
PARIS

the well-known dressmaker, 3 Rue de la Paix, Paris, begs to inform his clients that his trade mark having been extensively counterfeited, his waist-bands will bear the signature "Paquin" in dead turquoise letters on white ground for the Winter Season of 1909.

THE LUNGS should be protected by keeping the mouth sanitary.

Dr. Lyon's
PERFECT
Tooth Powder

will do this thoroughly and preserve and beautify the teeth

John Daniell Sons & Sons

HUDSON-FULTON CELEBRATION.

American and Hudson-Fulton Flags, Bunting and Ribbon for Decorative Purposes. Lowest prices in New York

Broadway, 8 & 9 Sts.

R 42400

For DYSPEPSIA and INDIGESTION R 42,400 has great curative powers. It dispels irritability, relieves depression and enables you to eat what you like. The kind of medicine which Doctors prescribe. Sold by druggists and by

HEGEMAN DRUG STORES

DERBY DESKS STANDARD FOR COMPARISON DERBY DESKS

NEW YORK OFFICE
City Investing Building, 165 Broadway

IVORY SOAP 99 44/100 PER CENT. PURE

Contains no "Free" Alkali

Ivory Soap 99 44/100 Per Cent. Pure

Victor Talking Machines and Records. Buy from us direct.
LANDAY BROS.
400 Fifth Av.
(OPP. TIFFANY.)

SAVE YOUNG GIRLS FROM CHINATOWN

Detectives Arrest Chinamen Who Had 15-Year-Old Christina Braun Locked in a Room.

LURED BY WHITE WOMAN

Woman Missionary Finds Two Young Girls Who Had Been Turned Over to Chinamen.

Two young white girls were rescued from Chinatown yesterday, after the police had discovered one of them locked in a room, where she had been kept for more than two weeks. The discovery of the young girl was in a way accidental, for the police were searching for a white woman in Mott Street who was supposed to have lured Louise Elbert, an orphan, 17 years old, from Newark and turned her over to a Chinaman, when they found the other, a girl of 15 years, named Christina Braun.

Miss Rose Livingston, who says she is a probation officer, and who is well known in Chinatown, took the Elbert girl to the Waverly House, which is maintained by the New York Probation Society at 165 West Tenth Street, late Monday night and turned her over to Miss Stella Miner, the Superintendent. Miss Livingston said she had learned that the girl had been lured from the Florence Crittenton Home in Newark by a woman and brought to this city. She was met at the ferry by a young woman known in Chinatown as "Little Elsie," who, she said, took the girl first to 18 Mott Street and then to a place in Doyers Street. Here, Miss Livingston said, she found the Elbert girl in a rear room surrounded by Chinamen. She said the Chinamen refused to surrender the girl until she threatened them with arrest, and actually called a policeman.

Detectives Brickley and Reilly of the Elizabeth Street Police Station, who have been Capt. Galvin's right-hand men in his efforts to clean up Chinatown, investigated the story. After a long search they found "Little Elsie" in a room on the third floor of 18 Mott Street. Her real name is Elsie Lee, and she is married to a Chinaman of that name. At the time of the Chinatown crusade, she showed Capt. Galvin a marriage certificate, and was allowed to stay. She told Detectives Brickley and Reilly all she knew about Louise Elbert. She said that late Monday night the Elbert girl came to her room inquiring for a cousin named Elsie, who, she said, had written her advising her to come and live with her. She said Louise told her she did not know anything about Chinatown, and was surprised to find herself in the quarter.

After some inquiries, Elsie Lee said she discovered that the Elbert girl's cousin was another Elsie, called among the members of her class "Blonde Elsie." This Elsie, she told the detectives, had been sent to Blackwell's Island for one year recently for selling cocaine. She said the Elbert girl was dressed in an institution garb and had told her that she had come that morning from Rosemond, near Newark, and that she was very hungry and tired.

Elsie Lee went on to say that she took the girl to a restaurant in Doyers Street and bought her supper, and then, accompanied by the girl, went to a house in Pell Street to look for some of "Blonde Elsie's" friends. There she said she saw Miss Livingston. She told the latter, she said, all about the girl, and turned her over to the probation officer for safekeeping. Brickley and Reilly investigated the woman's story and were impressed enough with its truth to believe her. It was while the detectives were making their investigation that they stumbled upon the other girl, Christina Braun.

They heard that a young girl was being detained by a Chinaman in the Bowery. They went to the place and on the third floor they found a room with a big padlock on the door. Hearing a noise inside they called out for the occupant to come out. There was no response, and the detectives broke down the door. In a small, dark, and poorly furnished room, they found a girl who did not look to be fourteen years of age. The girl began to cry when the detectives questioned her, but after she had calmed down she told them her name, and said she was 15 years old. She said her parents were German people, and, up to three months ago, had lived in the Bronx. Since then they had moved to 559 Hudson Avenue, Weehawken, where her father obtained employment in a mill.

Christina Braun said she also had to work hard and envied the other girls because they had good clothes while she had none. She determined, she said, to run away, and went to Coney Island, where she met two girls named Rosie and Mamie. They introduced her, she said, to a Chinaman who was working in a restaurant there, and she went to live with him. After a week or so she said the Chinaman, who was named Joe Wong, took her to the Bowery. He went to work then in a restaurant near by. She said he appeared to be very jealous of her and would never allow her out of the room. When he went to work he always locked her in, and a few days ago put the padlock on the door. Christina said Wong had always treated her well and gave her plenty of nice clothes, and she did not want to leave him.

The detectives turned the girl over to the Children's Society and then went after Wong. They found him at work in the restaurant and arrested him. When he was before Magistrate Herbert in the Tombs Court charged with abduction he refused to say anything, and he was held in $3,000 bail for examination Thursday. The detectives then went on a further search of Chinatown to discover if possible if any other girls were being kept there.

FORGED ARMY PAPERS SOLD.

Three Austrians Accused of Swindling Fellow-Countrymen Here.

Following a complaint lodged with the Detective Bureau by Alexander Grau Wandemayer, Secretary to the Austria-Hungary Consul General at 123 East Seventeenth Street, that his fellow-countrymen are swindled out of large amounts of money, detectives yesterday arrested Thomas Zielinski and John Andrew Soltysek of 333 East Nineteenth Street on charges of extortion, and the police expect to make several other arrests.

In his complaint Mr. Wandemayer cited many cases where Austrians in this country had been swindled out of sums of from $15 to $400 by means of forged certificates, pretending to exempt the holders from army service.

Zielinski and Soltysek were arrested at 35 Broadway, where they had an office.

Recently, Mr. Wandemayer said, he learned that forged exempt papers were being issued on payment of varying sums of money and investigation proved that a gang was working both in this country and in Canada.

Mr. Wandemayer said that certain men in the case hired a barn in New Jersey recently and notified Austrians that they represented their Government and had been sent here to put the men through the drills, which, they said, would save the men's expenses to Austria. Many Austrians took up the offer and paid the men from $25 to $100 apiece.

Zielinski and Soltysek were held in $2,000 bail each by Magistrate Herbert in the Tombs Court.

Later in the day, too late for arraignment with the others, Frank Siwik, said to be a partner of Zielinski, was arrested.

WILL OPPOSE RATE DECISION.

Inter-State Commerce Commission to Appeal from Ruling in Missouri Case.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Although no formal conference of the Inter-State Commerce Commission has been held since the promulgation of the United States Circuit Court's decision in the Missouri rate case, it has been determined that an appeal shall be taken to the United States Supreme Court as soon as possible.

Members of the commission and lawyers attached to the body are convinced that the Circuit Court failed to grasp fully the points contended for by the commission in the trial. So far as the commission is concerned it exercised, in the promulgation of the order in the case, only the power conferred expressly upon it by the Inter-State Commerce act.

ALIMONY FOR MRS. F. A. HALL.

Hall Suing for Annulment, Alleging That She Had Another Husband.

Mrs. Frances May Williams Hall, who is being sued by George B. Hall for an annulment of their marriage on the ground that she had a husband living, from whom she had not been legally divorced according to the laws of the State of New York when he married her, a year ago, in Colorado, yesterday obtained an award of temporary alimony of $125 a month by Justice Guy, in the Supreme Court, and a counsel fee of $250. Mr. Hall is a graduate of the Yale Emergency School, and counsel declared his income was $15,000 a year.

Mrs. Hall was married to a man named Howell Jones in 1906, and was a resident of Wyoming. She brought suit for divorce against him in Wyoming in 1908, and obtained an absolute decree, the service of the papers on Jones being by publication.

Hall's first wife at the same time obtained a divorce from him in Colorado. He then married Mrs. Jones, and they returned to New York, where they lived for some time at City Island with Hall's mother. They disagreed and Hall brought suit, claiming that his wife's divorce decree is invalid in this State.

Hall married Ada Jane Patterson in 1893. She moved to California, where he brought suit against her for divorce. She instituted a countersuit, alleging infidelity on his part, and succeeded in obtaining her decree.

Justice Guy said he thought $125 a month would be sufficient to support Mrs. Hall in the position in life to which she was accustomed, and added:

"I don't think a woman is entitled to spend all her husband's income, even if she remains his wife."

TO CALL FOR HAZING REPORT.

Congress Likely to Take Up the Sutton Case, Says Dickinson.

WEST POINT, Ga., Sept. 7.—Cadet John H. Booker, Jr., of this city, had nothing whatever to do with the hazing of Cadet Rolando Sutton, but was dismissed from the West Point Military Academy for permitting, without interference, cadets of the third class to require cadets of the fourth class to get down on all fours and run a race as horses and then auction them off.

This is the information just received here in a letter from Secretary of War Dickinson to Congressman W. C. Adamson. Booker was a senior. Secretary Dickinson stated that it was likely Congress at its next session would call for and publish the report of the board of inquiry.

GOV. POST RESIGNS TO TAFT.

Porto Rico Expects No Successor Until After an Investigation.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Sept. 7.—Regis P. Post, Governor of Porto Rico, announced to-day that he had sent his resignation to President Taft. It is reported here that the President has selected Gov. Post's successor, but before taking action will await the return of Secretary of War Dickinson, who is to make an investigation into Porto Rican affairs the latter part of this month.

Secretary Dickinson and Brig. Gen. Clarence R. Edwards, Chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs, will sail for San Juan about Sept. 15, it is said here.

MUST PAY BACK MILLION.

Southern Railroads Ordered to Refund Overcharges to Lumber Shippers.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—An order involving approximately a million dollars in reparation was issued to-day by the Association territory—Louisiana, Mississippi, and Western Alabama—and involves Inter-State Commerce Commission. It includes claims in the Central Yellow Pine a refunding of amounts paid by a large number of shippers of yellow pine lumber from the territory to points in other States on which an overcharge of 2 cents a hundred pounds was collected by various railroads.

The settlement of the cases was made on the same basis as that effected in the yellow pine lumber cases in other territories of the South, 67 per cent. of the provable claims being allowed. The cases covered by the order are known as the Green and Green claims, and they were instituted against all of the railroads operating in the Central Yellow Pine Association territory.

THE UNITED SERVICE.

Special to The New York Times.

The Army.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—First Lieut. H. C. Pillsbury, Medical Corps, transferred from the transport Logan to San Francisco, at San Francisco.

Col. Frank Baker, Ordnance Department, to Waterbury, Conn., in inspect ordnance material.

Col. O. J. Sweet, Twenty-eighth Infantry, is retired from active service, with the rank of Brigadier General.

Capt. A. L. Fuller, Coast Artillery, to the Philippines for temporary duty, thence to San Francisco and resume his duties as Chief Signal Officer, Department of California, relieving Capt. J. F. Brady, Coast Artillery.

Capt. H. O. Williams, Fifth Infantry, is detailed to fill a vacancy in the Subsistence Department, vice Capt. L. H. Bash, Commissary, relieved, and is assigned to the Fifth Infantry.

Capt. W. M. Connell, Fifth Cavalry, is detailed to fill a vacancy in the Subsistence Department, vice Capt. F. J. Koester, Commissary. Capt. Koester will be assigned to a troop of the Fifth Cavalry.

Major L. A. Fuller, Medical Corps, to Fort Adams for Duty.

Capt. C. E. Babcock, Fourth Infantry, will report to the General Superintendent of the Transport Service for assignment to duty as Quartermaster of the transport Logan, relieving Capt. T. G. Hanson, Nineteenth Infantry.

First Lieut. J. A. Green, Coast Artillery, will assume charge of the office and duties as Quartermaster, Constructing Quartermaster, at New London during the absence of Capt. C. T. Baker.

Major S. D. Sturgis, General Staff, Washington, for temporary duty in the office of the Adjutant General.

Capt. M. A. Elliott, Jr., Commissary, to Washington Barracks, District of Columbia, to take charge of training school for bakers and cooks, relieving Capt. F. J. Koester, Commissary.

The Navy.

Capt. F. H. Sherman to treatment, Navy Hospital, Hot Springs, Ark.

Lieut. Commander S. E. Moses to the Newark as executive officer.

Lieut. A. P. Fairfield to home and wait orders.

Movements of Naval Vessels.

Arrived—Farragut, at Mare Island; Prairie, at Hampton Roads; Hull, at Bremerton; Vicksburg, at Corinto; Albany, at San Francisco; Dixie, Sterling, Birmingham, and Salem, at Hampton Roads.

Sailed—Aileen and Gloucester, from Boston for New York; Pompey, from Guam for Cavite; MacDonough, Thornton, Tingey, and Wilkes, from Norfolk for Charleston; Tennessee, California, South Dakota, Washington, West Virginia, Colorado, Maryland, and Pennsylvania, from San Francisco for Honolulu; Vicksburg, from Corinto for La Union; Des Moines, from Boston for New York.

VICHY CELESTINS

Prevents GOUT and INDIGESTION
Ask your Physician

HOMEWARD RUSH ON; ALL TRAINS PACKED

City Folk Hurrying Back from the Country Now That the Summer Is Gone.

BREAK PASSENGER RECORDS

More Than 100,000 a Day Carried by Each Road Using Grand Central—Equal Business on Other Lines.

Ten towering trunk piles stood on the western end of the Grand Central Station's Lexington Avenue concourse yesterday afternoon. Each of the piles was numbered. Every time a train, crowded with returning Summer folk and their baggage, would pull into the station, men with baggage trucks would dash over to the baggage car. Each truck would then be loaded from one of ten separate trunk piles, which the train's baggagemen had already arranged on the floor of the car. The truck which belonged to Trunk Pile 5 in the station would be loaded from Trunk Pile 5 in the baggage car.

All this time porters with the trunk checks of already arrived passengers would be going up to the big trunk piles in the station. Every porter who had a trunk check ending in 5 would go to Trunk Pile 5. Other baggagemen, standing by Pile 5, would help shift the trunks so that the right trunk might be quickly extricated and turned over to its waiting owner. All afternoon trains full of trunks kept piling in.

Trunks were constantly being added to or taken from the big trunk piles. But there was no confusion, no disorder, no jumbling. Between each of the ten piles there was a wideaisle of white, clean pine board, through which the trucks passed each other easily. The truckmen, too, worked silently, without undue haste and without misunderstanding or quarreling.

"This is the way we cut our baggage problem by ten," said Station Supt. C. L. Boden as he directed the work. "It lets us find each trunk in ten times as short a time, and turn it over to its owner ten times as speedily. During the last three days we have handled more trunks and passengers than on any other days we ever had. But there have been no mishaps, no accidents, no confusion.

"This has been the biggest post-Labor Day influx which the road has ever had. Never has there seemed so many Summer folk all trying to come back to town at once.

"Since last Saturday, when the regular Autumn rush to town began, we have been handling 8,000 pieces of baggage a day instead of 5,000. On ordinary days 632 trains enter and leave this station. There are about five cars to each train. This means that our business can ordinarily be handled by 3,200 cars. Last Saturday, on the other hand, it took 3,962 cars to carry all the people who wanted to come back to the city after their Summer holiday. We had to put on forty-six additional trains or sections of trains.

"On Monday, between 5 o'clock in the afternoon and midnight we put on thirty-eight additional sections of trains. And it took twenty-eight extra sections of sleeping cars to accommodate all the people who came into this station between 5 and 10 o'clock this morning. Our Adirondack train, for example, is generally run in from five to seven sections, but it had fourteen this morning. The Bar Harbor and White Mountain trains also had extra sections. Our lines normally handle 80,000 passengers a day. Saturday, Sunday, and Monday, however, they have handled 300,000 persons and their baggage."

The inrush of Summer folk from Long Island to this city during the last few days has, according to Trainmaster J. M. McGee of the Long Island Railroad, been equally great. The Long Island Railroad has had to put on fifty extra trains a day since Saturday. These trains averaged ten cars apiece, each car carrying its full quota of sixty passengers. The Long Island Railroad has been handling 190,000 passengers a day since last Saturday, instead of 100,000 as usual, according to Trainmaster McGee.

This year's Labor Day return for Summer folk to the city has been a record one on the Pennsylvania lines, too. Trains from Asbury Park, Spring Lake, and other New Jersey resorts have been running in from three to eight sections since Saturday instead of in one. Several trains from Atlantic City have been coming in in two or three sections. Trains were churning into the Jersey City Terminal at ten and twelve minute intervals all yesterday and the day before.

According to Supt. Wallace, it will take several weeks for the Erie Railroad officials to figure up how many passengers and pieces of baggage their trains have carried in the last three days. Four hundred extra cars have been put on, and from twenty-five to thirty extra trains. A relief baggage train has been in operation since Saturday to pick up the extra trunks of the Summer folk between Port Jervis and this city.

KILLED IN SLEEPING CAR.

Slain Man's Companion Disappears and Police Suspect Black Hand Murder

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 7.—The body of an Italian, supposed to be Angelino Cenediti of 379 Rosabel Street, St. Paul, was taken from a train here when it arrived from the West this morning. The man had been shot in the back while lying in his berth in the train. The police suspect a "Black Hand" assassination.

Cenediti and a companion boarded the train at Saco, Mon. Shortly after they had entered their berths the conductor learned that Cenediti had been shot. When the train arrived here Cenediti was dead. His companion disappeared at the station.

MORPHINISM

The Increasing Prevalence of Drug Addictions makes timely the repeated announcement that the

OPPENHEIMER TREATMENT

for drug addictions, successfully applied for many years, involves little of the discomfort and other unpleasant features usually attendant upon the treatment of such cases. The period of residence required of patients averages less than three weeks. A high-class sanitarium is maintained, with skilled specialists and careful nursing.

For details cut this out and call on or write

The Oppenheimer Institute
317 WEST 57TH ST., NEW YORK.
(7) Telephone, Columbus 6495.

SLAIN GIRL KNOWN; MURDERER SOUGHT

Friend Identifies Body of Young Woman Discovered in Creek Sewed in Bag.

HEAD FOUND TIED IN SACK

Police Believe Death Was Caused by Strangulation, and See Indications of the Work of a Surgeon.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 7.—While determined men are dragging Ecorse Creek night and day in the hope of discovering the remaining portions of the body of Maybelle Millman the Sheriffs of Wayne and Washtenaw Counties and the police of Ann Arbor and Detroit are uniting in a desperate endeavor to solve the mystery of Miss Millman's murder.

The girl's mother moans in a semi-conscious condition at her home in Ann Arbor, having collapsed to-day when the news was broken to her that the body found in a bag in the creek yesterday had been identified as that of her daughter. Miss Martha Henning of 289 Cass Avenue, Detroit, a former schoolmate of the Millman girl, to-day gave the identification verdict, which could not be disputed.

The scene of the investigation of the murder shifted to-night from Detroit to Ann Arbor, where Miss Millman, daughter of a policeman's widow, lived. After prolonged questioning of Miss Henning, who identified the head of the body as that of her closest girl friend, the officers left hurriedly for the university town. They were accompanied by Harry Millman, brother of the dead girl, who came to Detroit as soon as he heard of his sister's tragic death.

Sheriff Gaston and his deputies refuse to give out definitely the clue they are working on, but examination of the mutilated body has led the authorities to believe the cutting was done by some one well acquainted with surgery.

The County Physician is inclined to think that the girl, who was 27, was strangled to death before her arms, legs, and head were cut off, the condition of the tongue and eyes indicating strangulation.

Not until to-day was the head of the girl found, although officials had been constantly dragging the creek since the discovery of the torso yesterday morning. The head was found sewed in the same kind of a burlap bag as the one containing the trunk. The sack was lying under the bridge about ten yards up stream from the place where the first bag was found, evidence almost undisputable that the body was thrown from the bridge.

There was much evidence which made identification positive. Two of the teeth were gone, and among the masses of long, jet-black hair was found a tortoise-shell comb of curious design. The comb was shown to Miss Henning, who was in the Coroner's office. When the comb of the dead girl was laid before her, Miss Henning glanced at it and shrieked "Oh, 'tis hers!" Then she fainted.

There was still a chance that the young woman might be mistaken, so in a few minutes she was taken to the operating room and shown the head on the glass table. All she could do, as she gave way to violent sobs, was to nod her head that she was satisfied that the dead girl was her friend.

When she recovered sufficiently to be questioned, she told of Miss Millman's coming to Detroit to visit her three weeks ago. Miss Henning is employed in a grocery store, and during Miss Millman's stay she kept on with her work, going to the store in the morning and leaving her guest in her room. The last words of Miss Millman to her were uttered a week ago Friday morning.

"If I am not here when you return to-night, don't worry," said she, "for I am going over to see my cousin on Lillibridge Street, and may remain there."

It has since been learned that Miss Millman never reached her cousin's home.

After an extended interview with Miss Henning at Police Headquarters Chief of Detectives McDonnell expressed himself as satisfied that the young woman could throw little light upon the murder of her friend. Before her departure late this afternoon for Ann Arbor she said:

"Maybelle came to visit me on Aug. 14. We had a real good time talking over bygone days and old friends, and on Aug. 27 Maybelle went to visit another friend in Lillibridge Street. I never saw her alive again.

FISH TRIES TO SINK BOAT.

Sportsman Lands Swordfish Weighing 163 Pounds After It Fights for Hours.

AVALON, Cal., Sept. 7.—While fishing off San Clements Island, L. G. Murphy of Converse, Ind., caught a swordfish 9 feet 7 inches long, that weighed 163 pounds and was armed with a two-and-a-half-foot sword. The fish is larger than any other of the species of which there is any record here.

The swordfish fought hard before it was brought to gaff. It leaped out of the water many times, charged the launch, trying to wreck it, and gave Murphy several hours' hard work.

Fall and Winter Suits Now Ready.

There is much in this stock to create desire in men of good taste in clothing. The patterns are bright and pleasing without being conspicuous---even suits designed for young men showing much moderation in cut, though possessing all essential style features of the coming season. Quiet distinction dominates throughout our exhibit of correct, tasteful Fall and Winter Suits.

Prices range from $15 to $40.

Hackett, Carhart & Co

265 Broadway, near Chambers St. 841 Broadway, at 13th St.

About the Living Room

IN the old English Manor-House the family activities were focused in the Living Room. In its furniture comfort and distinctive personality were equally apparent.

This double charm to-day reflects itself in our reproductions of English oak—highly-wrought Elizabethan or more graceful Jacobean, as the case may be.

GRAND RAPIDS FURNITURE COMPANY
(Incorporated)
34 and 36 West 32d Street
Between Broadway and Fifth Avenue

L.V.

What a Trade-Mark Means

Some Americans, far away in Europe, discerned suddenly, at the masthead of a vessel in a harbor, an American flag. "The grandest sight I ever saw," said one of the party. The American flag is in a certain sense the Nation's trade-mark. In business a good trade-mark is invaluable. It means Honesty and Reliability.

The LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD is proud of its Trade-Mark.

The red flag with the black diamond center appears on all its freight cars, its stationery, its time tables, its menus. It stands for Honesty and Reliability.

This trade-mark was designed nearly 30 years ago, when the Lake Line of the Lehigh carried much anthracite coal from Buffalo through Lake Michigan.

The Red on the flag means the clear flame peculiar to anthracite; the Black Diamond indicates, of course, the coal; and the white letters, "L. V.," stand for cleanliness—"America's Cleanest Railroad."

"Sentiment!" some one says! Granted!! But why not, if the Lehigh lives up to its trade-mark?

1460 Broadway (near 42d St.)
355 Broadway (near Franklin St.)
Hudson Terminal, Fulton, Church and Cortlandt Sts.
Lehigh Valley Ticket Offices New York
140 Broadway (near Liberty St.)
245 Broadway (near Park Place)
182 Fifth Avenue (near 23d St.)
225 Fifth Avenue (near 27th St.)
Penna. Ferries, W. 23d St., Desbrosses St. and Cortlandt St.
30 Flatbush Ave. and Brooklyn Annex Ferry, Brooklyn. 211 Market St., Newark

W. & J. SLOANE

Are Offering
ORIENTAL RUGS
comprising the Largest, Richest and Most Varied ever assembled in this Country, at prices that will interest all patrons.

Genuine Orientals
From $9.00 Up

EVERY RUG SOLD BY US HAS OUR USUAL GUARANTEE.

Free delivery within 100 miles.

Broadway & Nineteenth Street

The downfall and regeneration of a neglected wife.

The Hungry Heart
a novel
by
David Graham Phillips

D. APPLETON & COMPANY, Publishers, N. Y.

The New York Times

"All the News That's Fit to Print."

PUBLISHED EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR BY THE NEW YORK TIMES COMPANY.
Adolph S. Ochs, Pres't & Tr. B. C. Franck, Sec'y.
Address all communications
THE NEW YORK TIMES.

Publication Office.....Times Square
Downtown.....15 Beekman Street
Wall Street.....80 Broadway
WASHINGTON.....Washington Post Building
PHILADELPHIA.....Public Ledger Building
LONDON.....67 Fleet St., E. C.
PARIS.....36 Rue du Sentier
BERLIN.....60 Friedrichstrasse

ONE CENT Greater New York, Jersey City, Newark. Elsewhere, Two Cents. Five Cents Sunday.

Subscription Rates—By Mail, Postage Paid.

DAILY AND SUNDAY, per Week	$0.17
DAILY AND SUNDAY, per Month	0.75
DAILY AND SUNDAY, per Year	8.50
DAILY, per Week	0.12
DAILY, per Month	0.50
DAILY, per Year	6.00
SUNDAY, with Pictorial Section, per Year	2.50
THE NEW YORK TIMES WEEKLY FINANCIAL REVIEW, per Year (to Canada $1.50)	1.00
THE NEW YORK TIMES SATURDAY REVIEW, per Year (to Canada $1.50)	1.00

Add $1.10 per month for postage foreign countries daily and Sunday. 80 cents daily only.

Entered as second-class mail matter.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 8, 1909.

JUDGE GAYNOR.

The Hon. WILLIAM J. GAYNOR, a Judge of the Supreme Court, has "put himself in the hands" of nine reputable citizens of the Borough of Brooklyn and "consented to be a candidate for nomination for Mayor." As to the path by which he may reach that goal the Judge is not at all particular. Some persons have been in haste to say that they will not nominate him if others do. The Republican City Committee is unwilling to have anything to do with him if he takes a Tammany nomination. Some members of the Committee of One Hundred say their committee takes the same stand.

Judge GAYNOR thinks this is unreasonable. Why should he say to Democrats that he will not "suffer the [Tammany] City Convention to also nominate" him? "If I should do so," he plaintively exclaims, "I could not expect their votes." The "great bulk" of both Democrats and Republicans are "in favor of intelligent and good local government." "How much better it would be for the city if they should work together instead of proscribing and ostracizing each other." Let them get together and support Judge GAYNOR. That would take the trick. It is absurd to ask the Judge to throw away the trick in advance.

But the Judge does not really think the politicians will dare to pursue so offensive a policy. He knows "that many Republicans will not acquiesce in it." "Influential men in the Democratic Party have sent" him "assurances that the Democratic City Convention will give" him "an unconditional nomination in all respects, and that no one can prevent the election of delegates who will nominate" him. "As to the Independence League, inasmuch as it has always stood for the uplifting of city government," he thinks he "may justly expect its support." He is not so cocksure of the Committee of One Hundred, but in a general way he thinks the Committee is all right, and, anyway, it does not amount to much. How lovely it all is! Every section of each party, all the independent organizations, "the 75,000 or more voters in this great city who never allow National politics to influence their vote in city elections," are waiting for the day when they can shout and vote for Judge GAYNOR. The heavens will shake with the unanimous acclaim and the ballot boxes will idly register a foregone conclusion.

Every one cannot, of course, accept this view of the prospect for the immediate future with the confidence manifested by Judge GAYNOR. It is, indeed, quite contrary to the impressions entertained by cool and disinterested observers of the signs of the times. The determination of the Republican leaders not to submit again to the humiliation and loss they suffered in the case of Judge GAYNOR'S former partner, Mr. GROUT, when he was taken into the Tammany camp, is very natural, and, we are convinced, very sincere. There is no reason why they should not stick to it. As for Tammany, its leader, in the exercise of that carnal shrewdness he has so long shown, could hardly have invented a more satisfactory means of disposing of Judge GAYNOR than that inspired gentleman has discovered for himself. So long as it was possible that the Judge might be the candidate of a fusion of the anti-Tammany elements, Mr. MURPHY wisely permitted it to be understood that he might consent to name the Judge himself. The moment he is comfortably sure that no such fusion is possible he can have no further use for GAYNOR. It is possible that he will not be completely assured even after the Judge's manifesto, and he may see fit to nurse the "movement" a little while longer. But the chances are that Judge GAYNOR, in putting himself openly in the field, has hopelessly put himself out of any possible election.

That is a fact for which sober-minded and right-meaning citizens cannot be sorry. Judge GAYNOR is not a good man for Mayor. He is a curious cross between a fanatic and a demagogue. He has a strong tendency to believe that "God's providence in His rulership of all things" designs and requires the utmost satisfaction of his ambition. In practical affairs his judgment is unbalanced, uninformed, and liable to the strangest perversions. Had he power no human mind could foresee the use he would make of it. At the present moment the city's credit is the most important thing its people have to care for. What would be the effect upon it of the election of Judge GAYNOR any sensible observer of his career can foresee. It is a good thing that he has of his own accord made that eventuality practically negligible.

NOT A "RICH MAN'S SHOW."

Already it has been said that the Hudson-Fulton Celebration is to be a "rich man's show," but the charge is indefensible and unjust. As a matter of fact, the celebration is to be of such a character that it could not be made exclusive, to be enjoyed by one class of citizens and not by another, even if there were any desire to bring such a thing about, for this celebration is not to take place "in a corner."

The great features of it are to be the rendezvous of the American and foreign naval vessels, with a naval parade for a dozen miles up the Hudson River; a historical parade and pageant through several of the principal streets of the city, participated in by people of all the nationalities represented in New York's population; and the children's festivals in which it is estimated 500,000 children will take part. Not one of these features but can be seen without the investment of a penny just as well as if hundreds of dollars were expended, for they take place on the broad Hudson River and in the streets of the city, free to all, and cannot be hidden.

The Hudson-Fulton Celebration Commission will not have a single seat for sale on any stand. In fact, it will erect but three or four stands, which will be for the use of the official guests of the commission and the commission itself. There are but two features of the entire celebration of two weeks' duration, the official reception to distinguished visitors and the subsequent banquet in their honor, to which attendance by the general public will of necessity be limited. Both reception and dinner will be elegant, befitting such an occasion and the hospitality of the city and State, but it is doubtful if the great mass of people care much for official dinners and receptions, and the individual loss will not be keenly felt.

No, the Hudson-Fulton Celebration is made possible by all the people's money, is theirs by right, is for their enjoyment and instruction, and could not be taken from them even if any person or group of persons desired it.

THE COON HAS COME DOWN.

Either Collector LOEB has received instructions from Washington to be less discourteous to returning passengers of the ocean steamships, or else he has been moved by the complaints made through the newspapers of the ill-treatment inoffensive travelers have been subjected to, and come to the conclusion that decency and politeness are desirable even in Custom House work. The pockets of incoming passengers were not searched yesterday. The inspectors on the piers did not act as if they considered it their duty to treat every traveler as a thief until his innocence had been proved.

This change of method by the examiners of incoming baggage may only be a respite, but we prefer to regard it as a permanent reform. It is well to look on the bright side. Collector LOEB should be encouraged in his efforts, through his assistants, to enforce the customs laws. Smugglers are entitled to no sympathy. But there are comparatively few smugglers, and the insolent treatment lately received by hundreds of returning tourists has helped very little to increase the revenues of the Government and made too many citizens contemptuous of laws so obnoxiously enforced. The Collector is to be congratulated on the change made yesterday. Now that the coon has come down the shooting will stop.

THE KILLING OF MOTHER SEALS.

The warning was published from Washington yesterday that mother seals had been slain and their cubs left to starve on shore to such an extent that the very existence of the only fur-seal fisheries in the world is threatened. Only the subjects of Great Britain are prohibited by treaty from killing seals at any time within a zone of sixty miles surrounding the Pribilof Islands, and from the first of May to the first of August—the closed season—throughout a larger zone of the North Pacific Ocean and the Bering Sea. Russian and Japanese subjects may therefore rapidly exterminate the herd by fishing in the waters outside the three-mile limit. And they are doing this. According to the report just made by Dr. G. A. CLARK, only 50,000 breeding females remain, and but 200 out of 1,143 "harems" that in 1897 were flourishing.

The skins for women's sealskin cloaks are got legitimately and humanely in only one way. The surplus immature bachelors may be taken on land without affecting the herd. The Russians enacted the prohibition against killing the females in 1835, before the islands were purchased with Alaska by the United States. Pelagic sealing—the killing of the fur seals in the water, those in motion being shot, and those asleep or resting on the water speared—is described by Solicitor EDWIN W. SIMS in his report to the Secretary of Commerce and Labor as a "wantonly destructive method of securing furs." Around the feeding grounds in Bering Sea the catch is chiefly females, who, when unmolested, return to nourish their young on the Pribilof Islands, Mr. SIMS reports:

> One of the Japanese sealers of a party which landed on St. Paul Island during the Summer stated under oath that seven or eight out of every ten seals taken in Bering Sea by the schooner on which he belonged were females.

The brutal pelagic sealers took 61,838 skins in 1894, as against but 10,000 in 1881; the catch in 1895 decreased to 25,320 skins, simply because the herd had begun to be extinct. The diminution in number of seals on the rookeries is "due solely to the killing of female seals at sea." The killing of bachelors on land is done under lease from this Government and is the only economical method, since each death at sea "results in the loss of three lives to the herd," and 50 per cent. of those shot or speared on the water sink and are irrecoverable.

When their commercial advantage might be gained through an act of compassion, it would seem that the foreign Governments concerned would not be slow in entering into treaty arrangements that would insure the life of this valuable herd.

AN AMERICAN PRINCESS.

That clever old imperator, FRANCIS JOSEPH, has solved the problem that was perplexing alike the family of Miss ANITA STEWART and the chancelleries of Europe (not to mention the writers of international social gossip) by making Miss STEWART a Princess before her marriage with Dom MIGUEL BRAGANZA. It seems to be easier than we thought it was for an Emperor to transform a plain American miss into a Princess, when no principality goes with the title and no pecuniary endowment. Miss STEWART is buying her own principality, and is expected to endow rather than be endowed. But as a Princess of the Court of Austria-Hungary, and presumably of the Holy Roman Empire, she is the first American woman to be elevated to a rank so closely allied with royalty except through marriage. It is a great satisfaction to Miss STEWART'S fellow-countrymen to know that now the Duke of BRAGANZA will not be compelled to marry beneath him, but we do not suppose that the feelings of her fellow-countrymen were at all considered by FRANCIS JOSEPH.

To American young women of large wealth and ambition, however, the incident of Miss STEWART'S elevation will appeal as a precedent. The question that will interest them most is, if she should not marry the BRAGANZA Prince would she remain a Princess? This may seem frivolous, but it is really very serious. Does the rule once a Princess always a Princess hold in Austria, or elsewhere in Europe? If so, there are greater prospects for American girls of wealth and beauty than have hitherto been discovered. If one potentate can make an American girl a Princess offhand, so she may wed a Prince without feeling as if she were accepting a favor, why may not another elevate to princely rank the right sort of girl who has no thought of marrying abroad, and permit her return hither with her title and wed a lawyer or a broker, to the great enhancement of his reputation and improvement of his business?

KING GEORGE'S PLANS.

There is an unverified rumor that GEORGE I., King of the Hellenes, contemplates abdicating the throne of Greece. We have heard no report that he intends to give up his picturesque informal Court at Aix-les-Bains. The gayety of Europe would not be lessened by his abdication, and the only reason for doubting the report is that King GEORGE has not hitherto shown a disposition to give up anything. He has reigned, amiably, and been neither as rapacious as King Stork nor as heavy as King Log, since his election to the Greek throne in 1863. Before that time he was merely Prince WILLIAM of SUDERBURG-GLUCKSBURG, second son of the old King CHRISTIAN of Denmark.

He married OLGA, daughter of a Russian Grand Duke, and he has made all that his taste and inclination ever prompted him to make of the artistic and social possibilities of kinghood. He has scarcely lived up to the ideal of royal simplicity which prevails in Denmark, and it is generally believed that his views of life have been diametrically opposed to those of his sister, Queen ALEXANDRA of England. But he has been King neither in Denmark nor in England, but in Greece, and Greek Kings from time immemorial have had their peculiarities. GEORGE I.'s have differed somewhat from those of OEDIPUS and CANDAULES, but have been just as pronounced. It is perfectly fair to say that he has been better known in Aix than in Athens, but probably not than in Paris, where his face is as familiar to the boulevardiers and frequenters of the theatres as that of the King of the Belgians. Of affable, buoyant personality, King GEORGE does not look his 64 years, and we may be sure that his abdication would not signify retirement to a cloistered life.

The Crown Prince, CONSTANTINOS, is popular in Athens, and his accession to the throne would doubtless be welcomed by the people. He is, moreover, a brother-in-law of the Kaiser.

MOLECULES, ATOMS, ELECTRONS.

A molecule, too small to be seen but not to be counted, is a small world.

Each of the atoms of which it is composed, Prof. E. RUTHERFORD told the British Association at Winnipeg, is itself "a complex system, consisting of a number of positively and negatively charged masses [electrons] which are held in equilibrium mainly by electrical forces." Experiment seems to show this:

> Electrons play two distinct rôles in the structure of the atom, one as lightly attached and easily removable satellites or outliers of the atomic system, and the other as integral constituents of the interior structure of the atom. The former, which can be easily detached or set in vibration, probably play an important part in the combination of atoms to form molecules, and in the spectra of the elements; the latter, which are held in place by much stronger forces, can only be released as a result of an atomic explosion.

Such an explosion would have interested the ancient alchemists had they understood it, because it is the expulsion of high-speed electrons which accomplishes the miracle of transmuting one element into another. It may be rendered visible under the microscope:

> Sir WILLIAM CROOKES has shown that when the alpha rays are allowed to fall upon a screen of phosphorescent zinc sulphide, a number of brilliant scintillations are observed. * * * This shows that the impact of each alpha particle [atom] produces a visible scintillation.

Prof. RUTHERFORD says there is no reason why this should not be accomplished for electrons, too, so that they can be electrically detected. A simple optical test for the presence of the comparatively big molecules is found in the blue of the sky; indeed, it has been known for a decade that the motion of atmospheric molecules scatters the rays of light, doing this so much faster for the violet end than for the red end of the spectrum that the sky, viewed by the scattered light, assumes a deep blue color. But the things going on inside the molecule are more wonderful. BRAGG has shown that there is no time for an atom to get out of the way of a swiftly moving alpha particle, which must "pass through the atomic system":

> On this view, the old dictum, no doubt true in most cases, that two bodies cannot occupy the same space, no longer holds for atoms of matter if moving at a sufficiently high speed.

Is Prof. RUTHERFORD here sacrificing scientific precision for the sake of his paradox, or does he really mean it?

TOPICS OF THE TIMES.

Mr. Roosevelt Answers His Critics.

Evidently ex-President ROOSEVELT has heard something—or it may be much—of the criticism which he has received at home from those whom his shooting exploits in Africa have offended or grieved. As evidently he resents this criticism as unjust, in so far as it is based upon facts, and ignorant when its foundation has been nothing except exaggerated or imagined reports of what he has been doing to the beasts and birds. This is shown by an extract from a private letter received in The Outlook office and printed in the current issue of that magazine. After referring to "fake stories of my hunting" and to "would-be 'comic stories,' which the puzzled-headed reader who would believe the first would be quite as likely to believe," the ex-President says:

> As a matter of fact, every animal I have shot, with the exception of, say, six or eight, shot when we had to have food, has been carefully preserved for the National Museum. I can be condemned only if the existence of the National Museum, the American Museum of Natural History, and all similar zoological collections are to be condemned.

This is a clear and explicit statement. By reasonable inference from the necessary assumption that it was not intended to deceive, "every animal I have shot" means not alone all that have been killed by Mr. ROOSEVELT, but also those that have fallen before the guns of the other members of his party, for all of whom he is directly responsible as the leader of the expedition. So viewed, the shooting done is justified, or at least adequately defended, for everybody except the queer people who think, or pretend to think, it wrong to kill animals for any reason whatever, or for the people hardly less queer who hold the only valid excuses for it to be self-defense or the need of food. Most of us admit, and many of us assert, the existence of dozens of other legitimate reasons, among which not a few of us would number "sport," if allowed to keep the meaning of the word within the limits of a decent moderation.

Certainly it is but a small group who would condemn such institutions as the National Museum and the Museum of Natural History, or the kind and amount of killing which their existence necessitates, and not only is the group small, but the opinions of those in it are as properly negligible as are the opinions of the men who do butcher's work out of sheer brutal liking for it.

Somebody Is Responsible.

Though the typhoid epidemic on the upper east side is as yet a small one, considering the size of the city, it is of sufficient importance to receive the instant and serious attention of every man connected with the Board of Health, and it is not pleasant to read that really energetic action has not been taken because so many of the sanitary officials are away on vacation. Surely they should not have waited till the newspapers became excited over the number of cases before they undertook the double task which now awaits them—that of stamping out the epidemic and of finding some sort of an excuse for letting it progress so far before attacking it.

That at this late date there should still be uncertainty as to the source of the infection is not only a disgrace to the city, but it is little less than proof that somebody in a highly responsible position is either incompetent or negligent. The mystery is indeed a dark one, for of late years the New York Health Department has had and deserved respect as one of the not many branches of our municipal Government which both knew its duty and did it in a way to make it a model for other cities to follow if they could. It has performed magnificent services, not confined to New York alone, and it has given numerous illustrations of what can be accomplished when advanced scientific knowledge is put to practical use by honest and able men. And now comes this miserable little epidemic to bring ridicule on our boasted progress in preventive medicine and hygiene!

For, of course, nobody with any sense now looks upon typhoid fever as a misfortune. It may, of course, be that to the innocent victim, but even to him it is also a crime. This outbreak, by its narrow limitation, is evidently the consequence of a single definite infection that could and should have been stopped at its very beginning. It is not like the sporadic cases that occur in the city every Autumn, brought back here by returning vacationists from "resorts" where almost or quite every prospect pleases and only the sewers and the milk supply are vile. Such cases will continue until the enlightenment we are supposed to possess has spread all over the country. This, however, is something for which we are ourselves—in the persons of our official guardians—wholly to blame, and that feature of the situation cannot be too prominently brought forward.

Going a Long Way Round.

If, as now reported, the strike at the works of the Pressed Steel Car Company is to end in a concession of everything for which the men asked in the beginning except an advance in wages, the result will have been obtained by much the same means by which Canada has practicaly freed itself from the more dangerous and expensive consequences of industrial disputes. The application of the means, however, has been wretchedly clumsy and inept, and the Canadians may well wonder that when we have this striking proof of what a public investigation of grievances will do, we do not promptly set to work and provide that the investigation shall precede riot and war instead of coming after it.

Whatever the company has now conceded it could have conceded in the first place; all the grievances, the reality of which it now admits, it could have confessed weeks and weeks ago, when they were originally formulated. This belated yielding will have little effect in effacing the bitternesses which obstinacy of denial has created, for favors granted under compulsion are not favors at all, and never excite any except the coldest kind of gratitude.

CENTRAL PARK DRIVES.

Plans Wider Roads and Separate Courses for Carriages and Autos.

To the Editor of The New York Times:

About eighteen months ago I proposed a plan to widen the driveways in Central Park and to divide the automobiles from horse-drawn vehicles by laying out separate roadways, the centre to be for horses and the outer sides for the autos, which latter part of the road could be then paved with asphalt or other suitable material, and macadam retained for the horses. This order could be reversed if thought advisable. I did not urge the matter, however, at that time, chiefly on account of the unfavorable conditions that then generally prevailed. Now, however, I think the time is opportune for vigorous action on the part of all concerned. I prepared a petition for presentation to the proper authorities requesting a public hearing on the matter. At this writing some of our most prominent citizens have already signed it, and have signified their intention of personally advocating this improvement.

Horsemen most naturally have responded with considerable enthusiasm, and those automobilists with whom discussion has been had are equally pleased and will welcome the separation of machines from horses as proposed in the park drives. At crossroads and intersections rules could be formulated to the satisfaction of all.

When we consider that the driveways in Central Park were designed and built about half a century ago, I believe, to meet the requirements of that generation it is not surprising nor a reflection on the foresight of the designers that our present tremendous population find these narrow, inadequate roadways, especially the East Drive, terribly congested during the driving season.

There are no engineering problems involved that cannot readily be mastered, and I may add that the science of replanting trees has developed to such a degree that there is now practically no limit to the size of tree to be removed. A study of the plan proposed, however, obviates any objection on this score.

Those that are being and will be approached about this improvement in particular are the Road Drivers' Association, prominent citizens who are known as drivers; National Horse Show Association, Tichenor-Grand Company, American Horse Exchange, Fiss, Doerr & Carroll, and other dealers, riding academies, automobile clubs, and manufacturers and dealers, and all the branches of each.

HUGH E. McLAUGHLIN,
Topographical Bureau, Bronx.

New York, Sept. 7, 1909.

NAVY PRECEDENCE.

Why First Honor Should Go to the English Fleet.

To the Editor of The New York Times:

The editorial and official minds seem to be perplexed over a question of precedence with regard to the official rank allotted to England's and Germany's representatives at the Hudson-Fulton Celebration. May I suggest that Washington will probably settle the delicate question on the following common sense lines:

Assuming that the whole world recognizes this is a free country, in no way bound by the traditions of the Old World or Court etiquette, the arbiters will argue that we, the American people, are honoring the great discoverer of the Hudson, Henry Hudson, a notable English navigator and geographer, together with our own countryman, Robert Fulton, the genius of steam navigation, whose father was an Irishman and British subject. We owe our language and our common law to England. This celebration is almost purely a nautical one, and England, the present greatest sea power, is paying us the compliment of sending a squadron of four representative cruisers, the finest that has visited a foreign country since the main fleet has been kept in home waters. These are moral and material arguments of weight to any fair-minded court, and should decide the question of precedence in favor of Admiral Sir Edward Seymour. Admiral Von Koester represents a country to which we owe nothing more than we owe to Italy or any other country which sends us fine emigrants, together with favors to come. We have a great opportunity to uphold our Constitution of liberty and equality by deciding the delicate question of precedence on its merits, free from the personal equation of Court etiquette.

LITTLE JOHNNIE NOBODY.

New York, Sept. 5, 1909.

Norwich Academy Book.

To the Editor of The New York Times:

In this morning's issue you mention editorially an edition of "The Inland City," published by the press and pupils of the Norwich Free Academy. May I be permitted to make a slight correction in the facts as they have been presented to you?

The portrait of Mr. Stedman and other illustrations of which you speak so appreciatively are credited on the title page to the Norwich Art School. I have a copy of the book; the phrase is, "With illustrations by the Norwich Art School." This is in a sense true, but a school cannot produce illustrations; pupils of a school may, though it is impossible that even two pupils could produce a set of drawings which, (with the exception of one etching by the director, Ozias Dodge,) are so absolutely alike in facture as these, so unmistakably individual in delicacy and charm. One feels at once that they were done by one pupil; as, indeed, they were, by Tracy Porter-Rudd, a young man of 22. So let the credit of his first published work be his. Unless, indeed, the Principal of the academy wishes to infer that Mr. Dodge, the director, and Mr. Rudd, the pupil, are the Norwich Art School!

SIDNEY STARR.

New York, Sept. 6, 1909.

Where Is Henry McKie?

To the Editor of The New York Times:

Will you please print this in your paper? Missing from home, Henry McKie, a shoe worker, 20 years, very tall, dark complexion, dark hair and eyes. His widowed mother would like to hear from him. Last heard from was somewhere in New York.

Mrs. VICTORIA McKIE,
84 Hayes Street, Lynn, Mass.

MAYOR BACK; TO TOUR STATE.

Out for Governor, Politicians Say—Won't Discuss Gaynor or Coler Charges

Mayor McClellan took up the reins of government again yesterday after an almost continuous absence from the city of two months. His last official act was when he returned suddenly to town to veto the Building Code. The latter part of his vacation was spent on the Maine coast.

The Mayor said that he did not care to discuss Justice Gaynor's letter announcing his willingness to enter the Mayoralty fight, nor would he talk about the charges filed against the Mayor by Borough President Coler of Brooklyn. He declared that he had not been officially notified of the charges, and that he had not even read them.

The Mayor will leave on Monday for Syracuse, where he will speak at the State Fair on Tuesday. On the day following he will speak at the Franklin County Fair at Malone, and on Thursday at the Wyoming County Fair at Warsaw. The continuance of these up-State speaking tours is taken by local politicians as evidence that the Mayor means to fight for the Democratic nomination for Governor next year.

TWO GRAND JURIES SWORN.

One Body to Sit in the Morning, the Other in the Afternoon.

Two Grand Juries for the September term were sworn in yesterday by Judge Malone in General Sessions. Simeon T. Zabriskie of 58 West Forty-seventh Street was elected foreman of the morning, and William H. Oakley of 203 West Seventieth Street of the afternoon jury.

In charging, Judge Malone said:

"I instruct you particularly to beware of merchants who try to use the Grand Jury to collect their debts. That this body has been used before for that purpose is pretty well known, and it must not be permitted."

In warning the jurors against corruption, he said:

"Whether the danger arises from the power of individuals or from the union of numbers, guard against it, for both reach down and pollute the fountain of justice."

PLENTY OF PURE FOOD.

Should Not Take Chances on Preserved Articles.

To the Editor of The New York Times:

Much is said and written in these days about the use of benzoate of soda for the preservation of foods, but what is the use, except for the commercial side of the question? Of course the dealers and manufacturers will take every apparent advantage that can be presented to them, but that in the nature of things must be only temporary. It matters not that the Denver Convention decided that four grams a day are not harmful. That will eventually be decided by the consumers themselves, and they will never consent to taking their food blindfolded. Dr. Wiley is all right. If his enemies succeed in driving him out now they are liable to have one more strict later on. It will be much like jumping from the frying pan into the fire. The whole tendency of the times is progressive, and we are not going back to the Dark Ages.

We really do not need those foods that are necessarily preserved with benzoate, nor is it necessary to the integrity of the body that it should be impregnated with that or any other drug. As well might one insist upon the use of lime or any of the condiments that are so much in evidence at the present time. The merest tyro knows that such substances do not contribute to the building up of a sound body, for there is not a particle of nourishment in them. The fact is the body is better off without their presence. What is needed is pure food, and the people must and will have it, and also know what they are eating.

Of this there is an abundance to meet all demands. The appetite often calls for foods that are out of season, that need to be preserved for a time, out there are ways to secure them without the use of any "preservative." If our people would learn to live a simple, healthful life, using only natural foods which can be had in great abundance and variety, particularly of fruits which are available the year around in their best condition, then with grains, nuts, and vegetables galore life can be made ideal, its length prolonged at least to 100 years, with greater happiness and efficiency as the result. Thus would be avoided the necessity of benzoate of soda or any other preservative. First of all give us pure food, but if we must have "preservatives" let us know it, so that we can utilize them with our eyes wide open.

CHARLES H. SHEPARD, M. D.

Brooklyn, Sept. 4, 1909.

The Wick and Not the Oil.

To the Editor of The New York Times:

If you think a reply to Mr. F. W. Seward's question in re Standard Oil (to-day's issue,) is of any interest to your readers, tell them as follows:

In ninety-nine cases out of a hundred the failure of the average lamp to continue to burn after two-thirds of the oil has been consumed, rests entirely with the condition of the wick and "general cleanliness."

I have poured many a last third from a dirty lamp into a clean one, adjusted a fresh wick, and proved to the complaining housewife that the oil was not at fault, not watered.

Go after the manufacturers of wicks sometimes, and more often ask Mary Ann to clean up her lamp, (alkali dust, bugs, flies, dirt,) and accessories.

Standard Oil kerosene in a clean lamp with feeding wick will burn in ninety-nine cases out of a hundred to the last drop.

T. E. EHRENBERG.

New York, Sept. 7, 1909.

Appreciated in Texas.

To the Editor of The New York Times:

Permit a Texan, temporarily sojourning in Gotham, to thank you for the timely editorial in your issue of this date on the important subject of correct dress on the occasion of the visit of the President to our State.

Your thoughtfulness and consideration will be appreciated by every reader of your paper in Texas.

P. P. PADDOCK.

New York, Sept. 4, 1909.

SMALL POTATOES.

Ezry Pembroke told us his
Was th' knee-j'int rheumatiz,
Twisted Ezry's legs up so
Ezry said he couldn't go
Off a crutch an' laid, he said,
Nigh on six long months abed,
An' he'd holler if ye'd p'int
Jist yer finger at his j'int!

Ezry Pembroke said he bet
He'd be crippled all up yet,
But he heered fr'm Treadwell Spain
How t' drive away th' pain
Jist by allus carryin'
New potaters near yer skin
In his pocket, an' said his
Tuk away th' rheumatiz!

Ezry said he couldn't say
Why it druv th' pain away,
But he 'lowed it jist about
Drawed th' rheumatiz right out;
An' he said th' 'tater got
All shrunk up—a nubbin not
Bigger 'n bird's eggs, after you
Carried it a month or two.

An' right then why Homer Pry
Winked at us an' spoke up dry,
An' told Ezry he c'd see
Why it's allus nubbins he Used t' get fr'm Ezry's store,
But he 'lowed he won't no more
Now that Ezry's cured up his
'Tater-shrinkin' rheumatiz!

J. W. FOLEY.

GOOD SERVANT GIRLS ARE NOW PLENTIFUL

Many, Especially Irish Girls, Coming Over from the Other Side to Get Places.

WAGES ARE REASONABLE

Panic of 1907 Altered the Domestic Servant Problem, but Conditions Became Normal Last Spring.

A woman who places the best class of servants in the homes of the city said yesterday the housekeeper who is getting home to a servantless house need not worry this Fall. There is an unusual influx of girls from the other side of the water, younger sisters, many of them, of girls already in domestic service in New York, and they promise to make many households comfortable. The chronic condition of many demands with few servants to fill them is being changed, and even the woman who wants a girl for general housework, that most difficult treasure to find, may hope.

The panic of 1907 played havoc in the domestic service world. Servants were dropped from wealthy households literally by the dozen, and houses were closed entirely or carried on with only a small force of maids. There were people who prophesied at that time that the high wages paid servants in New York would receive a blow from which they would never recover. The effect was something like that of a domestic earthquake, and conditions did not become normal again until this last Spring, but the only permanent effect, if there was one, was to increase the number of general housekeepers, which will be good news to many people.

"There will be a large number of girls among the better class servants who will go out to general housework this Fall," said the woman who knows. "A housekeeper will be able to get a good general servant for $25 and $30 a month, who will be a first-class cook and waitress, but she will not do the laundry work. Others who will be fair cooks and waitresses going for from $18 to $22 a month, will include the laundry work.

"The girls who are coming over this Fall are most of them Irish girls, and they are girls whom I like to place, because they are honest, good hearted, and faithful. They are many of them younger sisters of girls we have known for years, and where they are not experienced they will take positions, as under chambermaids and kitchen maids, and in another year they will be able to fill more important places. Some of them have already filled good positions in England, Scotland, and Ireland, and where they do not have sisters whom we know to vouch for them, we send to the other side and have excellent references for them.

"While the woman servants are the greater number of them Irish, the highest priced servants, the men, as a rule, are English. They, at least, are the most in demand, though we have Scotch, Irish, French, and Italian butlers. There are not as many Italians, and they are more difficult, as their English is apt to be poor. There is occasionally a demand for an Italian maid. Here some woman speaks Italian and wishes to keep it up, but as more women speak French the great demand is for French ladies' maids.

"The seasons for engaging servants are changing, as people are spending more and more of their time, very sensibly, in the country, or, as they are also doing more each year, in Europe. There was a large demand in the early Spring—in March—for servants to go to the country, and the demand for servants in the city will be late this Fall, not beginning to be pressing until the middle of October, when there will be a great rush for a month or more before business settles down to the regular demand, which is more or less steady the year through. But we can give better promise this year than for a good while previous, of a plentiful supply of good servants.

"In taking general housework positions again, girls seem to be realizing that there are many advantages in them. One girl who never had trouble with the mistresses of the houses in which she was placed, but was never able to stay because of trouble with other servants, I persuaded to take a general housework position, and I hear nothing now but words of praise for her. Other girls are having similar experiences, and there is a promise of better times for the women with small homes or who live quietly."

CRITICISES ALBANY PRISON.

Commission Says Idle Men Should Have Air and Work.

ALBANY, Sept. 7.—Commissioner S. P. Quick and Secretary George McLaughlin of the Prison Commission have reported to the commission that congestion in the men's department of the Albany County Penitentiary is unreasonably excessive; that some proper system of ventilation of the cells is urgently needed; that the cells are dirty, and that many of the inmates are kept in enforced idleness. They were a committee of the commission which inspected the institution on Aug. 24. They add that "the whole institution seems to have fallen in a rut of listless routine and needs to have energy, initiative, and enthusiasm infused into its management."

On the day the institution was inspected the committee found 250 idle men, and this number sometimes reaches as high as 400.

"This condition of idleness has existed practically since the abolition of the old industries in the penal institutions of the State by the new Constitution of 1894," says the comittee's report. "The management of this institution has made no attempt to conform it industrially to the requirements of the prison law.

"With 200 or 300 idle prisoners there is absolutely no excuse for not keeping the entire institution, with all its equipment, perfectly clean and free from vermin."

The committee points out that much additional labor might be expended on the prison farm, and says it observed "a lot of potatoes in the fields among which weeds higher than the vines and other indications of slovenly farming; with all this help there is no excuse for allowing a single weed on the farm."

"The congested condition of the institution," continues the report, "cannot be attributed to the officers in charge of it, and can only be relieved by the action of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Albany.

"To continue the practice of housing two men committed for minor offenses in a cell having less than 200 cubic feet of air space for fifteen hours each day indefinitely is intolerable."

The committee points out that it is the duty of the authorities in charge of the institution to make every reasonable effort to establish Industries in conformity with the prison law, and calls attention to what is being done in New York, Erie, Onondaga, and Monroe Counties.

"Prisoners are sent to this institution at hard labor," says the report, "and it is just as much an obligation on the management to carry into effect that part of the sentence as it is to keep them in custody."

If the abuses are not remedied at an early date, action should be taken by the Attorney General, the report says.

The Cayuga County Jail comes in for criticism at the hands of Inspector Clifford M. Young. He says it would be futile to add any further recommendations until the Board of Supervisors decides whether to construct a modern jail or remodel the present one.

Commissioners Sarah L. Davenport and Henry Solomon, who inspected the Auburn State Prison, report that the prisoners are receiving dental treatment.

PRINCE KUNI ARRIVES FOR THE FULTON FETE

Cousin of the Emperor of Japan Comes as a Special Envoy from the Mikado.

THE GOVERNMENT'S GUEST

Royal Envoy Is Accompanied by His Wife and a Large Suite—Will Tour the Country.

Prince Kuniyoshi Kuni, a cousin of the Emperor of Japan, arrived here yesterday on the Cunard liner Carmania, accompanied by the Princess, to represent his country at the coming Hudson-Fulton Celebration. He was met at Quarantine by the Reception Committee, who went down the bay on the revenue cutter Calumet. The members of the party were Col. Robert M. Thompson, who will entertain the Prince and Princess for part of their stay in this country; K. Matsui, Chargé d'Affaires of the Japanese Embassy at Washington; Dr. Jokiche Takamine, Commander Robert P. Forshew of the Naval Militia, aid to Gov. Hughes; Kuchi Yamasaki, Vice Consul General to Japan in New York; and Capt. S. A. Cheney, U. S. A., aid to the President, who was sent from Washington to meet Prince Kuni and escort him to Beverly, where he will make his official call on President Taft.

The Prince and Princess, with their suite, occupied rooms on the upper promenade deck of the Carmania, and waited for the arrival of the Reception Committee in the lounge at the head of the main companionway leading to the dining saloon.

In appearance Prince Kuni is barely four feet tall, while the Princess towers a head and shoulders above him. He is sturdily built, and has the bearing of a soldier. The Princess is tall, with a pleasant smile that won the American women who were her fellow-passengers. She wore a black tailor-made costume, with picture hat and white ostrich plumes, while her maid of honor, Mme. Nagasake, wore a white costume, with hat to match. Prince Kuni was dressed in a dark-gray business suit, with a white waistcoat, a green tie, and English cloth cap. He walked the deck with his hands in his coat pockets.

Although his manners to the Japanese who went to meet him were distant but polite, he was very democratic toward the reporters and photographers and stood for pictures on the upper deck of the liner and also for a flashlight on the pier. Evidently he had been informed of what was going to happen and appeared to take it all as a part of America's reception to distinguished visitors.

As he does not speak any English and practically no other language but Japanese, the interview with the reporters was conducted through Mr. Matsui as interpreter.

"What do you think of the discovery of the north pole by two American explorers?" he was asked.

"It is an example of American enterprise and energy," the Prince answered.

"Will it be of any great future benefit to science?"

"I cannot say," replied the Prince. "I am not a scientist, and was not aware that the pole had been discovered until Col. Kurita, my aid, read the bulletin from the wireless telegraph to me."

He was then asked whether the Japanese Government was interested in aeroplanes for use in time of war. To that the Prince replied that he had not seen any of the experiments himself, but from all he had read there was no doubt they would be useful in the future for military purposes. At the present time, in his opinion, aviation was in its infancy. He went on to say that he was greatly pleased that he had been so fortunate as to arrive in America in time to witness such a great historical celebration as the Hudson-Fulton one.

When asked if Japan was making the same progress in commerce and agriculture as were the Western countries, the Prince replied that he had been away from Japan, studying military tactics in Germany, for nearly two years, but, judging from the news he had received from time to time from home, Japan was making steady progress, both commercially and from an agricultural point of view. This year, he understood, the crops were exceptionally good.

Throughout the voyage the Prince and Princess took their meals in the dining saloon of the Carmania, and mingled freely with the passengers. Owing to his lack of knowledge of English the Prince did not hold many conversations, but he was present at the ship's concert in the saloon on Saturday night, and took part in the deck sports on Monday. Prince Kuni played a game of deck quoits with two young Americans from Harvard and enjoyed it very much, but he was a poor player and did not win. The Prince and Princess will stay at the Hotel Plaza until to-morrow morning, occupying the regal suite as the guests of the United States Government, when they start for Boston. The afternoon will be spent in that city inspecting the navy yard and other points of interest.

On Friday they will leave for Beverly to visit President Taft, escorted by Capt. Cheney, U. S. A. After visiting the President at his Summer home they will return to Boston and inspect Harvard University on Sept. 12. On the following day they will go to Newport and be the guests of Col. Robert M. Thompson, on the latter's houseboat, The Everglades.

On Sept. 14 they will lunch with the army and navy officers on board The Everglades, and will witness the drill and dress parade at Fort Adams. Next day they will cross to Southampton in The Everglades and will spend the night in Col. Thompson's Summer home. They will stay as his guests until Sept. 18, when they will return to New York city and stop at the Hotel Plaza. On Sept. 19 and 20 they will be the guests of Dr. Takomine at his Summer home, in Sullivan County, Merrickwold Park.

On Sept. 21 the Prince and Princess will go to West Point in a private car and will come down the Hudson in the Everglades. On Sept. 22 they will go to the Navy Yard and will lunch with Gen. Wood on Governors Island. That same night they will be the guests of the Japanese Society at the Hotel Astor. They will go to Washington and return in time for the Hudson-Fulton Celebration on Sept. 25.

H. I. H. Prince Kuniyoshi Kuni, third son of the late Prince Asahiko, born July 23, 1873, was graduated from the Military Academy in Tokio, and appointed Second Lieutenant Jan. 25, 1897.

He was graduated from the Army War College as honor graduate and given a sword as a prize from the Emperor. He was attached to Gen. Kuroki's staff in the Russian war as Major, and fought in the battles of the Yalu, Lioyang, the Shaho, and Moukden. He received the Order of the Golden Kite; was decorated with the Grand Cordon of the Order of Chrysanthemum; holds several foreign decorations, and was promoted to be Lieutenant Colonel April 1, 1908.

H. I. H. Princess Kuni, seventh daughter of Prince Tadayoshi Shimadzu, born Oct. 19, 1879, was married on Dec. 13, 1899. Prince Shimadzu was the feudal Lord of Satsuma, and such famous Generals and Admirals as Oyama, Kuroki, and Togo were his retainers.

The Reason

Postum builds up the human body to a prime condition of health, is that when coffee is left off, the drug effects of its poison — caffeine — disappear and the elements in Postum unite with the albumen of food to make gray matter and rebuild the delicate nerve centres all over the body and in the brain.

This sets up a perfect condition of nerve health, and the result is that the entire body feels the effect of it.

"There's a Reason"

ROOF GARDEN ON MANHATTAN.

Hammerstein to Give Summer Orchestral Concerts on a Big Scale.

Oscar Hammerstein announced yesterday that the Manhattan Opera House would never be closed again, even for a month. The regular Winter season will succeed the preliminary season of opera now going on there, and in the Spring the new roof garden will be opened on top of the Manhattan, on which orchestral concerts, planned on a vast scale, will be given.

"When the new Pennsylvania station is completed," said the impresario, "there will be no time during the year, I think, when I cannot draw a large audience. Work on the roof garden commenced today, and will continue all Winter. The roof garden will open at the close of my regular season, and an orchestra will play there all Summer, besides which prominent soloists will appear. I may even give some performances of opera there. I am at least arranging for a stage upon which scenery can be used if required.

"The advantages of keeping the house open all the time are many, but the chief one is that my orchestra will be held together throughout the year.

"My preliminary season is going along beautifully, but I haven't yet solved the question of opera at popular prices. It is only possible to give operas in both French and Italian with a predominance of French singers. If I gave Italian opera exclusively with italian singers, it would be necessary to have an entirely distinct company for French opera, as most Italians do not sing French, and that is impossible when I am offering the best seats at popular prices.

"I may keep a popular-priced company in New York all the time. I may have a company touring. I am not certain exactly what I shall do yet."

The plans for the new roof garden were approved Monday by the Building Department. The new garden will seat 4,000, and will be opened before May 1. The work of construction of this outdoor auditorium, which is to be 60 feet high, with a stage 90 feet broad and 50 feet deep, will be under the direction of James B. McElfatrick. There will be 30 private boxes, each seating 6 persons, and balconies accommodating 2,500. On the main floor there will be room for almost 1,500 persons. In case of cold or rainy weather the garden will be inclosed with glass, and a heating plant will insure comfort for the patrons.

$2,500 Raised for St. Malachy's.

The benefit performances given in Morrison's Theatre and the American Music Hall, Rockaway Beach, last night for St. Malachy's Home, which was damaged by a fire in which seven lives were lost a week ago last Monday night, netted $2,500 for the home. Both theatres were crowded.

MISS MARY L. BROWN WEDS.

The Bride of D. A. Dugan—Her Brother Celebrant at Nuptial Mass.

With her brother, the Rev. J. T. Brown, as celebrant, at a high nuptial mass in St. Rose of Lima's Church in Short Hills, N. J., yesterday, Miss Mary L. Brown of Trenton was married to Daniel A. Dugan, a contractor, who has built many schools and churches in New Jersey.

The bride's cousin, P. W. Brown, who is a professor in Ottawa University, was deacon of the mass. Miss Tillie E. Brown, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, while the best man was John A. O'Neill of Norristown, Penn. After a wedding breakfast in the rectory, Mr. and Mrs. Dugan started on a tour of New York State. On their return they will live in Greenwood Avenue, Trenton.

TOUSEY—BRINER.

Miss Clara S. Briner, daughter of Mrs. Dora Briner, was married last night at her home, 964 Anderson Avenue, the Bronx, to Dr. Ralph Tousey. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Charles L. Thompson, Secretary of the Board of Home Missions. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Emma M. Briner, as maid of honor, while Dr. Sinclair Tousey, a brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Charles H. Briner, a brother, gave the bride away.

The bride's gown was white satin, trimmed with duchess point lace, and the maid of honor was in blue satin. The couple left on a tour through Canada, and on their return will live at 43 West Eighty-third Street.

RICHARDSON—HEMENWAY.

Special to The New York Times.

HYDE PARK, Mass., Sept. 7.—One of the most notable of this month's weddings took place to-day, when Miss Hope Hemenway, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Augustus Hemenway of Clarendon Street and Readville, and John Richardson, Jr., Harvard, '09, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Richardson of Chestnut Hill and Cohasset, were married in Christ Church, Hyde Park. The ceremony was performed by Bishop Lawrence, an uncle of the bride.

She was attended by her sister, Charlotte Hemenway, as maid of honor. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Hemenway country home, at Readville.

The young couple will make a tour, and at its conclusion they are to live in Hubbard Park, Cambridge.

LODE—STERNHAGEN.

The marriage of Harry Lode to Miss Ella Sternhagen took place last Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, in the Lutheran Church at Bethany, N. Y. The marriage, which was intended for Sept. 26, was hastened by the illness of the bride's father in California. Mr. and Mrs. Lode will leave on Sept. 13 for an extensive trip. Miss Selma Sternhagen, the bride's sister, will be married in the Spring.

Miss Millard to Wed Francis Grace.

Special to The New York Times.

WINSTED, Conn., Sept. 7.—The close of the Summer season in Norfolk will be marked by the wedding of Miss Ethel Ely Millard, daughter of George E. H. Millard of New York, and Francis Grace, also of New York City. The ceremony will be performed at the Millard residence on Maple Avenue Saturday, Sept. 11.

Give Comedy for Catskill Charity.

The last social affair of the Green County Catskill Summer colony took place Friday afternoon at the Onteora residence of Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Macy of New York. It was given for the benefit of the North Mountain Fresh Air Home for poor children, in which Archdeacon Nelson of New York is interested. Miss Eleanor Stanley Field, a Philadelphia actress, presented the one-act comedy "Kitty Clive." Joseph D. Bicknell and H. C. Sheppard assisted.

Social Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Tappen Fairchild (Miss Julia Freeman) are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter on Sunday, Sept. 5, at their place, Sunny Brae, Kingsbridge, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. P. Prentice gave a dinner and dance last night at Monmouth Beach to celebrate the anniversary of the marriage of their daughter, Mrs. Reeve Schley, and the birthday of their son.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Alexander had for their guests yesterday on the Suitana at Narragansett Pier Miss Rosalind Fish of New York and Mr. and Mrs. John Junius Morgan of London.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Adams Clark of 35 East Sixty-seventh Street will return to town shortly from Saratoga.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Ware of New York have arrived in Newport for the horse show, of which Mr. Ware is Secretary and one of the Executive Committee.

Mrs. Newbold Le Roy Edgar, who spent the Summer at St. Moritz, will return here the first week in October.

Mrs. Neilson Potter arrived in Lenox from Newport yesterday for a week's stay.

George Barr McCutcheon of Chicago is in town, and will spend the month at the Hotel Wolcott.

BEEFSTEAK PARTY AT MAXINE ELLIOTT'S

With Song and Dance to Lighten Up Scenes of Melodramatic Bohemian Life.

RICHMAN AS PLAYWRIGHT

Popular Actor Also Plays Leading Role and Severely Chastises Those Pursuing Villains.

THE REVELLERS, a comedy in four acts, by Charles Richman, the Maxine Elliott Theatre.

Dorothy Dean	Ida Conquest
Florence Knight	Thais Lawton
Lillie Wilson	Vera Finlay
Fanchon Smith	Mabel Rowland
Mrs. Brussell	Florence Robertson
Dolly Dimple	May MacKenzie
Mrs. Montgomery	Reeva May
Ffolliott	Harriet Anderson
Gertrude	Jane Rogers
Virginia Randolph	Alma Sedley
Governess	Mrs. Sedley
Maid	Jane Rogers
Jack Randolph	Charles Richman
Henry Van Cleve	George Nash
Robert Emerson	Wm. H. Boyd
Herbie Watson	Frank Kingdon
George Montgomery	Frank Dekum
Billy Williams	W. C. Masson
Willie	Ferdinand Gottschalk
Freddie	Frederic Santley
Benny Singer	Willis Martin
Brown	Elmer Bowman
Al Johns	Al Johns
Dancer	C. Arthur Rhone
Mandolin Player	Peter Staples
Guitar Player	W. Jackson
Sam	George Hamilton
Waiter	Elmer Bowman

The obvious moral of Mr. Charles Richman's play, acted at Maxine Elliott's Theatre last night, is that if you do not want to get into all sorts of trouble it is just as well not to be a reveler.

Jack Randolph was a lawyer, which didn't matter, and also a reveler, which did. If he hadn't been the latter he wouldn't have got into a gay, bohemian set which divided its time between bridge and punch, with an occasional beefsteak party by way of extra relaxation. And if Jack had attended strictly to his law business instead of going to the race track he wouldn't have been flimflammed by a bogus bookmaker, whom he assaulted afterward and left for dead or dying. Also—and this is most important—he wouldn't have met the bogus one's wife, fallen in love with her, married, and been happy in the usual way of happy third acts meant to lead up to the return of an absent husband who claims her for "his own and means to have her."

As a matter of fact Jack Randolph has already got his hand in well before Husband No. 1 appears on the scene to be properly choked and kicked for insulting the little woman, who is now so happy with Husband No. 2 and six-year-old baby Randolph by the second marriage. He had to raise his hands before to save her from the villainous attacks of the blackguard friend who "stabbed him in the dark," or words to that effect, and he did that job so thoroughly and effectively there is now no doubt of his ability to take care of his own domestic problems. Before the final curtain falls, then, it is reasonably certain that everybody will be happy who deserves to be, and Jack and Dorothy and baby will settle down contentedly for all time to come.

having found his Dorothy in the Bohemian set, had once and for all decided that it wasn't just the sort of fragrant social circle in which to face the first matrimonial revolutions, and had cut it all out at once, much trouble might have been averted. But then there would have been no beef steak party to give "The Revellers" its novel act, and to lighten up with song and dance the strenuous scenes of melodramatic Bohemian life.

"The Revelers," in short, is popular melodrama. Of its sort it is by no means badly written, and its scene of a beefsteak party is lively and amusing. For the rest it is either sentimental or sensational after the fashion of plays in which "the villain still pursues her" while a righteous hero with a ready fist is always on hand to see that virtue gets its due.

For a hero whose manly beauty is often referred to by the others, Mr. Richman is eminently suited, and he has variety of experience, virility, and address to meet every requirement of the rôle.

The cast is long and generally able, Miss Conquest being properly sweet and shrinking, especially in the earlier scenes, and duly distressed when circumstances demand, and George Nash again rightly conveys the impression of meriting the sort of chastisement reserved for bad husbands who return inopportunely to break up happy nests, while Ferdinand Gottschalk is one of several who play small character roles with good effect. An exceptionally welcome acquisition to the New York stage in this company is Miss Thais Lawton, a leading woman of fine appearance, grace, and apparent experience, who plays with charming variety and ease and whose speech and diction are exceptionally refined and pleasing.

ON THE ATLANTIC HIGHWAY.

C. S. Francis, United States Minister to Austria-Hungary, Among Arrivals.

Among those sailing to-day for Europe are:

LUSITANIA, (Liverpool)—Mrs. Julia M. Brand, A. J. Cannon, the Rev. H. C. R. Cunnyngham, Julian T. Davies, P. L. Foster, Mrs. A. E. Dyment, W. Fraser, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Ferguson, C. Pyne, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Van Duzer, W. L. Webb, H. S. Wilson, John Wind, Samuel P. Tull, R. Stuart-Wortley, Miss Violet Stewart, the Rev. M. O. Foster, the Rev. H. B. Gray, Dr. William Seaman, Mrs. John E. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Malone, Horace C. Peyton, John Price, Mrs. Murdo Mackenzie, the Rev. W. Kenny, the Rev. R. E. Knowles, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Joliffe, Allan Hills, T. P. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. M. Le Caron, T. C. Crawford, Scott Brown, and W. T. Rodden.

TEUTONIC, (Southampton)—Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Collins, Mrs. Annie W. Cook, Miss Fannie Cooper, Gaston Du Bois, T. F. Dwyer, Miss J. Ford, S. C. Jackson, W. W. Mason, Miss Mary Stiles, Mr. and Mrs. D. Wilson Jordan, and Lieut. Benjamin D. Toulois, U. S. N.

PRESIDENT GRANT, (Hamburg)—Mrs. J. M. Clinch, Miss A. C. Hillman, Miss E. Kelley, Miss Margaret Gilmore, Mrs. L. May, Miss Gertrude Reeves, R. L. Sweet, Miss Ruth A. Rogers, Miss Ruth Markell, Mrs. Albert W. Money, Mrs. C. McLennan, Miss McLennan, Mrs. H. E. Luders, Miss Emily C. Benham, Miss Aime Martin, Miss Alice Dixon, and Miss Mary Brooks.

Some of the arrivals yesterday were:

KRONPRINZESSIN CECILIE, (Bremen)—Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould, Miss Marjorie Gould, Jay Gould, Controller Herman Metz, Mr. W. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Phipps, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Neuberger, Dr. and Mrs. George A. Quinby, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Rice, Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon V. Painter, Miss E. Purcell, Mrs. Wesley Merritt, Mrs. M. Kenny, Charles F. Nickel, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Martin, Major A. E. Piorkowski, Mrs. R. W. Patterson, Mrs. D. J. Penniman, Dr. Francis C. Murphy, Capt. and Mrs. A. C. Zabriskie, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel White, Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Weeks, Mr. and Mrs. S. Wyler, Mr. and Mrs. Gustav H. Schwab, Miss Amo Schwab, J. F. Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Untermyer, Mrs. Norman Williams, Judge J. Wolfe, Mr. R. Willets, Miss Gertrude Willets, Col. and Mrs. J. M. Ulman, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Nlborg, Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Riley, Mrs. C. De Lamar, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Saks, Miss Leila J. Saks, Dr. Thomas Shea, E. H. Faldwin, E. B. Davis, Prof. William K. Gillett, and Charles S. Francis, United States Minister to Austria-Hungary.

BREMEN, (Bremen)—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Arnott, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Becker, Gordon Kirkland Brown, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Bayless, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Burke, Dr. Charles W. Bonney, A. J. Bentley, Miss Jessie Christie, Mrs. Fenelon C. Cattus, F. Calvin Demarest, the Rev. Bishop Earl Cranston, Mrs. D. L. Hill, Dr. and Mrs. S. H. Guilford, Miss K. O'Connell, Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Putnam, Mrs. George G. Downing, W. A. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Smith, Mr. and Mrs. George K. Reed, Miss Mary M. Richardson, Miss Maude Vincent, Miss Jane Hutchins White, Charles W. Tennant, Miss E. May Tennant, and Mrs. Stanley Gifford.

CARMANIA (Liverpool)—Prince and Princess Kuni, Mme. Nagasake, Col. Kurita, Sir John S. Nutting, Bart., Roland S. Nutting, the Rev. Joseph O'Reilly, Mrs. D. M. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. George Reeves, Miss Mary Johnston, F. W. Beccari, E. W. Townsend, F. J. Collier, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Tunipl, Allan Tunipl, Norman Tunipl, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Kling, Walter A. Johnston, Mrs. R. Westcott, Walter S. Talbot, Col. Thompson, Howard C. Thomas, James H. Sheldon, Miss A. S. Sanders, W. H. Revis, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Parsons, the Rev. L. J. Jones, Dr. and Mrs. E. R. L. Gould, and Dr. Charles T. Dadi.

Accommodations in select Boarding Houses for the Hudson-Fulton Week. See Page 10.

UNION REJECTS HARPIST.

Tells Mrs. Marquardt, Who Played with Damrosch, to Practice.

Mrs. Alexander Marquardt, a harpist, daughter of Herman Breitschuck and wife of John G. Marquardt, assistant director and first violin in Franko's orchestra at the Hotel Plaza, had a try-out yesterday by the Examination Committee of the Musical Union. She played several difficult selections, then wanted to know if her performance was satisfactory. Greatly to her surprise and to the surprise of all her musical friends, she was told that her reading of the score was not perfect enough to allow her to become a member of the Musical Union.

In other words, her application for membership in the union was rejected. The committee told her to go away and practice for three months, then come back and they would give her another chance.

Director Franko is angry, Mr. Marquardt is angry, and so are Mrs. Marquardt's friends.

Just what she and her friends are going to do about it they do not know. Last night they held an indignation meeting in the music room of the Plaza. Director Franko told reporters that it was a most remarkable proceeding. Mr. Marquardt told them it was an unheard-of thing. He and his wife have just returned from a year's tour of the world, she playing the harp and the violin in various musical centres of both hemispheres.

Mrs. Marquardt has played in New York with Damrosch and Seidl. She played with Thomas at the World's Fair in Chicago. She was playing the accompaniment for Mme. Melba in the Columbia Theatre in San Francisco several years ago, when the fire occurred in that theatre. She was for ten years a member of the Musical Union in San Francisco. When Mrs. Marquardt played here several years ago she was not obliged to belong to the Musical Union, as no women members were allowed at that time. Now, however, she cannot get an engagement here without membership. She said last night that she had abandoned the idea of playing here—for a while, at least.

MISS SYLVA TO SING "TOSCA."

Will Appear Four Times in Next Week's Bills at the Manhattan.

Miss Marguerite Sylva will be heard four times next week at the Manhattan Opera House. On Wednesday evening she will be heard for the first time in the title role of "Tosca," with Mr. Carasa as Cavaradossi and Mr. Villa as Scarpia. On Friday night Miss Sylva will sing Santuzza in "Cavalleria Rusticana" and Nedda in "Pagliacci." This will be the first occasion that Miss Sylva has ever sung the part of Nedda. In "Cavalleria Rusticana" Mr. Lucas and Miss Desmond will appear and in "Pagliacci" Mr. Carasa and Mr. Laskin. Mr. Beck will sing in both operas.

On Tuesday and Saturday evenings Miss Sylvan will be heard in "Carmen." Mr. Lucas will sing Don José at both performances. The Escamillo of the first "Carmen" will be Mr. Laskin; of the second Mr. Beck.

"Aida" will be repeated on Monday evening, with Mmes. Baron and Soyer and Messrs. Carasa, Beck, and Scott. The second Sunday night concert of the season will take place next Sunday night.

GEN. SHACKELFORD DEAD.

Veteran of Two Wars and an ex-United States Judge.

PORT HURON, Mich., Sept. 7.—Gen. James Shackelford, a hero of the Mexican war, and prominent in the South, died at his Summer cottage here to-day.

Gen. James Shackelford was born at Danville, Ky., on July 7, 1827. He received a common school education, and at the outbreak of the Mexican war he gave up work on a farm to enlist. He was then only nineteen years of age, and the close of the war saw him with the rank of Captain. He returned to farm work in his native State, but when the negro question came up he gave up his property and moved North.

At the outbreak of the civil war he enlisted in the Union Army. After participating in several important battles he was appointed a Brigadier General by President Lincoln. He aided greatly in capturing Gen. John Morgan. In 1889 he was appointed United States Judge for the District of Okhahoma and Indian Territory. He served in that capacity for four years.

Edward Williams Dodd.

Edward Williams Dodd, the husband of Anna Bowman Dodd, the author, died on Monday at his home in Manoir de Vasouy, Normandy, France, after a long illness. He was about 60 years of age. He was the son of John Dodd of Boston, and married Mrs. Dodd in 1883. They went to live abroad about three years ago. Mr. Dodd and his wife number Thomas Janvier and many other American authors and journalists among their friends. Mrs. Dodd is best known as the author of "Cathedral Days" and "Struthers." Mr. Dodd is survived only by his wife.

Dr. Henry B. Blackwell.

Special to The New York Times.

BOSTON, Sept. 7.—Dr. Henry B. Blackwell, the veteran advocate of woman suffrage, and one of the founders of the Republican Party, died this afternoon from inflammation of the bowels. He had been ill since Aug. 27. Dr. Blackwell was 84 years old, having been born in Bristol, England, in 1825. His wife, Lucy Stone, died a number of years ago.

Jean Lassalle, Baritone, Dead.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—Jean Lassalle, the noted baritone, died here to-day. He was born in 1847 and made his début at the Opera in 1878 in "William Tell." He was a professor at the Conservatory of Music.

Obituary Notes.

Mrs. HELEN DICKINSON, wife of Overton Dickinson, son of the Secretary of War, died yesterday morning at Belle Meade, near Nashville, Tenn., from heart failure. She was Miss Trenholm of Charleston, S. C.

Capt. W. H. McKINLEY, an old-time riverman, a cousin of the late President McKinley, died Monday night at his home at Ludlow, Ky. He owned a fleet of boats plying between Cincinnati and Pittsburg. He was 62 years old. His daughter, Miss Sallie McKinley, is a teacher in a music school in New York City.

Col. CELSUS PRICE, son of Gen. Sterling Price of the Confederate Army, is dead in St. Louis. He was 68 years old. He left the University of Virginia to enter the Confederate Army, served on his father's staff in the civil war, and after the war joined Maximillian's forces in Mexico. Twenty years ago he took up the study of Eastern religions.

AMBROSE STOLZENBERGER, 67 years old, is dead at his home, 82 Stanton Street, after a long illness. He was a member of the Arion, Beethoven, New York City Schutzen Corps, Independent New York Schutzen, German Aid Society, and numerous other organizations.

MARTIN BERGEN, 03 years old, owner of a large trucking business, died Sunday from a complication of maladies at his home, 46 South Eighth Street, Brooklyn. He left three sons and three daughters.

ABRAHAM VOORHEES, a retired Flatbush farmer, died on Saturday of general debility at his home, 40 Kouwenhoven Place, Flatbush, at the age of 78. He left two sons and two daughters.

BENJAMIN STRADLEY died on Monday from cancer at Colorado, Texas. He was born in London, came to America in 1849, and was for many years a promiuent stationer in New York City. He retired from business in 1877 and had lived in Texas for several years.

JOHN WHITESIDE NEWMAN, 60 years old, a fire insurance broker, died on Monday from pneumonia at his home, 506 Washington Avenue, Brooklyn.

A cable was received here yesterday telling of the death on Monday in Manila of GEORGE H. BOHNER, an educator and planter.

FREDERICK TURNBULL, 63 years old, President of the Turnbull Construction Company of Philadelphia, died in that city on Monday.

HENRY WALLER BRINCKERHOFF, a civil engineer, died yesterday of apoplexy at his home in Bay Ridge, Brooklyn, at the age of 65. He was a member of the Holland Society, the Society of Civil Engineers, and the Central Congregational Church. He left a son and a daughter, and a sister, Mrs. A. W. Parker of 6,701 Ridge Boulevard, Bay Ridge, Brooklyn.

Mrs. FRANCES E. SNYDER, proprietor of the Hillside House, Montclair, N. J., died suddenly there Monday from apoplexy, after her return from Asbury Park, where she had been on a vacation. Mrs. Snyder was 77 years old. Her late husband, Alfred A. Snyder, conducted the Hillside House for twenty-eight years, and when he died a year ago Mrs. Snyder assumed charge of the hotel. Mrs. Snyder is survived by one son, Halsey Snyder, and one daughter, Miss L. R. Snyder.

"RIGOLETTO" SUNG BY THE ITALIANS

Mme. Makaroff, Coloratura Soprano, Appears and Shows Some Degree of Excellence.

TALLIEN IN TITLE ROLE

New Tenor, Signor Battaini, Makes a Fair Impression—Very Small Audience Warmly Applauds Singers.

Il Duca	Signor Battaini
Rigoletto	Signor Segura-Tallien
Sparafucile	Signor Lucenti
Il Conte Monterone	Signor Sampieri
Marullo	Signor Sottini
Il Conte Ceprano	Signor Cernusco
Gilda	Signora Makaroff
Maddalena	Miss Fox
La Contessa Ceprano	Signora Tanfani
Un Paggio	Signora Del Campo
Conductor, Signor Angelini.

When the director of a popular season of opera makes out his répertoire he naturally divides his season into operas of two or three classes, as the director of a grand opera season does. One of these classes is the "coloratura operas," that is, lyric dramas, which have for some time past been the property of the great lyric sopranos of the world. The Italian Grand Opera Company, which is giving a season of opera at the Academy of Music, having disposed of "Aïda" and "La Bohème" in two previous evenings, took a fling at "Rigoletto" last evening, and introduced to the public a Russian coloratura soprano, Mme. Makaroff.

Unfortunately for the directors of popular opera, the "Rigolettos" and "Lucias" seem to possess drawing powers only when they are sung by the Melbas, the Sembrichs, and the Tetrazzinis. A mere handful of auditors sat on the first floor of the Academy last evening, and the balconies were not well filled. It was a pitifully smal laudience. However, this smal laudience made as much noise applauding a prpoer and proper measurements as a much larger one would have done. Enthusiasm seems to be one of the keynotes of this opera season.

Mme. Makaroff proved to be a coloratura soprano of some degree of excellence. Her high voice is flexible and generally pleasant in quality. Her low tones are not so agreeable, and there is often more than a suggestion of tremolo. She knows many of the brilliant tricks of her school; her staccato, for instance, is excellent. Her legato phrases are less good, and her trill is not commendable. Last night she was obliged to repeat the "Caro nome" air, and also the duet with Rigoletto at the close of the third act.

Signor Segura-Tallien, who had been heard as Amonasro in "Aïda," sang the title rôle generally acceptably. He knew the traditions of the part, and he avoided the tendency, so frequently met with in companies of this sort, to sing at the top of his lungs all of the time. His voice, too, however, has a most unpleasant tremolo quality at times.

A new tenor appeared, Signor Battaini, who proved to have a large voice, and one which was sometimes pleasant to listen to in the upper register. The uncertain quality of many of his tones made listening at other times a more doubtful pleasure.

Signor Angelini conducted, and proved a much less authoritative director than his predecessor. The chorus, which has little to do in "Rigoletto," did that little well.

Bakers to Give National Exhibit.

The bakers', confectioners', and ice cream manufacturers' National exhibit will be held at Madison Square Garden Sept. 13 to 18, inclusive. Manager Strasser, the master baker, will be in charge. Practical instruction will be given free in everything that pertains to baking, candy and ice cream making. There will be prizes for the best bread makers, cake bakers, ice cream and fudge artists. The New York State Association of Master Bakers has invited the German master bakers to attend. Everything good to eat that bakers handle in this country will be shown in its raw and cooked state. There will also be exhibits of foodstuffs from all parts of the world.

(Continued from Tuesday's Evg. Post.)

¶The Approval of the State Banking

departments, the Insurance Department, the State Courts, and Public and Private Administrators won for Real Estate Investments in Manhattan out of the funds in their care, which require the greatest possible amount of safety both as to the Capital as well as to the revenue, is one mighty powerful demonstration of my arguments in favor of Investments in Manhattan Real Estate. A theory of money earning by money investments that will stand that test as to safety may safely be adopted by any cautious investor.

¶ The great number of investments that my clients, both professional operators as well as private investors, have made through me in Real Estate have all been conducted for them upon the same plan and scope and the same watchfulness that the money of Taxpayers, Policy Holders, Widows and Orphans is invested on, and in the same kind of security, Manhattan Real Estate.

¶ I am willing to educate on this subject all those desirous to profit by it not only by arguing in this space, but also by actual demonstrations. Ask me. All inquiries cheerfully answered.

More in Thursday's Evening Sun.

W. S. SUSSMAN
SPECIALIST IN MANHATTAN REAL ESTATE
45 Cedar Street, New York
TELEPHONE 4219 JOHN

Crouch & Fitzgerald

154 Fifth Ave.
N. W. Cor. 20th St.
177 Broadway
Above Cortlandt.
723 Sixth Ave.
Below 42d St.

Trunks, Bags & Cases
Automobile & Wardrobe Trunks

Refrigerators
The Perfection of Cleanliness, Efficiency and Economy.
The "Eddy" Our Standard for a quarter Century
The "Premier" Glass lined
LEWIS & CONGER
130 and 132 West 42d St., New York

CARPET J. & J. W. WILLIAMS
Tel. 368 Columbus. Est. 1875.
CLEANING 353 West 54th St.

ITALIAN OPERA REPERTOIRE.

"Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" a Double Bill Next Week.

The operas that will be sung at the Academy of Music next week by the Italian Grand Opera Company will be "Il Trovatore," "La Traviata," "La Bohème," "Cavalleria Rusticana," "Pagliacci, and "Il Barbiere di Siviglia." "Il Trovatore" will be sung on Monday evening and at the Wednesday matinée with Mmes. Adaberto and Fabbri, and Messrs. Zerola, Segura-Tallien, and Sampieri. "La Traviata" will be given on Tuesday and Saturday evenings, with Mme. Eugenia Makaroff in the rôle of Violetta. Her associates will be Messrs. Armanini, Caronna, Sampieri, and Maini.

"La Bohème" will be heard at the Wednesday matinée, with Mmes. Ferrabini and Sedelmeyer, and Messrs. Armanini, Caronna, Gravina, Vieri, and Barocchi in the cast. A double bill, consisting of "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci," will be sung on Thursday evening, and at the Saturday matinée the artists will be Mmes. Adaberto and Villani and Messrs. Battaini and Caronna. "Il Barbiere di Siviglia" will have one performance, and the leading rôles will be sung by Mme. Makaroff and Messrs. Armanini, Segura-Tallien, Lucenti, and Barocchi.

BECK GETS 'THE GEISHA GIRLS'

Returns from Europe with Contracts for 200 Vaudeville Artists.

Martin Beck and M. Meyerfeld, Jr., of the Orpheum chain of theatres, arrived from Europe yesterday on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie, after having engaged 200 European artists for the coming season. The reigning vaudeville success in Paris, Mr. Beck said, was "The Geisha Girls," who have been secured to open in this country for a long Western tour.

Among the more prominent artists booked by Mr. Beck are: From Vienna, La Pia, a novelty dancing creation; the Marvelous Harveys, illusionists; Balzar, a juggler; Golemani's Cirque, an animal novelty, and from Germany and France, Mlle. Renee, a dancer; Gruber's Kindergarten, the Aurora Troupe of Twelve, and the Vanavas.

Others engaged are the Klos Sisters, the Blessings, the Two Arkansas, Joly Violette, the Thalia Quartette, Fred Singer, Panita, Lucianna Lucca, Katchen Loisset, Franklin and Evos, the Four Franklins.

Several international stars have also been placed under contracts for a limited American tour, including Albert Chevalier, Yvette Gilbert, and Totajada.

Anna Held Back from Europe.

Anna Held arrived yesterday from Europe on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie looking very much better for her trip abroad. She had two French poodles with her, and will open her season with "Miss Innocence" at Boston on Oct. 4 and at the New York Theatre on Oct. 25.

Marriage and death notices intended for insertion in the New York Times may be telephoned to 1000 Bryant.

Born.

HO

PRESIDENT HAS FUN WITH OLD YALE MEN

Gets Into Veritable Football Rush When He Attends Outing with College Companions.

OLD STARS PLAY BASEBALL

Taft Satisfies All the Autograph-Hunters, but Refuses to Risk Life as Umpire of Game.

BOSTON, Sept. 7.—President Taft had another of his famous Yale days to-day. He became plain "Bill Taft" again to many of his old college companions, but was still "Mr. President" to the younger set of graduates who surrounded him at the Yale field day celebration at the Brookline Country Club.

The President motored in from Beverly this morning, leaving the Summer capital at 9 o'clock. He returned by the same route at 6:30 o'clock this evening.

During the day he played in a golf foursome with three old friends and schoolmates, was the guest of honor at an outdoor luncheon on the beautiful estate of Herman L. Whipple, adjoining the Country Club; got mixed up in a veritable football rush during the after-luncheon reception, and sat through the first inning of a baseball game played by former stars of Yale's best teams.

The Rev. Charles F. Carter, '78, who pitched a no-hit, no-run game against Harvard back in the seventies, pitched to-day for one of the picked teams, and was hammered all over the green. Just to show his old-time form as a batsman, however, Mr. Carter made a hit every time he faced the opposing pitcher, a young man just out of college.

The day was one of entire informality, and was thoroughly enjoyed by the President. The Yale Club of Boston had been waiting to hold the field day since early in July, when the President tentatively received an invitation to be present. The prolonged tariff fight caused a postponement until to-day, when the weather was well-nigh ideal. There was no formal ceremonies of any sort. Yale cheers and Yale songs were the order of the day.

When he arrived at the Country Club the President got into golfing costume—gray flannel trousers, gray shirt, and gray cap pulled well down on his forehead—and prepared for his first play on the Brookline links. Mr. Taft was matched with the Rev. Mr. Carter against Samuel J. Elder, the noted Boston lawyer, and Allen Hubbard. The game was stopped at the eleventh hole in order not to delay luncheon. At that time the President and Mr. Carter were 4 up.

The President motored from the club grounds to Mr. Whipple's home, where the latter had invited a company of nearly 300 Yale men to meet President Taft. Following the luncheon, which was served amid bay trees, palms, and potted flowers, came the reception under one of the towering elms on the Whipple lawn. After the entire company had passed by in single column and had shaken hands with the President, some one stopped and asked for an autograph on his menu card. The idea was no sooner suggested than a hundred or more of the college men were swarming about the President in quest of similar souvenirs.

For fifteen minutes Mr. Taft was surrounded by the clamoring throng, and then the Rev. Samuel C. Bushnell, who was acting as a sort of master of ceremonies, declared that the only way to the baseball diamond, several rods away, lay through the use of a flying wedge. With some old football men in front and good interference on the sides, with Dr. Bushnell and Capt. Archibald W. Butt, the President's Military Aid, pushing behind, the President was sent through the line and landed safely behind home base on the field. Here he sat down in the midst of the crowd and was again besieged for autographs, finally disposing of the claims of the last Yale man on the ground.

Some of the players in the baseball game, in addition to the Rev. Mr. Carter, were Allen Hubbard, '82, who caught the famous Yale pitcher, "Jumping Jack" Jones; Samuel F. Elder, and Walter Badger. Mr. Hubbard caught to-day, and only had some eighteen or nineteen passed balls.

President Taft was urged to umpire the contest.

"Come on, Bill," pleaded Mr. Bushnell.

"No, Sir," replied the President. "I value my life too much for such a job as that."

The baseball game was interrupted after the first inning so that a group photograph might be taken with the President in the centre. While the big crowd was being posed there was much good-natured chaffing. Mr. Elder had just previously made a thrilling slide for life at second base when the ball was bounding lustily somewhere out in right field. He had on an old shirt, and looked untidy, but happy.

"Sam Elder," called the President, "you don't look respectable."

"I don't know, Mr. President, but after looking over this bunch I think I size up pretty well with the rest of them," retorted Mr. Elder.

John Hays Hammond came in from Beverly with the President this morning, and participated in the Yale day games. He left Boston to-night for Arizona, and will join the President again at Salt Lake or Spokane to make the great part of the Western trip with the Presidential party.

BALLINGER AGAIN SEES TAFT.

"Let the War Go On," Says Secretary of Cunningham Case.

BEVERLY, Mass., Sept. 7.—"So far as I am concerned, let the war go on."

This was the laughing reply of Secretary of the Interior Ballinger to-day, when pressed for an expression of opinion as to how long he thought the controversy in Washington regarding the conservation policy of the Interior Department would continue.

Mr. Ballinger spent the entire day in Boston while the President was attending the Yale celebration at the Brookline Country Club. Accompanied by Oscar Lawler, Assistant Attorney General for the Interior Department, he came to Beverly to-night and had a second interview with the President.

The Secretary declined to discuss the situation in any way, but President Taft let it be known that no decision on the matters at issue could be expected for some time. He also intimated that in the meantime there would be no statement from him as to any feature of the controversy. It had been supposed that a settlement might be announced before the President leaves for the West next Wednesday, but Mr. Taft dispelled this idea to-day by saying that he did not know when he would be in a position either to talk or to act.

The President is going carefully into all of the reports brought to him by Secretary Ballinger in regard to the action of the department in the Cunningham coal land entry cases in Alaska, which have been the subject of serious charges against officials of the General Land Office and the Interior Department. Mr. Taft is also scrutinizing closely the reports regarding the activity of various Government officials in other departments that are under the direction of Mr. Ballinger.

The Secretary of the Interior said to-night that he hoped to be in Washington some time on Thursday, leaving the impression that he would see the President again to-morrow.

Director of the Census Durand is expected in Beverly to-morrow with the commissions of the various Census Supervisors, whose selection has not been announced officially.

SETBACK FOR OSTEOPATHS.

Court Upholds Code Barring Them from Giving Death Certificates.

Some months ago Charles F. Bandel, a Brooklyn osteopath, sued to compel the Board of Health to accept for registry as physicians osteopaths who had been duly licensed to practice osteopathy. The Sanitary Code in force at that time permitted all attending physicians to issue death certificates.

The Court of Appeals decided that a duly licensed osteopath not only was a physician, but under the existing Sanitary Code was authorized to grant death certificates for burial permits, though the court suggested that the health authorities might amend the Sanitary Code so as to distinguish between physicians.

Last March, however, the board adopted an amendment requiring that death certificates be signed by physicians having degrees of Doctor of Medicine. Then Dr. Bandel, on behalf of the osteopaths, sought an injunction until the legality of the Health Board's edict should be determined in the higher courts.

Justice Crane holds that the amendment has been made a part of the Sanitary Code by the very decision of the Court of Appeals.

"The intimation of the Court of Appeals," says Justice Crane, "is so pointed that I could not hold otherwise than that this restriction or regulation of the Board of Health is legal."

LET FIREBUG SUSPECT GO.

New York Police Too Late to Get Man Who Surrendered in Detroit.

As a result of an investigation which the police and Coroner's office have made word was telegraphed to the police of Detroit yesterday asking that Morris Greenberg, who gave himself up there on Friday, be held and an affidavit be got from him. The Detroit police replied that Greenberg had been released.

The Detroit police at first reported that Greenberg had confessed that he had set fire to a tenement house at Hester Street and Steward Park, this city. The police records here show that a tenement house at 44 Hester Street was set on fire on April 2, 1908. Three members of one family were burned to death and seventeen others injured.

Detectives learned that Greenberg has a brother in Second Avenue, near 120th Street. He was questioned, and is alleged to have said that Greenberg had admitted that he set the fire because he thought every one had turned against him.

THREATEN TAFT'S LIFE.

Receipt of Two Letters Leads to Precautions During Chicago Visit.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Two letters threatening the life of President Taft during his visit in Chicago are now in the hands of Capt. Porter of the Secret Service. They have so aroused the latter and police officials of the city that efforts will be made to make the Chief Executive of the Nation the most guarded President who ever came to Chicago.

Capt. Porter was inclined to belittle the threats, although he began making preparations immediately to prevent the possibility of an attack on President Taft.

GARDNER AND PALMER WIN.

Capture Tri-State Tennis Championship in Doubles—Mixed Doubles Title.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, Sept. 7.—Carlton R. Gardner and Richard A. Palmer won the tri-State tennis championship in men's doubles by defeating Reuben A. Holden, Jr., and Trux Emerson here to-day, the score being 3—6, 6—3, 6—4, and 6—0.

The championship in mixed doubles was won by Mrs. Edith Hannan of Toronto and Lincoln Mitchell of Cincinnati, who defeated Miss Louise Root of Cincinnati and Nat Thornton of Atlanta, Ga., by 6—3 and 6—2.

New Honors for May Sutton.

BUFFALO, Sept. 7.—Miss May Sutton yesterday added to her many titles that of Western New York champion by defeating Miss Mary Clark of East Aurora in two straight love sets on the Park Club courts. Wallace F. Johnson of the University of Pennsylvania won the men's championship, defeating the Canadian champion, Robert Baird, 6—3, 6—4, 3—6, 6—2. In mixed doubles championships Miss Sutton and Harry D. Kirkover of Buffalo defeated Miss Rotch of Boston, the Massachusetts State champion, and Beals Wright, last year's internationalist, 6—2 and 6—3.

Miss Browning Reaches Final Round.

Miss Adelaide Browning of the Ardsley Club gained the final and championship round of the Hudson River tournament yesterday on the courts of the Dunwoodie Country Club, Yonkers. In her semi-final Miss Browning defeated Miss Anna Martin of the Park Hill Country Club, 6—4 and 6—4. The summary:

Hudson River Championship, Women's Singles.—First Round—Miss Elizabeth C. Bunce, Poughkeepsie L. T. C., defeated Miss Theresa Dwyer, Dunwoodie C. C., 6—2, 6—2; Miss Anna Martin, Park Hill C. C., defeated Mrs. A. D. Britton, Bronxville A. A., by default. Second Round—Mrs. Henry H. Burdick, Park Hill C. C., defeated Miss Carolyn Feeter, Amackassin Club, 6—3, 6—1; Miss Adelaide Browning, Ardsley Club, defeated Mabel Benedict, Amackassin Club, 6—2, 6—4; Miss Anna Martin defeated Miss Winifred Kaltenbach, Park Hill C. C., 6—1, 6—3; Miss Elizabeth C. Bunce, Poughkeepsie L. T. C., defeated Miss Natalie Wadleton, Bronxville A. A., by default.

Semi-Final Round—Miss Adelaide Browning, Ardsley Club, defeated Miss Anna Martin, Park Hill C. C., 6—4, 6—4; Miss Elizabeth C. Bunce, Poughkeepsie L. T. C., defeated Mrs. Henry H. Burdick, Park Hill C. C., 6—0, 6—2.

Men's Championship Singles.—Second Round—Homer Guernsey, Poughkeepsie L. T. C., defeated A. D. Britton, Bronxville A. A., by default. Third Round—Homer Guernsey, Poughkeepsie L. T. C., defeated Frederick P. Fox, New Rochelle L. T. C., 6—0, 6—4. Fourth Round—Dr. Arthur C. Keane, New York A. C., defeated Dr. E. G. Littell, Amackassin Club, 6—3, 4—6, 11—9; Homer Guernsey, Poughkeepsie L. T. C., vs. Ross Burchard, Powelton Club, 6—4, 5—7, unfinished; F. B. Roundey, New York A. C., defeated Dr. Bertrend F. Drake, Amackassin Club, 6—2, 6—3; C. P. Paret, Dunwoodie C. C., defeated M. H. McGuire, Saugkill C. C., 6—0, 6—3.

Athletes Suspended by A. A. U.

The Registration Committee of the Metropolitan Association of the Amateur Athletic Union held a meeting at the Astor House last night and took the following actions:

J. McCue of the Holy Cross Lyceum suspended indefinitely for running under the name of McCune in the Knights of Columbus games.

F. C. Steffens, who won the all-around gymnastics, was ordered to return the prize, as it was awarded on an error of scoring and stands suspended until he complies with the order.

Le Roy Cashin of Yonkers, who took part in an unsanctioned meet, was reinstated, as were C. R. Osborn and Carl Schlobomn of the Mercury A. C.

Spruce Sutherland of the Mercury A. C. was declared a professional for accepting a $5 prize in a 100-yard dash at an outing of Yonkers Republicans.

H. Obertubessing presided as Chairman, T. J. Hughes sitting with him as a member of the committee.

Sonoma Girl Wins Free-for-All.

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 7.—Snappy contests between some of the fastest steppers on the grand circuit in which George Gano, Earl, Jr., and Sonoma Girl captured the honors were witnessed this afternoon on the Charter Oak Track.

In the 2:07 pace for a purse of $5,000, the Nutmeg Stake, George Gano won easily, taking the two first heats. The free-for-all trot was taken by Sonoma Girl, who after bad behavior in the first heat settled down and took the next two in fine form. Nahma was second. The 2:11 pace went to Earl, Jr. Against time of 2:20¼, Peerless Audubon trotted a mile in 2:28¼; Major Audubon went the distance in 2:25¾, and Gay Audubon in 2:24¼.

Dr. Cushman Best in Kebo Golf.

Special to The New York Times.

BAR HARBOR, Me., Sept. 7.—Dr. W. C. Cushman of New York won the last golf match of the season at the Kebo Valley Club to-day, a stroke competition for the club medal, with a score of 82. Charles Dana, Jr., won second place with a score of 84, and the others were Archibald Harrison of Philadelphia, 85; Reginald Johnson of New York, 86; Arden M. Robbins of New York, 90; Clifford Brigham, 92, and W. A. Lawrence, 99.

Furnished Rooms for the Hudson-Fulton Week. See Page 19.

OLDFIELD'S FAST MILE AT LOWELL

Drives Benz Car Over Course in 51 1-5 Seconds from Standing Start.

NEW AMERICAN RECORD

Chevrolet and Lytle Other Stars at Mile Speed Trials—Heavy-Car Race To-day.

LOWELL, Mass., Sept. 7.—Although arranged only as a "filler" between yesterday's National small car competitions and to-morrow's 318 miles stock chassis event, the series of mile straightaway speed trials held over a specially laidout section of the Merrimack Valley Circuit, proved to be one of continuous thrills.

No records were broken, but one was established by Barney Oldfield. His time of 51 1-5 seconds for a mile, with standing start, made in his big German Benz machine, will be the first official record for such an event in American automobile racing annals. Hitherto no notice has been taken of standing starts in mile straightaway speed events in this country. From a flying start Oldfield hurtled over the mile in 0:39 9-10, one and one-half seconds slower than the present road record held by Kilpatrick, made in a Hotchkiss machine at Jamaica, L. I., June 12, 1908.

Aside from Oldfield's feats the consistent driving of Louis Chevrolet, winner of yesterday's 159 miles small race, was noteworthy. In the nine events of the day he was started in five, winning two firsts, two seconds, and one third in his Buick machine. Herbert Lytle, dean of American automobile racers, and a prominent entrant in to-morrow's big car event, won one first and one second out of two starts in an Apperson "Jack Rabbit." Aside from the performances of these three men, the racing was but mediocre.

The programme lost much of its interest with the absence of Walter Christie and Lewis Strang in their specially constructed machines. Christie's front wheel drive creation was disabled early in the day by a broken shaft and Strang's Earthquake did not leave the shop. Summary:

Class Four.—Gasoline stock cars, selling $1,251 to $2,000.

Driver and Car.	H. P.	Time. M. S.
E. B. Blake, Jackson	40	1:03 4-5
Class Three—Stock cars selling $2,001 to $3,000.
Whales, Mathewson	50	1:02 1-5
Class One.—Stock cars, selling above $4,000.
H. Lytle, Apperson	50	:52 4-5
Fred Belcher, Knox	40	:55 3-10
Free-for-All, Standing Start.
Barney Oldfield, Benz	120	:51 1-5
Louis Chevrolet, Buick	35	:58 9-10
J. J. Coffey, Columbia	34	:59 9-10
Whales, Mathewson	50	1:03 2-5
Class One.—Stock chassis, 451 to 600 cubic inches.
Louis Chevrolet, Buick		1:01 3-5
Fred Belcher, Knox		1:02 9-10
Class Two.—Stock chassis, 301 to 450 cubic inches.
Louis Chevrolet, Buick		:59½
Joseph Downey, Knox		1:01 1-10
Fred Belcher, Knox		1:02 1-10
Class Three.—Stock chassis, 251 to 300 cubic inches.
A. Chevrolet, Buick		1:03
L. Chevrolet, Buick		1:07
J. J. Coffey, Columbia		1:12 1-5
Class Four.—Stock chassis, 161 to 230 cubic inches.
Robert Burman, Buick		1:07 7-10
G. De Witt, Buick		1:08 1-10
Trials Against Time, Flying Start.
Barney Oldfield, Benz		:39 9-10
H. Lytle, Apperson		:44 2-5
Louis Chevrolet, Buick		:49 9-10
Ray Harroun, Buick		:52 1-5
Louis Disbrow, Knox		:57 7-10
F. H. Clapp, Berkshire		1:02 9-10

ANOTHER 24-HOUR RACE.

Around-the-Clock Contest for Brighton Beach Sept. 24 and 25.

It was definitely announced yesterday that the Motor Racing Association will hold another twenty-four-hour race meet at Brighton Beach on Friday and Saturday, Sept. 24 and 25. The race will be in conjunction with the start of the Hudson-Fulton Celebration, and in order not to clash with the night pageant on the Hudson River on Sept. 25 it is planned to start the race at 6 o'clock Friday evening so that the finish of the event will be early Saturday evening.

There will be racing of a novel and interesting character Friday afternoon. Workmen will begin this week putting the course in condition for the next around the clock contest. This meet will be the final one to be promoted this year by the Motor Racing Association. An effort will be made to have a larger entry list than at the two races already held by the association this season. There will be an advance sale of tickets at hotels and ticket agencies.

NEW JERSEY WINS TROPHY.

Second Regiment Takes Cruikshank Prize in Sea Girt Shooting.

SEA GIRT, N. J., Sept. 7.—New Jersey, Ohio, and the cavalry branch of the United States Army carried off to-day's honors at the tri-State rifle tournament. New Jersey won the Cruikshank trophy match, Ohio took the Spencer contest, and a United States cavalryman was first in the Maxim long range competition.

The team of eight men from the Second New Jersey, who won the Cruikshank trophy, scored a total of 566 points, firing ten shots each at 200, 600, and 1,000 yards.

The standing of the other competitors was as follows: First District of Columbia, 562; Twelfth New York, 558; Seventy-first New York, 558; Fourth New Jersey, 554; Twenty-second New York Engineers, first team, 549; Second District of Columbia, 545; Seventh New York, first team, 526; Sixth Pennsylvania, 523; Third New Jersey, 523; Seventh New York, second team, 518; Twenty-second New York Engineers, second team, 476; Seventh New York, third team, 461.

Lieut. Col. Winder of Ohio, who took the Spencer match, scored 68 points out of a possible 75. The distance was 1,200 yards, the longest range in use here, and each competitor fired 15 shots. The other prize winners in this contest were J. W. Hessian, New York, 61; Capt. Casey, Pennsylvania, 61; Lieut. Col. Tewes, New Jersey, 60; Sergt. Givan, Maryland, 58; Lieut. Short, New York, 58; C. W. Chesley, Connecticut, 58; Major Price, New Jersey, 58.

Capt. Romeyn, U. S. Cavalry, won the Maxim competition, 10 shots at 1,000 yards. He scored 49 out of a possible 50. Private Farnham, U. S. Marine Corps, and Capt. Allen, U. S. Infantry, tied for second place, and Farnham won the shoot off.

YACHT JOYETTE WINS PRESIDENT TAFT CUP

Commodore Childs's Brooklyn Boat Beats Ellen in Final Sonder Race.

DRAPER TROPHY FOR ELLEN

Mr. Taft Will Present Cup to Owner of Victorious Craft on Board Mayflower To-morrow.

MARBLEHEAD, Mass., Sept. 7.—As a result of the final race of the German-American sonderklasse series to-day, the President Taft Cup was won by the Joyette, owned by Commodore W. H. Childs of the Bensonhurst Yacht Club of Brooklyn. The Governor Draper Cup goes to the Ellen, owned by Charles P. Curtis of the Eastern Yacht Club, Boston. Each yacht had won two races of the series in which the Germans were competitors, while the Hevella, the survivor of the challenging yachts, was eliminated through her defeat yesterday.

To-day's race was a slashing one, in which the Joyette proved to be so much faster on windward work that the better qualities of the Ellen on dead-on-end runs were not powerful enough to permit her to cross the finish line in first place. Starting out on a three-mile beat to windward, the Joyette assumed the lead early, and she turned the outer mark 28 seconds in advance of her rival. Then came a run back to the committee tug of three miles, and although the Ellen gained on her rival, the Joyette slipped across the line 19 seconds ahead. Once more sheets were flattened for the windward work, and Joyette showed her heels to the Ellen, rounding the windward mark 55 seconds in the van.

On the final leg of the course, a spinnaker run back to the finish line, the Ellen picked up amazingly on the Joyette, but the latter retained the lead and crossed the line 21 seconds ahead of the Ellen.

On Thursday at 12:30 P. M. the crews of the three German and three American yachts, together with the special committee and officers of the Eastern Yacht Club, will go aboard the Government yacht Mayflower at Beverly, where the President of the United States will present the handsome trophy named in his honor to Commodore Childs, owner of the Joyette. The cup given by the Governor of Massachusetts and won by the Ellen was presented to Mr. Curtis at a banquet to-night at the Eastern Yacht Club by Gov. Draper. The summary:

Boat and Owner.	Start.	Finish.	Elapsed Time.
Joyette, W. H. Childs	11:10	1:41:03	2:31:03
Ellen, C. P. Curtis	11:10	1:41:24	2:31:24

Morgan's Puck Beats Carolina.

Special to The New York Times.

NEWPORT, Sept. 7.—The "thirty-footers" raced this afternoon, sailing the regular course from Brenton's Cove to the mark off Middletown station and back via Jamestown. E. D. Morgan's Puck won the race, beating the Carolina by about two minutes.

Name and Owner.	Finish.	Elapsed Time.
Puck, E. D. Morgan	4:37:49	1:42:40
Carolina, Pembroke Jones	4:32:00	1:44:00
Wa Wa, Dyer, Dolan & Robinson	4:39:20	1:44:29
Breeze, H. S. Vanderbilt	5:00:45	1:45:45
Esperanza, H. O. Havemeyer, Jr	5:02:00	1:47:00

PLAN ANTI-SUFFRAGE FIGHT.

Mrs. Gilbert Jones Says Even Newport Is Solidly Against Female Voting.

The National League for the Civic Education of Women has finished its preparations for this season's campaign, and is commencing active operations from the league headquarters, at 222 Madison Avenue. The slogan of the crusade is to be "Anti-suffrage and anti-spectacularism." They hope to push to completion their movement to "protect women's sacred and proper place in hearth and home."

Mrs. Gilbert E. Jones, the Chairman, and Mrs. Julia Heath, the Secretary, of the league, have just returned to this city from a tour of the New England centres of the movement, especially the towns in the vicinity of Boston. Mrs. Jones said yesterday in regard to this trip:

"Everywhere we saw the greatest enthusiasm and startling preparations for the important work of the Winter. We omitted Newport from our Rhode Island itinerary. Why? Because we know Newport is with us body and soul. The Governor did this for us by his anti-suffrage speech at the home of Mrs. Belmont on the occasion of the famous lawn party a few weeks ago."

In conclusion Mrs. Jones said:

"Some of the spectacular features of the suffrage campaign last Summer have been the best arguments that our league could advance for not allowing the women of this Commonwealth to have a voice in its affairs."

Dense Fog Hindering Mauretania.

The Cunard liner Mauretania, incoming from Liverpool and Queenstown, was reported by wireless telegraph as 1,102 miles east of Sandy Hook at midnight last night in a dense fog. If sh esuffers no further delay she may dock about 9 o'clock to-morrow night.

WIRE-TAPPING TRIALS BEGIN.

Western Union Man and Brokers Accused of Conspiracy to Defraud.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 7.—E. B. Barlow, formerly local Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company, and William H. Thompson and William H. Smith, brokers, were placed on trial here to-day on charges of conspiracy, growing out of the "leak" of market reports transmitted over the wires for the Chicago Board of Trade. Isaac N. Barto, former Wire Chief of the company, accused of a misdemeanor in connection with the same case, was also in the courtroom.

In the indictment it is alleged the men conspired to cheat and defraud the Board of Trade of Chicago by unlawfully tapping and cutting the wires of the telegraph company.

Calls on Jenkins for Evidence.

President Egerton L. Winthrop, Jr., of the Board of Education has written to Supt. Jenkins of the Children's Society asking that any information gathered by Mr. Jenkins's agents regarding improper conduct of public school janitors toward pupils be forwarded to him as speedily as possible. He assured Supt. Jenkins that the Board of Education will take immediate and proper action if he has any such evidence.

Woman Shoots Watchman by Mistake.

While Mrs. Sarah Holman of 307 East Ninety-seventh Street was driving away roughs who were throwing bricks at her windows last evening, she fired a large calibre revolver, and Steven Jones, a time keeper at the car barns of the Third Avenue surface line, directly across the street, was shot twice in the right arm. Jones was taken to the Harlem Hospital, and Mrs. Holman was arrested. Jones was not dangerously wounded.

HUDSON-FULTON CELEBRATION COMMISSION FUND.

NEW YORK, September 7, 1909.

The Hudson-Fulton Celebration Commission acknowledges the receipt of the following subscriptions to its general fund for the purposes of the coming Celebration. Additional contributions are earnestly solicited and will be publicly acknowledged. They should be be sent to ISAAC N. SELIGMAN, Treasurer, 1 William Street, New York.

$100,000.
New York Hotel Men's Association.

$10,000.
J. P. Morgan & Co.

$5,000.
Jas. A. Hearn & Son. William Rockefeller.
John D. Rockefeller.

$2,500.
Arthur Curtiss James. Alfred G. Vanderbilt.
Kuhn, Loeb & Co.

$1,500.
J. & W. Seligman & Co.

$1,000.
John D. Archbold. Herman Ridder.
Col. John Jacob Astor. Mrs. Russell Sage.
M. C. D. Borden. Grant B. Schley.
George S. Bowdoin. Siegel Cooper Co.
Childs Company. James Speyer.
Hon. Jos. H. Choate. Francis Lynde Stetson.
Cleveland H. Dodge. Society of Tammany.
L. F. Dommerich. John T. Terry.
Gen. T. H. Hubbard. Ernst Thalmann.
Hon. Seth Low. Tiffany & Co.
D. O. Mills. William K. Vanderbilt.
John E. Parsons. Gen. S. L. Woodford.
Norman B. Ream.

$500.
Abraham Abraham. W. C. Muschenheim.
A. Belmont & Co. Mrs. John E. Parsons.
S. W. Bowne. Thomas Potts.
William P. Clyde. Douglas Robinson, C. S. Brown & Co.
George Crocker. Rogers, Peet & Co.
Peter Doelger. Henry W. Sackett.
James McLean. W. D. Sloane.
R. H. Macy & Co.

$250.
Aitken, Son & Co. Harmon W. Hendricks
E. R. Bacon Francis L. Hine
Geo. Clinton Batcheller Edward C. Hoyt
Henry Batterman Huyler's
William Berri John S. Kennedy
John E. Berwind Lamman & Kemp
Hermann H. Cammann Francis L. Leland
Henry Clews W. H. Perkins
John D. Crimmins Samuel T. Peters
Francis Draz & Co. General Horace Porter
S. W. Fairchild W. A. Read
Ford, Bacon & Davis Simpson, Crawford & Co
Fourteenth Street Store Stern Brothers
Miss Helen M. Gould R. H. Williams
Edmund Hendricks

$200.
C. N. Bliss William B. Hornblower
Elbert A. Brinckerhoff H. C. F. Koch & Co.
George V. Brower John T. Lockman
Dr. Joseph D. Bryant James H. Ottley
Gen. Howard Carroll Casimir Tag
William J. Curtis Through David J. McComb, 120 subscribers, $203.55
James Douglas
Henry Heide

$150.
Udo M. Fleischmann Metcalf Brothers & Co.
N. W. Harris & Co. Dallas E. Pratt

$100.
Fritz Achelis William J. Matheson
Edward D. Adams Robert Maxwell
Alphonse H. Alker Alvah Miller
William O. Allison W. McMaster Mills
American Litho. Co. Minot Hooper & Co.
R. L. Barrick Wm. Fellowes Morgan
C. L. Bausher David M. Morrison
Boissevain & Co. James R. Morse
Borden's Con. Milk Co. Morse & Rogers
George Borgfeldt Thomas M. Mulry
John E. Borne Wills L. Ogden
Vernon C. Brown William Ottmann & Co.
Vernon H. Brown Willis S. Paine
Edwin M. Bulkley Henry Parish
Bush Terminal Co. Schuyler S. Parsons
Fred. Butterfield & Co. Chas. Pfizer & Co., Inc.
John L. Cadwalader Henry E. Pierrepont
J. F. Calder Post & McCord
Henry G. Campbell Louis C. Raegener
H. W. Cannon D. S. Ramsay
George W. Chauncey A. A. Raven
George C. Clark Remington Typew'r Co.
George W. Collord John Harsen Rhoades
George B. Cortelyou Philip Ritzheimer
David S. Cowles George L. Rives
J. Howard Cowperthwait Gen. Charles F. Roe
George R. Crawford R. & G. Corset Co.
Frederick B. Dalzell Rudolph J. Schaefer
Julien T. Davies Oscar Scherer
Daniel A. Davis Chas. A. Schieren, Jr.
Robert W. de Forest Schulz & Ruckgaber
Louis Dejonge & Co. William H. Seaich
Eugene Delano Edward W. Sheldon
George G. DeWitt Augustus D. Shepard
A. W. Dodsworth John Simmons Co.
R. G. Dun & Co. W. A. Simonson
W. E. Edmister John Sinclair
Marc Eidlitz & Son Smith & Kaufmann
R. Fischer & Co. R. A. C. Smith
T. P. Fowler Wm. Alex. Smith
The Gorham Company Elbridge G. Snow
Richard Henry Greene E. G. Seitmann
Kolman Haas Lispenard Stewart
Dr. Edw. Hagaman William R. Stewart
Hall Charles Stillman
A. Augustus Healy James Talcott
Ferdinand Herman Stevenson Taylor
H. C. Hoskier Taylor, Wendell & Co.
S. E. Howard's Sons & Co. Robert M. Thompson
George J. Jackson J. H. Thorpe & Co.
E. T. Jeffery Myles Tierney
James G. Johnson Frank Tilford
John Innes Kane Henry R. Towne
Richard B. Kelly D. L. Treitel
Wm. M. Kingsley John B. Trevor
William H. Klenke Wm. Ulmer Brewery
Samuel Kridel Alex. Walker
Adolf Kuttroff Henry C. Ward
Ladenburg, Thalmann & Co. William T. Wardwell
Woodbury Langdon Arthur W. Watson
J. Langeloth W. L. Wellington
George Legg Edmund Wetmore
David M. Look Whitall Tatum Co.
John S. Lyle J. G. White
James B. Mabon Nathaniel Whitman
V. Everit Macy H. Winterfeldt
Wilson Marshall W. E. Woolley
W. H. Marshall F. W. Woolworth & Co.
August Zinsser

$50.
The Am. Cotton Oil Co. Colgate Hoyt
J. Sinclair Armstrong Walter C. Hubbard
Austin, Nichols & Co. Theo. F. Jackson
George W. Babb E. C. Jameson
Baker, Smith & Co. Clarence H. Kelsey
John T. Barry George W. Kuhlke
Daniel Barnes J. Edg. Leaycraft & Co.
George Blagden Gustav Lindenthal
Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Bridgham Julius Liebmann
Brill Brothers Otto Lowenzard
Brunswick, Balke, Collender Co. C. H. Ludington
Charles S. Bryan James McCutcheon
Bulkley Dunton & Co. J. Lawrence McKeever
Hon. Jacob A. Cantor Alfred S. Marling
H. P. Carrington I. Mason
J. E. Childs Henry H. Meyer
William H. Childs J. A. Mollenhauer
George E. Chisolm Henry Morgenthau
John J. Clancy Geo. Austin Morrison
D. Crawford Clark David J. McComb
Cohen, Goldman & Co. Acosta Nichols
Frederick Coykendall Robert C. Ogden
U. C. Crosby Ogden & Wallace
Mathew Dean A. E. Orr
Charles de Rham, Jr. Robert Olyphant
Carll H. De Silver George A. Price
R. D. Douglass Leo A. Price
John L. Dudley, Jr. Charles F. Rand
J. Walter Earle Norman I. Rees
Frederick H. Eaton Wallace Reid
Scott Foster James E. Reynolds & Co.
The Chas. Francis Press Selig Rosenbaum
Albert Frank & Co. Rossia Insurance Co.
Charles Froeb J. H. Rossbach & Bros.
Robert Goodbody William Salomon
Paul Gotthelf Ed. C. Schaefer
William Hartfield Fred. B. Schenck
Harvey & Outerbridge Alonzo B. See
Charles Hathaway Friend of I. N. Seligman
L. Henry & Co. G. Sidenberg & Co.
Charles M. Higgins Alfred L. Simon & Co.
Hodgman Rubber Co.

$50.
John N. Stearns & Co. S. D. Webb
Susquehanna Silk Mills Wendell Fay & Co.
W. E. Thorpe Alfred T. White
Silas Tuttle Whiting Mfg. Co.
J. Leonard Varick Hon. William R. Willcox
William H. Valiquette
F. H. von Stade John J. Williams
E. H. Weatherbee Robert B. Woodward

$30.
Hon. James D. Bell

$25.
F. O. Affeld George McNeir
Spencer Aldrich Howard Mansfield
William J. Amend J. Lawrence Marcellus
Armstrong Cork Co. Jos. A. March
Astoria Silk Works Francis R. Masters
Edwin H. Baker T. A. Matthews
George Ballin Co. John Middleton
Bawo & Dotter Eugene F. Moran
James T. Bendernagel Edw. A. Morrison
Russell Benedict N. Y. Fruit Exchange
Charles L. Bensheimer A. J. Nutting
Alfred P. Boller C. J. Obermayer
Adolph Boskowitz Louis Ottmann
Brown, Durrell Co. W. W. Owens
Walston H. Brown Bayard L. Peck
C. A. Bruns William E. Peck & Co.
Edward Burns William P. Peters
Clark, Chapin & Bushnell John B. Phillips
Clarence L. Collins Foel & Arnold
Charles E. Copeland William A. Prendergast
George W. Copeland E. G. Richards.
Edw. Corning & Co. C. H. Ried's Sons
Walt. B. Cowperthwait F. A. Ringler Co.
Macgrane Coxe Noah C. Rogers
Paul D. Cravath The Roessler & Hasslacher Chemical Co.
James W. Cromwell Roethlisberger & Co.
Curtis & von Bernuth Rothschild Bros. & Co.
Mfg. Co. C. R. Runyon
The Cutler-Hammer Mfg. Co. Russell & Erwin Mfg. Co.
George Debevoise Charles H. Sabin
W. C. Demorest Hugo Sohmer
Dieckerhoff Raffloer & Co. William Sohmer
The R. E. Dietz Co. George H. Southard
Hon. Norman S. Dike Paul N. Spofford
A. J. Dittenhoeffer Chas. Stewart Smith
Rev. J. Donohue, LL.D. James H. Stebbins
Edmund Dwight Sanford H. Steele
Samuel Eiseman J. G. Steenken
Fergusson Bros. Mfg. Co. A. Steinam
Edmund D. Fisher J. C. Stratton & Co.
George H. Fisher Wilbraforce Sully
Andrew Freedman The Stroebel & Wilken Co.
Michael Gavin John Tatlock
Alex. Gilbert Francesco Tocci
Adolf Gobel Calvin Tomkins
Carl Goepel John A. Topping
Wallace P. Groom Edward L. Rogers
Wainwright Hardie William Tousey
J. Montgomery Hare Villa, Stearns Co.
Dr. John Harrigan Vought & Williams
Jacob Hasslacher Hon. Artemas Ward, Jr.
Job E. Hedges J. Langdon Ward
Heiman & Lichten William J. Wells
Arnold B. Heine & Co. Maurice Wertheimer
F. Herrmann Wheelock, Lovejoy & Co.
Alfred T. Hobley William H. Wheelock
Anton G. Hodenpyl William A. White
James R. Howe Wiebusch & Hilger
Dr. George T. Jackson Wiener Bros.
George L. Jewett W. G. Wilcox
F. Colt Johnson Henry L. Joyce William J. Wilgus
Robert C. Kammerer Frank S. Williams
D. P. Kingsley James H. Williams
A. P. W. Kinnan George T. Wilson
Kops Brothers D. P. Winne Company
James W. Lane F. S. Witherbee
Levi Sondheimer & Co. Emil Wolf
Lewis & Conger Lewis S. Wolf
Charles J. Liebmann F. W. Wurster
Hon. Joseph J. Little Wm. Gordon Ver Planck
Loeb & Schoenfeld Co. Thomas F. Vietor
Frank Lyman Thomas F. Young
John McCormick Charles T. Young
Guy R. McLane

$20.
Hon. E. R. Ackerman Henry J. Pierce
C. Washington Colyer James H. Rogers
Col. Eugene H. Conklin Edward M. Shepard
John B. Creighton Charles A. Sherman
Louis L. Firuski Ernest L. Simpson
James Lefferts Nathaniel S. Smith
Hon. Chester S. Lord Lewis H. Spence
H. D. Lyman Leopold Stern
John S. McLean Theron G.

MERKLE'S HIT CLEARS BASES FOR GIANTS

First Baseman Triples in Third Inning, Scoring Three Giant Base Runners.

RAYMOND PITCHES WELL

"Bugs" Effective Against Boston When Men Are on Bases—Small Crowd at Polo Grounds.

Baseball is not all in the play nor in the players. It needs a crowd. The spectators are as essential to enjoyment of big league ball as the diamond itself. So much was demonstrated forcibly on the Polo Grounds yesterday, when a rather good game between the Giants and the Beaneaters, won by New York, 3 to 1, proved uninteresting because it was seen by only about 800 persons. Had such a game been played before a crowd of 5,000, it would have been fairly absorbing. If 20,000 had seen it, great would have been the enthusiasm. As it was, there were so few enthusiasts in the grounds to cheer the good features that everything fell flat, and the closest thing to a thrill the afternoon yielded consisted of a tilt between Raymond and a lantern-jawed young man in the grand stand. The l. j. y. m. jeered the entomologist for striking out in the fourth inning, and voiced further taunts when Raymond went to bat in the sixth. An exchange of unflattering opinion followed, the home pitcher evidently forgetting the rule prohibiting players from speaking to spectators. Then Raymond momentarily overwhelmed his critic by singling through Autrey, who made a gallant try to stop the hard-hit ball. But the lantern-jawed youth recovered his aplomb quickly, and assailed Raymond with the sneer:

"You didn't know you hit it."

"You did," retorted the runner.

"Aw, wait a while and I'll buy you a beer," shouted the spectator.

"You'll be broke if you do," answered the entomologist. And the incident was closed, except that every now and then Raymond yelled to the discomfited onlooker, "Don't forget that hit."

More interest was shown in the story of the game between Chicago and Pittsburg as told on the scoreboard, than in the struggle on the diamond—that is to say until the Pirates were hopelessly in the lead. Yet the local game was well worth watching, as far as the play went. Double plays spoiled Boston's hopes in the first and second innings, thus rendering of no avail Thomas's base on balls and Becker's hit in the opening round, and Beaumont's two-bagger in the second. Seymour's walk and steal in the first inning were fruitless. In the second, the bases were filled on singles by Devlin and Bridwell and a pass to Raymond, but with two out Doyle flied to Thomas.

Not until the third round was any scoring done. In that stage of the game New York got three runs. Seymour reached first on a scratch hit and stole second. Snodgrass flied to Thomas, but Murray walked. Devlin flied to Beaumont. Bridwell was safe on a hopper to Coffey, filling the bases. Then Merkle cleaned up the bags with a triple to left, for which Thomas, in overzeal, ran in too far. And with that all the home team's runs were in. Bridwell, on a single and two steals, was the only Giant to reach third after Merkle's three-bagger, and that didn't happen until the fifth inning.

Boston made a bushel of hits, grouping three in the sixth and as many in the seventh, but got only one run. In the sixth Graham singled to left centre. Coffey fouled to Schlei. Curtis forced Graham at second. The Hub pitcher went to third on hits by Thomas and Becker that filled the bases, but Merkle saved Raymond with a fine running catch of Shean's long foul. Beaumont singled to right in the seventh—his third hit—and Getz made an infield tap, while Autrey sacrificed. But Graham flied to Doyle, who held the runners motionless, and, though Coffey brought Beaumont in with a hard diamond safety, Getz was caught at the plate in an attempt at a double steal.

In the fifth Merkle was hit with a pitched ball, and as soon as he reached first he and Bridwell, who was on third, achieved a double steal. Umpire Rigler ruled the ball was not in play. The fact is the Boston players were wool-gathering. However, Rigler sent both runners back, whereupon they immediately made another attempt at a double steal, in which Bridwell was caught at the plate.

Becker, in four times up, made four singles.

The score:

NEW YORK.	AB	R	H	PO	A
Doyle, 2b	4	0	0	4	1
Seym'r, cf	2	1	1	2	0
Sn'dg's, lf	4	0	1	1	0
Murray, rf	3	1	0	1	0
Devlin, 3b	4	0	1	2	3
B'dwell, ss	4	1	3	3	3
Merkle, 1b	3	0	2	11	1
Schlei, c	3	0	0	3	3
Raym'd, p	2	0	1	0	0
Total	29	3	9	27	11

BOSTON.	AB	R	H	PO	A
Thomas, lf	3	0	0	2	0
Becker, rf	4	0	4	1	0
Shean, 2b	4	0	0	4	3
B'mont, cf	4	1	3	1	0
Getz, 3b	4	0	1	3	2
Autrey, 1b	3	0	0	4	0
Graham, c	3	0	1	5	4
Coffey, ss	3	0	1	1	0
Curtis, p	3	0	0	0	2
Total	31	1	11	24	11

New York	0	0	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	—3
Boston	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	—1

Two-base hit—Beaumont. Three-base hit—Merkle. Sacrifice hit—Autrey. Stolen bases—Seymour, 2; Bridwell, 2; Merkle. Left on bases—Boston, 7; New York, 7. Double plays—Devlin and Merkle; Raymond, Devlin, and Bridwell. Struck out—By Curtis, 4; by Raymond, 1. Bases on balls—Off Curtis, 5; off Raymond, 1. Hit by pitcher—By Curtis, 1. (Merkle.) Wild pitch—Curtis. Time of game—One hour and fifty minutes. Umpire—Mr. Rigler.

Pirates Pound Cubs' Pitchers.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 7.—Pittsburg and Chicago are now on even terms in the series of games started in Chicago Sunday, the locals winning to-day by a score of 6 to 2. The remaining game of the series will be played to-morrow.

The visitors used three of their best pitchers to-day in a vain effort to check the batting streak of the home team. Maddox was strong throughout. Only one Chicago player got past first base after the second inning.

Reulbach, who has been successful against Pittsburg, started the game for Chicago, although he pitched yesterday. He was relieved after three singles and a home run had been made off him in the second inning. Brown then went to the mound, but fared little better. Higginbotham finished the game for the visitors, and was hit freely.

Abstein's home run in the second inning was the subject of an argument, in which all the Chicago players took part, Tinker and Chance finally being ordered from the field by Umpire Klem. The ball hit into the left field bleachers and bounded out on the field, where Sheckard got it, and threw to second, holding the runner there. Klem allowed Abstein to take the other two bases, the rule being that when a ball is knocked out of the field, as was the case to-day, the batter is entitled to a home run.

Chicago made their runs in the second inning, when Steinfeldt singled and Tinker tripled, the latter coming on to the home plate and being safe when Gibson dropped the ball. Pittsburg tied the score in the same inning on Miller's single and Abstein's home run. The bunching of hits in the other innings was responsible for the other runs. The score:

PITTSBURG.	AB	R	H	PO	A
Byrne, 3b	5	0	1	1	2
Leach, cf	4	0	0	2	1
Clarke, lf	3	2	2	0	0
Wagner, ss	3	0	1	0	4
Miller, 2b	3	1	1	3	7
Abstein, 1b	4	1	1	17	0
Wilson, rf	4	1	1	2	0
Gibson, c	4	1	3	2	0
Maddox, p	4	0	2	0	5
Total	34	6	12	27	19

CHICAGO.	AB	R	H	PO	A
Zim'm'n, 2b, ss	4	0	0	1	1
Sheck'd, lf	4	0	0	1	0
Schulte, rf	4	0	1	1	0
Chance, 1b	1	0	0	7	0
Howard, 1b	3	0	1	1	0
St'nf'dt, 3b	4	1	1	2	3
Hofman, cf	3	0	1	4	0
Tinker, ss	1	1	1	0	0
Kane, 2b	2	0	0	0	2
Archer, c	3	0	0	3	1
Moran, c	0	0	0	0	1
R'lbach, p	1	0	1	0	0
Brown, p	1	0	0	0	2
H'g'b'm, p	1	0	0	0	2
Total	32	2	5	24	12

Errors—Miller, Gibson, Zimmerman, Archer.

Pittsburg	0	2	0	1	1	0	1	1	0	—6
Chicago	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	—2

Two-base hits—Wagner, Gibson, (2,) Wilson. Three-base hits—Tinker, Reulbach, Clarke. Home run—Abstein. Hits—Off Reulbach, 4 in two innings; off Brown, 4 in three innings; off Higginbotham, 4 in three innings. Sacrifice hits—Wagner, Miller. Stolen bases—Clarke, (2,) Miller. Double play—Miller and Abstein. Left on bases—Pittsburg, 8; Chicago, 3. First base on balls—Off Reulbach, 2. First base on errors—Pittsburg, 1; Chicago, 1. Struck out—By Maddox, 1; by Brown, 1; by Higginbotham, 1. Time of game—One hour and forty minutes. Umpires—Messrs. Klem and O'Day.

Brooklyn Could Not Bat and Lost.

The Brooklyn team made its last appearance at Washington Park yesterday until Oct. 2, and suffered an easy defeat at the hands of the Phillies by a score of 7 to 2. Probably a thousand persons witnessed the contest, including 500 youngsters of the St. John's Orphan Home of Brooklyn, with its own band of eighty pieces. The little fellows, with their light blue caps, were the most vigorous rooters for Lumley's men, but the Philadelphians wielded the bat so effectively that they clinched the game in the first two innings. The result of the victory was principally due to the strategic pitching of Moren, who struck out seven men and allowed only six hits. It was not until the fifth inning that the Brooklyns were enabled to score, although the outlook for getting a man or two across the plate was very promising in the fourth inning. Alperman led off with a single, but in his eagerness to reach home on Jordan's double to right field was thrown out at the plate. Jordan got to third on a passed ball, but was left there. In the fifth inning, a base on balls to Burch, Clements's hit, which forced out Dent, and Lennox's two-bagger to right field gave the Brooklyns their only runs.

Opposed to Moren was Dent, Brooklyn's new recruit from the Carolina League. For two innings his delivery just suited the Quakers, who touched him up for five safeties, including a double, while two bases on balls were destructive. Five runs in all were scored. Then Dent settled down, and for six innings the visitors were unable to score. In the ninth, however, Grant's one-bagger, Bates's sacrifice, and Titus's triple to between centre and right, supplemented by a pitched ball that hit the umpire, gave the Phillies two more runs. The score:

PHILADELPHIA.	AB	R	H	PO	A
Grant, 3b	4	2	2	1	2
Bates, lf	5	2	3	0	0
Titus, rf	4	2	2	2	1
D'ninger, cf	5	0	3	1	0
Br'sf'ld, 1b	5	0	0	9	0
Ward, 2b	4	0	0	5	3
Doolan, ss	4	0	0	0	7
Dooln, c	4	1	2	9	0
Moren, p	4	0	0	0	1
Total	39	7	12	27	14

BROOKLYN.	AB	R	H	PO	A
Burch, cf	3	1	1	1	0
Clement, lf	4	1	0	2	0
Lennox, 3b	4	0	2	2	6
Alp'm'n, 2b	4	0	1	4	1
Jordan, 1b	3	0	1	10	0
Gum'l, rf	4	0	0	2	0
M'M'lan, ss	4	0	0	0	5
Bergen, c	3	0	0	6	0
Dent, p	3	0	1	0	2
*McElveen	1	0	0	0	0
†Redmond	1	0	0	0	0
Total	34	2	6	27	14

*Batted for Bergen in ninth inning. †Batted for Dent in ninth inning.

Errors—Ward, 2; Bransfield.

Philadelphia	2	3	0	0	0	0	0	0	2	—7
Brooklyn	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	0	0	—2

Two-base hits—Jordan, Lennox, Deininger. Three-base hit—Titus. Sacrifice hits—Bates, Bransfield 2. Stolen bases—Bates, Dooln. Bases on balls—Off Moren, 2; off Dent, 2. Struck out—By Moren, 7; by Dent, 6. Left on bases—Philadelphia, 7; Brooklyn, 7. Double play—Ward and Bransfield. Passed ball—Dooln. Time of game—One hour and forty minutes. Umpires—Messrs. Kane and Emslie.

New York State League.

Elmira, 6; Syracuse, 1.
Utica, 3; Binghamton, 2.
Albany, 2; Wilkesbarre, 1.
Scranton, 2; Troy, 1.

New England League.

Lynn, 3; Lowell, 2.
Lawrence, 4; Haverhill, 2.
Brockton, 7; Worcester, 0.

Connecticut League.

New Haven, 9; Northampton, 7.
Hartford, 6; Holyoke, 5.
Hartford 6; Holyoke, 6, (9 innings; called.)

Southern League.

Montgomery, 5; Little Rock, 1.
Birmingham, 5; New Orleans, 3.
Nashville, 1; Memphis, 0.
Atlanta, 5; Mobile, 4.

Kling Plays in Chicago; Not with Cubs.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—John Kling and his baseball team from Kansas City celebrated their arrival in Chicago yesterday by winning both games, one from the Logan Squares and the other from the West Ends. Although President Murphy of the Cubs had threatened to prevent Kling's appearance in uniform by procuring an injunction, Kling played in both games without interference.

Evers Suspended Three Days.

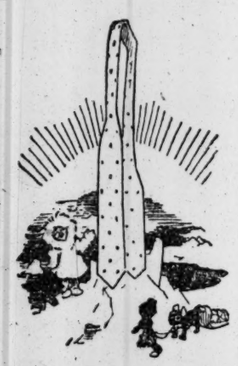
PITTSBURG, Sept. 7.—For disputing a decision during the Pittsburg-Chicago game yesterday afternoon Evers, second baseman of the Chicago team, has been suspended for three days. The suspension order reached here to-day from New York.

Tommy Atkins for Athletics.

ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 7.—Pitcher "Tommy" Atkins of the Atlanta Southern League Club will likely leave for Philadelphia Monday to join the Philadelphia Americans. An agreement to this effect was reached yesterday.

Smallwood Beats Two Indians.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 7.—Percy Smallwood, champion middle-distance runner of the world, defeated Jules Hart and Oon Abraham, two Onondaga Indians, in a ten-mile race at Forbes Field last night in 53:08⅘. Each of the Indians ran five miles. Smallwood beating both by a lap and a half.



Competition in the neckwear line is even hotter than in the business of discovering the Pole.

So in order to keep up to date, we now clear out all that's left of our fancy four-in-hands, the Summer stock.

It's the grand finale, and includes whatever was left from higher priced sales.

946 scarfs that were $1.00.
3749 scarfs that were 50c.

35c. each.
3 for $1.

P. S.—The Arctic cold seems to have contracted these scarfs in our artist's mind. They are not short as shown, but regular length four-in-hands, all from our regular stock.

If all this cold talk has given you a premonitory chill, just remember we've all sorts of Fall clothing ready.

Fall suits, Fall overcoats, Fall underwear, Fall soft hats and derbies.

For men and boys.

ROGERS PEET & COMPANY,

Three Broadway Stores,
at Warren st. | at 13th st. | at 34th st.

YANKS' LONG HITS DEFEAT ATHLETICS

New Yorks Outbatted and Outfielded, but Win on Their Hard Drives.

PITCHER DOYLE HIT OFTEN

Quakers' Pennant Chances Lessened by Their Defeat and Detroit's Victory Over Cleveland.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—Outbatted and outfielded to-day, New York won a hard hitting and loose fielding game from the Athletics by a score of 8 to 6 that gave 7,047 faithful fans a solar plexus pennant jolt. While the Mackites were fighting a losing battle with the Yankees the Tigers were reveling in a triumph over Cleveland. This combination of the locals' defeat and their rivals' victory proved a damaging but not necessarily irreparable blow to the Athletics' championship aspiration.

The game developed into a slugging matinée from the start. The Athletics were the first to inaugurate a bingle cannonade, as they jumped on the delivery of Joe Doyle, the deliberate, in the first inning.

While Morgan did not allow as many hits as Doyle, the big pitcher was pounded for longer drives. Nothing longer than a single resulted from the Yankee pitcher's curves, while a nome run, two triples, and a brace of doubles were included among the drives credited to New York.

By reason of their extra length New York's hits were more productive of runs than those of the Athletics. The Mackites wasted two hits in the first inning and only realized one run from three singles and two infield grounders in the second.

In the third Collins and Baker scratched hits to second base, and both men were advanced on Davis's sacrifice, Austin to Chase. Collins started to steal when Davis bunted, and was enabled by this lead to come home on the bunt. Baker went to third when Chase tried to get Collins at the plate. On Murphy's single to centre Baker counted and the batter raced to third when Demmitt allowed the ball to roll to the fence. Jackson fanned, but Livingston scored Murphy with a safe drive to left.

The Yanks got busy in the fourth. Engle and Laporte singled in quick succession, and both moved up a base on Knight's sacrifice. Austin took the strike-out count, but Sweeney's single over second sent both runners home. Two more were added in the fifth that tied the score. Demmitt opened with a double to right and went to third on Keeler's sacrifice. Chase drove the ball hard to left centre, Jackson playing the hit poorly, and before he could retrieve it from the wall in left centre Chase had completed the circuit, Demmitt scoring ahead of him. Engle followed with a triple, but was caught near the plate and run down.

New York won in the seventh. Demmitt started the round by walking. Keeler bunted to Davis, and no one covered the bag. Chase bunted for a sacrifice, Baker fumbling. This error filled the sacks. On Engle's long sacrifice fly to Heitmuller, Demmitt came heme, and the other runners advanced a base.

Laporte then cleaned house with a triple to right, Keeler and Chase going home. On Barry's wild throw to the plate and on Knight's grounder Laporte scored. Dygert pitched the two last innings, and only six Yankees faced him.

Baker hit to Chase in the eighth and Doyle dropped the first baseman's throw. Davis hit safely to right, and when Keeler threw wildly to third to head off Baker the latter scored, and the Athletics' Captain reached third, from which base he counted on Murphy's sacrifice fly to left.

With two out in the ninth the Athletics made a brave rally. Barry singled to left, and Collins struck at a low ball and reached first on a missed third strike. A long drive by Baker in this pinch would have tied the score. Baker popped to Chase.

Harold Chase furnished the fielding specialties. In the second inning he completed a double play by a wonderful one-handed catch of a wide throw by Laporte. In the sixth he jumped in the air and pulled down Davis's high bounder with his gloved hand and tossed the batter out at first, Doyle covering the bag. Barry and Knight made some splendid stops and throws. The scores:

NEW YORK.	AB	R	H	PO	A
Dem't, cf	4	2	1	0	0
Keeler, rf	3	1	1	0	0
Chase, 1b	4	2	2	9	0
Engle, lf	3	1	2	3	0
Laporte, 2b	5	2	2	2	2
Knight, ss	3	0	0	5	4
Austin, 3b	4	0	0	5	2
Sweeney, c	4	0	1	4	3
Doyle, p	4	0	0	1	1
*Total	34	8	9	27	14

PHILADELPHIA.	AB	R	H	PO	A
H'tm'ter, lf	5	0	0	1	0
Barry, ss	4	0	2	3	5
Collins, 2b	4	1	2	4	5
Baker, 3b	5	2	2	2	2
Davis, 1b	3	2	2	11	1
Murphy, rf	3	1	2	2	0
Jackson, cf	4	0	1	1	0
Liv'gst'e, c	4	0	1	5	1
Morgan, p	2	0	0	2	0
Dygert, p	0	0	0	0	0
*Lapp	1	0	0	0	0
†Bender	1	0	0	0	0
Total	37	6	12	27	16

*Batted for Morgan in the seventh inning.
†Batted for Dygert in the ninth inning.

Errors—Demmitt, Keeler, Knight, Sweeney, Doyle, Barry, Baker, Livingstone.

New York	0	0	0	2	2	0	4	0	0	—8
Philadelphia	0	1	0	3	0	0	0	2	0	—6

Hits—Off Morgan, 9 in seven innings. Two-base hits—Chase, Demmitt. Three-base hits—Engle, Laporte. Home run—Chase. Sacrifice hits—Knight, Keeler, Davis, Chase. Sacrifice flies—Engle, Murphy. Double plays—Baker, Collins, and Davis; Knight, Laporte, and Chase. Struck out—By Morgan, 2; by Doyle, 4; by Dygert, 1. Left on bases—Philadelphia, 7; New York, 8. First base on balls—Off Morgan, 3; off Doyle 1. First base on errors—Philadelphia, 2; New York, 2. Time of game—Two hours and five minutes. Umpires—Messrs. Egan and Sheridan.

Tigers Bunch Hits and Win.

DETROIT, Sept. 7.—In a free-hitting game Detroit beat Cleveland to-day, principally because of superior support of a pitcher whom the visitors found easy to reach. Two home runs, each with a man on base, counted the four Cleveland runs. After making the score a tie Detroit twice bunched a double and two singles, each time for two runs, and got a safe lead. The hitting of Delehanty and Birmingham featured. Score:

DETROIT.	AB	R	H	PO	A
D. Jones, lf	3	0	0	3	0
Bush, ss	4	1	2	2	3
Cobb, rf	4	1	2	0	0
Crawf'd, cf	3	1	2	3	0
Deleh'ty, 2b	4	2	3	5	1
Mor'ty, 3b	3	0	0	2	3
T. Jones, 1b	4	0	1	8	0
Schmidt, c	4	1	1	3	1
Summers, p	2	0	0	1	1
Total	31	6	11	27	9

CLEVELAND.	AB	R	H	PO	A
Flick, rf	5	0	1	3	0
Reilly, lf	4	1	1	0	0
Stovall, 1b	4	1	1	15	1
Lajoie, 2b	4	0	2	2	5
Clarke, c	4	0	2	4	1
B'm'h'm, cf	4	0	3	0	0
Perring, 3b	4	0	0	0	3
Ball, ss	3	1	0	0	2
Joss, p	3	1	1	0	0
*Easterly	1	0	0	0	0
†H'chman	1	0	1	0	0
Total	37	4	12	24	12

Errors—Clarke, Ball.
*Batted for Ball in the ninth inning.
†Batted for Joss in the ninth inning.

Detroit	0	1	0	1	2	2	0	0	0	—6
Cleveland	2	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	—4

Two-base hits—Crawford, Schmidt, Hitchman. Home runs—Stovall, Joss. Sacrifice hits—Crawford, Moriarty, Summers. Stolen bases—Bush, Crawford. Double plays—Moriarty and T. Jones. Left on bases—Detroit, 5; Cleveland, 5. First base on error—Detroit. Struck out—By Summers, 2; by Joss, 3. Balk—Summers. Time of game—One hour and forty-five minutes. Umpires—Messrs. Evans and Perrine.

Senators Trounce the Bostons.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Boston's pitchers were wild and ineffective to-day, while Gray had but two bad innings, Washington winning in consequence, 11 to 6. The throwing of Street in nipping base runners was the feature of the game. Score:

WASHINGTON.	AB	R	H	PO	A
Conroy, sb	4	1	1	0	0
Killifer, cf, rf	5	0	1	0	0
Unglaub, rf, 1b	2	1	1	6	0
Lelivt, lf	5	1	3	4	0
Kelley, 2b	4	2	2	1	5
Slat'ry, 1b	0	1	0	4	0
Milan, cf	2	1	1	1	0
M'Bride, ss	3	3	1	3	2
Street, c	2	1	1	8	2
Gray, p	4	0	0	0	2
Total	31	11	11	27	11

BOSTON.	AB	R	H	PO	A
Niles, lf	5	0	2	2	1
Lord, 3b	4	1	1	3	1
Speaker, cf	4	0	0	3	0
Gessler, rf	3	1	1	0	0
Gardner, ss	3	2	1	1	1
Stahl, 1b	4	1	1	7	1
Carrigan, c	4	0	1	5	3
Karger, p	2	0	0	1	1
Matth's, p	0	0	0	0	0
Arellanes, p	1	0	0	0	2
*Donohue	1	0	0	0	0
Total	33	6	7	24	14

*Batted for Arellanes in ninth inning.

Errors—Conroy, Kelley, Slattery, Gessler, Gardner, McConnell, Carrigan.

Washington	0	3	0	3	0	1	2	2	0	—11
Boston	0	0	0	4	0	2	0	0	0	—6

Two-base hits—Street, Kelley. Three-base hits—Lelivelt, Stahl. Hits—Off Karger, 3 in three and one-third innings; off Arellanes, 8 in four and one-third innings. Sacrifice hits—Unglaub, Milan, Lord, McConnell. Stolen bases—Conroy, Kelley, McBride, Niles, Lord. Double play—Niles, Carrigan and M. Left on bases—Washington, 7; Boston, 7. First base on balls—Off Gray, 2; off Karger, 3; off Matthews, 2; off Arellanes, 4. First base on errors—Washington, 1; Boston, 3. Hit by pitcher—By Gray, 1. Struck out—By Gray, 7; by Karger, 1; by Arellanes, 2. Passed ball—Street. Time of game—Two hours and five minutes. Umpires—Messrs. Kerin and Connolly.

WARRANT FOR "TY" COBB.

Detroit Player Charged with Assault with Intent to Kill.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Sept. 7.—A warrant charging "Ty" Cobb, right fielder of the Detroit American League baseball team, with assault with intent to kill, was sworn out to-day before Justice William Brown by J. J. Klein, attorney for George Stanfield, night watchman at the Euclid Hotel, who, it is said, was assaulted by the ball player in the hotel Saturday.

Stanfield signed the affidavit in his room at the hotel, as it was said he is too weak to leave his bed.

A detective employed by a private agency will go to Detroit where Cobb is now playing to serve the warrant.

TRAVIS AND SHERMAN.

Two New York Players Only Eastern Survivors in Amateur Tourney.

WHEATON, Ill., Sept. 7.—Two Easterners and fourteen players from Western clubs remain to fight for the National golf championship as the result of to-day's match play in the National tournament.

The Easterners are the old campaigner Walter J. Travis of Garden City, who disposed of Fred Herreshoff of Ekwanok after a sensational 19-hole match, and Thomas M. Sherman of Utica, N. Y., son of Vice President Sherman, who beat A. W. Tillinghast of Philadelphia 1 up in 19 holes.

The Westerners who remain include Western champion Charles Evans, Jr.; former National champion H. Chandler Egan, former Western champions D. E. Sawyer and Mason Phelps, Warren K. Wood, Paul and Robert Hunter.

But the luck of the draw, which fell so heavily on the East to-day, will mow down the Western contestants to-morrow. Paul Hunter, who to-day equaled the course record of 71, made by the Englishman Norman E. Hunter when the team of English amateurs toured the United States in 1903, will meet "Ned" Sawyer. Chandler Egan will contest with Warren K. Wood. Evans will play A. Stillwell of Midlothian.

Following are the results of the first round of match play:

W. K. Wood, Homewood, defeated G. T. Brokaw, 4 up and 3 to play; D. E. Sawyer, Wheaton defeated H. R. Schollenberger, Beverly, 7 up and 6 to play; R. E. Hunter, Midlothian, defeated C. Waldo, Jr., Brooklawn, 3 up and 2 to play; H. Chandler Egan, Exmoor, defeated C. McArthur, Homewood, 7 up and 6 to play; T. M. Sherman, Utica, defeated A. W. Tillinghast, Philadelphia, 1 up in 19 holes; C. Evans, Jr., Exmoor, defeated W. G. Ifeil, Philadelphia, 4 up and 2 to play; P. W. Schatz, Wheaton, defeated H. P. Bend, Town and Country, 2 up; Albert Seckel, Hinsdale, beat B. P. Merriman, Waterbury, 4 up and 2 to play; A. Stillwell, Midlothian, beat T. M. Claflin, Wollaston, 1 up, 20 holes; Mason Phelps, Midlothian, beat A. G. Lockwood, Allston, 2 up and 1 to play; Harold Weber, Inverness, beat A. L. White, Brae Burn, 2 up; Paul Hunter, Midlothian, beat W. B. Langford, Westward Ho, 6 up and 4 to play; W. J. Travis, Garden City, beat Fred Herreshoff, Ekwanok, 1 up, 19 holes; W. C. Fownes, Jr., Oakmont, beat R. Ainslee, Westward Ho, 2 up and 1 to play; R. Gardner, Hinsdale, beat H. R. Johnstone, Myopia, 1 up; L. H. Reinking, Wheaton, beat W. I. Howland, Glenview, 4 up and 2 to play.

Golf Finals at Hollywood Club.

Arthur McAleenan defeated Frank L. Barrett in the final round for the Hollywood Golf Club championship Cup at West End, N. J., by 3 up. The West End Cup was won by J. C. Levi, who defeated Howard Wooley, 3 up and 2 to play. S. K. Lichtenstein captured the Hollywood Cup by the same score from H. C. Eckstein.

Whitney's Top o' the Morning Wins.

DONCASTER, England, Sept. 7.—The Glasgow Nursery Handicap Plate of 250 sovereigns, for two-year-olds only, distance five furlongs, was won by H. P. Whitney's Top o' the Morning. Photime was second and J. R. Keene's Suffragist third. Among the nineteen starters was August Belmont's Fond Memories.

Intermission

Little Cigars

Many times you've wanted a short smoke that is mild and sweet, of the best quality, yet not expensive. SURBRUG'S INTERMISSIONS may fulfill the want.

BASEBALL SUMMARY.

SCORES OF YESTERDAY'S GAMES.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

New York	3	Philadelphia	7
Boston	1	Brooklyn	2
Pittsburg	6	Cincinnati at St.
Chicago	2	Louis, rain.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

New York	8	Washington	11
Philadelphia	6	Boston	6
Detroit	6
Cleveland	4

EASTERN LEAGUE.

Newark	10	Newark	11
Baltimore	5	Baltimore	4
Jersey City	5	Rochester	4
Providence	0	Montreal	0
Toronto	4
Buffalo	3

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

Louisville	2	Louisville	2
Indianapolis	0	Indianapolis	0
Columbus	7	Milwaukee	6
Toledo	6	Minneapolis	5
(Ten innings.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

	Won.	Lost.	P. C.	1908.
Pittsburg	90	35	.720	.614
Chicago	84	41	.672	.601
New York	74	48	.607	.623
Cincinnati	65	60	.520	.480
Philadelphia	59	68	.465	.546
St. Louis	47	77	.402	.352
Brooklyn	44	80	.355	.355
Boston	34	90	.274	.429

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

	Won.	Lost.	P. C.	1908.
Detroit	83	45	.649	.589
Philadelphia	78	49	.614	.492
Boston	74	55	.574	.484
Cleveland	67	64	.511	.543
Chicago	64	63	.504	.564
New York	58	68	.460	.620
St. Louis	52	73	.416	.560
Washington	34	93	.268	.446

EASTERN LEAGUE.

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
Rochester	77	54	.588	Buffalo	69	68	.481
Newark	72	59	.534	Montreal	57	72	.442
Providence	70	60	.538	Jersey City	57	72	.442
Toronto	67	63	.515	Baltimore	57	73	.438

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

	W.	L.	P.C.		W.	L.	P.C.
Milwaukee	83	61	.576	Indian'polis	70	76	.479
Minn'apolis	79	64	.553	Columbus	68	75	.475
Louisville	75	68	.525	Toledo	66	78	.460
St. Paul	67	72	.482	Kansas C'y	63	77	.450

GAMES FOR TO-DAY.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Brooklyn at New York. Two games.
Philadelphia at Boston.
Chicago at Pittsburg.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

New York at Philadelphia.
Boston at Washington.
Cleveland at Detroit.

KOUNTZE BROTHERS
BANKERS

Have exceptional facilities for making collections in

Mexico, Cuba and Porto Rico

Issue Letters of Credit Available Throughout the World.

BROADWAY AND CEDAR ST.
NEW YORK

Well-Known Stocks

Our Circular No. 114 gives valuable information regarding eighty-one issues of Railroad and Industrial Stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange. The data includes the amount of stock outstanding, annual dividend rate, percentage earned for the last year, high and low prices for 1908, etc. We classify the different issues as follows: Investment, Semi-Investment, and Speculative. If you are interested in such securities the circular will be of value to you.

Spencer Trask & Co.
William and Pine Streets
New York

Knauth, Nachod & Kühne
15 William St., NEW YORK — Leipzig, GERMANY
BANKERS
Members New York Stock Exchange

High Grade Investment Bonds

Letters of Credit and Travelers' Checks
Interest on Deposit Accounts

Wanted
20 American Book.
100 Union Typewriter Com.
50 Union Typewriter 2d Pfd.
25 Wells-Fargo Express.
50 American Caramel Pfd.
25 Hartford Carpet Com.
50 Ingersoll-Rand Pfd. and Com.
25 Hartford Carpet Com. and Pfd.
50 Realty Associates.
25 Pope Mfg. Co. Com. and Pfd.
10M Kings Co. El. Light & P. 5%.
10M N. Y. & Richmond 1st 5%.
5M Peoria Water Works Cons. 4%.
5M American Book 6%.
20M Inter. Silver 1st 6% & Deb. 6%.

Hallowell & Henry
Tel. Broad 4997. 52 Beaver St.

INVESTORS

Will find our occasional circular studies of securities and Market letters on stocks of interest. In asking to be put on our list, please state whether you are a buyer of either Bonds or Stocks, or both.

If you tell us your problem we will gladly let you benefit by our investigations and experience.

Swartwout & Appenzellar
(Members New York Stock Exchange)
44 PINE STREET NEW YORK CITY

WANTED
ALBANY & HUDSON 5s
AMERICAN CARAMEL PFD.
CENTRAL COLO. POWER 5S, 1946
LACKAWANNA STEEL
COAL & IRON NAT. BANK

FOR SALE
PENNSYLVANIA CENT. BREWING 6s
WESTERN POWER PFD.
CRIPPLE CREEK CENT. PFD. & COM.
UNITED BREWERIES OF CHICAGO 6s
GUANAJUATO POWER & ELEC. COM.

BROWN, WILLIAMS & BURBANK,
Members New York Stock Exchange.
Outside Investment Securities Department
E. AUGUSTUS WILLARD, Mgr.
Tel. 3580 Rector. 111 Broadway, N. Y.

MONEY YIELDS AT PRESENT
On call, 2¼ % to 2½ %
On time, 4% to 4½ %
In Guaranteed Mortgages 4% to 4½ %
In Guaranteed Bonds 4.85% to 5.45%
Descriptive Circulars on Guaranteed Bonds Sent on Request.

TEFFT & COMPANY
Members New York Stock Exchange,
Hanover Bank Building,
5 NASSAU ST.

September Investments
Railroad and Industrial Bonds to yield from 4% to 7%.
Prices and particulars on application.
CHISHOLM & CHAPMAN
Members New York Stock Exchange.
18 WALL STREET, NEW YORK.
Telephone 180 Rector.

WANTED.
AMERICAN LITHOGRAPHIC PREFERRED.
FREDERIC H. HATCH & CO.
Dealers in Unlisted and Inactive Securities of Railroads and Other Corporations in the United States and elsewhere. Tel. 5140 to 5153 Broad, inclusive. 30 Broad St., New York.

WANTED
DU PONT POWDER CO. SECURITIES
INTERNAT. NICKEL CO. SECURITIES
FOR SALE
OIL FIELDS OF MEXICO CO. STOCK
N. Y. & QUEENS E. L. & POWER PFD.
S. H. P. PELL & CO.,
Members New York Stock Exchange,
Dealers in Unlisted and Inactive Securities.
Tel. 7865-6-7-8-9 Hanover. 43 Exchange Pl., N. Y.

N. W. Halsey & Co.
BANKERS
Bonds for Investment
49 Wall Street, N. Y
Chicago San Francisco
Philadelphia

FINANCIAL MARKETS

Stocks in General Decline—Call Money Rates, 2¼@2½ Per Cent.

HARRIMAN SHARES BREAK

Relapse of Railroad Head Dominates the Day's Dealings—Trading Narrow—Good Railroad Returns.

Throughout yesterday's stock market session the condition of Mr. Harriman's health was the dominant factor. Before the opening here the shares of the company in which he figures most prominently had been subjected to pressure in the London market and had broken very sharply, carrying down with them practically all other American issues dealt in on the foreign Bourses. The same set of facts applied to the opening of our own market, and throughout the day Union Pacific and Southern Pacific stocks found support only at prices which represented declines of some 5 and 4 points respectively from the closing quotations of last Friday. In the final few minutes the publication of reports of a very serious character resulted in a renewal of the selling, carrying the prices of these two stocks to the lowest figures of the day. By all odds the most noteworthy feature of the general market was the very different course it pursued, under exactly the same inciting causes, from that of two weeks ago. Total sales yesterday were about 760,000 shares, and to this amount five issues alone contributed over 500,000 shares. This shows plainly enough the narrowness of the market outside of the so-called Harriman issues, and in addition to this evidence of resistance to the dominating influence of the day there were the relatively small losses scored by a majority of the stocks actually traded in. The strength of the Steel shares was a particularly favorable feature of the trading, the stock apparently finding strong support. Other news than that from Arden received scant attention, but it was of a kind, nevertheless, which promises to maintain the integrity of financial markets whatever may be the final upshot in Mr. Harriman's regrettable illness. Prices of certain steel materials were advanced by a number of the independents; large inquiries for steel rails were reported, excellent increases in gross earnings for the month of August were reported by railroads in all parts of the country, including such figures as gains of $332,000 by the Chesapeake & Ohio, $433,000 by the Southern Railway, and $282,000 by the Louisville & Nashville. Grain markets were relatively steady on the eve of the Government's crop report, and little change is expected in any direction save with corn, where the continued dry weather has, of course, substantially reduced the crop promised earlier.

Money rates failed to reflect the reduction in surplus announced in Saturday's bank statement, but during the course of the day there developed a heavy movement of currency to the interior. In London the price of gold was advanced sharply, and the disposition here was to look upon this move as in the nature of a precautionary measure looking to a possible American demand for gold in the near future.

CALENDAR FOR TO-DAY.

BOOKS CLOSE.

Laclede Gas Light Company of St. Louis, dividend on common.
Philadelphia Traction Company.

ANNUAL MEETING.

E. K. Beddall & Co.
Electric Properties.
Toledo, Peoria & Western Railroad.

MONEY AND EXCHANGE.

Money on call on Stock Exchange collateral loaned at 2¼@2½ per cent., with the last loan at 2½ per cent. Most of the day's loans were made at 2½ per cent.

Time money rates, 3 per cent. for sixty days, 3¼ per cent. for ninety days, 3⅛@3¼ per cent. for four months, and 3⅜@4 per cent. for five and six months.

Mercantile paper rates, 3¾@4 per cent. for sixty to ninety days' indorsed bills receivable, 4@4½ per cent. for choice four to six months' single names, and 4¼@5½ per cent. for others.

Private discounts at foreign centres: London, 1½ per cent., up ⅛ per cent.; Paris, 1¼ per cent., unchanged; Berlin, 2¾ per cent., unchanged.

New York Clearing House statement: Exchanges, $163,487,039; balances, $8,360,617; Sub-Treasury debit balance, $134,263.

The local banks have lost $1,892,000 in their Sub-Treasury operations since Friday.

Sterling exchange was steady, with demand quoted at $4.8650@$4.8660, sixty days at $4.8485@$4.8495, and cables at $4.8675@$4.8685.

Continental bills were quoted as follows: Francs, 5.16¾ plus 1-32@5.16¾ plus 1-16 for cables, 5.16⅞@5.17 plus 1-32 for sight, and 5.18¾ less 3-64@5.18¾ for sixty days; reichsmarks, 95 5-16@95 5-16 plus 1-16 for cables, 95¼ plus 1-64@95¼ plus 3-64 for sight, and 94⅞ less 1-64@95 plus 1-32 for sixty days.

Exchange on New York at Boston was 10c discount; Chicago, 40c discount; St. Louis, 10c discount; New Orleans, commercial, 20c discount; bank, $1 premium; San Francisco, 40c premium; St. Paul, 15c discount.

SILVER QUOTATIONS.

Bar silver was 1-16d lower in London, at 23¾d per ounce, and ⅛c lower in New York, at 51¼c per ounce. Mexican dollars were quoted at 44c.

SHORT TERM NOTES.

	Interest to be Added.
	Sept. 4.	Sept. 5. '08.
Loans	$123,138,000	$3,152,000 $204,410,000
Circulation	7,607,000	*22,000 10,467,000
Deposits	179,340,000	193,000 167,773,000
Due banks	79,347,000	135,000 81,325,000
U. S. deposits	2,016,286	*3,000 1,598,000
Res. agents	36,025,000	*1,880,000 44,276,000
Exchanges	13,431,000	*2,437,000 13,983,000
Due from b'ks	21,136,000	858,000 19,613,000
5% fund	384,750	3,500 534,750
Legal tender	4,663,000	*370,000 3,263,000
Specie	23,179,000	*379,000 21,323,000
Surplus	1,216,286	*230,000 3,437,857
N. Y. surplus	5,579,286	*2,410,000 20,077,857

*Increase.

*Unlisted.

NEW YORK CITY BONDS.

	Yesterday: Bid.	Asked.	Saturday. Bid.	Asked.
4½s..May, '57, f'chg	110¾	111¼	110⅞	111¼
4½s..Nov., '57, f'chg	110⅞	111¼	110⅞	111¼
4½s..May, '17, f'chg	104	104⅜	104	104⅛
4s ..Nov., '58, f'chg	101	101⅜	101	101⅜
4s ..May, '57, f'chg	101	101⅛	101	101⅜
4s ..Nov., '56, reg	100½	101	100¼	101
4s ..Nov., '36, reg	100½	101	100¼	101
3½s..Nov., '55, f'chg	90⅜	91	90½	91
3½s..May, '54, coup	90⅜	91	90½	91
3½s..May, '54, reg	90¼	90⅞	90¼	91
3½s..Nov., '54, reg	101¼	101⅜	101¼	101⅜
*6s ..Nov., '10, rev	103⅜	103⅞	103⅜	103⅞

*Coupon or registered.

BOSTON BANK STATEMENT.

Special to The New York Times.

BOSTON, Sept. 7.—Following is the weekly statement of the Associated National Banks of Boston:

	Decrease for Week.	Sept. 5. '08.
Loans	$123,138,000	$3,152,000 $204,410,000
Circulation	7,607,000	*22,000 10,467,000
Deposits	179,340,000	193,000 167,773,000
Due banks	79,347,000	135,000 81,325,000
U. S. deposits	2,016,286	*3,000 1,598,000
Res. agents	36,025,000	*1,880,000 44,276,000
Exchanges	13,431,000	*2,437,000 13,983,000
Due from b'ks	21,136,000	858,000 19,613,000
5% fund	384,750	3,500 534,750
Legal tender	4,663,000	*370,000 3,263,000
Specie	23,179,000	*379,000 21,323,000
Surplus	1,216,286	*230,000 3,437,857
N. Y. surplus	5,579,286	*2,410,000 20,077,857

*Increase.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE—Tuesday.

Total sales Sept. 7, 1909 717,691
From Jan. 1, 1909 140,283,141
Corresponding period last year 120,340,522

Closing. Bid.	Ask.	Sales.		First.	High.	Low.	Last.	Net Change.
15	15⅝	800	Allis-Chalmers	15	15	15	15	−¼
83	83⅛	11,200	*Amalgamated Cop	83	83½	83	83	−1
46¼	48	700	Am. Agricul. Chem	48½	48½	46¾	46¾	−2½
44¾	45½	1,000	Am. Beet Sugar	45	45½	45	45	−½
124⅞	125	2,300	Am. Can	124¾	125⅜	124¼	124¾	−½
83¼	83⅝	500	Am. Can pf	83¾	83⅝	83½	83¼	−½
67⅝	68	500	Am. Car & Foundry	67¾	67⅞	67⅝	67⅞	...
72½	73⅜	900	Am. Cotton Oil	74	74	72¼	72½	−2
9⅛	9½	2,350	Am. Hide & Leather	9¾	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝	−⅜
49¼	49½	2,300	Am. Hide & Leath. pf	49	49½	49	49½	−½
32	32½	1,110	Am. Ice Securities	32¾	32¾	32	32	−1⅛
16½	17⅝	200	*Am. Linseed	17⅝	17⅝	17⅝	17⅝	−⅝
58¾	59	1,290	Am. Locomotive	58½	59	58½	59	−⅜
114½	116	100	Am. Locomotive pf	115	115	115	115	...
53	54	250	Am. Malt pf	53½	53½	53½	53½	−½
98⅜	98½	8,700	Am. Smelt. & Ref	99	99¼	98⅜	98½	−1⅛
113½	114	200	Am. Smelt. & Ref. pf	113⅝	114	113⅝	114	−¼
91¼	91½	1,400	Am. Smelt. Sec. pf. B	91⅜	92	91⅜	91½	+⅛
58	59	200	Am. Steel Foundries	58⅞	58⅞	58⅞	58⅞	−⅛
129	130	500	Am. Sugar Refining	129½	130	129¼	129⅞	−1⅝
82	85	100	Am. Tel. & Cable	83½	83½	83½	83½	+3½
141	141¼	1,600	Am. Tel. & Tel	141½	141½	141	141	−⅞
101⅜	101½	900	Am. Tobacco pf	101½	102	101⅛	101½	...
38½	39¾	300	*Am. Woolen	39	39	39	39	−1
105½	106	100	*Am. Woolen pf	105½	105½	105½	105¾	−⅜
47½	47¾	1,400	*Anaconda Cop. Min	47¾	48¼	47⅝	47⅝	−⅝
118⅜	118⅝	35,650	Atch., Top. & S. F	118¾	119¼	118¼	118⅝	−1¼
104¼	104½	200	Atch., Top. & S. F. pf	104½	104½	104½	104½	−¼
134	135	100	Atlantic Coast Line	134½	134½	134½	134½	−½
116¼	116½	3,500	Baltimore & Ohio	117¼	117⅝	116¼	116¼	−2⅛
33¼	34¼	1,600	Bethlehem Steel	35	35	33⅝	34⅛	−1⅜
65	67½	500	Bethlehem Steel pf	66	68	66	68	−1
78½	78⅝	1,200	Brook. Rapid Transit	79¼	79¼	78½	78½	−½
17	17⅜	100	Brunswick City	17⅜	17⅜	17⅜	17⅜	−⅜
180	180¼	2,000	Canadian Pacific	181¼	181½	180	180	−2½
42⅜	43	6,150	Central Leather Co	43¾	43⅝	43	43	−1¼
108¼	109⅞	200	Cent. Leather Co. pf	109½	109½	109¼	109½	+¾
80⅞	81	8,400	Chesapeake & Ohio	81¼	81¾	80¾	81	−1¼
65	66¼	100	Chicago & Alton	64⅝	64⅞	64⅞	64⅝	−¾
11	11¼	2,550	Chi. Gt. West. cfs. 1st paid	10¾	11⅝	10¾	11¼	−⅛
15½	16	600	Chi. Gt. Western pf. B cfs. 1st paid	15⅝	16¼	15⅝	16¼	+½
155⅞	156	6,600	Chi., Mil. & St. Paul	157	157⅛	155⅞	155⅝	−2½
176	176½	300	Chi., Mil. & St. P. pf	176½	176½	176½	176½	−½
193¼	194	595	Chi. & Northwestern	193¾	194	193¾	193¾	−2½
221½	230	79	Chi. & Northwest. pf	222	222	222	222	...
73	73¼	100	Clev., C., C. & St. L	74¼	74¼	74¼	74¼	...
43½	43¾	3,700	Colorado Fuel & Iron	44⅞	44⅞	43⅝	43⅝	−1⅜
52	53	500	Colorado & Southern	52	52¼	52	52½	−1½
79½	80½	200	Col. & South. 2d pf	80¼	80¾	80	80	−½
73½	73½	500	Col. & Hock. C. & I	74	75	74	74¾	+¼
145	146	2,500	Consolidated Gas	146	146	145	145	−1¾
23¼	23½	1,200	Corn Products Ref	23½	23½	23⅝	23⅜	−⅛
88¼	80	400	Corn Prod. Ref. pf	88⅝	88⅞	88¼	88⅞	−⅛
190	191	300	Delaware & Hudson	191	191	190¼	190¼	−3¾
46⅛	47	775	Denver & Rio Grande	47¼	47¼	46¾	46¾	−1½
86	86½	308	Den. & Rio Grande pf	86½	86½	86¼	86¼	−¾
38¾	38½	400	*Distillers' Securities	38⅞	38⅞	38½	38½	−¾
15	16	100	Duluth, S. S. & A	16	16	16	16	+¾
35,100	Erie	34¾	36	34⅝	35	−⅛
1,500	Erie 1st pf	52	52¾	52	52½	−¼
600	Erie 2d pf	43	43½	42¾	43½	−¼
300	General Electric	165¾	166½	165⅜	166	−⅝
5,900	Great Northern pf	153	153	152¼	152½	−1½
2,300	*G. N. certs. ore prop	82	82	81¾	81¾	−2⅛
100	*Hocking Valley t. r	122	122	122	122	−¼
100	Homestake Mining	91	91	91	91	...
400	Illinois Central	152¼	152⅝	152¼	152⅝	−3
1,300	Interborough-Met.	14	14½	14	14¼	+⅛
2,300	Interborough-Met. pf	45¾	46½	45½	46½	...
200	Int. Harvester	88	88	88	88	−½
200	Int. Harvester pf	120¼	120¾	119½	119½	−1¼
850	Int. Paper	18	18½	18	18	−1
600	Int. Paper pf	68	68½	68	68¼	−¼
1,800	Int. Steam Pump	48¼	48¾	47½	48⅛	+⅛
800	Int. Steam Pump pf	88¾	88¾	88⅜	88⅜	−1¼
200	Iowa Central	30	30	30	30	−⅜
850	Kansas City Southern	48	48	47¼	47¼	−1
375	Kan. City South. pf	73⅜	73½	73⅜	73½	...
700	Louisville & Nash	151½	151½	151	151	−1½
200	Minn. & St. Louis	54	54	54	54	−½
366	Minn., St. P. & S.S.M.	144⅞	144⅞	144	144⅜	−⅛
5,110	Mo., Kansas & Texas	42¼	42¼	41¾	41⅝	−1½
100	Mo., Kan. & Tex. pf	75¾	75¾	75⅝	75⅝	...
200	Missouri Pacific	72⅝	72⅝	72⅜	72⅝	−⅝
1,100	Nat. Enam. & Stamp	19⅝	19⅝	19	19¼	−⅛
1,400	Nat. Lead Co	91	91¼	90⅜	90⅜	−1½
100	N. Rys. of Mex. 1st pf	54¼	54¼	54¼	54¼	−⅛
1,800	N. Rys. of Mex. 2d pf	22¾	22⅞	22⅝	22⅝	−⅛
300	N. Y. Air Brake	89¾	89¾	88	88	−1
21,000	N. Y. Central	136	137	135½	135⅝	−3¼
400	N. Y. Chi. & St. L	57	57	57	57	...
500	N. Y. Ont. & West	47⅝	48	47⅜	48	−½
900	Norfolk & Western	93½	93¾	93⅜	93⅜	−⅜
200	Norfolk & West. pf	92	92	91½	91½	+1⅛
100	North American	83¼	83¼	83¼	83¼	−¼
8,000	Northern Pacific	155	155⅜	154½	154½	−2
200	Pacific Mail	32¼	32½	32¼	32½	−¾
23,120	Pennsylvania R. R	141	141⅝	140⅝	140⅝	−1½
1,400	People's Gas, Chi	115¾	115⅞	115⅜	115⅝	−⅝
200	P., C., C. & St. Louis	92	92	91½	91½	+⅜
5,600	Pittsburg Coal	21½	22⅞	21½	21⅝	−⅜
600	Pittsburg Coal pf	62	62	61	61¾	−½
730	Pressed Steel Car	50¾	50¾	50½	50½	−¾
900	Pressed Steel Car pf	107	108	107	108	+2
100	Pullman Company	194½	194½	194½	194¼	−½
200	*R'way Steel Spring	50¾	50¾	49¾	49¾	−⅛
106,500	Reading	159¾	160⅞	159	159⅝	−1¾
100	Reading 2d pf	99	99	99	99	−1
5,020	Rep. Iron & Steel	38⅞	39¼	38¼	38½	−⅜
400	Rep. Iron & Steel pf	106¼	106¾	105¼	105¼	−1½
11,250	Rock Island Co	39¾	39¾	38⅞	38⅞	−1⅞
1,800	Rock Island Co. pf	76¾	76¾	75½	75½	−2½
700	St. L. & S. F. 1st pf	70¾	70¾	70	70	−1
800	St. L. & S. F. 2d pf	58½	58½	58	58	−1
300	St. Louis Southwest'n	26¾	26¾	26½	26½	−½
500	St. L. Southwest'n pf	66⅝	66¾	65⅝	65⅞	−¾
465	Sloss-Shef. S. & Iron	85⅞	85⅞	85	85	−1½
200	Sloss-Shef. S. & I. pf	119¾	119¾	119¾	119¾	...
53,400	Southern Pacific	126½	127⅜	125½	126¼	−⅜
3,000	Southern R'way ext	31	31	30⅝	30¼	−1
100	South. R'way pf., ext	71¼	71¼	71¼	71¼	...
2,300	Texas & Pacific	37⅝	37¾	37¼	37¼	−1¼
200	Third Avenue	22	22	21¾	22	−¾
200	Tol., St. L. & West	51½	51½	51½	51½	−¾
600	Tol., St. L. & W. pf	71	71	70¾	70½	−¾
100	Twin City R. Transit	100	100	100	100	−1
100	Union Bag & Paper	13⅞	13⅞	13¾	13⅞	−⅛
116,600	Union Pacific	197¼	198⅞	196⅜	197	−5⅜
2,300	Union Pacific pf	105¾	105⅞	105½	105½	−1½
100	*United D. G. pf. cfs.	100½	109½	109½	109½	+1½
500	United Rys. Inv. pf	61½	62	61⅛	62	−1
200	U. S. Cast Iron Pipe	32	32	32	32	−1⅝
3,400	U. S. Rubber	52½	52⅝	52	52	−1¼
500	U. S. Rubber 1st pf	119¾	119¾	119½	119½	−1
200	U. S. Rubber 2d pf	87⅞	87⅞	87½	87½	−⅛
141,098	U. S. Steel	78⅝	79½	78⅝	78⅞	−1½
2,700	U. S. Steel pf	126¼	126½	126	126	−1½
800	Utah Copper	40¾	40¾	40¾	40¾	−1⅛
200	Va.-Caro. Chemical	47¼	47¼	47¼	47¼	−1⅛
160	Va.-Caro. Chem. pf	121¾	121¾	121¾	121¾	−¼
600	Va. Iron, Coal & C	67¾	69	67¾	68½	+1½
100	Vulcan Detinning	17	17	17	17	+1½
100	Wabash	20¼	20½	20½	20¼	−½
3,200	Wabash pf	52½	52⅝	51⅝	52	−1½
300	Western Maryland	5	5	4½	4½	−1
900	Western Union Tel	75½	75⅞	75½	75½	+¼
200	Westinghouse E. M	86	86¼	85	85	−1
200	Wisconsin Central	55	55	54	54	−⅛

BID AND ASKED QUOTATIONS.

Closing quotations for Government bonds and stocks in which there were no transactions:

	Bid.	Asked.		Bid.	Asked.
2s, r., 1930	100¾	101½	Granby Con.	95	105
2s, c., 1930	100¾	101½	G. B. & W.	80	...
3s, r., 1918	101½	102½	Hav. E. R.	..	76½
3s, c., 1918	101½	102½	Hav. E. R. pf.	..	90
4s, r., 1925	110	..	Hock. pf.	92	93
4s, c., 1925	110¾	..	Ill. C. I.	98	..
Pan. 2s, r., 1936	100¼	101½	Inger.-Rand.	55	..
Pan. 2s, r., 1938	100½	101½	Inger.-Rand. pf.	90	..
D. C. 3-65s	107	..	Int. Power.	35	..
Adams Exp.	226	..	Iowa C. pf.	55	60
Alb. & S.	224½	..	Jol. & C.	108¾	..
Allis-C. pf.	51½	52½	K. & M. r.	57	60
Am. Ag. C. pf.	102	102½	Kan. C., Ft. S. & Mem. pf.	80¼	..
A. B. S. pf.	95	98½	K. & D. M.	8	10
A. C. & F. pf.	119	121	K. & D. M. pf.	40	45
Am. Coal	120	150	Ken. L., Chi., pf.	67	80
A. C. O. pf.	102	103	Lacl. Gas	104	..
Am. D. T.	10	30	Lacl. G. pf.	98	..
Am. Exp.	222	245	L. E. & W.	25	27
Am. L. Co. pf.	42½	44	L. E. & W. pf.	53	62
Am. Malt.	8½	9	Lake Shore.	300	400
Am. Snuff.	250	..	Long Island.	65	70
Am. Sn. pf.	99	102	Mackay Cos.	82¾	84
A. S. R. pf.	125	127	Mackay Cos. pf.	75	75¼
Ann Arbor.	15	30	Mah. C. R.	310	..
Ann A. pf.	..	..	Man. Beach.	3	7
Asso. M. 1st pf.	109	..	Man. Elev.	141	143½
Asso. M. 2d pf.	107½	..	Md. C. pf.	70	..
B. & O. pf.	93	95	Mer. Marine	6¾	7
Batopilas M.	4½	5	Mer. Marine pf.	20¾	22
B. Un. S.	149	151	Met. St. R.	20	24
B. R. & P.	95	99¾	Mich. Cent.	140	180
B. R. & P. pf.	121	130	M. S. T. pf.	..	90
B. & S. pf.	..	70	M. & St. L. pf.	..	88
But'k Co.	30¾	32½	M., St. P. & S. S. M.	..	..
Canada So.	68½	70	M., St. P. & S. S. M. pf'ed. lines.	91	91½
C. R. R. of N. J.	305	315	M., St. P. & S. S. M. pf.	157	165
C. & S. A. Tel.	114	117	N., C. & St. L.	130	135
C. & A. pf.	72	73	Nat. Biscuit.	106	108
C., B. & Q.	250	..	Nat. B. pf.	124½	126
C. & E. Ill. pf.	116	150	Nat. En. pf.	97	99½
Chi. Gt. W. pf. A cfs.	34¼	35¼	Nat. L. pf.	111	112
Chi. Gt. W. deb. cfs.	62	64	N. Cent. C.	40	60
C., I. & L. pf.	40	80	N. Y., C. & St. L. 1st pf.	100	105
Chi., St. P., M. & Om.	160	165	N. Y., O. & W. pf.	88	88
Chi., St. P., M. & Om. pf.	170	180	N. Y. D. Co.	40	45
Chi. Un. T. cfs. sta.	5½	6	N. Y. D. Co. pf.	82	85½
Chi. Un. T. pf. cfs. st.	13	15	N. Y., N. H. & H.	168½	172
C., C., C. & St. L. pf.	105	110	N. Y. & N. J. Tel.	137	143
Cleve. & P.	173¼	..	N. O. T. & L.	29	31
Col. F. & I. pf.	95	110	Ont. Minin.	3	3½
Col. So. 1st pf.	81	81½	Pac. Coast.	99	104
Crex Carpet.	55	60	Pac. C. 1st pf.	100	106
D., L. & W.	550	570	Pac. C. 2d pf.	100	106
D. M. & Ft. D.	10	17	Peo. & E.	24	28
D. & M. pf.	..	96	Phelps-D'ge.	175	..
Det. U. R.	68	75	P., C., C. & St. L. pf.	..	115
D., S. S. & A. pf.	28	32	P., Ft. W. & C. pf.	..	65
Ev. & T. H.	56	65	Ev. & T. H. pf.	85	95
Ev. & T. H. pf.	80	92	F. M. & S.	81	89½
F. M. & S. pf.	90	92	F. M. & S. pf.	92	95
Fed. S. pf.	90	95	Gen. C. Co.	93	100
Gen. C. Co. pf.	100	106	Gen. C. Co. pf.	100	106

PHILADELPHIA PRICES.

Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—Although the local stock market was under the influence of the extreme weakness in Wall Street, there was a bright spot on the board, and it was United Gas Improvement, which was the strong bulwark of active issues, confined to trading exclusively on the local Exchange. It opened at 90¾, compared with 90¾ on Friday, and by afternoon it showed a net gain of a point, and sold in goodly lots at 91⅝.

Sales.		High.	Low.	Last.
85	Am. Cement	40	39¾	39¾
10	Am. Smelting	99½	99⅝	99⅝
25	Bell Telephone	121	121	121
955	Cambria Steel	44⅝	43½	44⅜
100	Central Leather	43⅝	43⅜	43⅜
17	Elec. Co. of America	12¼	12¼	12¼
257	Electric Storage	63	62⅝	62⅝
100	Erie	35⅛	35⅛	35⅛
100	Gen. Asphalt	23	23	23
70	Gen. Asphalt pf	70	69¼	69¾
25	Ins. Co. of N. A	22½	22½	22½
100	Keystone Telephone	12¾	12¾	12¾
75	Lake Superior Corp	27½	27½	27½
3	Lehigh Navigation	115	115	115
35	Lehigh Nav. tr. cfs.	117½	117½	117½
5,203	Lehigh Valley	92½

TOPICS IN WALL STREET.

Better Behavior in Stocks.

At the close of business in Wall Street yesterday it was a matter of general comment that the stock market, upon the renewal of disturbing stories regarding Mr. Harriman's condition, had behaved very much better than upon the first appearance of such reports two weeks ago. Every one expected that, following the over-holiday news regarding his relapse, the stocks in which Mr. Harriman is most directly interested would break sharply, and there was more than a suspicion that securities in general would follow their declines pretty closely. This proved not to be the case. For the sympathetic decline witnessed two weeks ago when Harriman shares broke there were substituted only what under the circumstances may be termed moderate recessions and a very narrow and quiet market for all stocks outside of the pale of the Harriman influence. There was more or less talk of organized support, but this appeared to be without foundation, although there were many instances, of course, of individual attention to stocks. The course of the Steel shares was one of the most helpful factors in the day's trading.

***

Low Opening in Union Pacific.

Union Pacific at the close of the session showed a net loss of 5¾ points, but the severity of the decline in this stock was not indicated in the day's range of prices, for the reason that the initial sale of the day was made at a loss of 5½ points. Having closed at 202¾ on Friday, Union Pacific opened yesterday with sales of 6,800 shares from 197¼ to 198½. After this opening decline the price held fairly steady, even advancing to above 198. It was not until long after 2 o'clock that a lower price was made for Union Pacific than that quoted at the opening. The market by this simple expedient escaped much wider fluctuation in the stock as recorded in the high and low prices of the session. The range of the stock was only 2½ points from the high of 198⅞ to the low of 196⅜, while the net loss compared with Friday's close was 5¾ points. The action of the stock after the opening break of more than 5 points indicated, apparently, that there was no large number of stop loss orders in the market such as helped along the decline in Union Pacific a fortnight ago.

***

Payment on New England Bonds.

As a culmination of a long fight by the bondholders, considerable interest attached yesterday to the announcement that the Central New England had declared a payment of 4 per cent. as an installment of interest on its $7,250,000 of general mortgage 5 per cent. bonds for the year ended July 1. This is the first distribution on these bonds, and follows closely on the heels of a decision by the up-State Public Service Commission adverse to a plan for the funding of the New England's indebtedness which the New York, New Haven & Hartford had put forth. It was contended in the Public Service Commission decision that the New Haven's plan was preferential in its treatment of bondholders, favoring distinctly the New Haven, which holds $6,329,000 of the total of outstanding income bonds. It was naturally assumed yesterday that the position of the commission had something to do with the present declaration of a payment on the income bonds of the New England.

***

Distribution on Land Bonds.

The financial community heard yesterday, and quite authoritatively, that the Trustees of the Detroit, Mackinac & Marquette land grant 7 per cent. bonds will make a distribution of 1 per cent. to the holders of these bonds on Oct. 10. There has been no official action taken as yet with regard to this declaration, but a meeting of the Trustees of the bonds will soon be called, at which time it is expected the 1 per cent. distribution will be ordered. The last interest on these bonds was paid in April, 1908, and amounted to 1 per cent.

***

Profits for Arbitrageurs.

In the London market before our market opened, prices for one or two stocks, notably Union Pacific and Steel, were driven down below the prices at which they opened here, and the arbitrage rail was able to turn some nice profits in these stocks, on purchases made in London against sales made here after the market opened. Some Union Pacific was reported bought in London as low as 196½, while here the first sale was three-quarters of a point above that price. The decline in London was attributed largely to selling by traders on this side who misjudged the extent of the decline which followed the news regarding Mr. Harriman's health, and who followed Union Pacific further down in London than the price at which the first sales were made on this side. Their mistake helped the arbitrageurs to realize larger profits than usual on their trades between London and New York.

CONSOLIDATED EXCHANGE.

Tuesday.

Interest naturally focused upon the Harriman issues, on the Consolidated Exchange, which most of the time exhibited relative softness, compared with prices on the New York Stock Exchange. Southern Pacific's highest figure for the day was ¼ of a point under the top price of the other board. Union Pacific closed ¼ of a point below the final quotation on the other Exchange. The market was a broad one, a total business of 93,040 shares being distributed among sixty-three different issues.

Sales.		Open.	High.	Low.	Last.
1,890	Amal. Copper	83¼	83½	83	83⅜
110	Am. B. Sugar	45¼	45¼	45	45⅛
10	Am. Car & F.	67½	67½	67½	67½
20	Am. Cotton Oil	73	73⅛	73	73⅛
40	Am. Ice	32¾	32¾	32	32
20	Am. Linseed	18	18	18	18
180	Am. Locomotive	58½	59	58¼	58⅞
2,520	Am. Smelting	98⅞	99⅛	98⅜	98⅝
100	Am. Sugar	130	130	129½	129⅝
10	Am. Woolen	39¼	39¼	39¼	39¼
930	Anaconda	47⅝	48	47⅜	48
70	Balt. & Ohio	118¼	118⅜	118⅛	118⅛
10	Beth. Steel	34¾	34¾	34¾	34¾
270	Brook. R. T.	79	81	79	78⅝
60	Can. Pacific	181	181	180¾	180¾
370	Cent. Leather	43	43⅝	42⅞	43⅛
50	Ches. & Ohio	81¼	81½	80⅞	80⅞
50	C. Gt. W. 1st pf	11	11	11	11
340	C., M. & St. P.	156¾	157½	155⅞	156
540	Col. Fuel & I.	44⅜	44⅝	43⅝	43¾
20	Con. Gas	146¼	146¼	145⅝	146
20	Corn Products	23⅜	23⅝	23½	23½
40	Den. & R. G.	47½	47½	47¼	47⅜
20	Dist. Securit's	38⅜	38⅝	38⅜	38⅜
1,890	Erie	35	36	34⅝	35½
40	Erie 1st pf	52½	52½	52	52½
20	Gt. Northern pf	153	153	153	153
60	Gt. N. ore ctfs.	81⅞	81⅞	81⅞	81⅞
60	Int. N.	14⅜	14⅜	14⅛	14½
270	Inter.-Met.	46½	46½	46⅛	46⅛
20	Inter.-Met. pf.	18½	18½	18¼	18¼
20	Int. Paper	48¼	48¼	47⅞	47⅞
130	Int. Pump	30	30	30	30
300	Iowa Central	30	30	29¾	29¾
20	Kan. City So.	47¾	47¾	47¾	47¾
300	M., K. & T.	42½	42¾	41½	41½
20	Mo. Pacific	72½	72½	72½	72½
70	Nat. Lead	91	91¼	91	91
10	N. Mex. 2d pf.	22¾	22¾	22¾	22¾
1,080	N. Y. Central	136⅜	136⅜	135¾	135¾
50	N. Y., O. & W.	47⅞	48¼	47⅞	48⅛
190	Nor. Pacific	154⅞	155¼	154¾	155
240	Pennsylvania	141	141½	140¾	140¾
120	People's Gas	115⅝	115⅞	115½	115⅝
80	Pittsburg Con.	22⅞	22⅞	22⅝	22⅝
40	Pressed S. Car.	50⅝	50⅝	50⅛	50¼
40	Reading	159½	160⅜	159	159⅜
23,260	Rep. Steel	39½	39½	38½	38⅞
180	Rep. Steel pf.	93¾	93¾	93⅛	93⅜
390	Rock Island	30¾
10	St. L. & S. F. 2d pf	58¼	58¼	58¼	58¼
6,500	Southern Pac.	126¾	127¼	125¾	125⅞
130	Southern Ry.	30¾	30⅝	30⅜	30⅝
220	Texas Pacific	37⅞	37⅞	37⅜	37½
50	Third Avenue	21¾	22¼	21⅜	22¼
29,990	Union Pacific	198⅞	198⅞	196⅜	196⅜
220	U. S. Rubber	52¾	52⅝	52¼	52¼
18,510	U. S. Steel	79	79⅜	78⅝	78⅝
40	U. S. Steel pf.	126⅜	126⅜	126½	126⅝
30	Va.-Car. Chem.	47½	47½	47¼	47¼
10	Wabash	21	21	21	21
210	Wabash pf.	52¾	53	52½	52¾
80	West. Elec.	86	86	86	86
10	Wis. Central	55	55	55	55
93,040			MINING STOCKS.
800	Atlanta	.16	.16	.15½	.15½
450	Best & Belcher	.60	.61	.60	.61
200	Con. Cal. & V.	1.40	1.40	1.40	1.40
900	Comb. Frac.	.74	.78	.71	.78
1,000	Con. Imperial	.07½	.07½	.07½	.07½
1,400	Comstock	.26	.26	.26	.26
300	Elkton	.76	.76	.76	6.50
330	Goldfield Con.	6.62½	6.62½	6.50	6.50
900	Gold. Daisy	.16	.16	.15½	.15½
1,000	Jackpot	.08	.08	.08	.08
400	McNamara	.30	.30	.30	.30
300	Mexican	1.25	1.27	1.25	1.27
100	Ophir	1.30	1.30	1.30	1.30
200	Portland	.84	.84	.84	.84
50	Quicksilver	5.75	5.75	5.75	5.75
1,000	Red Hill	.07½	.07½	.07½	.07½
100	Tonopah Ext.	.63	.63	.63	.63
1,000	Triangle	.01½	.01½	.01½	.01½
10,430			WHEAT.
150,000	Dec. option	94½	94½	94	94⅛

THE TREASURY BALANCES.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The condition of the Treasury at the beginning of business to-day was as follows:

TRUST FUNDS.

Gold coin	$880,822,869
Silver dollars	480,816,000
Silver dollars of 1890	4,116,000
Silver certificates outstanding	486,816,000

GENERAL FUND.

Standard silver dollars in general fund	$4,703,123
Current liabilities	98,510,409
Working balance in Treasury offices	34,246,243
In banks to credit of Treasurer of the United States	89,022,595
Subsidiary silver coin	24,686,395
Minor coin	1,873,511
Total balance in general fund	$100,877,000

THE FOREIGN MARKETS.

Condition of Harriman Affects Trading in London, Paris, and Berlin.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—Money was abundant on the market to-day and discounts were quiet.

Trading on the Stock Exchange generally was featureless, business being practically restricted to the mining carryover.

The American section, however, opened unsettled on reports of the health of E. H. Harriman. Prices fell badly, but there was a temporary recovery after midday. Union Pacific fell 4 points, Southern Pacific 3¼, and United States Steel, Illinois Central and New York Central from 2 to 2¾ points. At noon prices were from ½ to 4 points lower than Friday's New York closing. The receipt of the New York opening made the situation worse, but the close was firmer, well above the worst for the day. The dealings of the general public were small. Little uneasiness is felt over the outcome of the settlement.

Bar silver steady, 23¾d per ounce.

Money, ½@¾ per cent.

The rate of discount in the open market for short bills is 1⅜ per cent.; for three months' bills, 1½ per cent.

PARIS, Sept. 7.—Trading on the Bourse to-day was heavier on the announcement that E. H. Harriman had suffered a relapse. The close was indecisive.

Three per cent. rentes, 98f 45c for the account.

Exchange on London, 25f 15½c for checks.

BERLIN, Sept. 7.—American securities suffered on the Boerse to-day on further reports of the illness of E. H. Harriman. Domestic irons were down 1 point.

LONDON CLOSING QUOTATIONS.

	London.	N. Y. Equiv.	N. Y. Close.	Net Ch'ge.
Consols, money	83⅞	..	..	-5-16
Consols, account	83 13-16	..	..	-5-16
Anaconda	9⅝	47⅝	48¼	+ ⅛
Atchison	122	118¾	120¾	+ 1⅞
Canadian Pac.	189	184	182½ ex	- 2
St. Paul	160	155¾	158	+ 2¼
Erie	35¾	34⅞	35¾	+ 1
Erie 1st pf.	53½	52	53¼	+ 1¼
Illinois Central	157	152⅝	155¾	+ 3
Louis. & Nash.	155	150¾	152¼	+ 1½
N. Y. Central	140	136	138⅞	+ 2⅞
Pennsylvania	72½	141¼	141¾	+ ⅝
Reading	82½	160¼	161⅝	+ ⅞
Union Pacific	203¾	198½	202¾	+ 4⅜
U. S. Steel	81	78⅜	80⅛	+ 1⅜
U. S. Steel pf.	130¼	126¾	127¼	+ ½

FOREIGN PUBLIC SECURITIES.

	Bid.	Asked.
German consol 3½s	95	96
German consol 3s	85	86
Prussian Government 4s	102½	103½
Bavarian Government 4s	102	103
Hessian Government 3½s	94	95
Saxony Government 3s	85¾	86¾
Hamburg Government 3s	84½	85½
City of Berlin 4s	101½	102½
City of Cologne 4s	101	102
City of Augsburg 4s	100	101
City of Munich 4s	101	102
City of Frankfurt-a-M. 3½s	95	96
City of Vienna 4s	97½	98½
Mexican Government gold 5s	101¼	102¼
Russian Government gold 4s	90½	91½
French Government rente 3s	97½	98½
British consol 2½s	83½	84½

American Mining Stocks in London.

	£.	s.	d.		£.	s.	d.
Camp Bird	1	9	6	Esperanza	3	2	6
Tomboy	1	1	3	Dolores	1	5	0
El Oro	1	5	6	Stratton's Ind.	0	3	3

BOSTON STOCK MARKET.

Special to The New York Times.

BOSTON, Sept. 7.—A few of the local copper shares were higher during the first hour this morning, but the list as a whole was weak, in sympathy with the break in prices in New York. The most important gains were made in inactive issues, such as Calumet and Hecla, and Calumet and Arizona, both of these stocks showing gains of 2 points. The market closed steady at a slight recovery from the low level of the day.

BONDS.

Sales.		High.	Low.	Last.
$7,000	Am. Tel. & Tel. 4s	93¾	93¾	93¾
8,000	Am. Tel. & Tel. cv. 4s	104½	104¾	104½
1,000	Ill. Steel 5s, 1913	100½	100½	100½
1,000	N. E. Cotton Yarn 5s	104	104	104
3,000	United Fruit 4½s	96¼	96⅛	96⅛

RAILROADS.

51	Boston Elevated	129¼	129	129¼
8	Boston & Albany	230½	230½	230½
24	Boston & Maine	118	118	118
35	C. J. R. & S. Y. pf.	130	130	130
3	Fitchburg pf.	16½	16½	16½
125	Mass. Electric	78	78	78
10	Mass. Electric pf.	171	170½	171
250	N. Y., N. H. & H.	171	170½	170⅝
385	Union Pacific	198⅝	198⅜	198⅜
2	Vermont & Mass.	172	172	172
10	West End	97¾	97¾	97¾
10	West End pf.	106½	106½	106½

TELEPHONES.

735	American	141½	141	141
100	Cumberland	145	145	145
7	New England	134	134	134

MISCELLANEOUS.

510	Am. Agri. Chem.	48¾	48¼	48¾
60	Am. Agri. Chem. pf.	103¼	103	103¼
50	At., Gulf & W. I.	10⅜	10⅜	10⅜
10	At., Gulf & W. I. pf.	20½	20¾	20½
10	At., Pneu. Service	8¾	8½	8⅝
162	Am. Pneu. Service pf.	20	19½	19½
82	Am. Sugar Ref.	130¼	129½	129½
141	Am. Sugar Ref. pf.	127	126	127
88	Am. Woolen pf.	106¾	105½	105½
507	Am. Woolen pf. 50% paid	105¼	105¼	105¼
50	East Boston Land	10	10	10
50	Eastern S. S.	75	75	75
25	Edison	256	255½	256
130	General Electric	166½	166	166¼
86	Mass. Gas	65¾	65	65¾
28	Mass. Gas pf.	92	91½	91½
2	Mergenthaler	213	213	213
6	Pullman	193	193	193
36	Seattle Electric pf.	107	107	107
132	Swift & Co.	111½	110¾	111¼
30	Torrington pf.	26½	26½	26½
20	United Fruit	149¾	149¾	149¾
180	United Shoe	64¾	64½	64⅝
36	United Shoe pf.	30¾	30½	30¾
8,551	U. S. Steel	79½	78¾	79

MINING.

10	Adventure	83½	82⅝	83
3,745	Amalgamated	54	53	53¾
1,125	Allouez	4⅞	4½	4½
15	Arcadian	44½	43½	43½
396	Arizona Com'l	12¼	11	11⅝
2,165	Atlantic	14¾	14½	14¾
115	Boston Con.	21¾	20¾	21⅜
212	Boston Corbin	25⅝	25¼	25¼
220	Butte Coalition	105¾	105½	105¾
290	Calumet & Arizona	682	680	680
10	Calumet & Hecla	44½	42½	43½
2,680	Centennial	82½	81½	81½
200	Copper Range	9	9	9
3	Daly-West	11⅜	11⅜	11⅜
5	East Butte	16¼	16¼	16¼
465	Franklin	9⅝	9½	9⅝
515	Giroux	101	101	101
1	Granby	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
675	Greene-Cananea	9⅝	9⅝	9⅝
50	Hancock	7	7	7
425	Helvetia	29¼	26½	26⅝
805	Isle Royale	8½	8¼	8¼
90	Kerr Lake	3½	3½	3½
350	Keewenaw	35½	34½	34½
720	Lake	15½	15	15⅜
25	La Salle	9	9	9
220	Mass.	16¾	16½	16½
210	Miami	10½	10	10½
290	Michigan	64	63	64
60	Mohawk	24¾	24¾	24¾
290	Nevada	3½	3½	3½
10	Newhouse	11	10½	10½
115	Nipissing	61½	60¾	60¾
1,325	North Butte	9⅜	8⅞	9
480	North Lake	57	56¾	56¾
50	Old Dominion	148	146	146
23	Osceola	33¾	33	33¾
75	Parrot	91	90	90
8	Quincy	2¼	2¼	2¼
100	Santa Fe	16¼	16¼	16¼
115	Shannon	60½	58½	58½
170	Superior	16	15¾	16
20	Superior & Boston	16¼	16¼	16¼
367	Superior & Pittsburg	13	13	12¾
320	Trinity	33¼	33	33
300	U. S. Oil	57⅛	56¾	56¾
2,015	U. S. Smelting	52	51⅞	52
548	U. S. Smelting pf.	41½	41½	41½
200	Utah Apex	46	45½	45¾
200	Utah Con.	50¼	49¾	49¾
35	Utah Copper	33⅞	33⅝	33⅝
50	*Victoria	6	6	6
115	†Winona	155	155	155
5	Wolverine	2½	2½	2½
75	Wyandotte

*Assessment paid. †Ex rights.

APPEAL EXCHANGE DECISION.

Little Board Member Wants Appellate Division to Rule on Test Case.

The suit brought by Marcus Heim of the Consolidated Stock Exchange to restrain the New York Stock Exchange from enforcing its rule prohibiting members from doing business with the members of the "Little Board" will be carried to the Appellate Division, according to Attorney Spellman of the firm of Delmas, Towne & Spellman, counsel for Heim.

Justice Crane, in the Supreme Court, in Brooklyn, Saturday sustained the action of the Stock Exchange as a measure of defense against a business rival, and not an action in restraint of trade. In telling of his intention to take an appeal to the highest State court Attorney Spellman said that the question was too intricate and important to rest on the decision of one Judge, no matter how able. He said he hoped for an argument before the five Justices of the Appellate Division in October.

RAILROAD EARNINGS.

	1909.	1908.	Increase.
BUFFALO, ROCHESTER & PITTSBURG—
4th week Aug.	$272,102	$205,790	$66,372
Month August	832,887	637,940	194,938
July 1-Aug. 31	1,650,398	1,310,579	345,818
CANADIAN NORTHERN—
4th week Aug.	253,600	242,900	10,700
Month August	707,100	747,400	*40,300
July 1-Aug. 31	1,650,600	1,475,900	174,700
CHICAGO & ALTON—
4th week Aug.	331,804	341,273	*9,469
Month August	1,219,513	1,150,976	68,537
July 1-Aug. 31	2,309,201	2,208,012	101,189
DENVER, NORTHWESTERN & PACIFIC—
4th week Aug.	31,250	21,323	10,027
Month August	122,810	86,791	36,019
DETROIT & MACKINAC—
4th week Aug.	32,463	29,468	2,996
Month August	104,929	98,901	6,028
July 1-Aug. 31	279,519	271,681	7,838
DULUTH, SOUTH SHORE & ATLANTIC—
4th week Aug.	90,002	73,345	16,657
Month August	308,376	234,773	73,603
July 1-Aug. 31	605,940	465,705	140,235
GRAND TRUNK SYSTEM—
4th week Aug.	1,321,529	1,112,026	29,503
Month August	3,879,409	3,483,778	395,631
July 1-Aug. 31	7,370,593	6,803,892	566,701
IOWA CENTRAL—
4th week Aug.	79,744	91,883	*12,139
Month August	254,834	265,676	*10,842
July 1-Aug. 31	507,373	497,389	10,184
KANSAS CITY, MEXICO & ORIENT—
Month August	151,000	88,000	63,000
LONDON UNDERGROUND—
2d week Aug.	£26,122	£26,079	£43
Jan. 1-Aug.	921,458	873,309	48,149
LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE—
4th week Aug.	$1,277,505	$1,201,536	$75,969
Month August	3,982,667	3,699,746	282,921
July 1-Aug. 31	7,848,647	7,380,098	468,549
MINNEAPOLIS & ST. LOUIS—
4th week Aug.	135,656	122,363	13,293
Month August	364,753	340,783	23,970
July 1-Aug. 31	731,513	653,797	77,716
MINNEAPOLIS, ST. PAUL & SAULT STE. MARIE—
4th week Aug.	553,066	559,474	*6,408
Month August	1,785,080	1,636,141	148,889
July 1-Aug. 31	3,496,980	3,237,900	259,080
MINERAL RANGE—
4th week Aug.	22,349	22,093	256
Month August	74,015	70,437	3,578
July 1-Aug. 31	147,272	141,636	5,636
MOBILE & OHIO—
4th week Aug.	302,545	250,560	51,985
Month August	839,566	739,117	100,449
July 1-Aug. 31	1,603,715	1,466,283	137,432
SOUTHERN RAILWAY—
4th week Aug.	1,458,531	1,314,008	144,523
Month August	4,474,395	4,031,053	443,342
July 1-Aug. 31	8,834,892	8,117,115	717,777
TEXAS & PACIFIC—
4th week Aug.	406,142	368,954	37,188
Month August	1,132,480	1,071,902	60,578
July 1-Aug. 31	8,746,643	8,035,487	711,156
TOLEDO, PEORIA & WESTERN—
4th week Aug.	37,465	38,434	*968
Month August	103,864	102,091	1,773
July 1-Aug. 31	187,029	193,456	*6,427

*Decrease.

ALABAMA GREAT SOUTHERN for July—

	1909.	1908.	1907.
Mileage	309	309	309
Gross	279,874	293,623	361,987
Exp. and taxes	220,081	225,038	295,088
Net	59,793	68,585	66,899

GEORGIA SOUTHERN & FLORIDA for July—

Gross	169,501	139,961	185,915
Exp. and taxes	135,938	114,810	153,459
Net	33,566	25,151	32,456

DENVER & RIO GRANDE for July—

Gross	1,990,516	1,684,283	2,027,337
Exp. and taxes	1,286,510	1,083,668	1,285,937
Net	704,006	601,160	741,400
Other income	82,558	94,074	53,349
Total income	786,574	696,134	794,749
Charges	404,474	315,266	312,928
Balance	382,100	380,868	481,821
Renewal fund	10,000	10,000	10,000
Surplus	372,100	370,868	471,821

INTERBOROUGH RAPID TRANSIT COMPANY for the quarter ended June 30—Manhattan (Elevated) Railway Division:

	1909.	1908.	Increase.
Earn. from op.	3,636,209	3,478,691	157,518
Oper. expenses	1,527,023	1,634,770	*107,747
Net earnings	2,109,186	1,843,920	265,265
Other income	90,169	135,053	*44,884
Gross income	2,199,355	1,978,974	220,381
Deduct—Taxes on:
Prop. used in op.	36,000	30,000	6,000
Ear. and cap. st.	50,763	49,637	1,126
Other than above	350,000	320,000	30,000
Rentals	1,458,180	1,504,163	*45,983
Net income	304,411	75,172	229,238
Subway Division:
Earn. from op.	3,180,639	2,769,552	411,087
Op. exp.	1,120,292	1,161,331	*32,039
Net earnings	2,051,347	1,608,221	443,126
Other income	253,041	170,254	82,786
Gross income	2,304,388	1,778,475	525,913
Deduct—
Int. on fd. debt	501,260	425,000	76,260
Taxes on prop. used in op.	18,000	15,000	3,000
Taxes on op.	‡546,854	‡521,820	25,033
Rentals
Amort. of debt	3,036	†7,984	*4,948
disc. and exp.
Net income	1,235,737	809,169	426,567
Total Interborough System:
Gross	6,816,848	6,248,243	568,605
Expenses	2,656,315	2,796,102	*139,787
Net	3,452,210	3,452,141	708,392
Other income	4,503,743	3,757,449	37,902
Total income			746,294
Deductions:
Taxes on prop. used in op.	54,000	45,000	9,000
Taxes on com. and cap. stk.	50,763	49,637	1,126
Taxes on other than above	350,000	320,000	30,000
Int. on fd. debt	501,260	425,000	*20,949
Rentals	‡2,004,534	2,025,483	*4,952
Disc. and exp.	3,036	†7,988	90,487
Total deduc.	2,963,595	2,873,108	655,807
Surplus	1,540,148	884,341	655,807

*Decrease. †Nov. 1, 1907, to June 30, 1908. ‡Rental due City of New York measured by interest and sinking fund on city bonds issued for construction of rapid transit railroad.

LOUISIANA & ARKANSAS for July—

Mileage	225	225	.....
Gross	106,091	98,382	7,709
Exp. and taxes	87,880	72,806	*4,917
Net	38,202	25,576	12,626
Other income	7,704	7,255	440
Total income	45,906	32,831	13,075
Charges	21,698	19,701	1,997
Surplus	24,208	13,130	11,078

*Decrease.

MISSOURI PACIFIC for July—

	1909.	1908.	1907.
Gross	4,008,190	3,621,274	4,112,562
Expenses	2,986,179	2,441,173	3,001,643
Net	1,022,020	1,180,101	1,110,919

CHICAGO & ALTON for July—

	1909.	1908.	Increase.
Mileage	998	998	.....
Oper. revenue	1,089,688	1,057,036	32,652
Oper. expenses	689,093	541,045	157,047
Net oper. rev.	391,594	515,990	*124,395
Taxes	32,000	30,000	2,000
Op. inc. (taxes deducted)	359,594	485,990	*126,395
Misc. chgs. and cred. to inc.	35,689	27,533	8,135
Bal. avail. for interest	323,925	458,456	*134,531

TOLEDO, ST. LOUIS & WESTERN for July—

Mileage	450	450	10,387
Oper. revenue	304,292	293,814	4,068
Oper. expenses	192,879	188,311	6,319
Net oper. rev.	111,322	105,502	500
Taxes	12,000	11,500
Oper. inc. (taxes deducted)	99,322	93,502	5,819
Misc. chgs. and cred. to inc.	14,481	16,678	*2,196
Bal. avail. for interest	84,841	76,824	8,016

*Decrease.

Chartered 1866.

Brooklyn Trust Company

Capital and Undivided Profits over $3,000,000

New York Office, Cor. Wall St. & Broadway

Brooklyn, 177 Montague Street and Bedford Ave. & Fulton St.

J. K. RICE, JR. & CO.

Miscellaneous Securities

We Buy and Sell

Adams Express
Alliance Realty
Amer. Brake Shoe Securities
American Chicle
American Coal Products
Amer. District Tel. of N. J.
Amer. District Tel. of N. Y.
American Express
Amer. Gas & Electric Com. and Pfd.
Amer. Lithographic Com. and Pfd.
American Meter
Amer. Soda Fount. 1st Pfd.
American Stogie Com. and Pfd.
Am. Light & Traction Com. and Pfd.
Ann Arbor R. R. Pfd.
Babcock & Wilcox
Bliss (E. W.) Com. and Pfd.
Borden's Milk Com. and Pfd.
Brooklyn Union "El" Com. and Pfd.
Buffalo & Susqueh. Com. and Pfd.
Bush Terminal
Butte Elec. and Power
Casein Co. of America Pfd.
Central Colo. Power Com. and Pfd.
Central Railway Syndicate
Central & So. Amer. Telegraph
Central Trust Co. Stock
Cincinnati Northern Railroad
Conn. Ry. & Ltg. Com. and Pfd.
Crippie Creek Cent. Com. and Pfd.
Del., Lack. & Western Coal
Denver & Northwestern
Du Pont Powder Securities
Duparquet, Huot & Monsuse
Eastern Penna. Rys. Com. and Pfd.
Electric Properties Pfd. and Com.
Empire Steel & Iron Com. and Pfd.
Farmers' Loan & Trust Stock
Federal Sugar Com.
General Motors Com. and Pfd.
Hudson River Water Power 1st 5s
Hall Signal Com.
Hanover National Bank
Hartford Carpet Com. and Pfd.
Hudson Companies Pfd.
Hudson & Manhattan Com.
Hudson Navigation Securities
Ingersoll-Rand Securities
Internatl. Nickel Securities
Internatl. Silver Securities
Internatl. Time Recdg. Com. & Pfd.
Kas. City, Mexico & Orient

CHILDREN TRAINING FOR HUDSON PAGEANT

Nearly 1,000,000 from This City Expected to Take Part in Two Days' Festivities.

FOLK DANCES IN THE PARKS

Also Costumes Representing City's Early History—Memorial Service in the Schools on Sept. 29.

It is estimated that approximately 1,000,000 children, or practically every child in the city of kindergarten age and over, will take some part in the children's festivals of the Hudson-Fulton celebration on Saturday, Oct. 2, which is to be known as Children's Day.

As a matter of fact, two days will be devoted to festivities by the children, but the juvenile celebration of Wednesday, Sept. 29, will be distinctly borough, while that three days later will be participated in by children of the entire city, when nearly 500,000 children will appear in a grand parade.

Aside from the parade, children's festivals will be held the same day in fifty centres in the city. The estimate of children who will take some part, either in these festivities or in the parade, is compiled from this census of children in the city:

In public schools	750,000
In church schools	110,000
In corporate schools	20,000
In private schools, &c	20,000
Total	900,000

The Children's Festival Committee of the Hudson-Fulton Commission has had H. W. Ogden, the poster artist, at work for weeks in arranging for the children's parade. Mr. Ogden has now submitted his plan of this feature to the Children's Committee, the details for it covering a manuscript roll nearly fifteen feet in length. Every detail of the parade has been worked out neatly with pen and ink, and accompanying it is a descriptive pamphlet of the features to be introduced and directions for carrying the plans into effect.

The committee has already closed a contract for the purchase of 400,000 hats and flags for the use of the children in the parade. Preparations for the children's celebrations in the various centres have been made with just as much care. Louis Chalif, said to be one of the highest authorities in the United States on folk-dances, has been engaged by the committee to devote his time to the instruction of the children in the dances of all nations.

His assistants are Miss Marie Hofer and Miller Jordan, "Silver Fox," who spent five years among the Indians. He was engaged especially to teach Indian dances to the children. The services of each of these teachers are made available to all the groups of children who are to engage in the festival dances in the various sections of the city.

While the headquarters of the Children's Festival Committee are established in the St. James Building, 1,133 Broadway, with an assistant director and a staff of assistants at 180 Montague Street, Brooklyn, from which offices preparations are being directed, an efficient working corps is being organized to spread interest in every school district of the city.

The committee is anxious to impress upon parents, teachers, and others the importance of their co-operation in a feature not only of great interest to the public, but one which will stamp upon the minds of the rising generation the significance of the celebration as an instructive object lesson in the early history of the city, which will begin with the memorial services on Wednesday, Sept. 29, in all the public and private schools.

Through the courtesy of the park authorities, the smaller as well as the larger public grounds will be thrown open, within certain restrictions. The city has been divided into pageant districts. Many of these districts are rich in historical and legendary lore connected with the early Indian, Dutch, English, and Colonial periods of New York. The object is to make the pageant in each district as far as possible representative from a historical point of view.

At the Brooklyn headquarters may already be seen models of a trapper's home, an Indian tepee, Manhattan Village, Peter Stuyvesant's Bouwerie farm, and the water gate at the foot of Wall Street in 1674. There are also samples of banners, costumes of the periods of Hudson and Fulton, and costumes of different nations. Painters and dressmakers are busy turning fabrics into complete designs and patterns, which the children may copy for their use in the parades and carnival.

The committee has been greatly encouraged by the interest manifested by the children themselves. An instance comes from Staten Island, where a dozen boys in the New Dorp centre have formed a camp and erected four tepees to make bows and arrows, hoop games, and lacrosse hats. Another camp is to be formed next week in the Westerleigh centre. The West Brighton children have completed a programme and will probably give their festival at the Actors' Home. At the West Brighton headquarters models have been constructed showing an Indian village, trappers' huts, a Dutch village, a model of the old Billop house, and models of the Half Moon and the Clermont. A representative of the committee visits all the Staten Island pageant sections or centres and instructs the boys in the building of their huts, tepees, and the making of their play things.

A Dutch group at the Battery is meeting every week rehearsing Dutch dances and assisting in making their costumes for the pageant. Another group in that vicinity is rehearsing a Colonial dance. Clinton Hall has a group of fifty girls training for a costume festival. In a relatively small section, above Seventy-second Street, west of Central Park, one of the committee workers reports 450 to 500 children preparing to take part in pageant events and between 2,500 and 3,000 in the parade.

FREE RIDES FOR UNIFORMS?

Washington Makes the Suggestion to Shonts as a Hudson Fete Gift.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—To Theodore P. Shonts, the President of the Interborough Railway system of New York, has been left the decision whether free transportation on the lines of that system shall be afforded to all the visitors at New York coming in uniform to attend the Hudson-Fulton Celebration beginning the latter part of this month.

This suggestion has been made to Mr. Shonts by Beekman Winthrop, the Acting Secretary of the Navy, who believes it would be a very handsome thing to do, if it can be done in accordance with law, about which there appears to be some question.

Mr. Winthrop believes it would be highly appreciated by the soldiers and sailors of the American army and navy and of the home and foreign fleets.

No Alimony for Actor Richards's Wife.

Justice Guy of the Supreme Court yesterday denied the application by Mrs. Florence Earl Richards, known on the stage as Florence Earl, for alimony and counsel fee, pending the determination of her suit for a divorce from George Richards, an actor. Mrs. Richards brought her suit in June, 1908. Richards answered by a counter-suit in Massachusetts, where, he alleged, he and his wife were residents.

RAILWAY EARNINGS BETTER.

June Gross Increase $24,000,000 and Net Over $13,000,000.

The Interstate Commerce Commission's summary of the country's railroad earnings for the month of June covering 720 roads, with a total mileage of 202,852 miles, shows an increase of over $24,000,000 in gross earnings and of over $13,000,000 in net.

The receipts and expenditures in detail compare as follows:

	1909.	1908.	Increase.
No. of roads.	720	698	21
Mileage	208,852	204,630	4,222
RECEIPTS.
Freight	$126,513,780	$108,164,240	$18,349,540
Passenger ..	46,238,598	41,592,532	4,666,066
Other transp.	14,980,859	13,295,596	1,685,263
Non-transp...	1,796,401	1,726,994	69,407
Unclassified.	13,680	15,424	*1,744
Total.....	$189,563,318	$164,794,786	$24,768,532
EXPENSES.
Mn. W. & S.	$26,509,079	$25,430,146	$1,159,933
Mn. equip...	25,085,606	18,611,950	6,453,716
Traffic	4,120,943	3,590,069	529,874
Transp'n ...	60,891,809	58,177,823	2,713,986
General	5,146,279	4,638,625	507,654
Unclassified.	13,561	49,677	*36,116
Total.....	$121,837,337	$110,507,290	$11,330,047
Net op. rev..	67,725,981	54,287,496	13,438,485
OUTSIDE OPERATIONS.
Total rev's.	$4,128,750	$2,335,979	$1,792,771
Total exps..	3,759,059	1,860,184	1,898,875
Net rev....	$369,691	$475,795	*$106,104
T'l net rev..	$68,095,672	$54,763,291	$18,332,381
Taxes	6,985,897	6,930,332	55,565
Op. inc...	$61,109,775	$47,832,959	$13,276,816

*Decrease.

FOREIGN TRADE OPPORTUNITIES.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The daily Consular trade opportunity for to-morrow reports the following trade opportunities abroad. Further information regarding these can be obtained by addressing the Bureau of Manufactures, care of Department of Commerce and Labor, Washington, D. C., giving the number of the item referred to:

3,838. — ELECTRICAL APPLIANCES — An American Consul in the Levant reports that all manner of electrical appliances are freely admitted, and large quantities have been imported into that region. He states there is no reason why American-made goods should not be introduced in considerable quantities, as an active local agent is alone needed.

3,839. — REPRESENTATIVES OF SHOE HOUSE IN EUROPE.—A letter received from the manager of the export department of a Chicago firm states that he is desirous of returning to Europe, and would like to get in touch with some large shoe manufacturer who desires a representative in Europe. He states that he has had ten years' experience as a representative of American firms in Europe, is conversant with the necessary languages, and is willing to furnish satisfactory references, both at home and abroad, to interested parties. Another business man desires to return to Germany and establish a wholesale or retail establishment for the sale of American footwear.

3,840.—TOOLS FOR TINNERS AND COPPERSMITHS—One of the largest tinners and coppersmiths in a South American country advises an American Consul that he is very anxious to correspond with houses in the United States handling tools in his line.

3,841.—STRUCTURAL STEEL—A report has been received from an American Consul in a Latin-American country stating that the superiority of steel as a material for construction has been recognized in his district, and the time is ripe for American manufacturers to enter the country on an energetic industrial campaign for future business. A local firm which confines its business to American products has expressed a desire to correspond with manufacturers and exporters of this class of goods in the United States.

3,842.—AMERICAN GOODS FOR PHILIPPINES—A business man in the Philippine Islands writes that he is anxious to obtain from firms in the United States illustrated catalogues and price lists of hats, shoes, woolen goods, and furnishing supplies.

3,843. FERTILIZER MATERIAL AND MACHINERY—An American Consular officer in Latin America reports that a company is being organized in his district for the manufacture of fertilizers and furnishes the name of a man interested in the organization who would like to enter into correspondence with American concerns able to supply chemicals and machinery to be used in producing the same.

3,844. INVESTMENT OF CAPITAL.—A report from an American Consul in Canada states that Americans seeking fields in which to invest capital would do well to investigate the feasibility of erecting a modern hotel in the city in which he is located. He adds it is probable that a modern apartment house, consisting of from four to eight room apartments, including kitchens, and equipped with steam heat, would be a paying investment, as such flats should rent for $30 to $60 per month, including heat.

3,845. AGENCY IN AUSTRALIA—An Australian business man writes that he is established as a manufacturer's agent in Melbourne and would be pleased to act as an agent in Australia on a commission basis for any firm that is desirous of appointing an Australian representative and opening up a market for its goods in that country. He states that any agency intrusted to his care will receive his closest personal attention and furnishes a number of testimonials.

CHICAGO STOCK MARKET.

Special to The New York Times.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Illinois Brick sold up to 59½ in the early hours on the Chicago Exchange, after opening at 57½, 6 points higher than Friday's closing price. At the close the price was a little easier, the stock selling at 58¾. Trading on the local market was not in large volume, but prices were well maintained. Pneumatic Tool was higher, as was Edison. Swift shares were steady, Fisheries preferred showed a 1½ point advance, to 61½; Subway was ⅝ lower than Friday, and Sears was off half a point.

Sales.		High.	Low.	Last.
215..	American Can	12¾	12½	12¾
125..	American Can pf	83½	83½	83½
550..	Booth Fisheries pf	61½	60¾	61½
100..	Corn Products	23½	23½	23½
51..	Com. Edison	121¾	121	121
25..	Chicago Pneu. Tool	32½	31¾	32½
20..	Chicago Title & Trust	140	139	139
630..	Chicago Subway	18½	17½	18
10..	Chicago Tel	136	136	136
12..	Chi. Rys., Series 2	36½	36½	36½
5..	Ch. Rys., Series 3	24	24	24
21..	Diamond Match	128	127¾	128
193..	Illinois Brick	59¼	57½	58¼
42..	National Biscuit	97	96¾	96¾
10..	National Biscuit	107	107	107
100..	People's Gas	115¾	115¾	115¾
1,734..	Sears-Roebuck pf	115	115	115
175..	Street's	44¾	44½	44¾
478..	Swift & Co	111¾	111	111
77..	South Side Elevated	54½	54½	54½
132..	United Box Board	13¾	13½	13¾
50..	Western Stone	20	20	20

METAL MARKET REPORTS.

At the Metal Exchange yesterday business was comparatively quiet, with an easy tone in copper for near-by deliveries. Tin was down about ¼c. Sales of 25 tons of spot were made from 30.05 to 30.10. Lead was a shade firmer. Spelter was unchanged.

On the Metal Exchange in London yesterday copper, for both spot and future deliveries, suffered a decline of 2s 6d from the final figures of Friday. The market finished quiet, closing quotations ruling at, spot, £59, futures, £59 17s 6d.

Pig tin ended easy, with spot and future deliveries down 12s 6d, to £136 10s and £137 15s, respectively. Spanish pig lead was quiet and off 1s 3d, to £12 12s 6d. Cleveland warrants were quoted at 51s 1½d.

The closing bid and asked prices for copper and other metals for spot delivery on the New York Metal Exchange yesterday compare as follows with those of Friday:

	Tuesday.		Friday.
Standard Copper—	Bid.	Asked.	Bid.	Asked.
Spot	12.40	12.65	12.40	12.70
September	12.40	12.65	12.40	12.70
October	12.60	12.75	12.40	12.70
November	12.60	12.75	12.50	12.75
Spelter	5.65	5.75	5.65	5.75
Lead	4.35	4.40	4.25	4.37½
Tin	30.10	30.15	30.20	30.37½

MINING STOCK QUOTATIONS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 7.—The official closing quotation for mining stocks to-day were as follows:

Alpha Con	6	Julia	6
Andes	25	Kentucky Con	12
Belcher	91	L. Wash. Con	8
Best & Belcher	60	Mexican	1.37
Bullion	20	Occidental Con	25
Caledonia	31	Ophir	1.27
Challenge Con	37	Overman	40
Chollar	25	Potosi	56
Confidence	1.20	Savage	54
Con. Cal. & Va	1.45	Sierra Nevada	51
Con. Imperial	3	Union Con	53
Crown Point	94	Utah Con	6
Gould & Curry	24	Yellow Jacket	1.30
Hale & Norcross	40

Silver bars, 51½; Mexican dollars, 51@52; drafts, sight, 2@2½ cents premium; telegraph, 4@5 cents premium.

TONOPAH.		Daisy	.15
Belmont	.83	Diamondfield	.01
Jim Butler	.12	Goldfield C. M.	6.50
McNamara	.30	Great Bend	.06
Midway	.20	Jumbo Extension	.15
Montana	.99	Kendall	.04
Tonopah Extension	.60	Red Hills	.07
West End	.30	Sandstorm	.09
GOLDFIELD.		Silver Pick	.14
Adams	.01	BULLFROG.
Atlanta	.14	Bullfrog N. B.	.02
Blue Bell	.03	Montgomery Min.	.03
Combination Fract.	.80	Tramps Cons	.04
Crackerjack	.02

COLORADO MINING STOCKS.

Special to The New York Times.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Col., Sept. 7.—The following were the closing quotations on the local Exchange to-day:

	Bid.	Asked.		Bid.	Asked.
Dr. Jackpot.	9½	9¾	Jackpot	8	9
Elkton	74½	75¾	McKinney...	45	49
El Paso....	65	65½	Portland...	84	85
Gold Dollar.	12½	13¾	Vindicator..	71	73
Isabella ...	22	22¾	Sample	8	8½

INCOMING TOURISTS NO LONGER SEARCHED

Yesterday's Arrivals Courteously Treated—Baggage Inspected Expeditiously.

LOEB LOOKS INTO CHARGES

Collector Declares That He Will Not Tolerate Incivility or Harshness Toward Passengers.

Passengers landed from the liners Kronprinzessin Cecilie, Bremen, and Carmania yesterday and cleared their baggage through the customs without any difficulties or annoyances.

Bags and packages which had already been stamped were passed through the gates without being reopened by Col. Lutz's force of special customs watchmen. No pockets were felt, and on all sides there was an evident desire to make things pleasant for the nomecomers.

Instead of searching overcoats carried on the arms of passengers, the Inspectors at the gate courteously inquired if the owners had anything dutiable in the pockets. The answer was invariably accepted.

The old men were back at their posts, and the newcomers, with their excess of zeal, were called off and kept in the background.

Collector Loeb said yesterday to a TIMES reporter:

"I am investigating the charge of alleged rudeness to incoming passengers on steamships. While it is my desire to carry out the law, my strongest wish is to subject citizens and visitors to this country to no inconvenience whatever. I have already started an investigation to ascertain what basis there is for the charge of incivility or rudeness.

"Personally, I have received no complaint whatever of any discourtesy, and I am informed that the complaints that have been reported in the newspapers are exaggerated. I welcome, however, any complaint from any passenger as to the slightest discourtesy. I do not seek to imply by this statement that there will be any letting down in my determination to enforce the laws passed by Congress regarding the importation of articles from abroad, but I wish to distinctly emphasize that any incivility, rudeness, or harshness has my distinct disapproval, and I shall be glad if offensive conduct will be reported to me, so that the offenders may be disciplined. I did expect, of course, that in adopting measures to enforce the law there would be some criticism and complaint, but I will not consent to any unnecessary annoyance to any incoming traveler so far as my office is concerned."

Preparations had been carefully made to handle all baggage expeditiously, commencing with the Kronprinzessin Cecelie, which came up to her pier at 8:15 A. M. In addition to a large staff of watchmen there was a force of 175 customs Inspectors and twenty-five Appraisers. Col. Lutz stood at the gate and paid particular attention to the manner in which his force of watchmen carried out their duties.

Special Agent C. C. Wall was on the pier, but did not take the active part in the examination of handbags that he had for the past few days. A few unimportant seizures were made of articles people said they had omitted to declare.

Special Agent Wall said that the search had been justified by results on previous days. As an example he stated that one man on the Kaiserin Augusta Victoria, which arrived on Friday night, was walking off the pier with a pair of Zeiss biplan glasses valued at $100. A woman passenger on the same vessel had a gold box valued at $100 in her bag, which she said was not down in her declaration paper because it had been a gift. He added that the publicity given to smuggling on the part of passengers would have a good effect.

"Often," said Mr. Wall, "we have passengers declare $50 or $60 of dutiable articles and try to carry out $5 or $10 more in their pockets, though each passenger is allowed $100 worth by law."

TO-DAYS COURT CALENDARS.

STATE.

SUPREME COURT—Special Term—Part I.—Guy, J.—Motions. 1—Jerome-Press Pub Co. 2—Gardiner-Wiley. 3—Hedden Sons Co-City of N. Y. 4—Maloney-Katzerstein. 5—Raab-Raab. 7—Kleffner-Huber. 8—Galbrath-Galbrath. 9—In re Dixon & Co. 10—Crane-Reid. 11—Alison-China Co. 12—Blumenthal-Kridel. 13—McMurty-Am Mills Co. 14—Hays-Lambert. 15—Stephens-Darling. 16—H. Ellas Brew Co-Jamascia. 17—People-Neth Coffee Co. 18—Keystone Const Co-Harris. 19. 20—Sjogren-Brisban. 21—Breidenbach-Star Co. 22—Same-Morning Journal Assn. 23—In re Sullivan. 24—Sugarman-Johnson. 25 Dudley-De Roca. 26—In re City of N. Y. 27—Beach-Pearsen. 28—Bailey-Bradley Const Co. 29—Raab-Raab. 30—Hawkins-Hawkins. 31—U. S. Casualty Co-Shubert-Anderson Co. 32—Edelstein-Pizer. 33—Riley-Riley. 34—Gwarzinsky-Gwarzinsky. 35—Ratain-Schiftis. 36—Bachrach-Bachrach. 37—Thompson-Schiller. 38—Sheridan-D. J. Monton Co. 39—In re Cook. 40—McLaughlin-Joline. 41—Schwartz-Katz. 42—Allen-Allen. 43—Martin-Mishkin. 44—Johanson-Johanson. 45—Title Guar Co-Cappiello. 46—In re Mansfeinhan. 47—In re Durnrauf & Wicke. 48—Schuck-Lefkawitz. 49—Andrews-Andrews. 50—Levy-Roosevelt. 51—In re Modern Steam Laundry. 52—Carr-Carr 53—In re Brudner. 54—Patterson-De Carlo. 55—Terhune-Terhune. 56—Planz-Clark. 57—Lewis-Lewis. 58—McMahan-Dayhill. 59—Kreiger-Smith & Mabley. 60—Hallenburg-Green Const Copper Co. 61—Russell-Russell. 62—Van Brink-Van Brink. 63—Rowe-Moskawitz. 64—Jones-Liebman. 65—Enright-Boyd. 66—Gilsey-Badt. 67—Brown-Brown. 68—Ashlam-Ashlam. 69—In re Eisenstein. 70—Rubinsky-Spiro. 71—Moore Co-Cornwall. 72—Worth-Worth. 73—Grand Central Bldg Co-Ludemann. 74—Arnstein-Pistone. 75—People-Barone. 76—Bradley-Bradley. 77—Marquardt-Marquardt. 78—In re King. 79—Israelson-Bilgureler & Assn. 80—Heiggberg-Joseph. 81—City of N. Y.-Weiss. 82. 83—Stephan-Wash Hts Pub Co. 84—Barnofsky-Barnofsky. 85—Monro-Bremer.

SUPREME COURT—Special Term—Part II., Giegerich, J.—Ex parte business.

SURROGATE'S COURT AND CHAMBERS—Cohalan, S.—Wills for probate. Joseph Colanna, Catherine S. Beardsly, John H. Holtmann, Sarah G. Cooke, Julia P. Outcalt, Emma M. Brandt, Albert H. Karnty, Frank A. Hoenninger, John C. Latham, Max G. Hopf, Vitale Pecarara.

Referees Appointed—New York.

SUPREME COURT—Giegerich, J.—Greenberg vs. Weber—Charles M. Beattie. Mender Realty Co. vs. Shapiro—G. W. Wheeler. Same vs. Cohen—George M. Schulty.

SUPREME COURT—Guy, J.—In re Keith—Maurice Deiches. Koplik vs. Levy—Edward Dowling. Winterwitz vs. Rieger—Richard W. Holleman.

SUPREME COURT—Brady, J.—In re Leaman—John J. Hynes.

Receivers Appointed—New York.

SUPREME COURT—Giegerich, J.—Jacob Sheer vs. Max Walper—John J. Stringer. Nathan Matelson vs. Louis Isarsky—Charles J. Doherty.

SUPREME COURT—Guy, J.—Junction Realty Co. vs. Fredericka Radle Estate—Richard F. Murphy. Koppel Epstein vs. Simon Epstein—Albert Sauliess.

CITY COURT—Finelite, J.—German Exchange Bank vs. Abraham Silverman—Jacob Weisberger. J. Samuels & Co. vs. Moses Natelson—Joseph Fernnedy. W. A. Thomas Co. vs. Eley. Salkin—Louis Scheinkowitz.

Westchester County.

Thursday, Sept. 9.

COUNTY COURT—Platt, C. J.—1477—Lumia-Gantuso. 1508—W P Milk & Cream Co-Buckhout. 1496—Harriman-Jones. 1519—Longer-West Elec R R Co. 1525—W P Milk & Cream Co-Buckhout. 1537—Schmaling-Kostler. 1775—Ribeiro-Bradley. 1453—Kelly-Bjork. 1575—Beach-Garofano. 1580—Kusche-Driggs. 1587—Gardineer-Bellew-Merritt Co. 1590—Olstein-Levy. 1592—Nelson-Benedict. 1598—Bushnell-Prout. 1594—Sullivan-Willett. 1597—MacKenzie-Lane.

The following causes, if answered ready, will be passed for the day. No cause will be set down for a day upon the call: 776—Reiner-Duffy. 1048—Forino-Gorofano. 1572—Albro-Wight. 1250—Braynard-Westchester Lighting Co. 1389—Callahan-Davis. 1589—Stymus-Birdsall. 1601—Bohm-McHugh. 1602—Mangini-Anthes. 1606—Williams-Westchester Lighting Co. 1604—Mills-Ruland. 1605—Husted-Hunt. 1607—Lahey-Village of Port Chester. 1608—Santolio-Richards. 1609—Hartley-Booker. 1610—Eastern Mills & Material Co-Slafsholt. 1611—Crossen-Verplanck. 1612—Ruotolo-Rabagliloto. 1613—Mann-Hampton. 1614—Henry Elias Brew Co-Cohen. 1615—Romeo-Conti. 1616—Ward-Albro.

THE COTTON MARKET.

Strong on Foreign Demand—Closes Steady 10 to 12 Points Higher.

Cotton had an active and excited advance at the opening yesterday, owing to strength in Liverpool over the local holidays, and an impression that the low September condition had stimulated an urgent demand from foreign spinners against their forward requirements. The market opened 14 to 17 points higher, and quickly sold at a net advance of 19@20 points. Trading became much less active later in the day, but there was no great break in prices, the close being at a net advance of 10@12 points.

Liverpool spot sales for three days reached 43,000 bales. Manchester reported a more active demand from India and China. At the opening this morning the first census report of the season will be published, giving the amount of cotton ginned to Sept. 1, and after the close there will be a meeting of the New York Revision Committee to fix differences until November.

Contract prices follow:

	High.	Low.	Close.	Friday's Close.
September	12.63	12.53	12.58@12.60	12.46
October	12.69	12.61	12.61@12.62	12.50
November	12.60	12.60	12.62@12.65	12.51
December	12.79	12.69	12.70@12.71	12.59
January	12.74	12.65	12.66@12.67	12.55
February	..	..	12.68@12.70	12.57
March	12.81	12.73	12.74@12.75	12.62
April	..	..	12.75@12.77	12.63
May	12.86	12.78	12.78@12.80	12.68

Spot cotton was quiet and 15 points higher at 13c for middling upland and 13.25c for middling Gulf. Sales, 300 bales. Delivered on contract, 100 bales.

Southern spot markets were telegraphed as follows: Savannah—Steady, 3-16c higher at 12¼c; sales, 5,514 bales. Norfolk—Steady, ¼c higher at 12½c; sales, 14 bales. Augusta—Steady, ¼c higher at 12 9-16@12⅝c; sales, 1,624 bales. Charleston—Steady, ⅝c higher at 12½c; sales, 200 bales. Houston—Steady, ¼c higher at 12⅝c; sales, 2,864 bales. Memphis—Steady, ¼c higher at 12 9-16c; sales, 25 bales. Galveston—Steady, ¼c higher at 12⅝c; sales, 397 bales. New Orleans—Steady, 1-16c higher at 12½c; sales, 1,910 bales.

PITTSBURG TRANSACTIONS.

Special to The New York Times.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 7.—The following were the closing transactions on the local Exchange to-day:

Sales.		High.	Low.	Last.
510..	Crucible Steel	14	13¾	13⅞
580..	Crucible Steel pf	82	81⅝	82
135..	Fireproof	9¾	9½	9¼
320..	Fireproof pf	26¾	26¼	26¾
50..	Independent Brewing	5	5	5
500..	Interior Mining	.08	.08	.08
230..	Mfrs.' Light & Heat	20¾	20⅝	20¾
552..	Ohio Fuel	45¾	45½	45⅞
150..	Pittsburg Brewing	21¼	21¼	21¼
35..	Pittsburg Coal	22⅞	22⅝	22⅞
30..	Pittsburg Coal pf	61½	61½	61½
130..	Pitts. Plate Glass	118	118	118
120..	River Coal pf	24½	24½	24½
10,050..	Ross Mining	.42	.22	.41
50..	Sewer Pipe	18½	18½	18½
50..	Union Switch pf	103	103	103
83..	U. S. Steel	79⅝	79	79
190..	West. Air Brake	129⅝	120	120⅝
15..	West. Elec. 2ds	43	43	43
	UNLISTED.
135..	Kansas Gas	52	51½	52
700..	Lustre	.41	.41	.41
3,700..	Mount Elliott	.37	.37	.37
20,300..	San Toy	.43	.40	.40
	BONDS.
$25,000..	Jones & L. 5s	102¾	102¾	102¾
	BANKS.
3..	Colonial Trust	185	185	185

Yankee Fuel Company Meeting Called.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Yankee Fuel Company, a large block of whose stock is among the assets of E. D. Shepard & Co., has been called for Sept. 15 at Trinidad, Col. John S. Sheppard, Jr., receiver of the firm, under an order signed by Judge Holt on July 12, will vote 47,505 shares of Yankee Fuel stock in favor of Directors of his choice. A motion recently made by other interests to have this order set aside was denied recently by Judge Holt.

GEORGE GOULD HOME A BULL ON BUSINESS

Finds Conditions Excellent and He Saw Evidences of Prosperity in Europe.

SILENT ABOUT ENGLAND

Found a Steady Sale of American Stocks in Germany—Family to Go to the Catskills.

George Jay Gould returned yesterday from his Summer trip to Europe on the North German Lloyd liner Kronprinzessin Cecilie full of optimism over the business outlook in the United States, and also words of praise for Europe. He was accompanied by Mrs. Gould, their daughter, Marjorie, and son, Jay.

Marjorie carried a yellow Belgium griffon dog called Lolotte, and Jay sported a sizable mustache.

Mr. and Mrs. Gould went to the Deputy Surveyor's desk on the pier with two black bags containing the family jewels, and they waited while the appraiser went over the list from the customs law department and checked them off. Mr. Gould said that his family would spend two days in the city and then go to Furlough Lodge, in the Catskills.

In an interview with the reporters on the deck of the liner coming up the bay Mr. Gould said:

"The business conditions in the United States look excellent. The four most progressive countries in the world to-day are the United States, Germany, Italy, and Japan."

Asked about conditions in England Mr. Gould replied that he had nothing to say on that point.

"I was very much surprised," he said, "when I went to Italy in my yacht to find the wonderful progress that had been made in that country, especially in electricity, because the Italians have now begun to use the water power in their great lakes in Northern Italy.

"The most active of all countries undoubtedly is Germany. There is no widespread demand for American stocks there, but there is a steady sale for them among German investors.

"I talked with Mr. Harriman while he was in Paris, and at that time he impressed me as being very weak but on the road to recovery. I was shocked to-day to learn the news of his relapse.

"Railroad earnings are good and the roads are in fine condition. You will find no pessimism in me."

Mr. Gould said he and his family went to Rheims to witness the airship contests. Miss Marjorie Gould said the funniest sight at Rheims was the day when the amateur aviators went up in their machines and fell down on haystacks and fences in all directions without hurting themselves.

Mr. Gould and his family appeared to be in the best of health. They said they had thoroughly enjoyed their yachting trip in the Adriatic.

BUSINESS GOOD, HILL SAYS.

Crops of Fair Average and Railroads Are Doing Well.

James J. Hill, Chairman of the Great Northern, returned to his office here yesterday from a Western trip of several weeks' duration. The railroads including the Hill lines have been doing very well during the time that Mr. Hill has been away, and Mr. Hill told his friends yesterday that business was progressing very favorably not only in respect to agricultural traffic but generally.

Regarding the crops Mr. Hill said yesterday that the crops this year would not be of extraordinary size, but that they would be above a fair average. The recent heat, he said, had somewhat impaired the corn crop and had lessened the expected yield of this cereal as well in Kansas and Nebraska, where very large corn crops have been predicted, as in other sections.

Weather in Cotton and Grain States.

Special to The New York Times.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The following is the forecast for Wednesday and Thursday for the cotton and grain States, as issued by the United States Weather Bureau:

North and South Carolina, Georgia, Western Florida, and Alabama—Unsettled weather Wednesday and Thursday; showers; light northeast winds.

Eastern Florida—Partly cloudy Wednesday and Thursday.

Mississippi—Partly cloudy Wednesday and Thursday, with probable showers.

Louisiana and Eastern Texas—Partly cloudy Wednesday and Thursday; light, variable winds.

Western Texas—Partly cloudy Wednesday and Thursday, with probable showers in northern portion; warmer in northern portion Wednesday.

Oklahoma — Probably showers Wednesday, Thursday partly cloudy.

Arkansas—Showers Wednesday, and possibly Thursday.

Indiana—Fair Wednesday and Thursday, except probable showers in southern portion; light, variable winds, mostly northeasterly.

Illinois—Partly cloudy Wednesday and Thursday, with probable showers in southern and central portions; light, northeasterly winds, becoming variable.

Michigan—Fair Wednesday and probably Thursday; light, variable winds.

Wisconsin—Fair Wednesday and Thursday; warmer in northern portion; light, variable winds.

Minnesota — Fair Wednesday; increasing cloudiness Thursday; moderate winds, mostly southerly.

Iowa—Unsettled Wednesday and Thursday, with probable showers.

Missouri—Unsettled, with showers Wednesday and possibly Thursday; warmer in northern portion Wednesday.

North Dakota—Generally fair Wednesday and Thursday; warmer in southern and eastern portions Wednesday.

South Dakota—Partly cloudy Wednesday and Thursday; probably showers and warmer Wednesday in eastern portion.

Nebraska—Showers Wednesday; Thursday partly cloudy.

Kansas—Showers Wednesday and possibly Thursday; warmer in northern and western portions.

FINANCIAL NOTES.

Arthur C. Badeau of Frederic H. Hatch & Co. of 30 Broad Street, has gone for a three weeks' trip in Canada.

Word was received yesterday that the new Cuban 4½ per cent. bonds, which are being offered by Speyer & Co. for subscription at 95, are being bid for in London at a premium of 1 per cent. The bonds, "when issued," sold up to 96 on the Curb yesterday.

An offering of Colorado Municipal Water 6s in the North Sterling Irrigation district is announced by Farson, Son & Co. of 21 Broad Street and First National Bank Building, Chicago. A majority of the bonds, the total issue of which is $2,080,000, have already been sold. The remainder is offered at prices graded on the different periods of maturity, so as to yield 5¾ per cent.

$2,080,000
County of Logan, Colorado
Municipal Water 6's
(North Sterling Irrigation District)

Dated June 1, 1909. Interest payable semi-annually, June and December, New York City. Denomination, $500.

MATURITIES AND PRICES

$104,000	June 1, 1920	102.00	$208,000	June 1, 1925	102.60
125,000	June 1, 1921	102.15	229,000	June 1, 1926	102.70
146,000	June 1, 1922	102.25	277,000	June 1, 1927	102.80
167,000	June 1, 1923	102.35	313,000	June 1, 1928	102.90
186,000	June 1, 1924	102.50	325,000	June 1, 1929	103.00

Having sold a majority of these bonds we offer the unsold balance at the above prices, Yielding 5.75%.

LOCATION—The North Sterling Irrigation District is surrounded on three sides by the successful districts of Sterling, Riverside, Greeley, and Julesburg. It embraces over 80,000 acres in Logan County, Colorado, on the north side of the South Platte River. On the western boundary it touches the well-known Riverside District of Morgan County, on the east the rich Julesburg District, and on the south, lying between it and the river, is the old Sterling District.

The municipality has undertaken the irrigation of this district after a careful consideration of the following facts:

The North Sterling soils are identical with the aforesaid districts.

The climate and elevation are practically the same.

The ample water supply of the South Platte River, which is available for use in this section, guarantees sufficient water.

The Sterling District, which lies immediately adjacent to the South Platte River and parallel to this new district, has been successfully operated for years. It is one of the best known of Colorado irrigation projects, and its history and land values positively prove the future of this large, new North Sterling District.

VALUE OF THE LAND—The land under the outlet canal is of the best character. In the neighboring district, near Julesburg, the values of the land have risen from $75 to $175 in addition to the bonded indebtedness which was created to construct the reservoirs and canals. In the case of the Bijou District, near Fort Morgan, the same increase has taken place, or probably a little greater. These are only two cases of many where, after the water is brought to the land, the increase in LATEST CUSTOMS RULINGS.

Women's Hair Rolls Are Held to be Dutiable as "Wearing Apparel."

A controversy between the Government and Schireson Brothers regarding the classification of hair rolls for women's use has been settled adversely to the importer by the Board of United States General Appraisers.

It appears that the Collector assessed the rolls at 44 cents per pound and 55 per cent. ad valorem, whereas the importer maintained that the articles fall within the provision in the tariff for "manufactures of human hair." The latter tax is only 35 per cent. General Appraiser Chamberlain, in his decision for the board, says that the importer's claim cannot hold because an official analysis shows that the rolls are composed of silk netting and mohair, a form of wool.

The decision holds that the Collector erred in his classification, as the rolls should have been assessed as wool wearing apparel with a duty much higher than that assessed.

The board decided that lace brought in by the American Express Company for a client is not free of duty, for the reason that the goods did not accompany the passenger upon the time of her arrival in this country.

BUSINESS TROUBLES.

Dr. THOMAS H. BURCH.—Dr. Thomas H. Burch of 130 West Fifty-seventh Street has filed a petition in bankruptcy, with liabilities of $8,608 and no assets. The creditors are I. L. Wilson, $2,000, services as stenographer, 1906-1909; T. H. Burch, Jr., $5,000, money loaned; H. Faber, $1,000, services as nurse, 1908-1909; William N. Leslie, $223, rent of 100 West Fifty-seventh Street; Stanley & Patterson, $275, merchandise, and C. C. Bohm Electric Company, $10, services.

SAMUEL SINGER.—Schedules in bankruptcy of Samuel Singer, wholesale dealer in hosiery and underwear, 24 Walker Street, show liabilities of $40,120 and nominal assets of $42,000, consisting of stock, $10,000; fixtures, $1,000; accounts, $16,000, and real estate, $15,000. Among the creditors are H. W. Partridge, $500 secured; Robert F. Rece, $4,500, secured; L. Priest & Co., Providence, R. I., $5,100; George B. Brooks, Providence, R. I., $1,554; H. B. Claflin Company, $1,482, and Tempest Knitting Company, Perry, N. Y., $1,360.

MORRIS GOTTLIEB.—A petition in bankruptcy has been filed against Morris Gottlieb, wholesale dealer in statuary at 101 East Houston Street, by these creditors: Mutual Paper Company, $500; J. Josephson & Sons, $55, and Maurice M. Elish, $150. It is alleged that he is insolvent, and made a preferential transfer of property. He began business in 1882 in a small way, and built up a large business, and three years ago claimed to have a capital of $29,000, but in the last eighteen months business has, it is said, fallen off considerably, and collections were slow.

HYMAN CANTOR.—A petition in bankruptcy has been filed against Hyman Cantor, dealer in men's furnishings and dry goods at 200 Ashburton Avenue, Yonkers, by these creditors: J. H. Semel & Co., $335, H. B. Claflin Company, $250, and Abrams & Marcus, $64. It is alleged that he is insolvent, made preferential payments of $1,000, and transferred merchandise and accounts of $1,000. He has been in business since 1891, and on April 2, 1904, a petition in bankruptcy was filed against him, and he subsequently effected a composition with his creditors at 25 cents on the dollar. Liabilities are reported to be about $4,000.

KUSHNER & TAFT.—A petition in bankruptcy has been filed against Newman Kushner and Louis Taft, who compose the firm of Kushner & Taft, manufacturers of skirts, cloaks, and suits at 103 Prince Street, by these creditors: H. B. Claflin Company, $500; H. A. Caesar & Co., $500, and Boessneck, Broesel & Co., $100. It is alleged that they are insolvent, made preferential payments of $5,000, and transferred merchandise and accounts of $5,000. Mr. Kushner began business in 1897 as a partner in the firm of Wersba & Kushner, whom he succeeded Oct. 12, 1905, and Mr. Taft became a partner Aug. 1, 1907. Their statement of Dec. 26 last showed assets of $52,500 and liabilities of $12,153. Their liabilities now are between $50,000 and $60,000, and assets, $15,000 to $25,000.

JULIUS LANDE.—A meeting of creditors of Julius Lande, wholesale dealer in woolens of 135 Eldridge Street, was held yesterday at the Astor House. Nathaniel Walkof of the Merchants' Credit Adjustment Company was Chairman. A. S. Weitfisch, attorney for Mr. Lande, said that the liabilities were $22,000, but could give no figures as to assets; the outstanding accounts exceeded the liabilities, but he could not collect them in a hurry. A committee of creditors, consisting of Mr. Corbett of Fred Butterfield & Co., Melville Hayman of Denzer & Nathan, and A. B. Entrees of Joseph Benn & Sons, and Jacob Liberman, was appointed to examine the assets and report a settlement. Mr. Walkof suggested that it might be well to give Mr. Lande an extension and trustee the assets until creditors are paid.

Out of Town.

BOSTON, Sept. 7.—A voluntary petition in bankruptcy has been filed by Tom B. Middlebrook, dog fancier and tailor, of this city. His liabilities amount to $10,814.61. He has assets of a value of $8,827.27, of which $8,000 is incumbered real estate.

Judgments.

These judgments for amounts more than $100 were filed yesterday, the first name being that of the debtor:

Andrews Frank M.—E. C. R. Owen, $115.
Abbott, Lyle S.—S. E. Dribben, $249.
Boyer, Henry V.—E. O. Pouch et al., $114.
Brandreth, Ralph—J. E. Kerr & Co., Ltd., $896.
Curtis, Harry J.—F. B. Roy, $1,632.
Dauber, Solomon—A. R. Conkling, $120.
Foster, Omega H.—Bankers and Merchants' Agency Co., $104.
Greenwald, Morris M.—L. Roberts, $103.
Greenberg, Sam—John Mix & Co., $120.
Horan, James J.—H. Hein, $245.
Hughes, Rose C.—R. Routh, $501.
Holl, Bernard and John—W. Lawton, $703.
Jolin, Jacob, et al.—S. M. Toplitz, $147.
Kisselburg, Wm. E., Jr.—S. G. Gensler, $218.
Loughlin, Daniel O.—C. Holt, $226.
Levin, Hyman J.—A. Grushkin, $135.
Lefkowitz, Adolph—C. H. Nolte et al., $850.
Marcus, Simon, et al.—Jas. McLaughlin Co., $239.
Morningstar, Benjamin—J. Baumann, $176.
McCarthy, Michael J., et al.—S. Jones et al., $202.
O'Loughlin, Daniel—C. Holt, $226.
Pasternack, Isidor, et al.—S. M. Toplitz, $147.
Partee, Clarence L. and Eulalie C.—E. B. Hopkins, $274.
Perry, James and Katherine, et al.—S. I. Jones et al., $202.
Payne, George J.—W. F. Irish Electric Co., $668.
Rose, John—C. H. Nolte et al., $1,456.
Rosenberg, Sam—A. Meyer, $256.
Solomon, Louis—E. Arnstein et al., $344.
Schamberg, Maggie—J. Bergman, $142.
Spain, David—Union Stove Works, $173.
Salter, John W.—B. J. Isecke, $289.
Shannon, J. Bland, et al.—E. L. Sykes, $320.
Sickels, Charles R. and Marie B., et al.—Same, $320.
Victor, Fannie—Olin J. Stephens, Inc., $128.
Williamson, Florence R.—A. L. Humphreys, $415.
New York School of Art—T. Dimond, $898.
Thalia Theatre Co.—Van Beuren and New York Bill Posting Co., $518.
Arnold Realty Co. et al.—James McLaughlin Co., $239.
Motor Boat Club of America—G. S. Graham et al., $1,112.

Satisfied Judgments.

The first name is that of the debtor, the second that of the creditor, and the date that when judgment was filed:

Broschart, David—David Mayer Brewing Co., Sept. 10, 1907, $21.
Catholic Editing Co.—George J. Wilson & Son, June 23, 1909, $145.
Leeper, Morris—Westchester Hardwood Co., Jan. 26, 1898, $171.
McAneny, Jane—C. Greenwood, Aug. 16, 1909, $259.
Reilly, Philip—T. J. McNulty, Feb. 25, 1909, $221.
Schwartz, Isidor and Samuel—R. W. Baldwin et al., Aug. 23, 1909, $379.
Stein, Meyer—H. Kooperstein et al, March 11, 1909, $217.
Taylor, Catherine—City Real Estate Co., June 13, 1902, $515.
Mackey, Ross A.—Consolidated Railway and Light Co., Aug. 16, 1909, (vacated,) $310.

ARRIVAL OF BUYERS.

Malley, E., Company, New Haven, Conn.; E. F. McDermott, notions and ribbons; 320 Church Street.
Harley, D., Company, Pawtucket, R. I.; F. H. Borden, notions; The Breslin.
McCurdy & Norwell Company, Rochester, N. Y.; R. Orr, housefurnishing goods; 821 Broadway, "Buyers' Association"; Herald Square Hotel.
Goldenberg, M., Washington, D .C.; M. H. Newmeyer, laces, gloves, and ribbons; Hotel Grand.
Parker, Bridget Company, Washington, D. C.; A. A. Baker, cloaks, suits, and waists; The Breslin.
Scott, Griggs Company, Cleveland, Ohio; F. P. Beers, hosiery, gloves, and laces; H. H. Griggs, dry goods; 43 Leonard Street.
Trankla, Charles, & Co., Grand Rapids, Mich.; A. M. Ina, hosiery and underwear; 57 White Street.
Wise, Smith & Co., Hartford, Conn.; I. Wise, cloaks, suits, and waists; 45 Lispenard Street; Hotel Navarre.
Leslie Dry Goods Company, Haverhill, Mass.; Miss K. Dawson, millinery; The Breslin.
Lebeck Brothers, Nashville, Tenn.; R. Lyle, cloaks, suits, and waists; 41 Union Square.
Woodward & Lothrop, Washington, D. C.; Miss M. Pierce, dry goods; Miss S. Eber, millinery; Miss Marshall millinery; 438 Broadway; Holland House.
Hunter, A. S. & T., Utica, N. Y.; C. A. Venice, cloaks and suits; 192½ Greene Street.
Root Dry Goods Company, Terre Haute, Ind.; L. P. Sullivan, cloaks, suits, and waists; 214 Church Street.
Miller, D., Company, Baltimore, Md.; J. H. Spencer, domestics; Hoffman House.
Hutzler Brothers' Company, Baltimore, Md.; Miss P. Gold, corsets; Hotel Grand.
Stewart & Co., Baltimore, Md.; Miss N. S. Anker, jewelry and leather goods; 214 Church Street.
Farwell, J. V., Company, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. Jacoby, dry goods; J. E. Washburn, ladies' neckwear; O. F. Stretch, silks; A. E. A. Shinner, fabrics and leather gloves; 75 Leonard Street.
Quinn-Marshall Company, Lynchburg, Va.; Y. P. Marshall, notions and furnishing goods; 46 Leonard Street.
Fair, Cincinnati, Ohio; A. M. Noll, furnishing goods, hosiery, and gloves; 214 Church Street.
Lord & Gage, Reading, Penn.; F. E. Adams, notions laces, ribbons, and millinery; 214 Church Street.
Smith, T., Company, Boston, Mass.; G. W. Vinal, handkerchiefs, ribbons, and laces; 75 Spring Street.
McWhirr, R. A., Company, Fall River, Mass.; Miss McKensil, wash goods; 75 Spring Street.
Lowenstein, B., & Brothers, Memphis, Tenn.; J. A. Moss, wash goods; 43 Leonard Street.
Burnham, Stoepel & Co., Detroit, Mich.; J. I. Miller, waists, skirts, and petticoats; 43 Leonard Street.
Harris-Lipshitz Company, Dallas, Texas; Mr. Lipshitz, dry goods; 75 Leonard Street.
Crowley, Milner Company, Detroit, Mich.; R. C. Burlingame, jobbers in suits, waists, and skirts, 684 Broadway.
Howland Dry Goods Company, Bridgeport, Conn.; J. E. McCormick, cloaks, suits, and infants' wear; 75 Spring Street.
Reid & Hughes Company, Norwich, Conn.; C. L. Stark, domestics; 75 Spring Street.
Shartenberg & Robinson, Pawtucket, R. I.; T. Ross, laces and ribbons; 75 Spring Street.
McWhirr, R. A., Company, Fall River, Mass.; J. T. Maloney, domestics; 75 Spring Street.
Kaufman Brothers, Pittsburg, Penn.; T. Kaufmen, furnishing goods; 648 Broadway.
White, R. H., Company, Boston, Mass.; Miss M. L. Lehr, ladies' and infants' wear; W. J. McGuire, furnishing goods; A. L. Fletcher, notions and leather goods; A. H. Shannon, dress goods; 41 Union Square.
Barnard, Sumner, Putnam Company, Worcester, Mass.; E. L. Childs, linens; 75 Spring Street.
Hillmans, Chicago, Ill.; Mr. Kohn, hosiery, underwear, and neckwear; 684 Broadway.
Fraser Dry Goods Company, Brockton, Mass.; Sesson, cloaks, suits, and waists; Hotel Broztell.
Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, Reading, Penn.; H. Eisenberg, notions, laces, and leather goods; Miss A. Lambert, toilet goods; 2 Walker Street; Hotel Earlington.
Gimbel Brothers Philadelphia, Penn.; E. Boehm, leather goods; 821 Broadway; Hotel Albert.
Gilchrist Company, Boston, Mass.; J. B. Hartford, small wares and leather goods; 57 White Street.
Gable, William F., & Co., Altoona, Penn.; E. S. McGraw, dress goods; Miss Hill, wash goods; 2 Walker Street.
Howland Dry Goods Company, Bridgeport, Conn.; S. C. Parker, books; Miss Brown, fancy goods; 75 Spring Street.
Silverman, M., & Son, Philadelphia, Penn.; S. B. Koffer, notions and laces; A. Silverman, cloaks and suits; Hotel Latham.
Hochschild, Kohn & Co., Baltimore, Md.; S. Jacobson, upholstery goods; 31 Union Square.
Stewart & Co., Baltimore, Md.; H. G. Cameron, cloaks and suits; 214 Church Street.
Hengerer, William, Company, Buffalo, N. Y.; J. C. Bunch, notions and jewelry; Miss M. Sturdivant, books; Miss I. Smith, ladies' wear; 214 Church Street.
Sibley, Lindsay & Curr Company, Rochester, N. Y.; J. Cook, linens; G. M. Pratt, domestics; W. H. Potter, wash goods; 454 Broome Street.
Sweeney Company, Buffalo, N. Y.; H. Hunter, dress goods and silks; 458 Broadway.
O'Neil, M., & Co., Akron, Ohio; M. O'Neil, domestics; J. J. Faudler, upholstery goods; P. Botzum, dress goods and silks; 458 Broadway.
Dives, Pomeroy, & Co., Harrisburg, Penn.; W. M. Worcester, notions and jewelry; 2 Walker Street.
Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, Pottsville, Penn.; J. M. Gardner, cloaks and suits; 2 Walker Street.
Grant, W. T., & Co., Lynn, Mass.; W. T. Grant, dry goods; 2 Walker Street.
Denholm & McKay Company, Worcester, Mass.; A. J. Gross, laces and embroideries; 2 Walker Street.
Chartier, O. A., Boston, Mass.; W. A. Bonney, cloaks and suits; Hotel Latham.
Shepard Company, Providence, R. I.; Miss M. Sheridan, muslin underwear and corsets; 31 Union Square; Holland House.
Halle Brothers Company, Cleveland, Ohio; Miss M. Manning, ladies' wear; 31 Union Square; Hotel Wolcott.
Edwards & Co., W., & Son, Syracuse, N. Y.; J. V. McCarthy, dress goods and silks; Hotel Wolcott.
Woodward & Lothrop, Washington, D. C.; G. B. White, dry goods; 438 Broadway; Hotel Latham. Miss Wenner, misses' and children's coats and suits; Hotel Wolcott. Miss M. Curren, gloves; Miss Metz, handkerchiefs; Miss D. Collins, ruchings; Holland House.
Field, Marshall, & Co., Chicago, Ill.; C. Doolittle, wash dress goods; 104 Worth Street; Hotel Latham.
Gutman, Joel, & Co., Baltimore, Md.; R. Richardson, dress goods; 79 Grand Street; Hotel Latham.
Solomon, K., & Co., Pittsburg, Penn.; J. Bibeo, cloaks and suits; 13 Astor Place; Hoffman House.
Hutzler Brothers, Baltimore, Md.; L. S. Hutzler, laces, ladies' neckwear, and trimmings; Hoffman House.
Landaver & Co., Milwaukee, Wis.; F. D. Goldstone, laces, hosiery, and gloves; 56 Worth Street; Hotel Seville.
Taft, J. H., & Co., Parkersburg, West Va.; R. V. Taft, carpets; Hotel Seville.
Adam, Meldrum & Anderson Company, Buffalo, N. Y.; L. Mocheimer, domestics; F. L. Zimmaker, wash goods; F. H. Myers, dress goods; 2 Walker Street.
Jackson, C. F., Company, Norwalk, Ohio; C. F. Jackson, general merchandise; K. C. Vromson, dry goods; Herald Square Hotel.
Hoger & Brother, Lancaster, Penn.; F. D. Perry, dry goods; 493 Broadway; Herald Square Hotel.
White, R. H., Company, Boston, Mass.; W. J. McGuire, furnishing goods; 41 Union Square; Herald Square Hotel.
Brager, A. A., Baltimore, Md.; T. G. Hardesty, notions, laces, and ribbons; C. H. Collins, dress goods, silks, and trimmings.
J. L. Meade, domestics; B. F. Dean, veilings, handkerchiefs, and leather goods; Herald Square Hotel.
Porteous, Mitchell & Brown Company, Portland, Me.; G. Hinckley, notions, laces, and ribbons; 57 White Street.
England Brothers, Pittsfield, Mass.; W. L. Noble, notions and furnishing goods; 75 Spring Street; Herald Square Hotel.
Rubel, J., Okolona, Miss.; dry goods; Herald Square Hotel.
Jones, J. F., Detroit, Mich.; notions; Herald Square Hotel.
Noyes, Thomas & Co., Charleston, West Va.; A. S. Thomas, notions and furnishing goods; Herald Square Hotel.
Dives, Pomeroy & Stewart, Reading, Penn.; J. A. Burkey, upholstery goods; 2 Walker Street.
Konn, S., Sons & Co., Washington, D. C.; T. F. Fiunles, notions and jewelry; 621 Broadway; Hotel Yorg.
Lightbody-Wingate Company, Superior, Wis.; W. S. Wingate, dry goods; Hotel York.
Holden & Stone, Pittsfield, Mass.; F. L. Stone, cloaks, suits, waists, and millinery; Hotel York.
Sweeney Company, Buffalo, N. Y.; S. E. Conrad, notions, hosiery, and gloves; 458 Broadway; Hotel York.
Adam, Meldrum & Anderson Company, Buffalo, N. Y.; R. Wilson, millinery; 2 Walker Street.
Daniels & Fisher Stores Company, Denver, Col.; A. F. Pohlman, art needlework and pictures; 56 Worth Street; Hotel Flanders.
Jonas, L., & Co., Nashville, Tenn.; A. Jonas, hats; J. W. Stein, silks; 621 Broadway; King Edward Hotel.
Gimbel Brothers, Philadelphia, Penn.; D. D. Adams, clothing; 821 Broadway; The Breslin.
Sisson Brothers & Welden Company, Binghamton, N. Y.; J. S. Copeland, silks; The Breslin.
Higgins-Fraze Company, Fall River, Mass.; W. M. Higgins, notions and laces; F. Sullivan, dry goods; Miss Lyons, laces; Miss A. Hunter, millinery; Herald Square Hotel.
Beyer & Co., Lancaster, Penn.; G. H. Mehl, dress goods and silks; Hotel Cumberland.
Watt & Shond, Lancaster, Penn.; C. Eby, dry goods; 57 White Street; The Breslin.
Higbee Company, Cleveland, Ohio; W. T. Higbee, gloves, ladies' and infants' wear; E. W. Morgan, domestics and cloths; F. Potts, linens; Hotel Imperial.
Saniler, L., Lancaster, Penn., dry goods; Hotel Imperial.
Scott-Griggs Company, Cleveland, Ohio; Miss E. McDowell, fancy goods; Miss E. D. Nook, ladies' wear; Hotel Imperial.
Galland Brothers, Wilkesbarre, Penn.; G. Galland, muslin underwear; 123 Fifth Avenue.
Harold & Von Mour, Davenport, Iowa; H. W. Von Mour, domestics and furnishing goods; 31 Union Square; Park Avenue Hotel.
Rehder, J. H., & Co., Wilmington, N. C.; J. H. Rehder, dry goods; Hotel Cadillac.
Cohen, Friedlander & Co., Toledo, Ohio; L. S. Ottenheimer, cloths; P. C. Jones, trimmings; Hotel Cadillac.
Burgunder Brothers, Baltimore, Md.; J. Burgunder, woolens; M. J. Burgunder, woolens; Hotel Cadillac.
Allen, H. W., Company, Burlington, Vt.; F. D. Abernethy, cloaks, suits, dress goods, and silks; Hotel Imperial.
Porter, J. J., & Company, Pittsburg, Penn.; F. A. Stevenson, laces and hosiery; F. C. Waddell, hats; Miss K. E. Wells, millinery; Hotel Grand.
Renwick Brothers Company, Pittsburg, Penn.; A. W. Renwick, flowers, feathers, and hats; 626 Broadway; Hotel Grand.
Fourquereon-Temple Company, Richmond, Va.; J. W. Savage, domestics; R. S. Gray, gloves, laces, ribbons, and furnishing goods; Hotel Grand.
McArvelon & Wakelin, Holyoke, Mass.; Miss K. W. Dwyer, notions and fancy goods; K. A. Griffin, furnishings; Hotel Navarre.
Friar, William H., & Co., Troy, N. Y.; O. K. Emerson, prints and petticoats; Hotel Navarre.
Iszaro, S. H., Company, Elmira, N. Y.; G. D. Matthews, furnishing goods, hosiery, and underwear; Hotel Navarre.
Tanner, N. W., Company, Saginaw, Mich.; G. W. Bixby, Sr., dry goods; Miss Boegert, laces; Hotel Navarre.
Chamberlin, Huntress Company, Fitchburg, Mass.; Miss G. Kielty, ladies' wear; Miss A. Dea, infants' wear; J. A. Duma, cloaks and suits; E. N. Cunningham, dry goods; Hotel Navarre.

NORTH POLE
ESKIMOS
TEDDY LIONS
L. LEBEL, MANUFACTURER,
425 Broadway, New York.

In the month of August The New York Times printed the greatest volume of transportation advertising, with an increase of 8,144 lines over the corresponding month of last year. During the eight months ending August 31, compared with the same period of last year, the increase was 43,869 lines, the greatest of any newspaper.—Adv.

Guide for Buyers.

Directory of leading Wholesale Merchants and Manufacturers.

For Information Telephone 1000 Bryant.

ADVERTIS'G MDSE., SIGNS & CALENDARS
W. A. Anderson & Co., 81-83 Fulton St.
ALBUMS.
Wm. E. Leuchtenberg, 32 Union Square.
BRAIDS.
Novelty Braid Mills, 25 East 20th St.
CANDIES.
Beinhauer Bros. Candy Co., 617-623 W. 47th.
CORSETS.
American Lady Corset Co. 44 East 14th St.
La Reine Corsets, Birdsey-Somers Co., 3 W. 19th.
COSTUMES AND DRESSES.
David Harris, 122 Fifth Avenue.
I. D. Levy & Bro., 56 W. 22d St., nr. 6th Av.
CROCHET AND KNIT SCARFS.
Blanchard & Price, 142 Fifth Avenue.
CUSTOMS BROKERS AND FORWARDERS.
Chas. Friedenberg, 17-19 State St. Est. 1890.
DRESS TRIMMINGS AND ROBES.
Royal Embroidery Works, 79 Fifth Av.
EMBROIDERIES.
Stein, Doblin & Co., 683-5-7 Broadway.
Zahner & Schiess Co., 515-17 Broadway.
FURS.
A. Arnstam & Co., 97 Fifth Av., cor. 17th.
HOSIERY.
American Hosiery Co. 108-110 Franklin St.
Buster Brown's Hosiery Mill, 369 B'way.
JEWELRY.
S. F. Myers Co., 47-49 Maiden Lane.
JEWELRY BOXES & Window Novelties.
Albert Borgzinner & Co., 66 Nassau St.
Wolfsheim & Sachs, 35 Maiden Lane.
LEATHER Novelties, Trav. Bags, Belts, &c.
John Davenport & Co., 760 Broadway.
Deitsch Bros., 14 East 17th St.
Grossman Leather Co., Inc., 78 Fifth Ave.
LEATHER GOODS.
The Gorham Co., 5th Av. and 36th St.
LINOLEUMS AND CORK CARPETS.
Scott & West Company, 133 Fifth Av.
Joseph Wild & Co., 366-370 Fifth Av.
NECKWEAR—Men's.
Louis Auerbach, 842, 844, & 846 Broadway.
Bachrach Co., 15 West 24th St.
Berliner, Strauss & Meyer, 733, 735, 737 B'way
Hano Cravats, 1161 B'way, at 27th St.
Keiser Cravat, 10-16 West 20th St.
Charles W. Lyford & Son, 141 Fifth Avenue.
Opper & Levinson, Reppo Cravats, 725 B'way.
SOLIDSILK SCARVES. Louis Auerbach, 846 B'way.
Reppo Cravats, Opper & Levinson, 725 B'way.
NECKWEAR AND BELTS—Women's.
Boehm & Levine, (also Ruchings,) 561 B'way.
Mayer & Crowley, 5 East 17th St.
RAINCOATS.
Harris Raincoat Co., 87-89 Fifth Av.
Klein Bros., Raincoats, $2.25 to $8. 441 B'way.
RIBBONS.
Manhattan Ribbon Co., 96-98 Prince St.
SPECTACLES, Eyeglasses, Optical Goods.
The Julius King Optical Co., 12 Maiden Lane.
Spencer Optical Co., 21 Maiden Lane.
STERLING SILVERWARE.
The Gorham Co., 5th Av. and 36th St.
SUSPENDERS, BELTS, AND GARTERS.
Knothe Bros., 122 Fifth Av.
TOYS, DOLLS AND NOVELTIES.
L. H. Mace & Co., 111-117 East Houston St.
UMBRELLAS.
The Gorham Co., 5th Av. and 36th St.
VEILINGS AND VEILETTS.
The Ideal Veiling Co., 620 Broadway.
WATCHES—American.
Louis Manheimer & Bros., 35 Maiden Lane.
WHITE DUCK COATS AND TROUSERS.
F. Levy, "Fit Well" Apparel, 102-104 W. 38.
WOMEN'S NECKWEAR AND BELTS.
James R. Keiser, 10-16 West 20th St.

AUCTION SALES.

DAVID W. BIOW & CO., Auct'rs,
Tel. 2437 Franklin. 13-15 Lispenard St.,
Sell Thursday, Sept. 9, 10:30 A.M.
RETAIL STOCK OF
MEN'S FURNISHINGS
MEN'S YOUTHS' AND CHILDREN'S CLOTHING
ALSO A LARGE ASSORTMENT OF ROCHESTER MADE SUITS AND OVERCOATS,

FOR SALE.

Rented $3 month; $100 machines $15 to $50 six months, rental allowed to apply if purchased. Typewriter Sales Co., 5 Cortlandt St. Telephone 1983 Cortlandt.

BUDD & CO., 71 Spring St., Near Subway. High-grade Office Furniture, desks, tables, chairs, partitions; also several sound-proof telephone booths and stock quotation boards at reasonable prices. Tel. 5483Spg

SAFES New and second-hand, of all kinds and makes; safes bought, exchanged and repaired. YORK SAFE&LOCK CO., formerly J.M.Mossman, 55 MaldenLane. Tel.1423John

OFFICE PARTITIONS.
Highest grade of workmanship; lowest price. Save money by getting our price before you buy. David Kramer, 43 Broad St. 'Phone connec'n.

MIRRORS BARGAINS. All kinds, framed, unframed. PLATE GLASS TOPS to cover desks, furniture, etc. Nathan Lyons, 129-131 West 31st St. Tel. 7190 Mad. Sq.

Carpenter shop; good trade; cheap rent. 928 Amsterdam Av. Basement.

SUMMER RESORTS.
NEW YORK—Westchester County.

HOTEL GRAMATAN
Bronxville, Westchester County, N. Y.
OPEN ALL THE YEAR
With the new FIREPROOF ADDITION completed, it affords accommodations for 400 guests. Its accessibility, being but 30 minutes from the Grand Central via the Harlem Division, N. Y. Central, makes it a most desirable Winter home for the New York business man.
Most Moderate Winter Rates of any First Class Hotel in or near New York
Conducted in a manner which has attracted to itself a most discriminating clientele. Special Winter rates from November 1st to May 1st. Send for booklet and full information.
J. J. LANNIN COMPANY, Props.

NEW YORK—Long Island.

GARDEN CITY HOTEL
GARDEN CITY.....LONG ISLAND
18 miles from New York. Open all the year. Quiet, refined, and exclusive.
J. J. LANNIN CO., Props.

NEW YORK—Brooklyn.
SIR HENRY
In beautiful Flatbush. One minute's walk from Avenue C and B. B. Railroad; 25 minutes from City Hall, New York, and 20 minutes from the ocean. 2, 3, 4 rooms and bath. Restaurant a la carte or meals by the week. For particulars address J. A. Dilliard, Avenue C, corner East 16th St., Flatbush.

NEW YORK—Briarcliff Manor.
BRIARCLIFF MANOR, NEW YORK.
BRIARCLIFF LODGE,
open May 1st to Dec. 1st for accommodation of 300 guests. Apartments leased with exclusive decorations and furnishings.
D. B. PLUMER, Manager.
New York representative at 5½ East 46th St. Mr. Plumer's Winter connection will be Hotel Green, at Pasadena, Calif., opening December 1st.

NEW JERSEY—Spring Lake.
"September at the Seashore."
THE NEW MONMOUTH
Spring Lake Beach, N. J.
Automobiling, riding, driving, tennis, golf, canoeing, bathing, sailing, fishing.
275 ROOMS. 200 BATHS.
FRANK F. SHUTE, Manager.

NEW JERSEY—Plainfield.
Plainfield Sanitarium, Plainfield, N. J.—Located Watchung Mountains; chronic and nervous cases; no insane; open all the year. Booklet. Telephone 84.

NEW JERSEY—Atlantic City.
Marlborough-Blenheim
(CAPACITY 1100)
The leading resort house of America. Particularly attractive during September and October, the most delightful months of the whole year at Atlantic City.
The rooms are large and the 400 private baths are each supplied with hot and cold sea water. Exquisite music is a feature. White service in both American and European Dining Rooms. Fall rate schedule in effect Sept. 10th.
JOSIAH WHITE & SONS COMPANY.

HOTEL IROQUOIS
Ocean end So. Carolina Av., close to attractions; cap. 400; elevator; private bath; fine porches, orchestra, &c. Special, $12.50 up weekly. Always open. Booklet. W. F. Shaw.

NEW JERSEY—Montclair.
IN NEW YORK yet out of it.
THE MONTCLAIR,
MONTCLAIR, N. J.
Apply Am. Hotel Bureau, 1122 B'way, N.Y.

PENNSYLVANIA—Mt. Pocono.
Pocono Mountains, Canadensis, Pa.—NEW SPRUCE CABIN INN. Rooms en suite and with private bath. All amusements. Steam heat. Shooting in season. Booklet. W. J. & M. D. Price.

MT. PLEASANT HOUSE Finest location on Pocono Mts. Fall rates, $19 up. W. T. & H. M. Leech.

NEW ENGLAND—Connecticut.
EDGEWOOD INN.
Just one block off Greenwich, Conn. Boston Post Road.
28 miles from N. Y. 45 minutes by rail. Location and surroundings unexcelled for Fall Outing.
THE IDEAL OF AN AMERICAN COUNTRY HOTEL.
Every City Comfort With Every Country Charm. Garage—First-class Livery—Golf—Tennis—Bowling—Music. Open-air Colonial Tea Room added this season, with service at all hours. Booklet. D. P. SIMPSON, Manager.

SUMMER RESORTS.
NEW YORK—Westchester County.

HUDSON RIVER NIGHT LINES
The Most Magnificent River Fleet in the World.
ESTABLISHED 1835.
THE POPULAR SEARCHLIGHT ROUTE.

PEOPLES LINE
NEW YORK AND ALBANY
Strs. C. W. Morse or Adirondack leave N. Y. daily, Pier 32, No. River, foot of Canal St., at 6 P. M.; West 129th St., at 6:30 P. M.

CITIZENS LINE
NEW YORK AND TROY
New Strs. Trojan or Rensselaer leave N. Y. daily, (Saturday excepted,) Pier 46, No. River, foot of West 10th St., at 6 P. M.; Yonkers, 7 P. M. (until Sept. 10 inclu.)

Splendid accommodations. Connecting with trains for points North, East and West—Tickets and rooms secured at piers and principal ticket offices in Greater New York—Horses, carriages and automobiles carried at reasonable rates. Express Freight Service. Quick Delivery.
This Company operates only modern and safe steamers.

HARTFORD LINE.
From New Pier 19, East River, foot of Peck Slip, daily, except Sunday, at 5 P. M., for Connecticut River Landings. Write for illustrated folder.

EXCURSIONS.
CHARMING EXCURSIONS
Up the Picturesque Hudson to West Point, Newburg and Poughkeepsie
Daily (except Sunday) by Palace Iron Day Line Steamers "Hendrick Hudson," "Robert Fulton," and "Albany." Brooklyn, Fulton St., (by Annex.) 8; Desbrosses St., 8:40 and 9:40; W. 42d St., 9:00 and 10:00; W. 129th St., 9:20 and 10:20 A. M. Returning on either down boat due 42d St. 5:30 or 8:40 P. M.
On Saturdays at West Point Full Dress Inspection with the Band at 1:25 P. M.
MORNING AND AFTERNOON CONCERTS.
DELIGHTFUL AFTERNOON EXCURSION TO WEST POINT
STEAMER MARY POWELL.
Leaving Desbrosses St. 1:45; W. 42d St. 2:00; W. 129th St. 2:20 P. M. Arriving West Point 5 P. M., where close connection for New York is made with Day Line steamer "ALBANY." Excursion fare $1.00. Also choice when buying ticket of return by any West Shore or N. Y. Cent. train or Cent. Hud. Str. $1.10, giving ample time to see Cadets in Camp, Public Buildings, &c. Orchestra on board.
This Excursion Made Daily, except Sunday.

DELIGHTFUL TOUR
Gettysburg
Luray Caverns
Natural Bridge
Richmond
Old Point Comfort
Washington, etc.
A most charming tour at the choicest season of the year, leaving New York Sept. 21st. Send for Booklet.
RAYMOND & WHITCOMB CO.
225 FIFTH AVENUE, N. Y.
Tel. 6270 Gramercy.

BALTIMORE STEAM PACKET COMPANY
(OLD BAY LINE)
For Old Point Comfort, Norfolk and Portsmouth, Va.
Splendid Steamers. Finest South of New York.
All the delicacies of the Chesapeake.
Leave Baltimore every week day at 6:30 P. M., affording a refreshing night's rest. Connection made by Pennsylvania R. R. train leaving Jersey City at 1:15 P. M. and Baltimore & Ohio R. R. train leaving at 12:12 P. M.
Tickets on sale at all principal offices.

NORTH BEACH, L. I.
Boats East 99th & 134th Sts.
GRAND CARNIVAL TO-DAY TO-NIGHT
FREE FIREWORKS, PARADES, ATTRACTIONS

HOTELS AND RESTAURANTS.
When you come to New York City stop at the HOTEL ROLAND
Handy to everything. Street cars to everywhere
MODERN HOTEL.
NICE ROOMS WITH BATH FOR PER DAY $1.00 $1.50 $2.50
59th St., Madison and Park Avs. Block from Plaza entrance to Park.
ROLAND D. JONES, Prop.

SAFES New and second-hand, of all kinds and makes; safes bought, exchanged and repaired. YORK SAFE&LOCK CO., formerly J.M.Mossman, 55 MaldenLane. Tel.1423John

OFFICE PARTITIONS.
Highest grade of workmanship; lowest price. Save money by getting our price before you buy. David Kramer, 43 Broad St. 'Phone connec'n.

MIRRORS BARGAINS. All kinds, framed, unframed. PLATE GLASS TOPS to cover desks, furniture, etc. Nathan Lyons, 129-131 West 31st St. Tel. 7190 Mad. Sq.

Carpenter shop; good trade; cheap rent. 928 Amsterdam Av. Basement.

Hudson-Fulton Celebration.

Out-of-town readers desiring to be kept informed of every detail of the Hudson-Fulton celebration in New York should have the daily and Sunday editions of The New York Times mailed to them. Subscription rate, 17 cents a week.—Adv.

HUDSON RIVER BY DAYLIGHT
Palatial Steamers "HENDRICK HUDSON," "ROBERT FULTON," "ALBANY," and "MARY POWELL," of the Hudson River Day Line, fastest and finest river boats in the world.

| Lve. | Read Down. | | | Arr. | Read Up. | |
|---|---|---|---|---|---

IN THE REAL ESTATE FIELD

Sale of Amsterdam Avenue Corner—Deal for Cowdin Estate Holdings at Far Rockaway—Day's Business by Brokers and at Auction.

Gibbs & Kirby have sold for Selma Stahl the northwest corner of Amsterdam Avenue and Ninety-fourth Street, a five-story flat, on plot 40.8 by 100.

Purchase in P. R. R. District.

Collins & Barry have sold for Philip Laracy the four-story flat 312 West Thirtieth Street, on lot 22 by 98.9.

West End Avenue House Sold.

Thomas J. O'Reilly has sold to Adele R. Ahrens for J. Cassidy 755 West End Avenue, a three-story dwelling, on lot 16.8 by 100.

Resale on Upper Eighth Avenue.

C. J. Elgar has resold for David Rosenblum to Jacob Hack 2,455 Eighth Avenue, a five-story double flat.

Barnett & Co. have sold for Col. Robert S. Heilferty 2,139 Lexington Avenue, a four-story flat, with stores, on lot 20 by 60, to an investor.

T. Scott & Son have leased for Clara A. Feuchtwanger the dwelling 130 East Seventy-sixth Street for five years at $1,600 a year; also, for Lucy A. Trippe, the dwelling 163 East Seventy-eighth Street for three years.

Big Acreage Deal at Far Rockaway.

Maximilian Morgenthau has purchased from J. E. Cowdin, executor of the estate of Gertrude Cheever Cowdin, all the holdings of the estate in Far Rockaway. The property consists of about three acres upland with a large dwelling, which has been occupied by the Cowdins since 1885. The purchase also includes about nine acres of meadow land, bordering on the south the property of Edgemere Crest and on the north the Corey, Norton, and Lichtenstein properties. Edgemere Crest is the company which purchased early this year all of the Dickerson meadows, about twenty-four acres. This company has arranged for the erection of a large pumping plant and began last Thursday the work of reclaiming the tract. It is planned to fill all of the meadows and make extensive improvements in the near future. Andrew McTigue of Far Rockaway negotiated the sale of the Cowdin estate property.

Lease to Isman Recorded.

The lease of the property at the southeast corner of Broadway and Forty-eighth Street, extending through to Seventh Avenue, by Moritz B. Philipp to Felix Isman, was recorded yesterday.

The Charles F. Noyes Company has leased the entire building at 12 Gold Street to William R. Berryman for a term of years and the entire building 121 West Forty-third Street to Rovelli & Perino; also, for the W. A. Harder Realty and Construction Company, 4,500 square feet in the new building at 124 and 126 White Street, to William P. Mitchell & Sons, for a long term; for Kiggins & Tooker Company 5,000 square feet in 39 and 41 Park Place to the Weeks-Numan Company; the second loft in 180 William Street for Mrs. Gertie A. Gorman to the National Leather Goods Company, and the first loft in 295 Pearl Street for Henry Leerburger to H. G. Simmons.

Follmer, Clogg & Co. have rented from Henry Corn, through William C. Walker's Sons, the entire second loft, with a frontage of 92 feet on Fifth Avenue, in the new building now being erected at the southwest corner of Fifth Avenue and Seventeenth Street. The lessees will use the floor as a salesroom.

Leases in Fifth Avenue District.

Henry D. Winans & May have leased the following dwellings: 44 East Thirty-fifth Street, for Dr. Virgil P. Gibney; 19 East Sixty-first Street, to Mrs. Fanny Ellinger; 21 East Sixty-first Street, to Louis L. Hopkins; also, for Raymond Hoagland to Dr. Richard Lewisohn and Julian Nathan, 774 Madison Avenue; also, to Henry B. Stokes, 31 West Fifty-second Street; also, for William Dean Howells to Mrs. Rachael Ranger, 38 East Seventy-third Street; also, for H. H. Rohers to W. Harry Motley, 578 Madison Avenue; also, for Mrs. Cecelia F. Barrows to Mrs. Ellen Lahey, 138 East Fifty-fourth Street; also, for the estate of Mary C. Tompkins, 122 West Ninety-third Street; also, for F. Bianchi Tompkins to Mrs. Nettie L. Farnum, 134 West Ninety-third Street; also, for George Nelson to Mrs. Annie Graham, 143 East Fifty-second Street; also, for Charles L. Smith of Orange, N. J., to S. Lowenthal & Son, the ground-floor store of 602 Madison Avenue; also, for Mrs. Sidney Dillon Ripley, 16 East Seventy-ninth Street; also, for William M. Jaffray, 32 East Seventy-sixth Street; also, for Hamilton Fish, 55 East Seventy-seventh Street; also, for Leo W. Dodd, 44 East Sixty-fourth Street; also, for the estate of William E. Dodge, 20 East Thirty-ninth Street; also, for the Oxford Realty Company, 59 West Fifty-fourth Street; also, for Mary E. Bloodgood, 14 West Fifty-fourth Street, and for the Fifth Avenue Estates Company, the fourth apartment in the Van Norden Building, 780 and 787 Fifth Avenue, for a term of years.

Tenants for West Side Houses.

Slawson & Hobbs have rented the following dwellings: 547 West End Avenue, for W. E. D. Stokes; 121 West Eighty-second Street, for Merten A. Cheesman; 104 West Seventy-fourth Street, for Dr. Lathrop; 59 West Ninetieth Street, for Mrs. E. C. Sherman; 264 West Seventy-second Street, for W. E. D. Stokes; 140 West Ninety-seventh Street, for Julia E. Slosson; 314 West Seventy-first Street, for T. G. Hayes; 267 West Seventy-first Street, for Gertrude Evans Price; 269 West Seventy-first Street, for Emilia W. Chapin, and 257 West End Avenue, for O. S. Cockey.

Rent Receiver Appointed.

Philip A. Schindler has been appointed by Justice Amend receiver of the rents of 305 West 127th Street, in a foreclosure suit brought by the Twelfth Ward Bank, and of 227 and 229 East Seventy-third Street, in foreclosure proceedings, in which the Van Norden Trust Company is plaintiff.

The Harlem Property Owners' Association will meet to-morrow evening in the Twelfth Ward Bank Building, 147 East 125th Street.

Charles J. Brady, formerly with Joseph P. Day, is now associated with David Vogel at 198 Broadway.

G. Carlucci & Co. have leased to B. Larala the five-story tenement 141 Thompson Street for five years, at an aggregate rental of $15,000.

Contracts for New Buildings.

Contracts for the erection of the following buildings have been awarded to the Thompson-Starrett Company: A twelve-story combination light manufacturing and automobile building at 244 to 252 West Fifty-fourth Street; owners, Albert R. Shattuck and George F. Chamberlin; architect, Percy Griffin. Also, an eight-story office building to be erected in Jersey City from plans prepared by William Pearson Field, civil engineer, and C. A. Rich, architect. Work on these structures will be begun immediately.

Loan for Bronx Builders.

The Lawyers Title Insurance and Trust Company has made a building loan of $168,000 to Weisman & Herman on the property, 240 by 110 and irregular, on the west side of Fox Street, 100 feet south of 163d Street.

Successful Suburban Auctions.

George W. Bard's auction sale of plots in the Chester Hill section of Mount Vernon on Monday was very successful. The property consisted of sixty-four plots adjoining the Siwanoy Country Club golf grounds, and the entire offering was disposed of for a total of $83,030. The buying was about evenly divided between Mount Vernon and New York investors.

The auction sale of eighty-three lots at Livingston, S. I., conducted by the Jere Johnson, Jr., Company, realized a total of $24,485. The buyers included M. Forgeon, J. Kempner, W. Curry, L. Schwartz, V. J. Sans, J. Goffrido, W. Wertz, A. Drono, J. A. Lynch, F. Wertz, F. Mosher, J. Lawrence, E. H. Leng, and E. F. Adams.

Results at Auction.

Yesterday's offerings in the Real Estate Salesroom, 14 and 16 Vesey Street, resulted as follows:

By Samuel Marx.

Canal St, 73, n w corner of Allen St, 22.6x75, seven-story loft and store building; foreclosure sale, to the plaintiffs, L. D. Livingston and others, $76,350.

By Joseph P. Day.

49th St, 326 to 330, s s, 320 ft e of 2d Av, 55x100.5, six-story tenement and stores; foreclosure sale, to the plaintiffs, Wilhelmina Bohland and others, $62,000.

78th St, 443, n s, 144 ft w of Avenue A, 25x102.2, fire-story brick tenement; foreclosure sale, adjourned to Sept. 8.

241st St, n s, 135 ft e of Katonah Av, 25x100, two-story dwelling; also 241st St, n s, 185 ft e of Katonah Av, 25x100, two-story dwelling; also 241st St, n s, 235 ft e of Katonah Av, 25x100, two-story dwelling; also 241st St, n s, 285 ft e of Katonah Av, 50x100, two two-story dwellings; foreclosure sale, adjourned to Sept. 14.

By Bryan L. Kennelly.

Riverside Drive, 413, e s, 52.7 ft n of 113th St, 50x111.9x50x98.7, two-story dwelling; foreclosure sale, to August L. Hayes, $57,240.

By Samuel Goldsticker.

180th St, n s, block front between Cambrelling and Beaumont Avs, 149.7x40x150.6x40; five-story flat and stores and vacant; foreclosure sale, to the plaintiff, Prospect Investing Company, $12,578.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 7.

AVENUE B, n e corner of 10th St, 23.8x93; Avenue B, e s, 23.8 ft n of 10th St, 23.8x93; Max Radt to Victor Muller, (mtg $109,000,) $100.

BEEKMAN ST, 50, s s, 23.0x100.7 to 89 Ann St.; Eliza C. Foot to Lawrence Foot of Canton, Miss., ¼ part, (mtg $12,000,) $8,000.

BRONXDALE AV, w s, 227.4 ft s of 187th St, 1 lot; Henry Parfitt to Rachel Bailey, $100.

BROOME ST, 113, s s, 25x100; Maurice J. McCarthy to Simon Hammerstein, $37,271.

FERRIS AV, w s, 816.3 ft s of St. Joseph's Institute, 173.3x irregular, Throgg's Neck; James Kearney to Joseph A. Bennett, (mtg $10,000,) $25,000.

FORT CHARLES PLACE, s s, 136.1 ft w of Marble Hill, 62.7x63.5x53.10x31.5; Edward F. Corey to Charles J. Nunan, $4,000.

LEXINGTON AV, 2,139, 20x60; Michael Katz to B. W. Barnett, (mtg $5,000,) $1.

LOT 161, map of Koch homestead, Westchester; Margaret Berrian and others to Mary A. Arthur, $1.

LOT 522, map of Laconia Park; Melrose Realty Co. to Pietro Bennardo, (mtg $500,) $100.

LOT 47, parcel 18, Ogden estate, Highbridge; Harry J. Whitaker to John Ferguson Co., (mtg $350,) $1.

LOTS 103 to 107, map of Koch homestead; Frederick W. Koch and others to Thomas Scott, $1.

MADISON ST, 220, 26.1x100; Joseph C. Levi, referee, to Theodore Bitterman and another, (mtg $—,) $5,000.

PARKVIEW PLACE, s e corner of 190th St, 85x85; Hugh McLernon and others to Terrace Construction Co., (mtg $4,000,) $100.

RESERVOIR PLACE, s s, 22.9 ft e of Reservoir Oval, 22.9x100x20.6x100; Leah Cohn to Joseph Poldow, (mtg $6,000,) $1.

SPRING ST, 20, s s, 22.7x irregular; Giovanna Caggiano to Romo Construction and Engineering Co., (mtg $42,000,) $100.

ST. ANN'S AV, n w corner of 147th St, 75x100; 149th St, Realty Co. to Ward Bread Co., (mtg $9,000,) $100.

ST. PAUL'S AV, e s, 157.3 ft n of Pelham Road, 150x100.2; Charles Miller to Philip J. Schaaf, $100.

TREMONT AV, e s, 27.7 ft n of 177th St, 25x125.6; John Massimino Co. to Ellen McGuire, (mtg $10,000,) $100.

WEBSTER AV, e s, 106.6 ft s of 170th St, 56.6x90; Capodilupo Construction Co. to Henrietta Isaacs and another, (mtg $6,500,) $100.

WRIGHT AV, e s, 200 ft n of Nelson Av, 25x149.3; Land Co. C of Edenwald to Margaret O'Neill, $1.

2D AV, 1,921, w s, 25x79; Fannie Sondberg to Jacob Ernst, (mtg $13,500,) $100.

5TH AV, w s, 375 ft n of Nelson Av, 25x100; Land Co. D of Edenwald to John A. Hannson, $1.

49TH ST, 326 and 330 East, 55x100.5; Edward W. Sohmer, referee, to Wilhelmina Bohland and another, (mtg $52,000,) $10,000.

121ST ST, 442 and 444 East, s s, 41x100.11; Esther Schulman to George Freeman, (mtg $42,500,) $100.

162D ST, 521 West, n s, 19x99.11; Josephine H. Larkin to Maria Coakley, (mtg $14,500,) $100.

177TH ST, 451, e s, 80.4 ft from e s of Tremont Av, 22.9x irregular; John Massimino Co. to Ellen McGuire, (mtg $9,500,) $100.

187TH ST, 660 and 662 East, 50x100; Simon Lesser to Esther Schulman, (mtg $46,750,) $100.

Recorded Mortgages.

Interest is at 5% unless otherwise specified.

ARTHUR, Mary A., to Margaret Berrian; Lot 161, map of 214 lots, Koch homestead; 3 years $371

BAILEY, Rachel, to Paul Langner; Bronxdale Av, w s, 227.4 ft s of 187th St, 3 years, 6% $4,000

BAILEY, Rachel, to Henry Parfitt; Bronxdale Av, w s, 227.4 ft s of 187th St, prior mtg $4,000, 3 years, 6% $1,000

BERGEN, William C., to James H. Robertson, trustee; Aqueduct Av, e s, 350 ft s of 183d St, 37.6x102.6, 3 years $11,500

BERGEN, William C., to Adam Campbell and another, trustees; Aqueduct Av, e s, 425 ft s of 183d St, 37.6x102.4, 3 years $11,000

BERGEN, William C., to Adam Campbell and another, trustees; Aqueduct Av, e s, 387.6 ft s of 183d St, 37.6x102.5, 3 years, 4½% $7,500

BERMAN, Jacob, to Theresa Staff; Brook Av, 498, 5 years $19,000

BOETTCHER, Wanda, to Carrie Katzenberg; 68th St, s s, 166.8 ft w of 2d Av, 16.8x100, prior mtg $6,000, due Jan. 30, 1913, 6% $2,000

BRIGGS, Arthur E., to Title Insurance Co. of New York; Valentine Av, s w corner of Fordham Road, 134.3x110, 3 years $17,000

CAHILL, Edward J., to Herbert S. Ogden; Lot 20, Map of 107 lots of Hudson Park, due Dec. 1, 1912, 5½% $4,000

FARULO, Charles R., and another to Emma Pfizenmayer and another, executors; Pearl St, 474, 5 years $30,000

FEINS, David D., to Jefferson M. Levy; Lot 53, Block 27, map of Edenwald, due, &c., as per bond $250

FLYNN, John J., and another to Emigrant Industrial Savings Bank; 131st St, n s, 150 ft w of Boulevard, 50x99.11, 5 years, 4½% $15,000

GARGAN, Margaret E., to Margaret J. Becker; 175th St, 241 East, 3 years $6,000

GOLDMAN, Bertha, to William J. Herwig; Division St, 96 and 98, prior mtg $36,000, 3 years, 6% $5,000

GRUBER, Ignace, to Dollar Savings Bank of the City of New York; 203d St, s w corner of Williamsbridge Road, —x—, due Dec. 1, 1910, 5½% $6,000

HALLOCK, James W., to Alfred B. Booth; City Island Av, n w corner of Scofield Av, 50x62.3, 3 years, 6% $2,000

KIERNAN, Mary A., to William Stube and others, executors; 44th St, 549 West, 5 years $8,000

KOENIGSBERG, Israel, and another to Citizens' Savings Bank; Suffolk St, 170, due Nov. 15, 1914, 4½% $24,000

MALONE, Peter, to Lillie G. Field; 28th St, 332 West, prior mtg $9,000, due, &c., as per bond $3,000

NAEGELE, John D., to Charles A. Mapes; 5th St, s s, 155 ft w of Avenue B, 25x108, Westchester, due, &c., as per bond $200

RUBINGER, Charles, to German Savings Bank; 13th St, 213 and 215 West, 3 years, 4½% $30,000

SCHRADER, Stephen, to Greenwich Savings Bank; Leroy St, 23, due, &c., as per bond $15,000

SCOTT, Thomas, to Frederick W. Koch; Lots 103 to 107, map of 214 lots, Koch homestead, 3 years $2,520

VAN DEMARK, Grace L., to Park Mortgage Co.; Adrian Av, w s, 493 ft s of Terrace View Av, 37.6x100, prior mtg $4,450, due Oct. 1, 1912, 5½% $1,550

VARIAN, Huram B., to George B. D. Reave; 237th St, n s, 77.4 ft e of Katonah Av, 50x100, due, &c., as per bond $5,500

WILSEY, Frank D., to Along the Hudson Co.; 231st St, n s, 150.9 ft from Park Drive, due Oct. 1, 1912 ..... $15,000

Mechanics' Liens.

137TH ST, 436 East; Frank Straub against Josephine Patello and Domenico Scicco, owners and contractors, $85.

8TH AV, n e corner of 46th St, 50x100; C. Anderson against Metropolitan Mercantile and Realty Co., owner; Morris & Beaman, contractors, $75.

8TH AV, n e corner of 46th St, 50x100; C. Anderson against Metropolitan Mercantile and Realty Co., owner and contractor, $235.

CEDAR AV, s w corner of 177th St, 126x85; Joseph F. Vielberth against P. J. Murphy, owner; Keller & Co., contractors, $220.

WEEHAWKEN ST, 9 and 11; American Machine Co. against Thomas Lynch, owner; Levin & Levin Contracting Co., contractor, $733.

EAST BROADWAY, 222; Charles Furst against Louis Friedenberg, owner; Sigmund Fox, contractor, $72.

EAST BROADWAY, 253; Samuel Rosenberg against Fanny Liebovitz, owner; Glassman, Lubovitz & Co., contractors, $120.

Satisfied Mechanics' Lien.

CRUGER AV, w s, 150 ft s of Locust Av; Mount Vernon Builders' Supply Co. against John Marsea and others, Aug. 5, 1909, (by deposit,) $129.

LORILLARD PLACE, w s, 133.9 ft n of 187th St; Thomas B. Bowne & Son Co. against D'Angelo Realty Co. and others, Aug. 24, 1909, $498.

MORRIS AV, 2,338 and 2,340; P. Carucci & Co. against Michael Handy and others, Aug. 26, 1909, (by bond,) $904.

Lis Pendens.

LUDLOW ST, 16; Charles A. Sherman, executor, against Bertha Sarasohn and others, (foreclosure of mortgage;) attorneys, Bowers & Sands.

CHERRY ST, 222; Jacob Scheer and others against Max Wolper and others, (foreclosure of mortgage;) attorney, L. A. Jaffer.

134TH ST, 710 East; Nathan Natelson against Louis Isorsky and others, (foreclosure of mortgage;) attorneys, Siegel & Siegel.

CLAREMONT AV, 122 to 128; Anton Larsen and other against Joel Marks and others, (action to foreclose mechanic's lien;) attorney, F. E. M. Bullowa.

63D ST, 210 East; Julius Bachrach and others against First Avenue Realty Co. and others, (foreclosure of mortgage;) attorney, I. Cohen.

MANHATTAN—FOR SALE.

Our Experience

of over twenty-two years enables us to examine and insure Titles to Real Estate as rapidly as it can be done with due regard to accuracy and safety.

Lawyers Title Insurance and Trust Company

CAPITAL - - $4,000,000
SURPLUS - - 5,500,000
($5,000,000 added to surplus in last 17 years)
100 Broadway, New York.
188 Montague Street, Brooklyn.

The TITLE INSURANCE Company of New York

135 Broadway,
insures titles to real estate and lends money on bond and mortgage.

DUMB WAITERS

Repaired and maintained under yearly contract.
FIDELITY DUMB WAITER GUARANTEE CO.,
Tel. 1728 Stuyvesant. 142 East 14th St.

Nothing is Cleaner and Brighter than WHITEWASHING
well done. F. J. FLECK & CO.,
407 West 18th St. Tel. 99 Chelsea.

Excellent building nearby; large elevator; fine offices; rent, $200 monthly. Duross, 159 West 14th St.

West Side.

420 West 116th Street.

A new, strictly fireproof building having apartments of one room and private bath, with monthly rental at $30.00. All other rentals proportionately low.

Not a court, inside, or dark room in the building. Apartments all cleaned by a vacuum and arranged in one, two, and three rooms, with private bath, furnished or unfurnished, all including maid service. All-night elevator service, good restaurant, including breakfast tray service.

The most ideal location to reside in all New York, located opposite Columbia College, at 116th St. Broadway Express Subway Station, having unobstructed extended view of Hudson River and Long Island Sound.

Take up your residence here, enjoy greater comforts, and by so doing reduce your living expenses $8.00 to $12.00 each week.

Verify the accuracy of this announcement, also how to increase your comforts without increasing your living expenses by calling to see the building, its surroundings, and the apartments offered at the low rental quoted here.

420 West 116th Street.

Broadway and Amsterdam Surface Cars; Broadway Subway, 116th Street Station.

14% RETURN on $35,000 Equity
in the cleanest
HIGH CLASS APARTMENT HOUSE
proposition in New York. 12 apts.; elevator.
Riverside Drive District, in the Nineties.
William S. Denison, 141 Broadway.

Apartments For Sale or For Rent.

Luxurious homes, facing a park and radically different from anything previously built in New York. 9 or 10 large rooms, 3 baths.
RENTS, $8,300-$4,800.
44 W. 77th St., Manhattan Square.
PEASE & ELLIMAN,
165 West 72d St. (at B'way.) Tel. 8300 Columbus.

Moderate price, easy terms will buy three-story high-stoop; hardwood floors; modern improvements; house perfect condition; residential block. Apply Owner, 254 West 132d St.

A Bargain.—4-story private house, 7th Av., near 136th St.; possession; in fine order; call quick. Harry Lilly, 271 West 125th St.

East Side.

Gramercy Park Club.
36 Gramercy Park—East.
Co-operative Ownership.
Apartments of 8-9-10 Rooms & 3 Baths.
SALE PRICE $8900 TO $12000.
Rentals $2350 to $3168.
S. de Wolltearss & Hull, Agents,
18-20 W. 34th St. 135 Broadway.

53 EAST 73D STREET.
BEAUTIFUL, FOUR-STORY DWELLING,
3-STORY EXTENSION;
12 ROOMS—3 BATHS.
IMMEDIATE POSSESSION.
LOUIS A. SOLOMON, 41 PARK ROW.

789 Lexington Av.—Four-story twenty-foot dwelling; asking $30,000; offers wanted; principals only. David, 109 Overlook St., Mount Vernon.

Four-story single flat, 31st St., near 3d Av., $15,500. Duross, 159 Broadway.

BRONX—FOR SALE OR TO LET.

Beautiful West Bronx; overlooking Hudson River, Palisades; near railroad, Subway, trolleys; elegant neighborhood; fine residences; all improvements; electric lights, parquet floors, nine rooms; plot, driveway, $7,500; 10 rooms, corner, with stable, $10,000; 11 rooms, 50x100, $15,000; 12 rooms, double, two-family, 50x87, $9,000; 14 rooms, 2-family, 25x127, $9,500; easy terms. H. T. Wood, 60 Liberty St.

Sure income of over 10% on $7,000 invested in this 40-foot triple, centrally located; call and investigate; exchange may be considered. L. E. Smith, 974 Columbus Av.

LONG ISLAND—FOR SALE OR TO LET.

THE PINES

BAYSHORE, Long Island
OVERLOOKING BEAUTIFUL "BRIGHTWATERS."

We Hasten to Make Amends

to the many prospective purchasers who were not properly cared for during the tremendous sales transactions of Saturday, Sunday and Monday. Our facilities were overtaxed and we feel that it is up to us to make good.

For the benefit of all those who did not receive proper attention and for others interested in "The Pines" we beg to announce an Extra Special Sales Day To-Morrow (Thursday) Sept. 9.

This time we promise to be prepared to give every visitor personal consideration.

To keep faith with those who were unable to purchase during the Labor Day activity, we will again offer

Bungalow Plots

Half-Acre $280 UP TO $400
One Acre $560 UP TO $800
$50 DOWN, $10 MONTHLY.

Remember an acre in "The Pines" is equal to 15 city lots; a half-acre to 7½ city lots; and that this improved property.

Frankly we ought to add 25 per cent. to the prices of "The Pines" at once. Both the property and the unprecedented demand warrant it. But prices and terms will remain the same, to give a few more the opportunity to buy a piece of land worth owning at the original prices.

"The Pines" is an ideal location for Health, Recreation, Pleasure and Profit. Near Bayshore Station, Stores, Schools.

BOATING——FISHING——BATHING

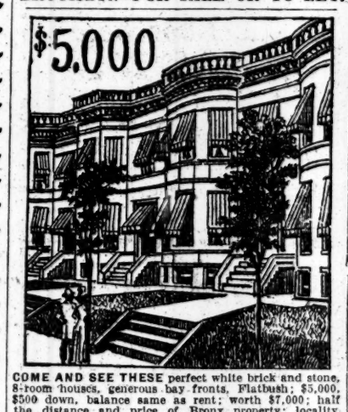
FREE TRANSPORTATION upon application to our N. Y. office.
FREE CONVEYANCES meet all trains at Bayshore.

T. B. ACKERSON COMPANY,
"Developers of Choice Properties and Builders of Houses of Merit."
New York Offices—140 Nassau Street.

Half-acre homesites; everything convenient; easy payment; booklet mailed. Lebkamp, Bible House, Manhattan.

BROOKLYN—FOR SALE OR TO LET.

$5,000



COME AND SEE THESE perfect white brick and stone, 8-room houses, generous bay fronts, Flatbush; $5,000, $500 down, balance same as rent; worth $7,000; half the distance and price of Bronx property; locality, transportation unsurpassed; positively unparalleled in every respect. ALBERT EDWARDS, Owner and Builder, Church Av. and Brighton Beach "L" station.

IF YOU WANT A HOME OR AN INVESTMENT in Flatbush, you cannot afford to buy without first seeing what we can offer you; we have any style of property that you can ask for, and it is our business to first please you in a home, or whatever you wish to buy, and it is also our business to see that you buy it right; every one has friends, and we not only want you to buy of us, but we want you to be so well pleased that you will send your friends to buy of us. Office open Sundays and every day.
STAR & CRESCENT REALTY COMPANY, 816-820 Flatbush Av.

QUEENS—FOR SALE OR TO LET.

YOUR RENT ($25) WILL BUY

New house, 24 ft. front, on plot 40x100; 8 rooms and bath; toilet separate; steam heat; reached by all Bridges and Tunnels in 35 minutes. Views mailed. DUNCAN CAMERON, 16 Court St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

REAL ESTATE.

How to Own a Home

It is very easy. If you examine our offers, visit our property and see what we are doing, you will agree with us. No dull business with us, because we assist our customers and make all improvements at our own expense. Our lot prices are lowest of any in Greater New York. Lots $140 to $300, payable $5 or $10 monthly, just as you can afford. No interest charged. Title Guarantee Policy free with each deed. Money returned to heirs if purchaser dies before deed is delivered. We loan one-half of cost of building, at legal interest, and you can pay off the loan by saving the rent you now pay monthly. We will show you dwellings we have built at $900 to $3,000. Come to NEW DORP MANOR and see them, or call in forenoon at our city office and examine plans of houses. Write to-day for descriptive free map. Address
STATEN ISLAND HOMES COMPANY,
49 8TH AVE., NEW YORK.

JOHNSTON & HENDERSON,
Timber and Agricultural Lands,
Room 605. 115 Broadway.
We have inquiries for country estates in vicinity of New York City. Will deal only with owners.

REAL ESTATE WANTED.

WILL BUILD TO SUIT YOU.
Tenants. We have capitalists and investors ready to buy land and erect for responsible Tenants in good locations. OFFICE, MERCANTILE, or LOFT
Lessees. BUILDINGS in MANHATTAN on reasonable Rental for term of years. Write or call,
H. J. SACHS & CO.,
28 West 22d St., N. Y.

DO YOU OWN A HOUSE?
IF IT DOES NOT PAY YOU
"There's A Reason."
Have it managed by
"Berlin Renting System."
141 EAST 17TH ST.
BEST RESULTS ASSURED.

REAL ESTATE FOR EXCHANGE.

IMPROVED and unimproved properties to exchange. Will add cash. Polak, 4,030 3d Av.

For Sale—Two lots at East Rockaway; very desirable; close to R. R. station; gas, electric light, water; boating, bathing, and fishing; easy payments. Profit Sharer, Box 225 Times, Times Square.

Semi-Bungalow for Sale—7 rooms and bath; easy payments; all improvements; close to water; gas, electric light, water; 5 minutes to R. R. station. Problem Solved, Box 160 Times, Times Square.

Bungalow, North Shore; new; ready for occupancy; restricted property; bargain. C. Smith, 1 Spencer Place, Brooklyn, N. Y.

WESTCHESTER—SALE OR TO LET.

INVESTIGATE
PINECREST
ON THE HUDSON.
37 minutes from New York. Acreage for mansions. Lots from $600 up. 5c. trolley fare from end of Subway (Van Cortlandt Station.) Call, write, or telephone for particulars.
Metropolis Extension Co.
56 LIBERTY ST. Tel. 4705 Cortlandt.

RIVER VIEW MANOR
THE REASON WHY
River View Manor at Hastings-on-Hudson is the most desirable all year home place in near New York. Let us show you.
Take N. Y. Central to Hastings-on-Hudson.
Hastings Homes Co., 47 W. 42d St.

LOOK THIS OVER.
Handsome new home, nine rooms, tile bath, kitchen steam heat, electricity, parquet floors, lot 50x100; restricted; near station; $7,500. McClellan & Co., Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Property, Bronxville and Vicinity.
Burke Stone, Bronxville.

Mount Vernon.

MOUNT VERNON "City of Homes."
Less than a half hour to Grand Central Station by electric trains. Every train an express.
New Artistic House for Sale.
Large living room, big porch, two baths, steam heat, parquet floors, beamed ceiling; location, Chester Hill. Price $10,500.
Good values at $7,500 up.
Several excellent houses for rent $65 up.
Anderson Realty Company.

New Rochelle.

To Let or For Sale—From Oct. 1, 1909, 16-room house; gas and electric light, hot and cold water in every room; three baths and standing shower; stable for horses or automobile; lot 175x225; $1,800 per annum; can be seen at any time. Apply George Sutton, Huguenot St., New Rochelle, N. Y.

FURNISHED HOUSES WANTED.

WANTED
Handsomely Furnished Houses
FOR RENT
MURRAY HILL and 5TH AVENUE SECTIONS
S. OSGOOD PELL & CO., Inc.
537 FIFTH AVE.

REAL ESTATE—OUT OF CITY.

BERKSHIRE FARM FOR SALE.—In the town of Austerlitz, Columbia County, N. Y., we have a most charming farm of about 800 acres, set in the foothills of the Berkshires, in the fertile Green River Valley. A fine house, with modern improvements, steam heating plant, baths, open fireplaces; two barns, stables, outbuildings, tenant house; about 200 acres cleared, the remainder in fine timber land; must be sold to close an estate; is nine miles from Great Barrington, on a State road, and eight miles from the Town of Chatham, in New York State; four hours out of New York City; price, $10,000. Address Peter J. Callan, 59 State St., Albany, N. Y.

WANTED FOR BUSINESS PURPOSES.

Hudson-Fulton Parades.—Desire at least three windows on line of land parades, first or second floor. Address communications to H. R. Limburg, 111 Broadway.

NEW JERSEY—FOR SALE OR TO LET.

PLAINFIELD SOUTH
HIGH CLASS
VILLA PLOTS
50 FT×100 FT
$95
40 MINUTES FROM NEW YORK.
5 Minutes' Walk from Station.
High, Dry, Level, Rich and Fertile Soil. No Mosquitoes. Thousands employed in the many factories in Plainfield.
$5 DOWN $2.50 A MONTH
Near Schools, Churches, and Stores. Unequalled Location. NOTHING LIKE THIS EVER OFFERED BEFORE.
DIRECT CONNECTION VIA HUDSON RIVER TUNNELS NOW
FREE TITLE INSURANCE POLICY FROM NEW JERSEY TITLE & ABSTRACT CO.
OPENING SALE NEXT SUNDAY, SEPT. 12
SPECIAL TRAIN from Pennsylvania R. R. Station DIRECT.
FREE Railroad Tickets and Booklet upon application. Call, write, or 'phone at once.
WM. B. McLAIN REALTY CO.,
Marbridge Bldg., Cor. Broadway and 34th St., New York. Tel. 6207—Murray Hill.

WINNERS
In the Rebus Contest of August 29th, 1909, of The Equator Realty & Improvement Company.
First Prize, 2 City Lots, Valued at $400.00,
Won by L. F. IVERSON,
Care of Westinghouse, Church, Kerr & Company, 10 Bridge Street, New York City.
First Five Winners of Second Prize, a Credit Certificate Equivalent to $100 in Cash toward the Purchase of any of our unsold Lots at Bound Brook Park, New Jersey:
1. B. H. Nensel, 221 Van Nostrand Avenue, Jersey City, N. J.
2. Frederick S. Kolle, M. D., 17 West 26th Street, New York City.
3. Helen Timoney, 167 East 114th Street, New York City.
4. Mrs. C. Fabel, 1,729 Unionport Road, Van Nest, N. Y.
5. Frank S. Smith, Nyack, N. Y.
For lack of space only the first five winners of Second Prize are announced. Congratulations to the winners.
The EQUATOR REALTY & IMPROVEMENT COMPANY,
63 Park Row, World Building, New York City. Phone 3602 Beekman

LEONIA
NEW JERSEY.
A beautiful residence park with schools, churches, clubs.
15 minutes from 130th St. Ferry; 30 minutes from down town, via McAdoo or Hudson tunnels.

HOMES
Neat, artistic; every modern improvement; sewer, water, gas, electricity; on large plots, with shade and lawns; sidewalks, flagged. $500 down and $35 monthly.
INVESTMENT SITES
A gilt edged investment site, right in line with new Hudson Bridge; $30 down and small monthly payments; buy a sure money maker; buy now before the advance.
LEONIA HEIGHTS LAND CO.,
Marbridge Building, New York.
Broadway and 34th St. 'Phone, 380—38th

A Rare Bargain
Beautiful one-family dwelling, 8 rooms and bath; hot water heat; hardwood trim; everything modern, at Grantwood, opposite 125th Street, near cliff front. $1,000 cash, and reasonable payments. R. M., Box G 103 Times, Times Square.

OAKCROFT, UPPER MONTCLAIR, N. J.
Foothills of the Orange Mountains, 420 feet above sea level; 40 minutes from New York; 5 minutes' walk as the clock ticks from Erie Station; lawned, severed, curbed and guttered; macadam roads; gas, water, electricity, telephone, drainage, underdrainage; park effect, schools, high schools, churches; quaint cement stucco houses, superbly built, or houses built to order if desired, or lots sold; terms to suit; booklet on demand. Godfrey Land & Building Co., Upper Montclair, N. J.

SMALL FARM, $198
40,000 square feet of land for $198; 10% down, $10 monthly; charming suburb, one hour from City Hall; churches, stores, schools; 52 trains daily; fare, 15 cents; title guaranteed; free, 100 peach trees with each acre. Send postal for full information. Telephone 4309 Beekman. E. Nichols, World Building.

A perfect cottage, 6 rooms and bath, with all modern conveniences, including combination lighting and furnace; close to car line, 40 minutes out; high, healthful location; pleasant surroundings; $5,750; part cash, balance rental payments. A. R., Box 320 Times, Times Sq.

East Orange.—Modern 15-room house, Colonial design; open fireplaces, hardwood floors, screened porch, conservatory, 2 baths; corner plot, 83x250; stable; located on finest residential avenue; 10 minutes Lackawanna depot. Owner, 151 Muncy Av.

Chicken and fruit farm, four acres, house eight large rooms, bath, steam heat; barn, large chicken house, brooder house, peaches, apples, berries, every variety fruit, and shade; good condition; convenient; moderate price. Quackenbush, Ridgewood, N. J.

At Beautiful Cranford.—New 9-room house; plot 100x155, on terrace; grill opening; sewered; up-to-date improvement; restricted location; 4 blocks Jersey Central; commutation 10c. Address Box 263 Cranford, N. J.

New, modern, nine-room house; near station, schools, churches; every improvement; large plot; price, $4,750; easy terms. Ridgewood Development Co., Ridgewood, N. J., and 80 William St., New York.

Large plot, 8-room house, $4,000; parquet floor, steam heat, sewer, every improvement; fine surrounding; near station; easy terms; commutation 10c. S. A. Shaheen, Cranford, N. J.

Bayonne.—New, up-to-date 6-room cottage; every improvement; may be bought on easy rent purchase plan. Particulars, H. W. Winter, 48th St.

Farm bargains everywhere; all kinds; owners' descriptive list mailed free. Lebkuecher, Bible House, Manhattan.

Newark and surrounding real estate. Mayo & Co., 788 Broad St., Newark. Established 1894.

TO LET FOR BUSINESS PURPOSES.

Store on ground floor of No. 1074 Madison Avenue, At 81st Street., suitable for florist, confectioner, milliner, cleaner and dyeing, etc.; 878 square feet. Apply to JOSEPH T. CASE, 30 Broad St., or to local brokers.

Offices for PHYSICIAN OR DENTIST.
An attractive corner suite on parlor floor of No. 27 East 81st Street, corner of Madison Avenue; newly constructed; references required. For terms, &c., apply to JOSEPH T. CASE, 30 Broad St., or local brokers.

Parlor Floor Store in No. 757 Madison Ave., at 75th Street.
For terms, &c., apply to JOSEPH T. CASE, 30 Broad Street, or to local brokers.

STORES—NEW BUILDING
Fine Location for Any Business.
N.W. Cor. Audubon Av. & 181st St.
Apply on Premises or
Sterling Building & Operating Co.
Owners and

APARTMENTS TO LET—Unfurnished. West Side. Above 110th Street and Washington Heights.

APARTMENTS TO LET—Unfurnished. West Side. Above 110th Street and Washington Heights.

APARTMENTS TO LET—Unfurnished. West Side. Above 110th Street and Washington Heights.

APARTMENTS TO LET—Unfurnished. West Side. Above 110th Street and Washington Heights.

APARTMENTS TO LET—Unfurnished. West Side. Above 110th Street and Washington Heights.

APARTMENTS TO LET—Unfurnished. West Side.

APARTMENTS TO LET—Unfurnished. West Side.

JUST COMPLETED

Absolutely Fireproof and Soundproof.

Strictly High Class Elevator Apartments.

507-17 W. 113 St. Between Broadway and Amsterdam Avenue. Beautifully situated, close to transit. Subway, surface and elevated.

508-20 W. 114 St. Between Broadway and Amsterdam Avenue. Opposite Columbia College Campus, Private House Block.

610 W. 116 St. Between Broadway and Riverside Drive. Very choice Location. Unsurpassed view of Hudson Rive

These buildings are of the most modern type and have been erected wholly and solely with a view to the comfort of tenants. Every known convenience and many luxuries have been installed. The locations have been chosen with the greatest care. The materials used are the best known to the building fraternity. Our superintendents inspect each house daily, thus insuring the best possible service and attention day and night. All of these apartments CAN BE SEEN EVENINGS. The two and three room apartments have kitchenettes.

2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 Rooms and Bath, $480 to $1,600.

Renting Offices, 514 West 114th St., or on premises.

PATERNO BROS., Owners and Builders.

THE MEDFORD APARTMENTS,

BROADWAY, (East Side,) 163d to 164th St.

Convenient to Subway Express station and surface car lines.

Finest Elevator Apartment House on Washington Heights, built and finished similar to the well-known Hendrik Hudson Apartments.

All apartments face on street.
Foyers, 15x8½ ft.
Parlors, 18x11 ft.
Dining Rooms, 16x11 ft.
Bedrooms, 18x10 ft.
Large wall closets, some 8x3 ft.
Superior system of ventilation.

5 rooms, foyer, bath, $55.00 to $60.00
6 rooms, foyer, 2 baths, $65.00 to $72.50
7 rooms, foyer, 2 baths, $75.00 to $84.00

MEDFORD REALTY COMPANY, Owners and Builders.
ALECK KAHN, President. R. P. HESS, MANAGER, On Premises.

Dartmouth-St. Albans

APARTMENTS

Absolutely Fireproof

Cathedral Parkway

502-515 West 110th St.

Between B'way and Amsterdam Ave.

SUBWAY STATION AT CORNER.

Suites of 5, 6, 7 and 8 Rooms, One and Two Baths, All Modern Improvements; Passenger and Service Elevators.

Rentals $900 to $1800

Renting Office on Premises.

Temple Hall

Elevator Apt. House

121ST ST. NO. 100 WEST, CORNER LENOX AV.

Strictly high class private house block.
8 rooms and 2 baths (cor.)
7 rooms and 2 baths.
6 rooms and bath.

Large, light and handsome; these apartments are ideal in every way, and far superior to any others in all Harlem. Contain every up-to-date modern improvement. Rents reasonable. Agents on Premises.

Must be seen to be appreciated.

OSTEND

Broadway, N. E. Cor. 112th St.

Just overhauled at big expense

NOTICE THESE PRICES and the Location.

10 and 11 very large and very attractive rooms and two baths; all light. Subway Express Station at 110th St.

11 ROOMS, CORNER...$1,800 TO $1,900
10 ROOMS AT..... 1,600 TO 1,900

YOUR OPPORTUNITY.

JESSE C. BENNETT,

On Prem., 2,880 Broadway, or 1,440 Broadway.

The Pinehurst

Northwest Corner Fort Washington Av. and 180th St.

Three blocks west of Broadway Subway station at 181st and St. Nicholas Av.

AN IDEAL LOCATION.

5, 7, 8 & 9 Extra Large Light Rooms & Baths.

All night elevator and hall service.

Reasonable Rents.

H. W. Schutte & Co., Agts. 1,685 Amsterdam Av., near 144th.

WINDSOR COURT

Near Subway Station. 161st Street and Broadway. Newly completed high-class elevator APARTMENTS.

4, 5, 6, and 7 Rooms.

GARNET HALL,

NORTHWEST CORNER Broadway & 141st St.

Artistic 6 Story Elevator Apartment. Just completed; ready for inspection. Between 137th and 145th Sts. Subway stations.

EXTRA LARGE LIGHT ROOMS AND CLOSETS. View of Hudson River and Palisades. ALL OUTSIDE ROOMS. NO INNER COURT. No Dark Rooms. APARTMENTS OF 3 TO 7 ROOMS. Doctor or Dentist; three front rooms. Spacious bathrooms and butler's pantries. All the Latest Improvements IN THIS BUILDING. Magnificent Foyer Entrance. Renting Agent on the Premises. Northwest cor. Broadway and 141st St.

NEW ELEVATOR APARTMENTS.

4, 5, 6 Rooms and Bath.

N. W. Cor. Audubon Av. & 181st

HEALTHIEST PART OF CITY.

Convenient to Subway; all modern improvements; wall safe; telephone; hall service night and day.

RENTS $40, $50, $60

APPLY SUPT., ON PREMISES, or Sterling Building & Operating Co., Owners and Builders, 203 Broadway.

Fred'k Zittel & Sons,

Broadway & 79th St. Broadway & 140th St.

OFFER THE FOLLOWING HIGH CLASS APARTMENTS TO LET:

Criterion Arms
526 West 111th St. Just East of Broadway.
Just Completed. Ready for Occupancy. This building is one of the best constructed Apartment Houses on the west side. It was copied from a famous French Chateau. The large rooms and handsome decorations, together with the unique arrangements of the apartments, far excel anything of its kind.
5, 6, 7, 8 Rooms, 2 Baths, Rents, $660 to $1300.

Franklyn Arms
St. Nicholas Avenue, 158th to 159th Street.
New building, with beautiful view of Long Island Sound; close to Subway and Elevated; all outside apartments, very large, sunny rooms; every convenience.
4, 5 & 6 Rooms & Bath. $480 to $780.

The Alabama
Northwest Corner Riverside Drive and 127th St.
Very choice location, overlooking the Hudson River. Block from Subway Station. These apartments are distinctive, high class in every particular; very large outside rooms; attractively appointed.
3, 4, 5, 6, 7 Rooms & Bath, Rents, $480 to $1,200.

The Madrid
552 Riverside Drive, Just North of 127th St.
Just completed; top notch building; opposite Grant's Tomb; finest residential section; view of the Hudson for miles, north and south. One block from the Manhattan St. Subway Station.
4, 5, 6, 7, 8 Rooms, 1 & 2 Baths. $550 to $1,350.

Ellerslie Court
601 W. 140th & 600 W. 141st Sts., Broadway Corners.
Subway station 137th St. and Broadway; a view of the river can be enjoyed from the apartments; new houses, embodying every possible convenience, including elevator.
6 & 7 Rooms & Bath, $750 to $1,200.

Claremont Hall
Northwest Corner 112th St. & Broadway.
Large outside rooms, choice location, handy to Subway station; every improvement; day and night service.
5, 6 & 7 Rooms & Bath. $600 to $1,300.

The Bellmore
Southwest Corner Broadway and 133d St.
These Apartments are especially attractive for small as well as large families; the rooms are large and sunny; elevator, telephone, electric lights, etc.
4, 5 and 6 Rooms and Bath, RENTS, $432 to $696.

Rafford Hall
Northwest Corner Broadway & 144th St.
Choice new apartments, all large, outside rooms; splendid view of the river; handy to Subway station; every up to date improvement.
5, 6 & 7 Rooms & Bath, $600 to $1,100.

Hamilton Court
Southwest Corner Hamilton Pl. & 144th St.
Choice location, large outside rooms; numerous clothes closets; convenient to Subway and "L" stations, also surface cars.
4, 5 & 6 Rooms & Bath. Rents $480 to $840.

Douglas & Desmond
Northwest Corner 7th Av. & 121st St.
Attractive neighborhood; these apartments have all large outside rooms, handsomely finished, conveniently grouped in suites of 7 & 8 Rooms & Bath, $900 to $1,000.

The Sunnycrest
611 West 113th St., Bet. Broadway and Riverside Drive.
Choice private house block, cheerful outlook, large rooms, plenty of closet room; southern exposure.
5, 6, 7 Rooms and Bath. Rents $660 to $1,300

The Rolyat
Southwest Corner Broadway and 140th St.
New elevator Apartments; handy to Subway, and near the finest part of Riverside Drive; extra large, light rooms, handsomely appointed.
8 Rooms and Bath, $1,000 to $1,300.

The Lucile
S. E. Corner St. Nicholas Av. and 114th St.
Attractive location near Central Park; extra large rooms, handsomely appointed, possessing every modern improvement, including elevator.
6 Rooms and Bath, $420 to $540.

The Shoreham
S. E. Corner St. Nicholas Av. and 113th St.
These Apartments overlook Central Park; large outside rooms, splendidly laid out; every improvement.
6 Rooms and Bath, $420 to $600.

44 West 96th St. Between Central Park West and Columbus Av.
Wide street; very choice location; very large rooms, nicely arranged.
6 Rooms and Bath, RENTS, $900-$1,100.

Comfort—Light—Convenience

are to be found in these apartments.

The Hetherington
Park Av., S. E. corner 63d St.
One corner Apartment remaining, 8 large rooms, elevator and all conveniences..... $1,600

The Melba
Central Park West, north corner 102d St.
7 and 8 rooms, elevator and hall service.....$780-$1,000

The Rockingham
Broadway, corner 56th St.
Extra roomy Apartments, wide halls and stairs, all light; corner, $1,800; others.....$1,000-$1,100

The Van Cortlandt
Park Av., N. W. Corner 96th St.
7, 8, 9 rooms, 2 baths; modern elevator apartment; new house..$1,000-$1,400

The Rutherfurd
2d Av., N. W. corner 11th St.
Well arranged 7 and 8 room Apartments, hall service, &c.....$900-$1,000

218-220 West 59th St.
Opposite Central Park.
Elegant view; large 8 room and bath Apartment; elevator, hall service, &c.....$1,100

SEE SUPERINTENDENTS ON PREMISES OR

J. Edgar Leaycraft & Co., 17 W. 42d St.
Telephone, 2400, 2401, 2402—Bryant.

The Netherlands

Eighty-sixth Street

ADJOINING RIVERSIDE DRIVE.

This new 12 story fireproof, sound-proof building has one of the finest locations in Manhattan. Every apartment commands a sweeping view of the Drive, the Hudson and the Palisades on the opposite shore. Eighty-sixth Street is very wide, is lined with beautiful shade trees, and is under the jurisdiction of the Department of Parks.

The apartments are desirably planned and the rooms are unusually large. Perfect light and ventilation prevail throughout. Cabinet hard woods have been used exclusively in the finish. Halls five feet wide, parquet floors; telephones, shower baths, combination wall safes, cedar lined closets, call bells and annunciators, electric wall switches, mail chute, filtering plant and vacuum cleaning apparatus, in addition to the many other improvements.

PLEASE YOUR OWN INDIVIDUAL TASTE IN THE SELECTION OF DECORATIONS.

8 and 9 Rooms, 3 Baths, Foyer and Reception Room. Rent $2,000 Up.

SUPERINTENDENT ALWAYS ON PREMISES.

HARRY SCHIFF, Owner and Builder.

Housekeeping Suites

Chatsworth

72D ST., RIVERSIDE DRIVE

Seven Rooms and Two Baths to Nine Rooms and Two Baths. Rents $1,600 to $2,500.

Cafe, Grill Room, Sun Parlor, barbers, ladies' hairdressing, valet and tailor's service on premises. Private bus service to and from "L," Subway stations.

CHATSWORTH ANNEX

To Sublet,

11 Rooms and 4 Baths. | One Family on a Floor. | All Outside, Light Rooms.

Telephone, 6650—Col. FRANK A. PETELER, Manager.

Van Schaick Realty Company

100 BROADWAY

offer the following apartments to let:

Woodward Hall
50 East 96th Street
Southeast corner of 96th Street and Madison Avenue.
Large, light, airy rooms, two baths. Every modern convenience. One block from Central Park. Elevator and telephone. Night and day service. Superintendent on premises.
6 and 7 rooms and 2 Baths. $1000 and $1100.

Lenox Hall
101 West 112th Street
Northwest corner of 112th Street and Lenox Avenue.
One block from Central Park or Subway Station; 2½ from "L." Strictly up to date. Shower baths, &c. Elevator and telephone. Night and day service. Superintendent on premises.
5, 6, and 7 rooms $500 to $900.

Roosevelt Court

225-229 West 69th St.

Apartments to Rent

Consisting of
2 Rooms & Bath, with Kitchenette.
3 Rooms & Bath, with Kitchenette.
3 Rooms & 2 Baths, with Kitchenette.
3 Rooms & Bath, with Kitchenette.

Tel., 5215 5219—Col. Superintendent on premises.

STRICTLY MILANO FIREPROOF. 125-127 West 58th St.; seven rooms and baths All-night elevators; $1,100-$1,800.

Broadway REMCO 98th Street.

Brooklyn.

MOST BEAUTIFUL NEW

and attractive high grade 4 and 5 rooms and bath apartments in the city.

SOUTHERLY EXPOSURE

All rooms open to light, air, and sun; highest altitude and healthiest location in the city; positively pure air.

Rents $20.00 to $28.00

Hot water supply; hot water heated; parquet floors, beam ceiling, and Dutch dining rooms, iceboxes, etc.; ideal rooms; janitor service; highly decorated.

Must Be Seen to be Appreciated

Inspection solicited; only 20 minutes from City Hall; take Fulton St. "L" road to Saratoga Av. station; premises, Pacific St., between Saratoga and Hopkinson Avenues.

REED HOUSE,

BROADWAY AND 121ST ST.

5, 6, AND 7 ROOMS, $540 TO $1,100.

This property is held by an individual owner as a permanent investment, and is most carefully managed.

Apply on premises.

THE LINCOLN

130-136 Claremont Ave., North of 122d st., opp. Grant's Tomb and Riverside Park.

New 5-6-8 room apartments; all modern improvements; day and night elevator and hall service; rent moderate. Superintendent on premises.

THE MARKENFIELD

605-611 W. 111th St.

4, 5, 6 room apartments; all light; elevator, telephone. High grade house.

EVELYN COURT

611-619 W. 114th St.

overlooking the Hudson; 8 rooms, 2 baths; elevator, telephone; $1500-$1800.

Le Roy Coventry, (Agent.) 2,171 Broadway. Tel. 6412 River.

THE WINFIELD

207 West 56th St.

Between Broadway and Seventh Av.

Completely Reconstructed

Exclusive, High Class 7 & 8 Room Apartments

Extra Servants' Rooms

Day and Night Hallboy and Elevator Service.

Will Decorate to Suit.

POSSESSION OCT. 1st.

RENTS $1300 to $2100.

Apply on Premises or

MOORE & WYCKOFF

546 Fifth Ave., Cor. 45th St.

Telephone 1263 Bryant

Allenhurst

Broadway

Southeast Cor. 100th St.

ABSOLUTELY NEW AND FIREPROOF

The best planned, most carefully constructed and elaborately finished apartment house on the West Side; 12 stories high. Filtered Water, Service Elevator, Mail Chute, Laundry on Roof, Vacuum Cleaners.

7 and 8 Rooms and 2 Baths

Every Room an Outside Room

RENTS $1,300 to $2,000

RESIDENT MANAGER

ON PREMISES.

THE BEST ENDORSEMENT

IS THAT

40 Apartments Out of 46 Are Already Leased.

Euclid Hall,

Broadway, West Side, 85th and 86th Sts.

11 AND 9 ROOMS. 2 AND 3 BATHS. PASSENGER AND SERVANT ELEVATO RSERVICE.

Buckingham Court,

312 West 99th St.

All-night elevator service. Eight large rooms and two baths.

Covent Garden APARTMENTS,

St. Nicholas Terrace, between 129th & 130th Sts., overlooking Colonial Park.

ALL-NIGHT ELEVATOR SERVICE. TELEPHONE, ELECTRIC LIGHT, LARGE, LIGHT ROOMS.

4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 Rooms AND 2 BATHS.

RENTS $40 TO $90.

Finest Location on Washington Heights.

St. Nicholas Court,

746 St. Nicholas Av.

Elevator service and steam heat. 6-7 large, light rooms, $42½ to $60.

Arundel Court,

at 149th St.

772 to 778 St. Nicholas Av.

Large, light, and airy apartments at Elevator, all-night service.

APPLY MANHATTAN LEASING CO., 149 Church St., OR SUPERINTENDENT ON PREMISES.

THE MANNADOS

N. W. Cor. Madison Ave. & 97th St.

High class elevator apartments. Every modern convenience; all-night elevator and telephone service. Select location, near entrance to Central Park. 7 and 8 extra large light rooms; 2 baths. Rents, $900 to $1,300.

Superintendent on Premises.

IVY COURTS,

210-220-230 West 107th St.

NEAR BROADWAY.

A few very desirable 5, 6, 7 and 12 room (3 baths) apartments to lease. Elevator, hall and telephone service. All large outside rooms.

RENTS $600 TO $1,800.

MANAGER ON PREMISES.

THE SONCY

49-53 West 57th St.

Between 5th and 6th Aves.

An Apartment of nine unusually large and light rooms to rent. Apply on premises, or

E. S. WILLARD & CO., 45 Pine St. Tel. 5937—John.

THE SAVOY

610 WEST 111TH ST., between Riverside Drive and B'way.

APARTMENTS OF 6 AND 7 ROOMS, all outside and light; building of the highest type, all-night service; distant only one block from Subway station.

6 Rooms and Bath $780 to $900
7 Rooms and Bath $1,000 to $1,300

Possession at once. Apply on premises.

GIBBS & KIRBY, Agents, Broadway at 103d St.

CLARA COURT,

503-505 WEST 111TH ST., one block from "L" and Subway.

3, 4, 5 & 6 rooms and bath, $37.50 to $60.

Elevator and telephone service. Immediate possession.

Thomas J. O'Reilly, Agt. Broadway and 109th St.

THE MAGNOLIA

NEW ELEVATOR APARTMENTS

316 W. 20TH ST.

ADRIAN.

All improvements, including elevator service, electric lights, phone, &c., 4 and 5 rooms; rents $510 to $660. Booklet on application. Apply premises. Or CUSHMAN, 240 WEST 23D.

CAMDEN

206 West 95th St.

Apartments 5 Rooms & Bath

All improvements; elevator; telephone; fine entrance; all night service. Convenient to 96th St. Subway Express station.

RENTS $55 PER MONTH

Apply on premises or Sterling Realty Co., owners, 203 Broadway.

343-45 West 85th St.

High-class 8-room apartments adjoining Riverside Drive; most select location; one block from Subway; all outside rooms; rents, $1,400 to $1,500.

Apply Superintendent on premises.

IVY COURTS,

210-220-230 West 107th St.

NEAR BROADWAY.

A few very desirable 5, 6, 7 and 12 room (3 baths) apartments to lease. Elevator, hall and telephone service. All large outside rooms.

RENTS $600 TO $1,800.

MANAGER ON PREMISES.

A.-A.-THE PEMBROKE

824 St. Nicholas Avenue, (corner 151st St.) Elevator apartments, elegantly decorated; 5, 6 and 9 rooms; exceptionally light; rents low; day and night service. Pocher, 126 West 34th St.

THE PLAZA

795 St. Nicholas Ave., cor. 150th Street.

Elegant 7 and 8 room apartments; ideal location; electric light, telephone; parquet floors; all night service; rents $55 to $70. Superintendent.

370 ST. NICHOLAS AV.

Corner 129th St., 7 and 8 room extra large attractive apartments on the avenue. Rents $55 and $60. Inquire on premises.

THE HAZELHURST

Cor. 181st St. and Fort Washington Ave.—4, 5, and 9 rooms and bath; all night 'phone and elevator; near Subway. Highest, healthiest location in city. Owner on premises.

131 Edgecombe Av.,

N. W. Corner West 141st St

5-6-7 large light rooms, bath, steam heat, hot water; all improvements; $30-$38.

THE SARASOTA

Elevator Apartment, 512 West 122d St.

Eight large rooms, Bet. B'way & Amst. Av. shower bath and extra toilet. Rent $960.

THE VAN PRAAG,

522 W. 112th St.

5 & 6 Rms., $35 to $42. Near Subway & Elevated. Supt. premises.

A physician's office and apartments to let; 8 rooms and bath. Le Roy Apartments, northwest corner 113th St., and St. Nicholas Av. Inquire Superintendent, on premises.

The Milward, 44 West 131st St.—Desirable second-floor apartment; seven rooms and bath; all improvements; rent $53; private house block. Apply premises.

Single apartment; 7 large, light rooms; steam

THE BRITANNIA,

Number 527 Cathedral Pk'way, 110th St., bet. B'way & Amsterdam Ave. 5-6-7-8-9 Room Apts. With two baths, some of the apts. having an additional lavatory and toilet; rents $1,100 to $2,200; also two apts. on the ground floor, each with private entrance, ten rooms and three baths; rent $3,000; two spacious electric elevators, steam dryers, mail chute, porcelain lined refrigerators. Gracehall Realty Co., Owners and Builders. Tel. 4760 Morningside.

532 to 542 W. 145th St.

CHOICE OF WASHINGTON HEIGHTS.

Nothing compare with on Manhattan Island; near Broadway and Subway. Elegant five and six room Apartments, all modern improvements, hall service and electric light. Superintendent on premises. RENTS, $30, $35, $40, $42.

CHESTER & ROMEYN,

S. E. corner Lenox Av. & 112th St., Directly opposite Subway station.

7 and 8 large, light rooms and bath; two lavatories and toilets; day and night elevator service; $65 to $80.

S. SCHIFF & SON, 165 Broadway.

THE MIDLOTHIAN

353 West 117th St.

5 and 6 Rooms, $35.00 to $45.00.

Elevator, steam heat, hot water, tiled bath, uniform service, electric light; all rooms outside light and air. Apply to janitor.

The Margaret,

120-126 West 116th, near 7th Av.

Elevator Apartments, 4, 5, 6 large, light rooms and bath; all-night elevator and telephone service; express Subway and surface cars at corner; rents $32.50, $35, $42.50, $48.

THE VIOLA,

141-143 West 127th.

5, 7, 8 Room Apartments. All modern improvements. 5 rooms, $55; 7 rooms, $65; 8 rooms, $75. M. HART, 116 Nassau St.

THE RIVIERA

N. E. Corner 7th Av. & 142d St.; 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, and 9 rooms; most reasonable rents in Harlem. Near Subway and elevated.

RIVERVIEW COURTS, 607 to 627 West 136th St.

Bet. Broadway and Riverside Drive. Handsome Apartments, 4, 5, 6, 7 Rooms. Rentals from $30 to $55 per month.

BIRCH HALL.

4 to 8 room elevator apartments; all improvements; 183d, corner Audubon Av.; moderate rentals.

141st St., 239 West, Wyndham Court; extraordinary, large size, 5, 6 rooms, latest improvements; telephone; elevator service day and night; good inducements.

DACONA HALL,

S. W. corner of 122d St. and Claremont Av. Owner on premises, or 55 Liberty St.

519 W. 121st Elevator, 7 rooms and bath; maid's room and toilet; $70.

421 W. 118th Night and day hall service; telephone each apartment; 5 rooms, $33-$38.

5-6-7 Rooms RHINELAND, $480 to $720. 535 W. 124th St., Bet. B'way & Amsterdam.

THE MUMFORD, 526 WEST 111TH ST.

THE MARLBOROUGH

Broadway, West Side, 85th and 86th Sts.

11 AND 9 ROOMS. 2 AND 3 BATHS. PASSENGER AND SERVANT ELEVATOR SERVICE.

Buckingham Court,

312 West 99th St.

All-night elevator service. Eight large rooms and two baths.

Covent Garden APARTMENTS,

St. Nicholas Terrace, between 129th & 130th Sts., overlooking Colonial Park.

ALL-NIGHT ELEVATOR SERVICE. TELEPHONE, ELECTRIC LIGHT, LARGE, LIGHT ROOMS.

4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 Rooms AND 2 BATHS.

RENTS $40 TO $90.

Finest Location on Washington Heights.

St. Nicholas Court,

746 St. Nicholas Av.

Elevator service and steam heat. 6-7 large, light rooms, $42½ to $60.

Arundel Court,

at 149th St.

772 to 778 St. Nicholas Av.

Large, light, and airy apartments at Elevator, all-night service.

APPLY MANHATTAN LEASING CO., 149 Church St., OR SUPERINTENDENT ON PREMISES.

THE MANNADOS

N. W. Cor. Madison Ave. & 97th St.

High class elevator apartments. Every modern convenience; all-night elevator and telephone service. Select location, near entrance to Central Park. 7 and 8 extra large light rooms; 2 baths. Rents, $900 to $1,300.

Superintendent on Premises.

IVY COURTS,

210-220-230 West 107th St.

NEAR BROADWAY.

A few very desirable 5, 6, 7 and 12 room (3 baths) apartments to lease. Elevator, hall and telephone service. All large outside rooms.

RENTS $600 TO $1,800.

MANAGER ON PREMISES.

THE MALVERN

112 West 47th St.

Modern fireproof elevator, bachelor apartment house. Two and three rooms with bath.

HORACE S. ELY & CO.

21 Liberty St. 27 West 30th St.

We offer for your inspection a few desirable Apartments of seven and eight rooms and two baths; modern in every respect.

Biltmore & Blenheim

56 to 62 West 58th St.

Rentals and pamphlets on application

Henry D. Winans & May, Agents, 749 5th Av., near 58th St.

THE STRATHMORE

52d St. and Broadway

7 & 8 LARGE, LIGHT ROOMS, WITH BATH.

RENTS, $1,500 AND $1,650.

HORACE S. ELY & CO.

21 Liberty St. 27 West 30th St.

GEORGEAN COURT,

GATES AND FRANKLIN AVS., BROOKLYN

HANDSOMEST ELEVATOR APARTMENT IN BROOKLYN; SERVICE NIGHT AND DAY; EVERY MODERN CONVENIENCE; SUITES OF 8 AND 9 ROOMS AND TWO BATHS; RENTS $360 TO $1,080 PER ANNUM; CAN BE LEASED FROM SEPT. 1 OR OCT. 1. APPLY TO SUPT. TEL. 2900 BED.

471 Central Park West,

CORNER 107TH ST.

Large eight-room apartments, with all improvements; rents $840 to $1,200. Superintendent, or WETMORE & VAN WINKLE, 34 Pine St.

Life Building,

21 WEST 31st St.

Parlor, Bedroom, and bath, unfurnished, from Oct. 1st; rent $750.00; yearly lease. William Harvey, Supt.

THE HANOVER,

823 West End Ave., 100th St.

High-class corner apartment, seven light rooms and bath; rents $1,250 per year.

Apartment of eleven rooms, with private baths; must sublet at once, unfurnished; 3 months' rent free if taken at once. Gano, 2,345 Broadway, corner 86th St.

Riverside Drive Nos. 120 & 125 North Corner 84th St. W. R. & J. M. STEWART.

Choice Apartments, West Side. Rentals $600 to $1,400. VICTOR M. EARLE, 200 West 72d St.

85TH 201 WEST—8 LARGE ROOMS. High-class elevator apartments. Rents reasonable.

87TH 176 WEST—7 large rooms and bath. All modern improvements. Rents reasonable.

rooms, steam heat, tiled bath; convenient; moderate rent.

COBURG APARTMENTS

215-221 WEST 34TH STREET.

A 7-story apartment building in the centre of the shopping and theatre district; containing apartments of 6 and 7 rooms and bath, with butler's pantry and extra toilets for maids, electric elevator and light, steam heat, hot water, steam clothes dryer, also excellent roof for same, telephone and hall service, at rentals from $60-$85.

Supt. on Premises.

POST & REESE

16 EAST 60TH STREET.

THE SONCY

49-53 West 57th St.

Between 5th and 6th Aves.

An Apartment of nine unusually large and light rooms to rent. Apply on premises, or

E. S. WILLARD & CO., 45 Pine St. Tel. 5937—John.

New 12-story fireproof building; apartments of 8, 10, and 12 rooms and three baths; all conveniences; best possible construction; location finest in the city, with extensive views of the Hudson and the Drive; building faces southwest, insuring an abundance of sun in Winter and cool breezes in Summer. Rents $1,800 to $3,000.

Riverside Drive Nos. 120 & 125 North Corner 84th St. W. R. & J. M. STEWART.

Choice Apartments, West Side. Rentals $600 to $1,400. VICTOR M. EARLE, 200 West 72d St.

88TH ST., 105 WEST.—Eight-room single apartment; rent, $53; private house block. Apply premises.

Single apartment; 7 large, light rooms; steam

245 West 46th St., five rooms and bath....$30
241 West 42d St., five rooms, bath.....$55
861 6th Av., nr. 49th, 6 & 7 rooms, bath..$40-$50
203 E. 13th, cor. 3d Av., 5 & 6 rooms, bath. $36-$42
141 West 62d St., 6 rooms and bath.....$25

See janitor or J. EDGAR LEAYCRAFT & CO., 17 W. 42d St.

Life Building,

21 WEST 31st St.

Parlor, Bedroom, and bath, unfurnished, from Oct. 1st; rent $750.00; yearly lease. William Harvey, Supt.

THE HANOVER,

823 West End Ave., 100th St.

High-class corner apartment, seven light rooms and bath; rents $1,250 per year.

Apartment of eleven rooms, with private baths; must sublet at once, unfurnished; 3 months' rent free if taken at once. Gano, 2,345 Broadway, corner 86th St.

The Shelburn Hall Apartments, 90-92 Morningside Av., west corner 121st St., overlooking Morningside Park.—5 and 6 rooms and bath; $40 to $75; renting office on premises.

98TH 53 West.—Six light rooms; all improvements; $20 and up.

THE BRAEMER Central Park West.

Van Dyck and Severn

72d St.—Broadway—72d St.

Parthenon & Hesperus

400-408 Manhattan Ave.

Attractive Apartments of 2, 4 and 6 Rooms.

Elevator service. Dining room. Agent on premises.

THE ANDERSON Cozy Modern Family Hotel. 1, 2, and 3 room apartments, with bath; furnished and unfurnished; American Dining Room. 102 West 38th St.

Park Slope Apartments,

511 Sixth St., between 7th and 8th Avs., Brooklyn; 6 large, light rooms; steam heat, hot water, bath, separate toilet, telephone service; rent $34-$36. Attendant on premises.

If you want a desirable apartment and know not where to locate, watch the list of furnished and unfurnished apartments advertised in The New York Times. The very best class of apartments are advertised in The Times.—Adv.

APARTMENTS TO LET—Unfurnished.

Bronx.

Home From School To Play In A-RE-CO Park

Don't Bring Your Children Back From the Country to Small, Dark, Stuffy Rooms

It isn't fair to them! You can let them enjoy vacation pleasures all the year 'round right here in New York City. You can let them live where the ground is high and dry—where the air is fresh and pure—where the glorious sunshine will make their cheeks fairly glow with good health. You can live where your children will have a private park to play in—A-RE-CO Park, which is absolutely safe from speeding automobiles and the many other dangers of the narrow downtown streets.

If you think there can be no such ideal place in New York, then come and see

The A-RE-CO Apartments

At Simpson Street Subway Station

ELEVATOR APARTMENTS
From $28 to $60 a Month
3 to 7 rooms with bath, finished with all the elegance and conveniences of expensive West Side apartments. All-night elevator service, shower baths, electric lights, telephones, double floors, etc.

ARTISTIC APARTMENTS
From $22 to $33 a Month.
4, 5 and 6 large, light rooms and bath. Electric lights, artistic decorations, steam heat, HOT WATER AT ALL TIMES, perfect ventilation, every modern convenience.

Splendidly arranged apartments—large, light rooms, with every modern convenience—in the very best part of New York City in which to live—and only 30 minutes from the great downtown shopping, theatre and office districts.

Tennis Courts, Playgrounds, Swings, Benches, etc., for the FREE and exclusive use of A-RE-CO tenants

Apply to AMERICAN REAL ESTATE COMPANY, Owner

Rental Office, 985 Southern Boulevard, (just around the cor. from Simpson St. Subway Sta. Take Lenox Av. Exp.

East Side. East Side.

THE VERONA

At the Crossing of

MADISON AVE. & 64TH ST.

THE VERONA contains twenty magnificent apartments, each an absolutely detached residence from its neighbors.

It offers to families of refinement all the advantages and conveniences that go to make a complete home.

The many exclusive innovations in the residences of THE VERONA afford incalculable assistance to the duties of housekeeping.

Apartments Containing Fourteen Rooms and Three Baths, $8,000 to $9,500.

Manager on Premises.

THE HANOVER

Park Ave. and 83d St.

Splendid Suites of 9 Rooms and 2 Baths containing every luxury known to the best architects and builders.

PHONE IN EACH APARTMENT.

Elevator and hall boy service day and night.

Rents, $1,500 to $2,400.

Superintendent on premises.

BACHELOR

691 & 695 Madison Av. N. E. Cor. 62d Street.
Furnished or Unfurnished; Two Rooms and Bath.
All modern improvements; breakfast served; valet in attendance.
$40 TO $75 PER MONTH.
Apply to Superintendent on premises, or
MOORE & WYCKOFF
Tel. 1263 Bryant. 546 5th Ave., Cor. 45 St.

APARTMENTS

Murray Hill Apartments
122-128 E. 34th St., cor. Lex. Ave.
Apartments of 7 and 8 rooms and bath.
One block from Subway Station.

Bachelor Apartments
Berwyck
65-69 West 54th Street.
Very desirable Apartments of 2 rooms and bath, containing all improvements.
EDGAR & CURTIS, 81 Nassau St.

"471 PARK AVENUE,"
S. E. cor. 58th St.
Co-operative Fireproof Duplex, completed 1909. Refrigeration, vacuum cleaning, all night steam. Service elevators to all kitchens. Floor: Extra servants' quarters and baths.
7th E—2 rooms, bath, kitchenette.....$1,500
3rd D—7-room duplex, 2 baths.....$4,750
5th C—7-room duplex, 2 baths.....$4,000
9th A—7-room duplex, 2 baths.....$5,000
9th D—9-room duplex, 3 baths.....$6,000
11th D—7-room duplex, 2 baths.....$4,600
Managed by owners See (or telephone 3031 Plaza. Supt. on premises, or your own broker.

Manhanset
61-65 East 59th St.,
NEAR MADISON AVE.
The Most Accessible Location in New York City.
High Class Modern Apartments 3 Rooms and Bath, Furnished or Unfurnished. Hotel Service.
FOR RENTS, ETC.,
See Superintendent on Premises.

THE MARIE
61-69 East 86th St.
Attractive Apartments of 5 to 8 Rooms.
Elevator, all-night service.
Superintendent on premises.

CO-OPERATIVE APARTMENTS.
80th St. 925 Park Av.—Four to eleven room apartments; Rents $1,000 to $4,500.
77th St. 863 Park Av.—Duplex Apartments of ten rooms; Rents $3,600 to $4,500.
67th St. 130 East, cor. Lex. Av.—Four to ten room Apartments. Rents $800 to $4,500.
86th St. 257 West.—Four to nine room Apartments. Rents from $800 to $3,000.
For plans and further particulars apply to
RAYSON McL. MERRILL,
481 Fifth Ave. Phone 6,157 Murray Hill.

BACHELOR APARTMENTS in newly constructed building, NO. 27 EAST 81ST STREET, CORNER OF MADISON AVENUE, unfurnished or will furnish to suit. Will rent one room and bath to 16 rooms and 11 baths, as desired.

Also BACHELOR CORNER APARTMENT, 3 rooms and bath, at NO. 755 MADISON AVENUE.

For rentals, &c., apply to Joseph T. Case, 30 Broad Street, or local broker.

QUEENSTON
S. W. Cor. 96th St. and Madison Ave.
Each apartment a perfect home; 9 and 10 large rooms and 3 baths; all-night elevator service.
RENTS, $1,800 AND UPWARD.

HOLLYWOOD
S. E. Cor. 94th St. and Madison Ave.
Apartments of eight large rooms and bath; one choice doctor's apartment; all-night elevator service; rents $1,650 to $1,600.
SUPERINTENDENTS ON PREMISES.

THE MANHATTAN
244 East 86th St.
Apartments of four and five rooms and bath, for housekeeping; all improvements and conveniences; elevator service "L" station. Apply
Rhinelander Real Estate Co.,
31 Nassau St. 'Phone, 8125—Cortlandt. or on Premises.

THE CARROLLTON
76th Street and Madison Ave
Very attractive corner apartments, 7 to 9 rooms and 2 baths, all light; rent $1,700 to $2,000.
Apply at BROOKE & GEORGER, Agents,
29 WEST 34TH ST.,
or on premises.

120 EAST 31ST ST.
Highest class fireproof apartment building; eight-room suites with bath; rent, $1,500.

66 EAST 77TH ST.
Modern 7 and 8 room light apartments; hall service, telephone, &c.; rent $660 to $900.
Chas. Hibson, Lexington Av., cor. 34th St.

MASON,
6-12 EAST 58TH ST.,
close to Central Park Plaza; handsome, large, light apartments of eight rooms and bath; only two left; all modern improvements; rents moderate; possession Oct. 1.
Cruikshank Company, 141 Broadway.

FLATS TO LET,
Nos. 157 & 159 E. 89th St.
Five rooms and bath;
steam heated and hot-water supply.
RHINELANDER REAL ESTATE CO.,
31 Nassau St. 'Phone 8125—Cortlandt.
OR 244 EAST 86TH ST.

THE CLARK
ONE CORNER APARTMENT; 1,211 MADISON AV., 87TH ST.; 9 EXTRA LARGE ROOMS, TWO BATHS; ALL SOUTHERN EXPOSURE. SUPERINTENDENT ON PREMISES. OR LEON ALTMAYER, 62 EAST 86TH.

THE WALMORE,
51-53 East 78th St.
High class apartments, 7 rooms and bath; elevator and hall service; most select location; $70, $75, and $80; janitor on premises. Henry Seelig, 264 Bowery. Telephone 608—Spring.

237 Lexington Av., corner 34th St.,
BACHELOR APARTMENTS
2 CORNER ROOMS AND BATH. SERVICE. Rent, $35 per month.

1,229 Madison Av., Near 89th.—Suitable dentist, doctor; ground floor; 7 rooms, bath, hall service, 'phone service; excellent transit facilities; $43.

High-class housekeeping apartments of 2, 3, 4, and 5 rooms and bath, unfurnished; elevator, telephone; night and day service. The Hillhurst, 160 East 91st St.

647 LEXINGTON AVE. Near 54th St.
Modern apartments, 4 rooms and bath; steam heat, hot water; all improvements; $30-$32.

Carnegie Hill Flats, 115 East 92d St., (Park-Lexington Avs.)—Eight large rooms; open plumbing; hot water; greatest value in city; $30-$32.

MOST FOR THE MONEY.
5, 6, 7-8 Rooms.
25 EAST 99TH ST., COR. MAD. AVE.

APARTMENTS TO LET—Unfurnished.

Bronx.

3, 5, 6 & 7 ROOMS & BATH, $25 to $42

No matter what WE say YOU are the one to be convinced. Don't rent before seeing them. All modern improvements? Yes, and much more besides—wall safes, Hill clothes dryers, large rooms, large windows, many closets. PRIVATE PARK FOR CHILDREN TO PLAY IN, SAFE FROM STREET DANGERS.

819 TO 875 HUNTS POINT AV. 960 EAST 163D STREET.

The Simpson St. Express Station of the Lenox Av. Subway is one block from 163d Street. All of our houses are at 163d St. The Westchester Av. trolley and Southern Boulevard trolley crosses 163d St.; walk east, or west on 163d St. and you cannot miss them.

Ask Anybody; Everybody Knows the HENRY MORGENTHAU CO. HOUSES

During the warm weather we will maintain a bus service between the Simpson St. station and our houses.
AGENT ON PREMISES. Tel. 2169 Melrose.

KEMP-JONES APTS.
Anderson Ave. and 162d St.
On the Carnegie Hill of the Bronx, adjoining Macomb's Dam Park and Public School Athletic Field, Tennis, Baseball, &c. High class; splendid large, light rooms. High, dry, healthy location; restricted. Few minutes' walk from 6th and 9th Av. Elevated, 155th St. Station, and Broadway Subway.
4-5-6 Rooms; $28-$45.
Examine them before renting elsewhere.
JOSEPH HARRIS JONES
ON PREMISES.

138TH ST., BRONX.
683, 687, 691 E. 138th St., between Cypress Av. and So. Boulevard—wide main street. The "HARGOOD" Apartments—JUST COMPLETED. Crosstown car from Manhattan passes door. Handsome apartments; select tenants only.
4 rooms and bath.....$20, $19, $18, $17
3 rooms and bath.....$15
5 rooms.....$21 to $24
SPECIAL FEATURES: Porcelain wash tubs and sinks, Dutch shelves, abundance of closet room, electric light in halls, handsome decorations and finish; in all respects equal to any west side house.

THE HILLCREST,
Woodycrest Av. & 166th St.
Two short blocks east of Ogden Av.
These exquisite new non-elevator apartments are of a superior construction and finish, surpassing anything in the Bronx.
The improvements include long-distance telephone, electric lights, tiled bathrooms, open nickel plumbing, Dutch shelves, &c.
4, 5, and 6 Large Rooms.
Rents Very Moderate.
Superintendent on premises.

The Longwood
ELEVATOR APARTMENTS.
Corner Longwood Av. and Beck St.
4, 5, 6 and 7 Rooms, $32 to $60.
JACOB LEITNER,
Corner Prospect and Westchester.

New Jersey.

RIDGEWOOD APARTMENTS,
400 CLINTON AV., NEWARK, N. J.
30 minutes from Broadway, N. Y., to building via South St. Station Penn. R. R. High class building, service, neighborhood. 5 rooms and bath, heat, hot water, janitor, all for $28 or $30 per month. Greatest rent values in Newark. Call or write for floor plan. J. C. McCURDY, Resident Owner.

CITY HOUSES TO LET—Unfurnished.

94th St., 3-story, high stoop	$1,650
90th St., 4-story, high stoop	2,000
94th St., 3-story, high stoop	1,500
93d St., 3-story, high stoop	1,200
97th St., 3-story, high stoop	1,200
95th St., 3-story, high stoop	1,400
87th St., 4-story, high stoop	1,900
85th St., 4-story, high stoop	2,000
95th St., 3-story Queen Anne	1,200
89th St., 4-story, high stoop	3,000
West End Av., 5 stories, corner	3,600
130th St., 3-story, high stoop	1,150
87th St., 3-story, high stoop	2,000

Have others. Call and inspect.
L. M. Smith, 974 Columbus Av.

DESIRABLE DWELLINGS AND APARTMENTS TO-LET. | Call or send for list. PORTER & CO. 159 W. 125th St. 'Phone, 958—Morningside.

154 East 64th St., Southeast Corner Lexington Av.—Elegant 4-story and basement, butler's pantry extension, open plumbing, 2 baths, inlaid floorings, hardwood trim, restricted section, at reduced rent; possession Oct. 1. For further information address C. P. Cohn, Hotel St. Lorenz, 127 East 72d St.

50 West 69th St., handsome four-story brownstone dwelling, with two-story extension; size 25x60x100; extension 15x20; 14 rooms, three baths; possession Oct. 1. Cruikshank Company, 141 Broadway.

A three-story house, 12 rooms and bath, on 12th St., near Greenwich Av., for $85 per month. J. Edgar Leaycraft & Co., 17 West 42d St.

A well-arranged three-story high-stoop dwelling on Madison Av., near 86th St.; possession now if desired; rent, $1,400. J. Edgar Leaycraft & Co., 17 West 42d St.

American basement house on Riverside Drive, near 79th St.; large and roomy; Subway station one block away; rent, $2,500. J. Edgar Leaycraft & Co., 17 West 42d St.

Brooklyn.

230 Washington Av., Brooklyn; four-story and basement brownstone and brick Dwelling to let; size, 20x42x95; has fourteen rooms and bath; rent, $1,200. CRUIKSHANK CO., 141 Broadway, N. Y.

Bronx.

Have, block from Mott Av. Subway station, 3-story brick dwelling; 10 rooms and bath; rent, $40. Beacom, 608 Mott Av., or Frank, 624 Madison Av.

APARTMENTS TO LET—Furnished

175 Second Av., Corner Eleventh St.—Unusually large square rooms, high ceiling; 7 rooms, kitchen, and bath, handsomely furnished; $125 per month. Inquire on premises.

APARTMENT HOTELS.

BACHELORS ONLY THE MANSFIELD
12 West 44th St.,
Near 5th Ave.
NEW 12 STORY APARTMENT HOTEL.
Standard Squash Court on Roof.
Restaurant, with excellent cuisine.
Desirable Apartments of 2 and 3 Rooms and Bath
Apply on premises, or
E. S. WILLARD & CO.,
45 Pine St. 'Phone 5987—John.

Hotel Wellington
Seventh Avenue and 55th St.
Best located family and transient Hotel in the city.
Apartments furnished and unfurnished now leasing for fall and winter.
J. F. CHAMPLIN, Mgr.

You must live somewhere, why not at HOTEL FREDERICK?
WEST 56TH ST.,
Between Seventh Av. and Broadway, finest location in the city. only 3 blocks from Central Park. Rooms and private bath, $1.50 per day. Parlor, bedroom, and private bath, $2 per day. Greatest value in New York for the money. Elevator service day and night. Telephone in every room. Rooms are large, with extra large closets. Fireproof. C. E. Ellis, Prop.

SUMMONSES.

SUPREME COURT OF THE STATE OF New York, County of New York.—CHARLES F. MURPHY, Plaintiff, against GEORGE BUELL PALMER, Defendant.—Summons with notice.

To the above-named defendant:

You are hereby summoned to answer the complaint in this action and to serve a copy of your answer on the plaintiff's attorneys within twenty (20) days after the service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service; and in case of your failure to appear or answer judgment will be taken against you by default for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Dated August 2d, 1909.

HOLLANDER, BERNHEIMER & BERNHEIMER, Attorneys for Plaintiff, 10 Wall Street, Borough of Manhattan, City of New York.

To the defendant:

Notice is hereby given to you that upon your default to appear or answer the within summons judgment will be taken against you for the sum of $2,916.19, with interest from the 15th day of March, 1909, and with the costs and disbursements of this action.

HOLLANDER, BERNHEIMER & BERNHEIMER, Plaintiff's Attorneys, 10 Wall Street, Borough of Manhattan, City of New York.

To the defendant, George Buell Palmer:

The foregoing summons and notice is served upon you by publication pursuant to an order of the Honorable Edward B. Amend, a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, dated the 31st day of August, 1909, filed on the 1st day of September, 1909, with the complaint herein, in the office of the Clerk of the County of New York, in the County Court House, in the Borough of Manhattan, City, County, and State of New York.

Dated New York, September 1st, 1909.

HOLLANDER, BERNHEIMER & BERNHEIMER, Attorneys for Plaintiff, 10 Wall Street, Borough of Manhattan, City of New York.

"EDUCATION AND RELIGION"
BY CARDINAL GIBBONS
ARCHBISHOP OF BALTIMORE
NEXT SATURDAY

The Times Building

Times Square

Stands many feet distant from and eight stories above any building near by. Every room is an outside one. Light, air, and summer breezes are surer here than in any building in New York. Around it are grouped the more important hotels, clubs, theatres and railroad stations of the metropolis; in the basement is the third most important subway station in New York; surface car lines radiate in all directions; the elevated line is only a block away.

See the Rental Agent, Room 406, or telephone 1000 Bryant for all information.

SCHOOLS

Next Saturday The New York Times will publish the fifth in the series of seven articles on educational topics.

"Education and Religion," by His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore

NEW YORK—Manhattan.

Berkeley School
FOUNDED 1880.
(Columbia Institute consolidated 1908.)
72d St. and West End Av.
PREPARES BOYS FOR ALL LEADING COLLEGES AND SCIENTIFIC SCHOOLS.
Individual Instruction.
Separate Building for Primary and Junior Departments
Military Drill (Optional.)
"From Primary to College."
Send for Illustrated Catalogue Giving Full Details.
EDWIN FOWLER, J. CLARK READ
Headmasters.

PARENTS seeking a wholesome day or boarding school for boys should investigate

Riverdale School
The Country School of New York City
(Third Successful Year.)
DAY BOYS SPEND ALL DAY IN THE COUNTRY.
Superior instruction. Exceptional results at Harvard, Yale, Columbia, etc. Health-giving sports. Terms reasonable. Telephone (248 Kingsbridge) or address Frank S. Hackett, Head-master, West 253d St., Riverdale-on-Hudson, N. Y. City.

The Barnard School of HOUSEHOLD ARTS 226 W. 79th St., N. Y.
Practical courses in Cooking, Embroidery, Millinery, Dressmaking, Household Decoration, Accounts, Management. Specially intended for girls who do not go to college.

BARNARD SCHOOL FOR GIRLS
College Preparatory, General, 421 W. 148th St.
Kindergarten & Elementary, 423 W. 148th St.
14TH YEAR BEGINS SEPT. 29TH. Catalog.

Barnard School Boy Wins
Harper Competitive Scholarship, entrance Columbia, 1909. 96 graduates in leading colleges. 24th year. College Preparatory and Business, 721 St. Nich. Av. Kindergarten & Elementary, 104 W. 122d St. Catalog.

HAMILTON INSTITUTE FOR GIRLS.
3 WEST 81ST ST., CENTRAL PARK WEST.
Individual instruction. College entrance certificates. Eighteen instructors. Specialists. Girls not wishing to enter college will be given first two years college work in culture subjects. Study hour. Special coaching without charge. Catalog. OFFICE HOURS 11-5 after Sept. 6th. TEL. 766 RIVERSIDE.

HAMILTON INSTITUTE FOR BOYS.
Eighteenth year begins Sept. 29th. COLLEGE and COMMERCIAL Preparation. Preparation of lessons in charge of class teachers. All lessons prepared at school.
FOR CATALOG ADDRESS 45 WEST 81ST ST.

CLASON POINT MILITARY ACADEMY
Clason-on-the-Sound, New York City.
A CATHOLIC BOARDING SCHOOL FOR BOYS. (1 hour from City Hall via Subway and Trolley.) A school that turns out useful, manly men. Incorporated under the Board of Regents. College and business preparatory school. Directed by the Christian Brothers. Library, laboratory, athletic field, military drill. Studies resumed Sept. 15. For prospectus address BROTHER EDMUND, Director.

MISS KELLER'S SCHOOL
35-37 EAST 62D ST.
New, well ventilated, fireproof building. Gym., studio, roof garden. Complete course Kindergarten to College; also special courses in Literature, French, Art, Music. Few non-resident pupils in separate building. Office hours daily, 10 A. M. to 4 P. M.
ELEANOR I. KELLER, Pd. M., Principal.

FRIENDS' SEMINARY
Rutherford Place and 15th St., New York.
FRIENDS' SCHOOL,
102-114 SCHERMERHORN ST., B'KLYN.
Kindergarten and Preparatory Schools for Boys and Girls.
Non-sectarian.
Catalog on application.

The Carpenter School
FOR BOYS, 310 WEST END AVE.
77TH YEAR BEGINS OCTOBER 5TH.
A substantial school preparing for Groton, Hill, or directly for College. School training begun here, but no kindergarten. Exercise in the open air, 1:30 to 4, throughout the Winter. Study under supervision and not at home. Boarding accommodations Fall and Spring only. Complete equipment in our own building.

THE LOYOLA SCHOOL
65 East 83d St., New York City.
A SELECT PREPARATORY SCHOOL
High School and Grammar Departments
Small Classes. Individual Attention.
Tenth Year Begins Oct. 4th, 1909
Rev. DAVID W. HEARN, S. J., Principal.

IRVING SCHOOL
L. D. RAY, 35 W. 84th St.
Thorough preparation for college or business.
Primary and Intermediate Departments.
No home study for boys under fifteen.
GYMNASIUM—LABORATORY
Dr. RAY at School mornings after Sept. 6.
20th year begins Sept. 23. Year book on request

Collegiate School
L. C. Mygatt, Principal.
241 WEST 77TH STREET.
Boys prepared for the Colleges and Scientific Schools. Well-equipped Gymnasium. Reopens October 4th.

De Lancey School for Girls
302 West 93th St. Cor. West End Ave.
28th year begins Oct. 4th. Elementary, High School and College Preparatory. A school for the careful education of girls and the cultivation of the higher qualities of self-reliant womanhood. Kindergarten Department. Classes for small boys. Afternoon study hour if desired. Year book on request.

Gordon Winston School for Girls,
520 West End Avenue,
New York City.
Kindergarten, Elementary, College Preparatory, General and Elective Courses, Music, and Art.
MRS. MARY W. SOMERVILLE, A. M., Principal.

Hamilton Grange School will remove to
513 West 142d Street,
between Hamilton Place and Broadway.
School reopens Monday, October 4.
—Kindergarten to College.—

SYMS SCHOOL.
49-51 East 61st Street.
A few vacancies. Will open October 4th. Tel. 806 Plaza. Office hours 10 to 12 daily.
Henry White Callahan, Head Master.

THE BERLITZ SCHOOL of Languages,
Madison Square, 1,122 Broadway.
Harlem Branch, 343 Lenox Av., above 127th St.
Brooklyn Branch, 218-220 Livingston St.
Lessons at school or residence, day or evening.

The Sachs School for Girls,
116 West 59th St.
CHARLES H. LEETE, Principal.
Opens Monday, October 4.

STAMMERING,
and similar affections of speech corrected. 20 years' successful experience. Send for instructive booklet. Dr. Bryant's School, 62 West 40th St.

Dr. Earle's Girls' Collegiate Institute.—Social, Professional, Literary, Domestic training.—14th year. Boarding and Day College. Preparatory, Grammar, Primary, Kindergarten. Dr. and Mrs. E. Lyell Earle, Principals, 59 W. 96. Cat.

INSTITUTE OF MUSICAL ART of the City of New York. Frank Damrosch, Director. Opens Oct. 18th. Enrollment commences Oct. 1st. For full information address 53 Fifth Av.

NEW YORK—Manhattan.

52 YEARS
of THOROUGH WORK
is the Packard record and reference
"NO SOLICITORS"!
Fall Session Begins Tuesday, September 7. Office Now Open.
PACKARD
COMMERCIAL SCHOOL
4th Ave. & 23d St. Day and Evening.
"The School that Makes a Specialty of Each Student."

STENOGRAPHY, BOOKKEEPING
All Business Subjects.
Fall term now open—17th year.
1133 B'way. MILLER Cor. of 26th St.
SCHOOL
Send, call or telephone for New Booklet T.

Eastman School
Bookkeeping, Shorthand, Typewriting, Penmanship, Civil Service and Academic Departments.
Open during the Entire year.
Call or write for catalogue.
Lenox Ave. & 123d St.

ART, INDUSTRIAL AND BUSINESS TRAINING SCHOOL
Register in Sept. Ask for prospectus.
Y. W. C. A.
7 EAST 15TH ST.
Office Hours 9 A. M. to 5 P. M., 7 to 9 P. M.
Saturday Afternoons & Eves. Excepted.

Day and evening classes in Cooking, Dressmaking, Millinery, Art, Elocution, Mandolin, and Guitar for HARLEM Y.W.C.A.
BUSY WOMEN
Boarding Home. Gymnasium. 74 West 124th Street, New York City. Call or send for circular.

Fordham University, SCHOOL OF LAW
20 VESEY ST., NEW YORK.
Term begins Sept. 23. Daily, 4:15 to 6:15 P.M.
The "Case System" is followed. The policy of the school is to keep classes small in order to give individual attention to students. For particulars apply to Paul Fuller, LL.D., Dean.
Collegiate and Medical Depts. at Fordham.

New York University Law School
75th Year opens Sept. 23.
Morning Class, 9-12.
Afternoon Class, 4-6.
Evening Class, 8-10.
Degrees LL. B., LL. M., J.D.
Address L. J. Tompkins, Sec., Washington Sq., N. Y

NEW YORK LAW SCHOOL. Day School, 174 Fulton St., Evening School, New York City "Dwight Method" of instruction. LL.B. in two years. LL.M. in three years. High standards. Send for catalogue. GEORGE CHASE, Dean.

TEACHER, competent, wanted for commercial school in stenography, (Isaac Pitman;) permanent. Address full particulars to Isaac Pitman's Sons, 31 Union Square.

SACHS COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE
SCHOOL FOR BOYS, 38 WEST 59TH STREET.
THIRTY-EIGHTH YEAR BEGINS
Wednesday, September 29, 1909.
Primary, Intermediate, and High School Departments. Thorough preparation for all colleges. Special Commercial Course. Gymnasium privileges.
DR. OTTO KOENIG, Principal.

Alcuin Preparatory School
FORMERLY 41 EAST 80TH STREET
REOPENS SEPT. 29TH.
11½ WEST EIGHTY-SIXTH STREET
KINDERGARTEN THROUGH HIGH SCHOOL
Circulars and information about East Side Stage on application
Office Hours 9-12 daily after Sept. 10th

The Madison School for Girls
General, College Preparatory, and Special Courses. Individual attention and, if necessary, special instruction given. Boys received in primary.
ROSALIE MOSES, Principal
19 West 96th Street.

Mrs. Helen M. Scoville's School
FOR GIRLS.
2,042 FIFTH AVENUE.
Music, Art, Household Economics. Regular courses and special studies. Outdoor exercise. Physical culture. European travel parties. Home care and social life.

THE GARDNER SCHOOL
Boarding and Day School for Girls,
607 Fifth Avenue,
Between 48th and 49th Sts.
Accessible from all points in New York and the suburbs; thorough instruction; individual attention. Assistant teacher of English, &c., wanted.

The Cutler School
20 EAST 50TH ST.
Thirty-seventh year begins October 4th. Four hundred graduates have entered college. For Boys of all ages.

The Merrill-van Laer School
A Boarding and Day School for Girls
Offers a broad and thorough education together with advantages of residence in a great city. Buildings extensive and suited to educational and social life of the pupils. For further information address 30-32-34 E. 57th St., New York.

The Misses Rayson's
School for Girls reopens Oct. 7th,
164-166-168 WEST 75TH ST.

THE SEMPLE 241 Central Park West, cor. 84th St.
Boarding and Day School for Girls and Kindergarten. Reopens Oct. 7th.

MISS JENNY HUNTER'S KINDERGARTEN Training School. Regular two years' course. Primary methods. Apply at 15 West 127th Street.

Kindergarten, Primary Training; City, State Licenses. Froebel Normal Institute. Scholarships limited. 59 West 96th.

Brooklyn.

PRATT INSTITUTE
215 RYERSON STREET,
BROOKLYN, NEW YORK.
DAY CLASSES OPEN SEPTEMBER 20
EVENING CLASSES OPEN SEPTEMBER 27
For catalogue, giving full particulars, address
FREDERIC B. PRATT, Secretary.

ADELPHI
Office open 8:30-12 A. M. on and after Sept. 1.
Full Term Begins September 15.
Classes begin sessions in all departments (Academy, Normal School, Art School and College) September 20.
Eugene C. Alder, M. A., Supt. of Academy.
Chas. H. Levermore, Ph. D., Pres. of College.

NEW YORK—Tarrytown.

IRVING SCHOOL For Boys TARRYTOWN-ON-HUDSON, New York.

Peekskill.

WORRALL HALL ACADEMY, Peekskill, N. Y.
Location, accommodations ideal. Primary, Academic, Business Courses; Military Drill. Terms $300 to $400. Illust. Cat.

SWIMMING.

SWIMMING SCIENTIFICALLY TAUGHT
Filtered pools. Prof. Dalton, 23 West 44th.

PENNSYLVANIA—Bethlehem.

BETHLEHEM PREPARATORY SCHOOL
Beautifully Located at Bethlehem, Pa.
TWO HOURS FROM NEW YORK.
A BOARDING SCHOOL FOR BOYS OVER 14 YEARS OF AGE. STRICTLY COLLEGE PREPARATORY. CHARGE $450.00 PER YEAR.
—oo—
This school is noted for energetic work, for giving boys character, a sound foundation for the duties of life, and a preparation for college that means success.
—oo—
Our record is over 1,250 boys sent to college in the last 32 years.
Send for Catalogue.
H. A. Fuering, B. S., Head Master.

PENNSYLVANIA—Chester.

PENNSYLVANIA MILITARY COLLEGE, Chester, Pa. Write for interesting catalogue.
COL. CHAS. E. HYATT, President.

NEW JERSEY—Hoboken.

STEVENS SCHOOL
STEVENS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY
River St., bet. 5th and 6th Sts., Hoboken, N. J.
REOPENS SEPT. 13TH, 1909.
Registration day for applicants for admission Wednesday, September 8th.
Examinations for admission on Thursday and Friday, September 9th and 10th.
Courses of study preparatory to Universities, Colleges, Schools of Science, Law, and Medicine.
The rate of tuition for all classes is $150 per year, or $50 per term.
For catalogue apply to the Principal.

NEW JERSEY—Newark.

MISS TOWNSEND'S SCHOOL FOR GIRLS.
Excellent advantages in all departments. Individual attention. Certificate admits to college. Limited number of boarding pupils received.
54 PARK PLACE, NEWARK, N. J.

NEW ENGLAND—Connecticut.

Cheshire School
Founded A. D. 1794
Situated in the beautiful hill country of central Connecticut. College preparatory and general courses, combined with well-directed physical training. Extensive grounds, fine buildings; first class in every particular. Acquaint yourself with the advantages Cheshire offers before deciding upon a boarding-school for your boy. Send for illustrated description and catalogue.
REV. JOHN D. SKILTON, M.A., HEADMASTER, CHESHIRE, Conn.

TRUSTEES

•Jos. W. Harriman, President	The Rev. John Williams
•Ed. D. Woodbury	•Herbert B. Lloyd, Treasurer
•J. Pierpont Morgan	S. Vilas Beckwith
•C. La Rue Munson	The Rev. J. Frederick Sexton
Nicholas Murray Butler	•William H. Burtenshaw
The Rev. Flavel S. Luther	John A. Ordway
•The Rt. Rev. Edwin S. Lines	•William G. Mather
•William C. Demorest	•John J. Osborn
J. Borden Harriman	J. D. Walter
George T. Wilson	•Edward Dodge, Secretary

•ALUMNI

The Stamford Military Academy
(Formerly Stamford Academy for Boys)
Stamford, Conn.
Ideal Home Boarding School. Splendid location; perfect sanitation. Each boy has own bedroom with running water. Opens September 27th; primary, grammar, high school, and special commercial courses; prepares boys 5 to 18 for college or business; competent teachers, athletic field of 23 acres surrounding school; pupils always under personal supervision; military drill. Address Dept. B for catalogue.

INGLESIDE—A School for Girls
New Milford, Litchfield Co., Conn.
School year begins Tuesday, October 5, 1909.
MRS. WM. D. BLACK, Patroness.

The Taconic School for Girls Near beautiful lake in the Berkshire Hills. Separate home for younger girls. Thorough college preparatory and special courses. Golf, tennis, basket-ball, boating. Miss Lilian Dixon, A. B., (Wellesley and Bryn Mawr;) Miss Bertha Bailey, B. S., (Wellesley,) Lakeville, Conn.

The Elizabeth Mead School, Hillside, Norwalk, Conn.—Beautiful location; one hour from New York; careful supervision; primary, intermediate, college preparatory, and general courses; certificate admits to all leading colleges. Margaret R. Breckinridge, A. B. Vassar, Principal.

THE BRUNSWICK SCHOOL, Greenwich, Conn. College Preparatory.
George F. Carmichael, Headmaster.

Jersey City.

Hasbrouck Institute, Jersey City, New Jersey, 54th year will begin Sept. 15.

NEW JERSEY—Tenafly.

Berkeley Academy, for boys; western slope of Palisades, 17 miles out; large place; limited number; terms moderate. James Christie, Tenafly, N. J.

NEW JERSEY—Pennington.

Pennington Seminary
Classical, Scientific, English, Commercial, Domestic Science, and Manual Training Courses. Art, Elocution, Music. Separate Home Junior Department. 72nd session opens Sept. 21st. Terms, $375 to $400. For catalogue, address J. MORGAN READ, D. D., Pres., Box Q, Pennington, New Jersey.

NEW JERSEY—Montclair.

Montclair Academy Military Organization. West Point Commandant.
Send for our booklet, "Your Boy and Our School."
John G. MacVicar, A. M., 49 Walden Pl., Montclair, N.J.

SUMMONSES.

SUPREME COURT, COUNTY OF NEW YORK.—JOSEPHINE W. TAYLOR, plaintiff, against ALICE W. EMMET, Fanny L. Johnson, Joseph C. Whitney, Henry Lawrence Whitney, George H. Whitney, Robert U. Whitney, George R. Minot, James J. Minot, Junior, Henry Whitney Minot, Ellerton P. Whitney, Ellen Louise Whitney, Ellerton P. Whitney, Junior, Constance W. Zerrahn, Constance W. Zerrahn, Junior, Elizabeth W. Zerrahn, Eleanor Whitney, Hugh Whitney, the said Ellerton P. Whitney and Robert H. Gardiner as substituted trustees under the last will and testament of Joseph Whitney, deceased; and Alice W. Emmet, Charles S. Rackemann, and Ellerton P. Whitney, being the persons named as executors of and trustees under a certain instrument alleged to be the last will and testament of Caroline E. Johnson, deceased, defendants.—Summons.—Trial desired in the County of New York.

To the above-named defendants:

You are hereby summoned to answer the complaint in this action and to serve a copy of your answer on the plaintiff's attorneys within twenty days after the service of this summons, exclusive of the day of service; and in case of your failure to appear or answer judgment will be taken against you by default for the relief demanded in the complaint.

Dated New York, July 24th, 1909.

STRONG & CADWALADER,
Plaintiff's Attorneys, Office and Post Office Address 40 Wall Street, Borough of Manhattan, City of New York.

To the defendants Joseph C. Whitney, Henry Lawrence Whitney, George R. Minot, Ellerton P. Whitney, Constance W. Zerrahn, the said Ellerton P. Whitney and Robert H. Gardiner as substituted trustees under the last will and testament of Joseph Whitney, deceased; Charles S. Rackemann and Ellerton P. Whitney, being persons named as executors of and trustees under a certain instrument alleged to be the last will and testament of Caroline E. Johnson, deceased:

The foregoing summons is served upon you by publication, pursuant to an order of the Honorable Edward B. Amend, a Justice of the Supreme Court of the State of New York, dated the 31st day of August, 1909, and filed with the complaint in the office of the Clerk of the County of New York at the County Court House in the Borough of Manhattan, in the City of New York, in said State, on the 31st day of August, 1909.

Dated New York, August 31st, 1909.

STRONG & CADWALADER,
Plaintiff's Attorneys, Office and Post Office Address, 40 Wall Street, Borough of Manhattan, City of New York.

AUCTION SALES.

IN THE MATTER OF THE ASSIGNMENT of the NEW YORK MOULDING MANUFACTURING COMPANY to WILLIAM C. ROSENBERG for the benefit of creditors.

Notice is hereby given that the assets of the above-named New York Moulding Manufacturing Company will be sold at public auction on September 17th, 1909, at 10:30 A. M., at 645 Eighth Avenue, New York City, Borough of Manhattan, by Daniel Greenwald, auctioneer.

The assets consist of a large amount of room and picture frame mouldings, circular saw, paints, pots,

These employers want high-class help.

SITUATIONS WANTED, FEMALES
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day.

LADIES' COMPANION.—Young, cultured Norwegian widow, seeks position as ladies' companion. Expert masseuse and sewer; good linguist, experienced traveler, finest references. Address Mrs. G. Starm, 10 7th St., Cranford, N. J.

STENOGRAPHER.—Educated, up to date American girl, wants position quickly. Helen Seymour, General Delivery.

SWITCHBOARD and file clerk, three years' experience; neat and refined; All references; agencies positively ignored; $12. C. S., 122 Times Downtown.

THE NEW YORK TIMES welcomes information concerning any advertiser whose advertisement is open to the charge of misrepresentation. Decoy advertisements are barred from The Times.

Telephone Your Wants—1000 Bryant.

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALES.
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day.

ACCOUNTANT.—Expert; opens, closes, balances, disentangles, audits; $5 monthly, upward; statements, balance sheets; keep books part time. Accountant, Room 207, 32 Union Square; phone—2250 Stuyvesant.

BOOKKEEPER.—Expert accountant, balances, systematizes, audits books regular intervals. Accountant, 80 Henry St., Brooklyn.

BOOKKEEPER.—Elderly gentleman desires position; salary, $12; strictly temperate; accurate at figures. Address Mr. Wilson, 25 East 14th St., care Aldvertising Office.

BOOKKEEPER or assistant, with six years' experience; salary $15. A. Ludwig, 1,475 Greene Av., Brooklyn, N. Y.

BOY, 15 years old, public school graduate, desires position with good chance for advancement. Q 119 Times Downtown.

BOY, 17, wishes position as office or stock boy; reference. G 169 Times, Times Square.

COLLEGE man, 22, wishes employment afternoons or evenings and Saturday; willing to work hard; best references furnished. Box G 154 Times, Times Square.

FUR MAN, (24,) TEN YEARS WITH FUR HOUSE, WOULD LIKE POSITION AS ASSISTANT FUR BUYER IN DEPARTMENT OR SPECIALTY STORE; NO OBJECTIONS TO OUT-OF-TOWN POSITION; HIGHEST REFERENCES GIVEN. G 115 TIMES, TIMES SQUARE.

OUR WESTERN REPRESENTATIVE desires a line of tailor-made laundered ladies' shirtwaists of popular prices to handle on commission basis. Ideal Waist Co., 33 West 17th St.

PAINTER, PAPERHANGER, and DECORATOR.—First-class work; reasonable. Pilcher, 240 East 118th St. Telephone 537 Harlem.

SALESMAN, making large cities between Chicago and the coast, having established department store trade, desires first-class line in connection with present line. Salesman, 319 Times, Times Square.

SERVICES FREE.—College graduate wishes to learn ad. writing three evenings per week. J. P. Preyer, 413 West 117th St.

STENOGRAPHER, CORRESPONDENT.—Expert; well educated; aged 24; energetic, intelligent; six years' technical and mercantile experience; references; $22. Secretary, 120 Times Downtown.

STENOGRAPHER, TYPIST, male, 21, expert, thoroughly competent, three years' legal experience, desires evening position. G 159 Times, Times Square.

TUTOR.—A university graduate, with high honors and experience, would teach college preparatory studies; references. W. W. W., Beemerville, N. J.

YOUNG MAN, 26, experienced bookkeeper, correspondent and salesman, writes, speaks German, Spanish, besides English, desires position immediately. Q 118 Times, 89 Broadway.

YOUNG MAN, Japanese, thoroughly experienced in his duties and traveling; speaks English, French, German, perfectly; best references. H. S., 105 East 54th.

YOUNG MAN wishes position with cloak and suit house; general experience; reference. G 163 Times, Times Square.

YOUNG MAN wishes position as salesman; city or travel; salary and commission. G 164 Times, Times Square.

YOUNG MARRIED MAN wants office or other work. C 157 Times, Times Square.

THE NEW YORK TIMES welcomes information concerning any advertiser whose advertisement is open to the charge of misrepresentation. Decoy advertisements are barred from The Times.

Telephone Your Wants—1000 Bryant.

HELP WANTED—EMPLOYMENT BUREAUS.
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day.

Commercial Help.

A.—STENOGRAPHERS.—When in need of stenographers, typewriters, bookkeepers, or office assistants for permanent or temporary positions, write or telephone Miss S. M. Gahagan, 235 Broadway. Tel. 7,070—Barclay.

A. — SECRETARIES, STENOGRAPHERS. — Jupp's Bureau recommends efficient employes only; prompt, free; references investigated; expert facsimile duplicating. 87 Nassau. Tel. 4221 Cortlandt.

A.—A.—STENOGRAPHERS, bookkeepers, and office assistants furnished at short notice without charge. 'Phone 5,012 Barclay, Lamb's Exchange, 229 Broadway.

BOOKKEEPERS, stenographers, office help, male, female, furnished free. 4,470 Murray Hill. Universal Exchange, 110 West 34th St.

Domestic Help.

A.—COLONIAL BUREAU, 60 West 39th St.—Strictly reliable domestic help; specialties; governesses, ladies', maids; references thoroughly investigated. Telephone 5582—38th St.

A. A. HOFMAYER, 55 West 25d St., furnishes domestic help, well recommended. Telephone 1864—Chelsea.

HOUSEWORK.—White and colored girls for general housework and nursing. Bureau, 225 East 73d.

MRS. PILLSBURY, 507 5th Av., Murray Hill 6185.—Teachers, governesses, housekeepers, companions, trained nurses.
SEPARATE DOMESTIC DEPARTMENT.

MRS. RICE KEMPER, 615 Columbus Av.—Thoroughly competent domestic help; investigated references. Tel. Riverside 9348.

RELIABLE Hungarian, German, Polish help; references investigated. Roth's, 170 East 3d St. Telephone 2508—Orchard.

SELECT female help; all nationalities; good wages. Yorkville Employment Bureau, 1,235 Lexington Av.

STEELE'S EXCHANGE is prepared to furnish first-class colored help for private families and hotels. 155 West 133d. 'Phone 1306 Morningside.

Telephone Your Wants—1000 Bryant.

BOARDERS WANTED.
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day

West Side.

1.—NO. 505 WEST 143D.
"A LITTLE BETTER THAN THE REST."
Table guests. My card under "Furnished Rooms" gives full particulars. POINSETT. 'Phone, Audubon 2,990.

1.—NO. 139 WEST 69TH.
"A LITTLE BETTER THAN THE REST."
Dining room opens Sept. 15th. The best cuisine in New York; table guests. See my card under "Furnished Rooms." 'Phone, Columbus 5,774.

—1—Attractive home; handsome rooms, with board; large and small; references exchanged. 146 W. 57th Street.

5TH AV., 46.—Corner house; desirable, large, small rooms, with board; refined; homelike surroundings.

7TH AV., 2,053, (123d.)—Airy rooms; steam, 'phone; exceptional board; homelike; fine location; references.

16TH ST., 20-22 WEST.—Extra large front room, second floor; private bath; &c.; hot water, heat, electric light furnished; first-class; excellent board; telephone; Winter arrangements; other rooms.

64TH ST., 115 WEST.—Large pleasant room; running water; excellent table; moderate.

68TH, 67 WEST.—Handsomely furnished suite, private bath; other large and small rooms; running water; board optional; near Central Park; references.

68TH ST., 58 WEST.—Single, double rooms; private baths; excellent table; telephone; Subway, "L"; references.

72D ST., 132 WEST.—Arrangements made for Fall and Winter for entire floor, with bath; also large and hall rooms; board; references.

72D ST., 122 WEST.—Recently opened; one and two room suites, private baths; high-class accommodation; moderate cost.

74TH ST., 102 WEST.—Exceptionally desirable single and suite rooms; private baths; electric

BOARDERS WANTED.
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day.

West Side.

76TH ST., 105 WEST.—Large room, beautifully furnished; superior table; white service; table guests; telephone.

76TH ST., 108 WEST.—Unusual opportunity secure single rooms; steam, running water; first-class board.

77TH ST., 104 WEST.—Second floor, suite or singly; private bath; also large and small rooms; newly decorated; superior table; references.

78TH ST., 121 WEST.—Large, sunny room; connecting bath; suitable gentlemen; hall room; private family.

78TH ST., 112 WEST.—Newly furnished house; parlor, dining room; table boarders; references.

79TH ST., 121 WEST.—Two high-class houses, newly furnished; private baths, with board.

79TH ST., 152 WEST.—Desirable rooms; southern exposure; table guests; references exchanged.

80TH ST., 143 WEST.—Large, small rooms, well kept house; table board; parlor dining; references.

80TH, 150-152 WEST.—Desirable rooms, single or suite; parlor dining room; home cooking.

81ST, 116 WEST.—Fine room for two gentlemen; strictly high-class board; references necessary.

82D ST., 8 WEST.—A refined Jewish house; first-class cuisine; individual tables; moderate prices.

82D ST., 55 WEST.—Second floor front; sunny room; medium, third floor; rear room; private family.

82D ST., 27 WEST.—Handsomely furnished rooms, excellent table, refined service; table guests accommodated; references.

82D ST., 120 WEST.—Clean, well kept rooms; single, en suite; private bath; first class board; table guests; all car lines.

83D ST., 127 WEST.—Elegant rooms, large and small, $7 upward; good table; table guests; references.

84TH ST., 51 WEST.—Large rooms, single or en suite; private bath; telephone; home environments; excellent cuisine; rates moderate; references.

93D ST., 122 WEST.—Desirable rooms; southern exposure; all conveniences; good board; telephone; references exchanged.

93D ST., 163 WEST.—Desirable rooms; well appointed house; parlor, dining room; telephone; table guests.

94TH ST., 20 WEST.—Attractive, large rooms; private baths; also doctors' or dentists' offices; references.

95TH, 50 WEST.—Private; near Park, "L," express Subway; new accommodated; French cuisine; references.

95TH ST., 149 WEST.—Large and small rooms, with board; business people preferred; telephone.

96TH ST., 68 WEST.—Large and small rooms; Southern cooking; baths each floor; telephone; moderate.

96TH ST., 64 WEST.—Newly decorated, large, small rooms; private baths; board optional; references; telephone.

66TH ST., 62 WEST.—Excellent table board, home cooking, $4. Frost.

104TH ST., 61 WEST.—Desirable vacancies; private baths; refined, homelike surroundings; parlor dining room; references.

115TH ST., 423 WEST.—Desirable rooms, superior board; reduced rates to Oct. 1st. Apt. 2.

124TH ST., WEST, (285 St. Nicholas Av.) Hancock Court.—Desirable families, married couples, bachelors, business women, are invited to inspect our apartments, where they can board in own home; handsome rooms, furnished, unfurnished, baths, shower, laundry; excellent, liberal table; home cooking; every comfort; $8 single, $14 two up; concession families. Dingelman.

121ST ST., 264 WEST.—Southern room, well furnished; board; "I"; gentlemen; telephone; private family.

135TH ST., 242, 244, 246 WEST.—Large and small rooms, with board; reference; table board.

141ST ST., 527 WEST.—Handsomely furnished suite, with lavatory; also single rooms; newly decorated; all conveniences; steam heat; telephone; Subway; table guests.

149TH ST., 542 WEST.—Near Broadway Subway; highly located; coolest, most beautiful, and healthiest spot in New York; The Audubon, first-class rooms and board; select surroundings; accommodations A1; large porch and garden; reception parlor, library, billiard room, telephone; rates, $18-$20 two.

150TH ST., 525 WEST.—Comfortable accommodations, private house, 2 or 3 gentlemen, near Broadway; references.

156TH ST., 540 WEST.—Large and small rooms, excellent table; every home comfort; gentlemen only; one block from Subway express station; private house.

ALLIANCE HOUSE, 258-260 West 44th St.—Small family hotel, centrally located; elevator and telephone service; baths and writing rooms on each floor; excellent cuisine; moderate rates; quiet place for quiet people. Tel. 793—Bryant.

AN American family, owning house, will let second floor, with private bath and board; advantages of a refined and cultured home to those furnishing required references. Address West 86th Street, Box 9 Times, Times Square.

—1—Attractive home; handsome rooms with board; large and small; reference exchanged. 146 W. 57th Street.

East Side.

15TH ST., 218 EAST.—Most desirable rooms; view of Stuyvesant Park; excellent table; references exchanged.

17TH ST., 116 EAST.—Table guests wanted; excellent cooking; good service; reasonable.

22D ST., 39 EAST.—Desirable large and small rooms, with board; references; table board; transients.

58TH ST., 50 EAST.—Rooms, with board, for refined people requiring a quiet, well kept house; references essential.

80TH ST., 40 EAST, corner Madison Av.—Elegant, large, newly furnished rooms; en suite or separate; private baths; elevator; excellent cuisine; private garage to rent with suites or separate.

83D ST., 55 EAST.—Newly furnished; large closets; running water; best neighborhood; parlor dining room; excellent table; telephone; Gentiles only; references required.

MADISON AV., 673-694-696.—Second floor; private bath; other double and single rooms, with excellent board; Autumn transients accommodated; reasonable.

MADISON AV., 108-110.
Large and small room; parlor dining room.

Brooklyn.

GREENE AV., 66. (Best Brooklyn location.)—Convenient all cars and Subway; pleasant, spacious, clean rooms, with board; telephone; fine table; moderate.

Long Island.

Douglas Manor Inn, Douglaston.—Open all the year; beautiful, convenient, homelike; on Little Neck Bay; easy commuting distance.

Telephone Your Wants—1000 Bryant.

BOARD WANTED.
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day.

YOUNG Jewish gentleman wishes to room and board with refined German Jewish family; near Subway; prefer room with electric light. M., 20 East 17th St.

BUSINESS WOMAN desires room and board; private family; state price. 17 Field Av., New Rochelle.

Telephone Your Wants—1000 Bryant.

FURNISHED ROOMS.
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day.

West Side.

1.—NO. 505 WEST 143D.
"A LITTLE BETTER THAN THE REST."
COME AND SEE FOR YOURSELF.
Single rooms, double rooms, suites of from four to seven rooms each; furnishings new and luxurious; high-class elevator house; long-distance telephones; maid service; baths in abundance, many of them private; rates from $10 weekly upward, including meals in high-class dining room, cuisine the best in New York at the price; table guests, $7 weekly; also furnished housekeeping apartments of four and five rooms. POINSETT. 'Phone 2,990 Audubon.

1.—NO. 139 WEST 69TH.
"A LITTLE BETTER THAN THE REST."
Modern conveniences; highest class furnishings in profusion. The most elegantly equipped house in the city outside the big hotels. Vacancies to-day; parlor suite of two rooms and private bath; two double rooms, private bath with each; one single room; continuous hot water; steam heat in every room. Dining room opens Sept. 15th. No superior and few equals in cuisine. Table guests, $7 weekly. Room and board, $12 to $32. SECURE RESERVATIONS NOW. TRANSIENTS ACCOMMODATED. 'Phone, Columbus 5,774.

HELP WANTED—FEMALES.
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day.

DRESSMAKERS, FINE BONED COSTUMES, WAISTS; THOSE HAVING WORKED IN WHOLESALE HOUSES PREFERRED; LONG SEASON AND HIGHEST PRICES PAID; COME PREPARED TO WORK. APPLY ALL WEEK JULIUS STEIN & CO., 160 5TH AV.

INCREASE YOUR INCOME by selling real estate in your leisure time. No experience necessary. Your friends and acquaintances are looking for the right kind of suburban residence property, and we have it. The best residence sites on the beautiful North Shore, on line of Pennsylvania Electric Express Service, at bargain prices. We will help you in every possible way. Women are particularly successful in this line. Write for details. Leisure, P. O. Box 57 Times Square Station.

NURSE.—An experienced nurse to take care of child 21 months old; wages $25 per month; references dequired. Call Wednesday or Thursday afternoons, Morgan, 802 Central Park West.

OFFICE ASSISTANT.—Young woman wanted as office assistant in office of a large downtown commission house; must be a typist. Box P 189 Times Downtown.

STENOGRAPHER and TYPEWRITER.—One who understands bookkeeping. Call, between 12 and 1, American Fashion Co., 853 Broadway.

TELEPHONE OPERATOR.—Young woman as telephone operator and office assistant; wages to start $7. Address Box B., 118 Times Downtown.

WANTED.—Young lady in the premium mailing dept. of a large manufacturing concern; experience not essential; salary $5; good chances for advancement; state references and age. Premium, P. O. Box 645, New York City.

WANTED—Competent teacher in stenography for commercial school, (Isaac Pitman;) permanent. Address full particulars to Isaac Pitman's Sons, 31 Union Square.

WANTED—A young girl for general housework; wages, $20 to $22 month; must have good city references. Apartment 22, 622 West 113th St.

WANTED—At Harlem Hospital, 136th St. and Lenox Av., ward maids; wages $15 per month. Call on Supervising Nurse with references.

THE NEW YORK TIMES welcomes information concerning any advertiser whose advertisement is open to the charge of misrepresentation. Decoy advertisements are barred from The Times.

HELP WANTED—MALES
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day.

A BRIGHT, SHARP MAN to sell city trade and collect; steady employment. Manager, 822 Westchester Av., Prospect Av. Subway station, Bronx.

BOND SALESMAN on commission; references required. Address, stating particulars, Bonds, 147 Times Downtown.

BOOKKEEPER, WITH EXCEPTIONAL EXECUTIVE ABILITY, TO TAKE CHARGE OF ACCOUNTING ROOM OF PROMINENT WHITE GOODS COMMISSION HOUSE; MUST BE FAMILIAR WITH THIS LINE OF WORK; ADDRESS, STATING FULLY REFERENCES, EXPERIENCE, &C.; NONE OTHERS CONSIDERED. BOX Q 171 TIMES DOWNTOWN.

HELP WANTED—MALES
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day.

BOY WANTED—Sixteen to eighteen years, residing with parents; well educated, good penman. Address, in own handwriting, with references, Wholesale Jeweler, Box 881 New York City.

BOY WANTED in office of insurance broker; preference given to good penman and boy from good family; good opening for the right boy. Q 115 Times Downtown.

INCREASE YOUR INCOME by selling real estate; no experience necessary; your friends and acquaintances are seeking for the right kind of residence property, and we have it. The best residence sites on the North Shore, on line of Pennsylvania Electric Express Service. We will help you in every possible way. Write for details. Success, P. O. Box 57 Times Square Station.

OPENING in advertising department for young man with energy and ability. Apply 9 o'clock, Room 206, Times Building, Times Square.

REAL ESTATE SALESMEN.—We want reliable, active men who are salesmen to sell on commission only high-class, fully improved residence property on the North Shore of Long Island; this is a new development on line of Pennsylvania tunnel express service, and the best selling proposition in New York; the property is right, prices and terms reasonable, and a good man can make a big success; if you are not a worker, with good references, do not apply. Salesman, P. O. Box 57 Times Square Station.

SALESMAN.—First-class man can connect with manufacturer of suits and costumes; liberal terms to right man; all communications strictly confidential. S. C., 168 Times Downtown.

SALESMEN that have made good in lines that require salesmanship, will be trained in real estate business at our expense. N. E. Cole, 1 West 34th St.

STENOGRAPHER.—Excellent opportunity for a thoroughly competent stenographer; must be well educated, rapid in taking dictation and transcribing; good working knowledge of French is essential. Apply by letter, Merrill, G 152 Times, Times Square.

WANTED—A capable, intelligent boy of good address, about 15 or 16 years of age; must be a good penman and reside at home with parents or guardians. Applicants will address in own handwriting, naming references and salary expected, Banking, B 116 Times Downtown.

WE REQUIRE the services of a neat-appearing, educated American, 25 to 40, capable of filling a position of responsibility; state if at present employed and salary expected. G 138 Times, Times Square.

YOUNG MAN wanted in office of a large downtown mercantile commission house; must be a good penman. Box P 190 Times Downtown.

General.

WANTED—Salesmen; no experience required; we receive calls for salesmen from thousands of the best firms in the country; traveling salesmen earn from $1,000 to $25,000 a year and expenses; we will teach you to be one by mail and assist you to secure a good position. Scores of our most famous, richest men got their start selling goods on the road. Thousands of our graduates who formerly earned from $40 to $75 a month, have since earned from $25 a day to as high as $1,000 a month and expenses. If you want to earn from two to ten times as much as you now earn, and enter the most independent, pleasant profession in the world, our free book, "A Knight of the Grip," will show you how. Write (or call) for it to-day. Address National Salesmen's Training Association, 810D Flatiron Building, New York. Branches: Chicago, Kansas City, Minneapolis, San Francisco.

Telephone Your Wants—1000 Bryant.

FURNISHED ROOMS.
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day.

West Side.

5TH AV., 61.—Large, small front rooms; bath, steam, electricity; one flight up; gentlemen. Campbell.

11TH ST., 70 WEST.—Finely furnished room; light, airy; gentlemen; reasonable rent. France.

12TH ST., 65 WEST.—Large, light suite; running water, bath, 'phone; refined atmosphere. Brooks.

12TH ST., 112 WEST.—Room for gentleman; private house; reference.

36TH ST., 40 WEST.—Comfortable, large hall room; closet, bath, conveniences; $6 weekly.

45TH ST., 244 WEST.—Large, well-furnished room; all modern conveniences; also hall room, with large closet; use of porcelain bath; quiet, well-kept house; references exchanged.

45TH ST., 232 WEST.—Newly renovated, large, small, cheerful rooms; private baths; near Hotel Astor.

58TH ST., 15 WEST.—Exceptionally desirable rooms; private baths, with toilets; electric light; breakfast optional.

61ST ST., 36 WEST.—High-class large and small rooms; running water; large closets; telephone; prices, $5 to $12 per week.

61ST ST., 28 WEST.—Large, small room; first-class house; very central; breakfast optional.

64TH ST., 119 WEST.—Attractively furnished rooms; exceptionally pleasant; all improvements; reasonable permanent rates.

68TH ST., 38 WEST.—Rooms for gentlemen; daintily furnished; electric lights; telephone; hot and cold water in every room; private baths; exceptional attendance; breakfast if desired; highest references only.

68TH ST., 62 WEST.—Suite and single room, second floor, private house; gentlemen only.

68TH ST., 74 WEST.—Attractive rooms; private baths; excellent service; breakfast optional; telephone; Subway, "L."

69TH ST., 107 WEST.—Exceptionally desirable accommodations; unusually refined surroundings; private bath; luxuriantly comfortable; homelike.

66TH ST., 6 WEST.—Large, light parlor, bedroom; suitable two gentlemen or business couple; bath. Morstadt.

69TH ST., 104 WEST.—Beautiful double room, handsomely furnished; running water, bath, telephone; meals optional.

70TH ST., 128 WEST.—Comfortably furnished room; southern exposure; private bath; parquet floor; references exchanged.

71ST ST., 73 WEST.—Newly furnished large rooms; private baths; suitable two gentlemen; $4.50 each.

71ST ST., 57 WEST.—Newly decorated large and small rooms for gentlemen; hot water supply and baths all convenient; breakfast if desired; references.

71ST ST., 163 WEST.—Large front room; gentleman only; large closets; running water; shower; 'phone.

72D ST., 106 WEST.—Exceptionally desirable large room; private bath, toilet; continuous hot water; other attractive rooms, with or without bath; references.

75TH ST., 58 WEST.—Large room, with private bath; also medium room; telephone.

76TH ST., 100 WEST.—Very desirable outside suite; all appointments; single room. Inquire elevator boy.

76TH ST., 125 WEST.—Handsomely furnished large and small rooms; breakfast optional; telephone.

77TH ST., 111 WEST.—Attractive, large rooms, suitable two; medium room; all conveniences; gentlemen; reasonable.

80TH ST., 122 WEST.—Strictly bachelor; Library, electric light; also other choice rooms; attractive to those appreciating quiet, high-class, private home.

80TH ST., 132 WEST.—Large, medium, room; private house; furniture and decorations entirely new; references.

81ST ST., 108 WEST.—Newly furnished large and small rooms; Subway and El.; private house.

81ST ST., 141 WEST.—Desirable rooms, newly furnished; park, "L," Subway; splendid location; reference.

82D ST., 148 West.—Large and medium rooms; suitable for two; running water; references; breakfast.

82D ST., 37 WEST.—Nicely furnished large and small rooms; every convenience; telephone; references.

83D ST., 6 WEST.—Attractively furnished suite or separate; also southern exposure room; reasonable.

83D ST. 68 WEST.—Delightfully cool, comfortably furnished rooms; all conveniences; reasonable; telephone; breakfast; references.

83D ST., 57 WEST.—Attractive; private house; south; large, small; running water, (plenty hot;) telephone.

84TH ST., 55 WEST.—Back parlor, exceptionally suitable physician's office; also beautiful large rooms; newly furnished; private baths; telephone; breakfast optional; references.

85TH ST., 162 WEST.—Desirable office physician, dentist; lavatory connected; choice rooms with baths. Gentlemen.

86TH ST., 308 WEST.—Desirable room, near Riverside Drive; Subway; references.

86TH ST., 126 WEST.—Private bath; electric light; parquet floors; for gentlemen only.

88TH ST., 570 West End Av.—In private house, a few handsomely furnished rooms; dressing rooms and bath. Tel. 7,990 Riverside.

91ST ST., 48 WEST.—Desirable rooms; select; near Sub., elevated; table guests optional; moderate; references.

FURNISHED ROOMS.
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day.

West Side.

93D ST., 165 WEST.—Desirable, sunny, large and small rooms; running water; convenient "L," Subway.

96TH ST., 138 WEST.—Clean, homelike rooms, near Subway and elevated express; breakfast optional. Scott.

97TH ST., 59 WEST.—Medium room, newly furnished; private references.

106TH, 206 WEST.—Suite, single sunny rooms; elevator, 'phone; housekeeping, "L"; Subway; $10 weekly. Day.

107TH ST., 6 WEST.—Bright, cozy room; cheerful, homelike surroundings; all conveniences; telephone; references. Hathaway.

116TH ST., 863 WEST.—Large, nicely furnished, comfortable room; strictly private house; water, bath, telephone.

118TH ST., 420 WEST.—Commodious sunny south room; heated; comfortably furnished; elevator; telephone; references. McPhail.

123D, 168 WEST.—Handsome room, clean baths; gentlemen; well kept house; telephone; breakfast optional.

124TH ST., 510 WEST.—Large outside room; suitable for two; first floor. Apartment 6.

129TH ST., 21 WEST.—Quiet house; homelike furnishings; hall and square rooms, single, en suite; running water; large closets; southern exposure; telephone service; Fall engagements; reasonable rates to permanents.

137TH, 249 WEST.—Handsome rooms, large, small; parlors; 'phone, piano; permanent; refined home; references.

144TH ST., 472 WEST.—Comfortable, light room, running water; private residence; all cars; breakfast; references.

149TH ST., 548 WEST.—Large, small, newly furnished; also unfurnished; house near Broadway; telephone; Subway.

CENTRAL PARK WEST, 223.—Furnished rooms, single and en suite, in bachelor apt. Curtis.

CENTRAL PARK WEST, 410.—Beautifully furnished room in modern apartment; no other roomers; reference. Fischer.

RIVERSIDE DRIVE, 593.—Room for gentleman; adjoining bath; excellently furnished; in high grade elevator apartment; strictly private family; 137th St. Subway one block. Telephone 3402—Audubon. Hengerer.

RIVERSIDE DRIVE.—Mother and daughter occupying new modern apartment near Subway station will rent a large, light room to business man or couple. Address by mail for appointment, Mrs. Button, 552 Riverside Drive.

ST. NICHOLAS AV., CORNER 127TH ST.—Windermere Court—Most beautifully decorated and furnished four, five, six rooms and bath; elevator, telephone, electric light, silver, linen; $50 to $75 monthly.

TO LET—Furnished or unfurnished, by physician, West Nineties, office or floor to dentist or specialist. G., 162 Times, Times Square.

WAVERLY PLACE, 103-105.—Room with private bath, beautifully furnished; $10 per week.

WEST END AV., 378, corner 78th.—Delightful, cool, airy rooms; Summer rates until Sept. 15; convenient Subway, Riverside Drive; table guests.

1—Attractive home; handsome rooms, large and small; references exchanged. 146 W. 57th.

East Side.

21ST ST., 139 EAST, Overlooking Gramercy Park.—Furnished rooms without board; all conveniences; steam heat.

28TH and 29TH STS., Lexington Av., 128.—Large, small connecting rooms, newly decorated; running water.

30TH ST., 46 EAST.—Two rooms; private family; gentlemen; references.

42D, 10 EAST, (Fifth-Madison.)—Rooms, studios, baths; gentlemen; unrestricted; $2.50-$6 weekly. Janitor.

55TH ST., 106 EAST.—Beautiful newly furnished large and small rooms; all improvements; $2 up.

57TH ST., 223 EAST.—Comfortable, large room; all conveniences; $3; private house; first bell.

58TH ST., 34, 36 EAST.—Comfortable rooms; private bath; studio; doctor's office; references.

60TH ST., 244 EAST.—Attractively furnished rooms, suitable for two; also hall room; all improvements. Tel. 2214—Plaza.

62D ST., 100 EAST, (corner of Park Av.)—Parlor floor, beautifully furnished; also other rooms; adjoining baths; telephone; breakfast.

90TH ST., 63 EAST.—Large furnished room; bath; private family.

116TH ST., 123 EAST, "The Leland."—Nicely furnished cool rooms; private baths; $3 up.

124TH ST., 100 EAST.—Large furnished front room, with bath; reasonable; one flight up. Thomson.

DURING HUDSON-FULTON ANNIVERSARY, SEVERAL LARGE ROOMS, WITH ATTRACTIVE SURROUNDING; REASONABLE; REFERENCES REQUIRED. H. C. C., 571 PARK AV.

IRVING PLACE, 53. (Nicholas Fish Mansion.)—Attractive to those appreciating quiet, well-ordered house; breakfast (served in room.)

LEXINGTON AV., 850, (64th St.)—Large, small, clean, comfortable rooms; conveniences; 'phone; breakfast served.

LEXINGTON AV., 1,074, (76th St.,)—Comfortable furnished room, $2.50 weekly; telephone, bath, private house, owner.

MADISON AV., 939, (near 74th St.)—Attractive rooms, furnished, unfurnished; board optional; Summer rates; telephone.

FURNISHED ROOMS.
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day.

Brooklyn.

MESEROLE AV., 99.—Attractive rooms for men in Greenpoint Y. M. C. A. dormitories; all modern conveniences; single, $2 to $4 per week; double, $3 to $5; one night, 75c. and $1; five minutes' walk to 23d St. and 10th St. Ferries.

GOLD ST., 419, BROOKLYN.—Nicely furnished rooms for housekeeping, $3; also hall room, $1; near Subway.

Telephone Your Wants—1000 Bryant.

FURNISHED ROOMS WANTED.
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day.

WANTED—By physician, front or back parlor and waiting room, between 20th and 34th Sts., on or near Lexington Av. Address, stating terms, Physician, G 159 Times, Times Square.

Telephone Your Wants—1000 Bryant.

UNFURNISHED ROOMS.
Say you saw it in The Times.

15c. a line 1 time; 3 times 12c. a line a day; 7 times 10c. a line a day.

BROADWAY, 1,947, (66TH.)—Studios and rooms, $15 to $50; baths; every convenience; fine buildings and location; steam heat, elevator, &c. Martin.

Telephone Your Wants—1000 Bryant.

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES.
Say you saw it in The Times.

25c. a line 1 time; 3 times 23c. a line a day; 7 times 20c. a line a day.

Wanted—Party who is willing to invest $10,000 in a listed stock operation that will positively pay $50,000 first year. Don't reply unless you are willing to connect yourself with stock speculation. Guarantee investor against loss. Active investor can draw weekly salary. DETAILS INTERVIEW ONLY, Box G 107 Times, Times Square.

A man of standing, who can influence a few cash investors on a ground-floor basis can secure a substantial interest in an established real estate development company. Reliable, 320 Times, Times Square.

If you are at present associated with a good, legitimate business and wish to start similar business I will join you with equal amount of cash. State nature of business. Confidential, 189 Times downtown.

Party wanted with $3,000; $50 weekly salary; interest in business. I'll guarantee will be worth $15,000 first year; business practical monopoly; 100% profit. UNLIMITED EXPANSION, Box G 168 Times, Times Square.

Are there not in all New York twenty-five Masons willing to loan $100 each to another who is up against it and facing the inevitable? K. T., 18 Times Downtown.

French engineer, returning from abroad with the general agency for one of the best French automobile makes, wants partner with capital; very interesting proposition; no agents. G 170 Times, Times Square.

Exceptional opportunity for young gentleman to learn optical business; established nine years; large profits will give half interest for $1,500. Morgan Optical Company, 332 9th St., Brooklyn.

Partner to join me in promotion of large corporation; controls leading industry; some capital. G., 165 Times, Times Square.

Investors.—For very valuable information on 10% investments write to H. F. Adams, 803 Montauk Av., New London, Conn.

Parties with money to incorporate; auto garage and repairs; good central location; large building. Apply 310 East 81st St.

$450 buys fish, fruit and vegetable store doing good business; easy payment; illness. Courtin, Hastings-on-Hudson, N. Y.

Established New York steam specialty concern desires additional capital. Address "References," 116 Times Downtown.

Saloon.—Fine-paying place; lease, license; good whisky trade; on account of sickness, cheap. Office, 163 East 104th St.

LOST AND FOUND—CATS, DOGS.
Say you saw it in The Times.

20c. a line 1 time; 3 times, 18c. a line a day; 7 times, 15c. a line a day.

UNWANTED DOGS AND CATS should be taken to the A. S. P. C. A. Shelter for Animals, 102d St. and East River, by the Ambulance House, at 111 East 22d St. Owners of lost dogs and cats and responsible persons wishing to secure pets should apply at the Shelter.

Telephone Your Wants—1000 Bryant.

LOST.
Say you saw it in The Times.

20c. a line 1 time; 3 times, 18c. a line a day; 7 times, 15c. a line a day.

LOST—Sept. 4, Belasco Theatre or between 42d and 50th Sts., lady's red enameled watch, inside case marked "Emily M. Hooper." Attached gold chain, gold seal, gold cross, gold tassel. Return Hotel Beresford, 1 West 81st St. Reward.

LOST.—Gold watch, monogram F. J., and containing picture of elderly lady, Tuesday evening, between Reid and Gates Avs., Brooklyn, and Brighton Beach. Reward if returned to F. J., care of Hirsch, 227 Bainbridge St., Brooklyn.

LOST.—Gold hunting case watch, between 7:30 and 8 P. M. on Broadway open trolley going south, between 21st and City Hall Park; finder will be suitably rewarded. Gilson, care B. S. Walton & Co., 132 Franklin St., New York.

LOST.—On trolley lines between Washington Heights and Stamford, Conn., scarfpin with amethyst and four small diamonds. Good reward if returned to H. M. Heston, 1,170 Broadway.

LOST.—A worn purse, 6th Av., between 48th and 50th Sts., containing $5 bill, small change, eyeglasses, &c.; suitable reward; finder phone address, Mrs. M., G 171 Times, Times Square.

LOST—Brown wallet containing about $50 on Long Island Railroad or at Bellmore. Finder return for reward to Wm. M. Strong, 1 Liberty St., New York City.

LOST—A yellow satchel on the 3d Av. "L" at the City Hall station, last Friday afternoon. Reward if returned to Michael Lapides, 85 Powell Av.

LOST—Sept. 6, ferryboat Manhattan, leaving St. George, S. I., 5:20 P. M., three rings; suitable reward. 22 Ormond Place, Brooklyn.

LOST—Saturday morning, on Staten Island ferryboat, watch fob with gold charm and class pin, reward. Weinstock, 60 West 119th St.

LOST.—Bankbook No. 14,800, Yorkville Bank, special deposit department, issued to August Nagele; payment stopped; return to bank.

LOST.—Bankbook No. 599 of the Jefferson Bank; payment stopped; finder please return to the bank.

LOST.—Grip from New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad; reward. Box G 166 Times, Times Square.

LOST.—Bankbook No. 106,027, Irving Savings Institution; payment stopped; kindly return to bank.

LOST—Lady's gold watch, initials J. L. R.; reward if returned. A. McCue, 535 5th Av.

$25 REWARD.—Lost, Sept. 6

NO MURPHY PLEDGE GIVEN TO GAYNOR

Never Authorized Any One to Give Any, Directly or Indirectly, Tammany Leader Says.

100 DONE WITH GAYNOR?

Republicans Regard His Letter as an Open Bid for Tammany Support—Albany and White House Ambitions.

Following the declaration by Justice William J. Gaynor in the letter where he announced his willingness to become a candidate for Mayor that he had been assured by "influential Democrats" of an "unconditional nomination" by the Democratic City Convention leaders in the Republican and fusion camp, made it clear yesterday that this circumstance would bar the Brooklyn jurist from any serious consideration as a prospective leader in their anti-Tammany fight.

At the same time it became apparent that Justice Gaynor's prospects of becoming the Murphy-McCarren candidate for Mayor were not any too bright. Persons who ought to know declare that neither Tammany Leader Charles F. Murphy nor Senator Patrick H. McCarren would consent to the nomination of Justice Gaynor except as a last resort and as a matter of political expediency.

A person who from long association with Tammany Leader Murphy should be in a position to know, said last night that if Mr. Murphy accepted Justice Gaynor as his candidate for Mayor, it would be very much in the same spirit that he accepted William R. Hearst as the Democratic candidate for Governor in 1906.

The Democratic City Convention will be held one week after the Republicans have nominated candidates for offices on the city ticket. The question of whether or not Justice Gaynor is to be nominated by the Democrats, it was stated on good authority yesterday, will not be settled until after the Republican City Convention has been held. And then, Murphy, McCarren, and the other leaders who will be called into conference for the purpose of selecting candidates will be guided in their selection of a Mayoralty candidate very largely by the earlier action of the Republicans and by the amount of Gaynor sentiment that may have been aroused by that time.

Tammany Leader Charles F. Murphy was asked yesterday what justification there was for the statement by Justice Gaynor that he had been assured of the "unconditional nomination" from the Democratic City Convention. Mr. Murphy smiled.

"I am sure I have authorized nobody to make any such pledges to Justice Gaynor," said the Tammany leader. "Neither directly nor indirectly have I approached Justice Gaynor on the question of the Mayoralty nomination."

Mr. Murphy looked hard at the reporters as if to gauge the effect of his denial. Then he added, apparently oblivious of the touch of humor in such a statement coming from him:

"It will be for the delegates to the Democratic City Convention to determine who shall be the next candidate for Mayor on the Democratic ticket. I am not the convention."

From the Committee of One Hundred came a statement authorized by Chairman Outerbridge, which seemed to indicate that after the implied admission by Justice Gaynor of an understanding with Tammany Hall the committee was done with the Brooklyn jurist. Nevertheless, there is considerable sentiment for the Justice among members of the committee, and under the circumstances, it was said, there might be some way in which the committee could indorse his candidacy.

Chairman Outerbridge, in his statement, said:

"Our position is precisely the same as it was last Tuesday night when, as Chairman of the committee, I authorized this statement:

> As the discussion of names for Mayoralty candidates progresses in the Committee on Candidates, it is manifest that no name will be considered except that of a man who will undertake to conduct an active campaign against everything that the record of Tammany Hall stands for.

"Justice Gaynor expresses his readiness to accept a Tammany nomination—in that event will the Committee of One Hundred nominate or indorse him?" Mr. Outerbridge was asked.

"I am not prepared to talk about individual candidates at present," he replied. "I can only repeat what I have already said—the Committee of One Hundred will not consider the name of any man who may have been, or hereafter may be, affiliated in any way with Tammany Hall."

Republican State Chairman Timothy L. Woodruff was out of town yesterday, but is expected back in the city to-day.

Congressman Herbert Parsons of the Republican County Committee declined to be interviewed on the letter of Justice Gaynor, or to make any public statement, except to refer to the resolution adopted by the Republican City Convention a week ago, in which that body pledged itself to use every effort to "rid the city of Tammany misrule."

Among Republicans the letter of Justice Gaynor is regarded as an open bid for the Tammany nomination. In connection with this Republican leaders point out that Justice Gaynor aspires to greater honors; that he would merely regard the Mayoralty as a stepping stone to the Governorship or to the White House direct. To obtain such political advancement Justice Gaynor, according to the Republican construction of his attitude, must depend entirely on the Democratic organizations. For that reason, they argue, he would do nothing to offend against Tammany, if he were elected Mayor.

SUES HUSBAND FOR $20,000.

Wife Says Bonk Induced Her to Wed When He Was Already Married.

Harry Bonk was arrested by Deputy Sheriff McCourt yesterday and locked up in Ludlow Street Jail in a suit brought against him before Justice Crane in Brooklyn by Elka Bonk, his second wife, to recover $20,000 damages for false representation and deception of her.

Mrs. Bonk says she met Bonk in Poland in 1906, and that he represented himself to be a widower and asked her to marry him. She consented, and they were married on May 16, 1906.

Mrs. Bonk says she was astonished to learn later that Bonk already had a wife and several children in this country.

YESTERDAY'S FIRES.

A.M.		Loss.
1:40	57 Rutgers Street; E. Fatewiltz	Trifling
2:20	1,725 8th Avenue; Louis Abrams	$500
10:50	262 Cherry St.; Michael Famowitz	Trifling
11:30	817 Amsterdam Ave.; Daniel Reeves	Slight
P.M.
12:10	114 East 98th Street; M. Boylan	Trifling
3:40	224 West 17th Street; P. Elfina	Trifling
3:40	7 Jones Lane; Alpha Chemical Company	$45,000
4:10	1,519 2d Avenue; Shaefer Brewing Company	$500
4:35	127 Henry Street; Sam May	Trifling
7:15	324 West 77th Street; unknown	$50

USE PUBLICITY.

When you lose anything you will find that the best step toward recovery is to make public your loss. More publicity at less cost from The New York Times than from any other New York newspaper. Telephone 1000 Bryant. Your advertisement will be accepted over the telephone and bill mailed.—Adv.

JUMPS FROM BLAZING BOAT.

Holiday Party Rescued After a Ducking in Little Neck Bay.

Nine women and three men had a strenuous fight for their lives in the waters of Litttle Neck Bay about 1 o'clock yesterday morning when they leaped overboard from the blazing forty-foot motor boat Juice, which caught fire when about a mile off shore on its way to Bayside.

The boat, which had been engaged for a trip to Sea Cliff for Labor Day, was in charge of Nicholas Paulson, a navigator and engineer, and aboard it were Mrs. James McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin of Bayside, Mr. and Miss Wood of Manhattan, Mrs. McKenna, wife of Patrolman McKenna of Flushing; Mrs. Higgins of Manhattan, and Mrs. Tierney of Bayside.

While in Little Neck Bay, about a mile away from the Bayside dock, on the return trip, that part of the boat where the gasoline was stored burst into flame. The only thing to do was for all hands to jump overboard. The water was ten feet deep at that point, but all the party could swim, except Mrs. McDonald. She was kept afloat by Paulson.

In the meantime several boats put out to the assistance of the party, in one of them being Mr. Freidburger, who was at his dock waiting the return of the party. In a few minutes they were all hauled into the boats, none the worse for their adventure beyond their ducking.

CHARGES FRAUD IN DIVORCE.

F. K. Lowrie Says Wife Testified Falsely—First Test of New Law.

For the first time since the law was passed requiring a period of three months to elapse between the finding and the final signing of a divorce decree a defeated litigant has asked the Supreme Court to vacate the decree upon the ground of fraud, to prevent which the law was enacted.

Lawyer August V. Vanderpool, counsel for F. K. Lowrie, asked Justice Giegerich yesterday to grant an order compelling Mrs. Marian G. Lowrie to show cause why the divorce decree becoming operative on Sept. 11 should not be set aside upon the ground of fraud. Lowrie charged that his wife testified that she had not condoned her husband's misconduct, and that the suit was not one of connivance, whereas there had been an agreement between them about the divorce. Justice Giegerich granted the order.

F. K. Lowrie is said to have been a secretary of Charles G. Gates, while Mrs. Lowrie is a daughter of Judge F. H. Gillhooly of Elizabeth, N. J.

FORT ON ATLANTIC CITY.

Will Bring Liquor Law Evasion Before Legislature—Sunday Ball Hearing.

Special to The New York Times.

TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 7.—Vice Chancellor Walker reserved decision to-day after hearing affidavits for and against Sunday baseball in Atlantic City.

Counsel for the ball players brought into court forty-seven affidavits made by property owners in the vicinity of the ball park declaring that only when the wind was toward them from the field could they hear any noise, and that the noise was never annoying.

It was further shown that no intoxicants were sold on the grounds, and that in no case had there been any disorder at the games. On the other hand, seven owners of property near the ball park held that, as cards were passed around asking the audience not to shout or applaud to excess at the games, it was evident to the proprietor and manager that the game was annoying to some one. They contended that, while the noise might not be annoying on week days, it certainly was annoying on Sundays.

Gov. Fort gave out a statement here to-day with respect to the Sunday closing war in Atlantic City. The Governor said he intended to bring the matter before the Legislature next Winter. The Governor said he was annoyed over the situation in Atlantic City, and added that his view of the matter is in harmony with the steps taken by Attorney General Wilson. Continuing he said: "Flagrant violations of the law and open defiance of all authority in Atlantic City and County is an object lesson to the people of the State."

AUTOS CRASH; WOMAN HURT.

Two Machines Collide at a Junction of Roads Near Morristown.

Special to The New York Times.

MORRISTOWN, N. J., Sept. 7.—Two automobiles et at the junction of the Morristown road and the Turnpike today and Mrs. Tole of Brooklyn, who, with her son and daughter, were in one car, was thrown to the roadside. She was unable to rise from the ground, and when assisted to Dr. Cooper's home it was found that she had broken her shoulder bone.

She was able to go home by train, the son remaining to superintend the re moval of the car, which was badly damaged. The occupants of the car were Mr. and Mrs. Tel Schreiber of Highland Avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy A. Johnson of Jefferson Road, and Philip L. Smith of Park Place, Short Hills.

The accident was caused by the Brooklyn driver crashing into the rear wheel of the Short Hills car. The occupants of the latter machine were not hurt, but the vehicle was put out of commission and the party returned home by train.

Woman Made Insane by a Blow.

Through the arraignment in the Manhattan Avenue Court, Williamsburg, yesterday, of Valentine Meschler, a machinist of 241 Melrose Street, on a charge of assault, it became known that his victim, Mrs. Lizzie Geis of the same address, had became insane as the result of the attack upon her. The woman, who is 32 years old, became involved in an argument with Meschler, and he struck her on the head with a pitcher. Her skull was fractured. Meschler was remanded until to-morrow.

Broker Mansfield Again Accused.

James H. Mansfield, the founder of J. H. Mansfield & Co., stock brokers, who has been more than once arrested on charges of defrauding and deceiving his clients, was arrested yesterday in a suit brought against him by Charles Hubbell to recover $2,800, which Hubbell asserts he gave Mansfield between March and August, 1905, to purchase certain stocks, but which he alleges Mansfield converted to his own uses and then fled. Mansfield went to jail in default of $2,500 bail.

BRONX ALDERMEN BALLOT IN VAIN

Take Two Votes on Haffen's Successor and Then Adjourn Until To-morrow.

SEVEN NOMINATIONS MADE

Leader Murphy Opposed to a Saloon Keeper and Alderman Murphy—Possible Deadlock Till Election Day.

The Bronx Aldermen met yesterday afternoon at City Hall to select a man to fill out the unexpired term of former Borough President Haffen, recently removed by the Governor, but, as was expected, failed to elect. There were seven nominations from the eight Aldermen, Thomas J. Mulligan being the only member of the delegation who refrained from placing a name before the meeting. He voted for County Register Gass, who was nominated by Alderman Corbett. Mr. Gass thus received two votes to one each for the other contestants. After two ballots, the second being identical with the first, a recess was taken until to-morrow afternoon, it being realized that no election could be made until the matter had been thrashed out more thoroughly.

The other nominees were Thomas J. Higgins of the Board of Education, Joseph P. Hennessy, Assistant Deputy Register and former secretary to Mr. Haffen; James F. O'Brien, President of the Tammany organization club of the Thirty-third Assembly District, of which Michael J. Garvin is leader; former Alderman Harnishfeger, Frank A. Spencer, Secretary of the Municipal Civil Service Commission, and John J. Hynes, a Bronx lawyer.

While Register Gass received two votes with the aid of Alderman Mulligan, who cannot be called a strict Tammany organization man, none of these candidates, with the exception of Mr. Higgins, is considered as being at all likely to succeed to Mr. Haffen's place. Alderman Murphy is known to be the choice of the Bronx delegation, and he could have been elected easily yesterday had the Aldermen and their leaders been willing to proceed against the expressed wishes of Leader Charles F. Murphy of Tammany Hall. The situation has been bothering the Tammany leaders for many days, and the fact that Mr. Haffen's successor was not elected yesterday caused no surprise around City Hall. The delegation is not, however, split up in the manner in which the vote yesterday would indicate. The deadlock was arranged at a caucus before the meeting, when the last moment arrived without a decision as to just what would be done.

Tammany Against Alderman Murphy.

Leader Murphy is believed not to have insisted on the election of any particular person, but to have left the matter strictly to the leaders of the Bronx to decide for themselves after having delivered his ultimatum. His chief objection to Alderman Murphy is the same which he raised against Eugene McGuire when his name was mentioned for the place some time ago, that he is a saloon keeper, and that his election to the Borough Presidency might displease and alienate the independent element in the Bronx, and consequently hurt the Tammany vote in the borough in the coming election. Naturally the Bronx leaders do not care to oppose Mr. Murphy at this time, for in so doing they would lose the "recognition" which they would otherwise receive on the city and county tickets this Fall.

A Possible Deadlock.

The whole situation will be gone over many times before the Aldermen meet again to-morrow, and it is possible that an election will take place at that time. If not a rather interesting situation will arise. Mayor McClellan expressed himself yesterday as doubtful as to just what course he could pursue. The charter provides for the calling of the Aldermen together on such occasions, but does not say that an election must take place. The Mayor is empowered to vote only in case of a tie. The charter provides penalties for the refusal of the Aldermen to perform the duties required of them, and in times past writs of mandamus have been issued by the courts to compel them to act. The present case is peculiar, it being possible for the courts to compel an Alderman to vote, but hardly reasonable that they would undertake to designate whom he should select as his candidate. In this way the deadlock might be carried on indefinitely, or until the borough convention and the nomination of a new Borough President. It is understood that this way out of the difficulty would not displease Leader Murphy.

Bronx Aldermen Praise Haffen.

Leader Murphy had a long conference with the Aldermen and leaders just after noon, which was followed by a caucus at the Hall. The deadlock was then arranged after a letter to Mr. Haffen, drawn up by Alderman Brown, expressing the confidence of the delegation in the deposed Borough President, was read and signed by the eight Aldermen.

The Bronx Central Committee of the Citizens' Union issued the following statement on the situation later in the day:

"The proceedings of the Bronx Aldermen yesterday afternoon, meeting to elect a successor to former Borough President Haffen, was plainly a sparring for time. They find themselves in a dilemma, and that dilemma plainly is whether or not they dare to put in the office the kind of man they actually want. Were they not fearful of the result in November, there is little question that Haffen's successor would be A. H. Murphy, saloon keeper, Alderman, and Tammany district leader, who, with Eugene McGuire, another saloon keeper, and Tammany Hall district leader, can control a majority of the Bronx Aldermen.

"While the Aldermen and district leaders are attempting to solve this difficult question of just how much the Bronx will stand for, it behooves decent citizens generally to remember that the election of a Tammany district leader to the Borough Presidency means a repetition of the Haffen régime, or worse. The following are the Aldermen who have to decide this question, and whose actions during the next few days every Bronx voter should carefully observe:

"Thirty-fourth—James W. Brown, no occupation, formerly a plumber.

"Thirty-fifth—Thomas J. Mulligan, paternmaker.

"Thirty-sixth—William P. Corbett, no occupation, formerly in Park Department.

"Thirty-seventh—John J. Hickey, saloon keeper.

"Thirty-eighth—Arthur H. Murphy, saloon keeper.

"Thirty-ninth—Edward V. Handy, contractor.

"Fortieth—Frederick C. Hochdorffer, saloon keeper.

"Forty-first—Matthew J. Crowley, no occupation, formerly a plumber."

TUNNEL ORDINANCE PASSED.

Five Cents Fare Clause Omitted by Jersey City's Street Board.

At yesterday afternoon's meeting of the Jersey City Board of Street and Water Commissioners an ordinance was passed by a unanimous vote granting the Hudson & Manhattan Railroad Company the right to extend its system west under Railroad Avenue, and providing for the leasing of three parcels of land in city streets required by the company as a part of a storage yard for trains, and for openings to the proposed tunnel station in Railroad Avenue, between Henderson and Grove Streets.

The plots include a strip of sidewalk in Railroad Avenue, between Warren and Henderson Streets; a triangular area of 315 square feet under the Pennsylvania Railroad trestle at Newark Avenue and Henderson Street, and a small plot in Grove Street. The ordinance stipulates that the tunnel company shall pay an annual rental of $1,114.64 for a period of fifteen years, with the right of renewal.

The Commissioners did not obey the expressed wishes of Mayor H. Otto Wittpenn by inserting a clause in the ordinance providing that the tunnel company must promise to exact no more than a five-cent fare from the proposed Summit Avenue, or hill, station to any point in Manhattan. City Collector Robert Davis, leader of the County Democracy, recently went on record in favor of a ten-cent tunnel fare. He said that the Jersey City merchants would lose a great deal of trade if local patrons were able to reach any part of New York City for 5 cents.

Mayor Wittpenn will send a message to the Street and Water Board disapproving the ordinance in its present form, and the Commissioners will pass it over his veto. Unofficial promises are said to have been made that the tunnel company will not charge more than a five-cent fare.

GIVES SKIN TO SAVE CHILD.

Mother Will Be Scarred for Life, but Daughter Has Recovered.

Genevieve Heffron, the four-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis H. Heffron of 293 New Street, Newark, N. J., who was so badly burned on July 5 that it was said she could not recover, is nearly well because of the sacrifice her mother made for her.

Mrs. Heffron insisted on accompanying the child to the City Hospital after she had been burned by a sparker, and when physicians said that skin-grafting alone would save the little girl Mrs. Heffron insisted that the cuticle be taken from her. This was done, although the operation made the mother an inmate of the hospital for many weeks, and means that she will be badly scarred for the rest of her life.

The child's recovery is said to be complete, and because of her youth and her mother's sacrifice the marks of the accident upon her will be slight.

A SERENADER'S TRIALS.

Coolly Received by an Unsympathetic Judge After Hearing the Voice.

Joseph Kerociwicz of Newark, N. J., appeared before Judge Herr in Newark yesterday with a seltzer siphon in his hand and his head bandaged, demanding judiciary relief because some one had thrown the siphon at him with effect while he was serenading a young woman in Beacon Street on Monday night.

"Is your singing voice better than your conversational tones?" Judge Herr asked.

"No-o. Bot' ver' good," the man replied.

"I'm afraid the action was justifiable," said Judge Herr, "but if you find the man who didn't like your singing I'll entertain a complaint."

IN NEW JERSEY.

The total valuation of all property subject to taxation in Essex County is $485,601,178, according to revised figures issued yesterday by the Board of Equalization of that county. This is an increase of $42,750,872 over the valuation of last year. Essex County includes Newark, all of the Oranges, Montclair, Bloomfield, Irvington, Verona, Caldwell, Nutley, Belleville, and other smaler places.

Overcrowded conditions in Newark public schools, which open Monday, will necessitate half-day sessions in nine of the sixty-five schools of the city. Additional structures are being prepared in order to relieve this difficulty.

Montclair will in all probability be the home of Gov. Fort a great part of the coming Winter. Gov. Fort, with his wife and daughter, were there within the last few days as guests at the Hotel Montclair, and the Governor made tentative arrangements for stopping at the hotel during the Winter months. Gov. Fort sold his East Orange home several months ago, and his residence since has been at Spring Lake.

By order of Gov. Fort an order has been issued by Adjt. Gen. Sadler retiring Brig. Gen. Joseph H. Brensinger of the First Brigade. This was done on Gen. Brensinger's application.

Richard Donegan, who killed Mrs. Madge Kinkle and Joseph Somersfield at Bivalve, Cumberland County, died in the electric chair at Trenton last night. He was a cripple, and had to be supported to the electric chair.

Miss Holbrook Fined $10 for Speeding.

Miss Helen Holbrook only shrugged her shoulders and remarked, "I'm glad it's over," when she was fined $10 yesterday by City Judge Beall of Yonkers for automobile speeding. She is a daughter of the late Harry Holbrook, the glass manufacturer, and is a type of the athletic girl being an expert tennis and golf player. She admitted that she was speeding, but denied she drove her machine as fast as thirty miles, as charged.

METZ HOME WILLING TO RUN FOR MAYOR

"Not Looking for Office, but If It Comes My Way I Shall Be Right There."

BIG WELCOME DOWN THE BAY

Controller Met by 1,500 Friends—Hopes for $113,000,000 More Margin on City's Debt Limit.

Fifteen hundred Brooklynites and employes of the Department of Finance went down the bay on a chartered steamboat yesterday morning to meet Controller Metz, who arrived on the Kronprinzessin Cecilie, and with bands, badges, flags, and bunting gave him a reception such as seldom before has been accorded a city official returning from his vacation.

There were few politicians in the crowd, but those present made it very manifest that it would not displease them if Mr. Metz became the next Mayor of the city. The Controller fell in with the idea, too, and declared when the matter was put to him bluntly that if the people desire to call him he will not change his address.

Mr. Metz has been away for nearly two months. He spent most of the time at his plant at Frankfort and in Berlin, with a short stay in London. He talked interestingly of European affairs, particularly of the British budget and transportation matters. He said that among the many Americans he met in London was Chairman Wilcox of the Public Service Commission, and that they were both impressed with the superiority of New York over London in transit.

"As far as I could find out," said he, "London and Paris, and practically all the other big European cities, are head over heels in debt and are in more or less of a hole for improvements in transit. We bewail the situation here at home, but the New Yorkers with a grievance ought to live in one of these cities, where the tax rate is much higher than it ever was here and the liabilities of the City Governments swelled right up to their valuation."

The Controller spoke emphatically in favor of the proposed constitutional amendment to exempt self-supporting Subway and dock securities from the computation of the debt limit, declaring that if adopted it would release $113,000,000.

As Willing as Barkis.

The Controller was not anxious to talk politics, declaring that he was not in touch with the situation. He was worked around to the Mayoralty question after a while, however, and spoke highly of Justice Gaynor's letter. He was then asked flatly if he is a candidate.

"Easy now," he replied. "Wait until I have been offered a nomination. Then who can tell what I might do? But seriously, I love this old city of ours, and if there is anything I can do for it, I am right where I can be found. You can depend upon it that I will be in the campaign from the start to the finish, whether I am a candidate or not.

"I like politics, and I am going to stay right in politics. If the people want me to run for any office I will do the best I can if elected to give them just the kind of administration they want and are entitled to. I am not looking for any office, but if it comes my way I shall be right there."

The Controller was taken off the Cecilie at Quarantine at 7 o'clock on the tug John J. Timmins, which had been chartered by a committee of friends and admirers, headed by Deputy Controller McCooey. The big crowd left the Battery at 9 o'clock on the Iron Steamboat Company's Sirius. The ship was laden down with enthusiastic Metz boomers, two bands, bushels of badges, flags, and megaphones, and a carload of liquid refreshments. The Timmins lay down the bay until she was picked up by the Sirius just below Quarantine at 10 o'clock. The Controller and others were then taken on board.

New York Looks Good to Him.

Former Congressman Howe, Chairman of the Reception Committee, introduced Nathaniel H. Levi, President of the Broadway Board of Trade, who made a short speech of welcome, in which he praised the Controller for the manner in which he has managed his office, and declared that he is worthy "of the highest gift in the power of the people of the city."

Mr. Metz replied briefly: "I thank you all most sincerely for this welcome. I haven't much to say, except Little Old New York looks good to me."

The Sirius sailed down the bay to Coney Island Point, with more singing and shouting, and then came back up the harbor, docking at the Battery at noon. Before leaving the boat the Controller presented the diminutive leader of one of the bands, which was from a Brooklyn orphan asylum, with a twenty-mark piece, which he had brought over with him. The crowd escorted the Controller across Battery Place to a Broadway car, on which he proceeded at once to his office, in the Stewart Building.

Among the more prominent men who were on the Sirius were S. F. Rosenthal of Abraham & Straus, Gilbert Elliott, President of the Allied Subway Association; Judge James J. McInerney, Alderman, Colgan, Henry A. Meyer, President of the Jamaica Bay Improvement Association; Andrew T. Sullivan, President of the Nassau Trust Company; William Schneider, President of the Retail Butchers' Association; J. T. Warner of Tiffany & Co., Elwin S. Piper, President of the Allied Boards of Trade; George Spence, President of the People's National Bank; George W. Hanna, President of the Stuyvesant Board of Trade; Owen Finnerty, President of the Thirty-first Ward Board of Trade; Jared J. Chambers, President of the Twenty-eighth Ward Taxpayers' Association; Nelson B. Killmer, President of the Smith Street Board of Trade; James M. Doremus, President of the Gravesend Board of Trade; J. W. Masters, Commodore of the Belle Harbor Yacht Club; Edward R. Gilman, President of the Waterway League; Paul Ajas, President of the Ridgewood Board of Trade; George J. Vestner, Commodore of the Colonial Yacht Club; John N. Booth, President of the Jamaica Business Men's Association, and Henry Lohman, President of the United Retail Grocers' Association.

To Confer on Bronx Sewage Suit.

Attorney General O'Malley has written to Special Assistant Attorney General Hugh Gordon of 220 Broadway informing him that he has communicated with the Commissioners of the Bronx River Valley Sewer, and their attorney with a view to arranging a conference in Albany on next Tuesday. The Government is suing to prevent the discharge of untreated and unscreened sewage into the Hudson from the Bronx River tunnel sewer.

KILLED MOTHER; CONFESSE

Paper Left by Suicide Says He H Intended to Kill Father, Too.

POTTSVILLE, Penn., Sept. 7.—A confession written by George Simon, Jr., who committed suicide in the presence of his sweetheart here last week after the discovery that his mother had been murdered, was found to-day. It shows that he killed his mother and that he intended to kill his father.

Simon in the confession says that he killed his mother by shooting her through the head in order to conceal the fact that he had been systematically robbing her and his father since he was 10 years old until they, unknown to themselves, had not a cent in the world. The confession adds that he intended to kill his father with a hatchet while he slept and then saturate the building with oil and conceal his crime by setting the house on fire.

The confession further says he entered his father's room several nights after the killing of his mother, but his father was awakened and ordered the youth from his room.

"After the killing of my sainted mother," the confession says, "I repented and tried to consecrate my soul to God, and it was then that I determined to spare my father's life and take my own."

He went to Blerdsboro, Penn., to see his sweetheart, Miss Viola Hartranft of Pottsville, who was visiting there, and to bid her farewell before shooting himself, the confession concludes. His courage evidently failed, and he returned to Pottsville with the girl.

Old Burglar Sentenced to Shoplifting

William Morton, 72 years old, at one time notorious in police circles as a cracksman and burglar, was sentenced yesterday by Justice Mayo in Special Sessions to serve one year in the penitentiary for stealing fifteen pairs of women's stockings from a Sixth Avenue department store. In the course of his criminal career Morton has served fourteen terms in prison. Morton was formerly a member of an organized body of thieves, which robbed in rural districts. Several years ago he began to devote himself to shoplifting.

Wallach's Hats

240 Broadway.
603 Broadway.
1195 Broadway.
238-242 Bowery.
647 Eighth Avenue.
3d Avenue and 122d St.
246 W. 125th St.

AGENCIES EVERYWHERE

WANT a becoming hat?
Then come to our nearest store.
There's a hat there that will become you well and that will give you more real satisfaction for your money than ever you knew before.

Wallach's Hats $3.00 and $2.00 — Stetson's Hats $3.50 and $5.00

THE CLOTHS IN OUR $25

Suitings and Overcoatings are very tempting—all the latest styles. We purchased them long before the advance in woolens and give our customers the full benefit.

Samples forwarded to any address with our Portfolio of Fashion.

ARNHEIM, Broadway & 9th St.

HIPPODROME 6th Av., 43d-44th Sts. Daily Mats. at 2. Best Seats $1. Evs. 8, 25c. to $1.50. A TRIP TO JAPAN | INSIDE THE EARTH | BALLET OF JEWELS. 12 Circus Acts—Tribe of Fighting Maoris.

MAXINE ELLIOTT'S THEATRE 39th n'r B'way. $1.50 Mat. To-day. 2:15. Evs. 8:15. CHARLES RICHMAN in THE REVELERS.

MAJESTIC B'way & 59th St. Evs. at 8:15. $1.00 Matinee To-day at 2:15. GUY BATES POST in THE BRIDGE

DALY'S B'way & 30th. Evgs. 8:30. $1.50 MAT. TO-DAY 2:30. A Toothsome, Toothless Comedy, Entitled BILLY

LYRIC 42d St., W. of B'way. Evgs. 8:15. MATINEE SATURDAY, 2.15. Last Week MON. THE MOTOR GIRL. WHITNEY OPERA CO. in | Seat Sale Sep. 13 | THE CHOCOLATE SOLDIER | Tm'w.

Lew Fields's HERALD SQ. Evs. 8:15. Mat. To-day $1.50. A BROKEN IDOL with Otis Harlan

LINCOLN SQ. B'way & 66th. Evgs. 8:15. $1.00 MAT. TO-DAY 2:15. CLYDE FITCH'S GIRLS

YORKVILLE East 86th St. Evs. 8:15. Mat. To-day 2:15. The RINGMASTER

COMEDY 41st, Bet. B'way & 6th Av. Evs. 8:15. Mats. To-day & Sat. 2:15. Walker Whiteside In ISRAEL ZANGWILL'S Play, THE MELTING POT

"A Great Play, Mr. Zangwill! I Do Not Know When I Have Seen a Play That Stirred Me As Much." —THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

READ THIS ADVERTISEMENT OF "THE MELTING POT" IN NEXT SUNDAY'S PAPER.

HACKETT Thea., W. 42d St. Ev. 8:2). Matinee To-morrow 2:20. "SUCH A LITTLE QUEEN"

BROADWAY Thea. 41st & B'way. Evgs. 8:15. $1.00 MAT. TO-DAY 2:15. THE MIDNIGHT SONS

CASINO B'way & 39th. Evs. 8:15. $1.50 MAT. TO-DAY 2:15. JAMES T. POWERS in HAVANA

West End 125th, W. of 8th Av. Evs. 8:15. $1.00 MAT. TO-DAY 2:15. Clyde Fitch's Greatest Success THE BLUE MOUSE

METROPOLIS 142d St. & 3d Av. Evs. 8:15. Mat. To-day 2:15. The WATCHING HOUR

MANHATTAN OPERA HOUSE, 34th St. & 8th Av. OSCAR HAMMERSTEIN.....Director. PRELIMINARY SEASON, GRAND OPERA IN FRENCH & ITALIAN. POPULAR PRICES 50c. to $2.00.

TO-NIGHT at 8—PROPHET, with Mme. D'Alvarez, M. Lucas and regular cast. Conductor, Sturani.

THURS. at 8—THE JEWESS, (in French,) with Mmes. Eva Grippon, Walter-Villa, MM. Duffault, Russo, Laskin, Villa, De Grasia. Conductor, Nicosia.

FRI. at 8—RIGOLETTO, with Mme. Lalla Miranda; MM. Carasa, William Beck, Scott. Conductor, Sturani.

SAT. MAT at 2—CARMEN, with Mme. Sylva; M. Lucas and usual cast.

SAT. at 8—THE JEWESS, (Thursday's cast.)

SUND. 8:30—GRAND POPULAR CONCERT —NEXT WEEK—

MON.—AIDA. Miles. Baron, Soyer; MM. Carasa, Beck, Scott. Conductor, Sturani.

TUES.—CARMEN. Mme. Marguerite Sylva; M. Lucas, usual cast. Cond., Sturani.

WED.—TOSCA. Mme. Marguerite Sylva; MM. Carasa, Nicolay. Cond., Sturani.

THURS.—TRAVIATA. Mme. Miranda; MM. di Bernardo, Beck. Cond., Nicosia.

FRI.—DOUBLE BILL. Mme. Marguerite Sylva in CAVALLERIA, with M. Lucas, and in PAGLIACCI, with M. Carasa; M. Beck in both operas. Cond., Sturani.

SAT. MAT.—THE JEWESS. Mme. Grippon; M. Duffault and regular cast. Cond., Nicosia.

SAT. EVE.—CARMEN. Mme. Marguerite Sylva; MM. Lucas, Beck. Cond., Nicosia.

Next Week's Sale Opens To-morrow 9 A. M.

GRAND Geo. M. Only Mat. Sat. COHAN And His Royal Family. THE YANKEE PRINCE.

ASTOR B'way & 45th. 2nd Year. WM. HODGE. Mats. Wed. & Sat. 2:15. THE MAN FROM HOME. POPULAR MAT. TO-DAY 50c.-$1.50.

WALLACK'S. Evs. 8.15. Pop. Mat. To-day. THE DOLLAR-MARK, by Geo. Broadhurst

BIJOU B'way & 30th. Mat. To-day & Sat. A GENTLEMAN FROM MISSISSIPPI

THE BELASCO STUYVESANT 44th St., nr. B'way. Evs 8:15. Mat. Sat. 2:15. FRANCES STARR in THE EASIEST WAY.

BELASCO THEATRE, W. 42d St. Evs. 8:15. Matinees To-day & Sat. 2:15. IS MATRIMONY A FAILURE?

AMERICAN MUSIC HALL. Eves. 8:15. Daily Mats. 25-50c. JOE WELCH, DIVINE MYRMA & 3 DUE SISTERS, KATE ELINORE, McKENZIE & SHANNON, 18 ROMANY SINGERS, others.

AMERICAN in WINTER GARDEN. Every Eve. 8:15. LAST WEEK. THE ONLY LAW Matinee To-morrow, 50c & $1.

FELTMAN'S (CONEY ISLAND) OLD FASHIONED CLAMBAKE, $1.25. Served from noon to midnight. Service a la carte. NEW, Deutsche Garten.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC. A Season of GRAND OPERA by the Italian Grand Opera Co. Prices 50c. to $1.50. Mat. Today, La Boheme. Evening, Il Trovatore. THURSDAY EVENING.....RIGOLETTO

COLONIAL Mat. Daily, 25c. Camille Ober, Minnie Dupree & Co., Great Leon, Gruber's Animals, Palace Girls, oth'a.

ALHAMBRA Mat. Daily, 25c. Carrie De Mar, The Sicilian Singers, Hotel Laughland, Kalmer & Brown, others.

NORTH BEACH, L. I. GRAND CARNIVAL TO-DAY NIGHT

KEITH & PROCTOR'S 5TH AVE. 28th St. B'way. Mat. Daily, 25 & 50. Charmion, Nat M. Wills, Maurice Freeman & Co., Bertie Herron & Co., others.

HAMMERSTEIN'S VICTORIA. Eve. 25c. to 75c.-$1.00. Daily Mat. 25c. Special—MME. DISS DEBAR, "The Third Degree." Simon & Gardner, James Harrigan, etc.

NEW BRIGHTON THEATRE JULIE RING & CO., Gus Edwards's NIGHT BIRDS, Hanlons, Kennedy & Roone, Lillian Ashley; others.

EDEN MUSEE WORLD IN WAX. Gypsy Music. CINEMATOGRAPH Every Hour. WRIGHT Brothers, Kings of the Air.

OLYMPIC East 14th St. Mat. To-day. ROSE HILL CO.

MURRAY HILL THEA. Mat. To-day. Smoking. RIALTO ROUNDERS.

CONEY ISLAND.

BRIGHTON BEACH PARK. Always Cool. 1 Mile Open Beach. PAIN'S BATTLE IN THE CLOUDS and GRAND FIREWORKS NIGHTLY

LUNA PARK. INDIAN SUMMER CARNIVAL

STEEPLECHASE. Coney's Funniest, Cleanest, and Busiest Place. Fun Carnival until October.

Kaiser-Garten Opp. Steeplechase. Highest-class concert every afternoon and evening. Salzer-Tilly and others. Restaurant a la carte. Garage.

GREATER DREAMLAND. EVERYTHING NEW BUT THE OCEAN

NEW YORK'S LEADING THEATRES AND SUCCESSES.

EMPIRE B'way & 40th St. Evs., 8:15. Matinee Saturday 2:15. TWO WEEKS ONLY. JOHN DREW in JACK STRAW. Sept. 21, MR. DREW, in "Inconstant George."

Knickerbocker B'way, 38th St. Ev. at 8. Mat. Sat. at 2. "A Merry Widow Hit."—World. The Dollar Princess

HUDSON 44th St., nr. B'way. Ev., 8:15. Mats. To-day & Sat. 2:15. "Rollicking comedy, roaringly funny."—Times. "Sprightly performance. Attractive."—Sun. "Created laughter and happiness."—American. "A home of fun."—Telegraph. An American Widow

GARRICK 35th St., nr. B'way. Ev. 8:15. Matinees Saturday, 2:15. Hattie Williams DETECTIVE SPARKES

CRITERION B'way, 44th St. Ev. 8:15. Mat. To-day & Sat. 2:15. The Breezy, Jolly Naval Play THE FLAG LIEUTENANT

LYCEUM 45th St., nr. B'way. Evs. at 8:15. Mat. To-morrow & Sat. 2:15. The Detective-Thief Play, Arsene Lupin

New Amsterdam THEATRE, 42 St., West of B'way. Evs. 8:15. Mat. TO-DAY. Best Seats $1.50. HENRY W. SAVAGE OFFERS THE LOVE CURE. A Mus